The venerable ex-Governor Owsley, of Kentucky, said the other day, in the most emphatic manner: "I will be the last man in Kentucky to leave the Union, and when every other man has done so, I will seize the flag of my country and claim it for my own."

ENGLAND AND THE COTTON PRODUCT.—A Southern planter, recently arrived from Europe, a man of standing and of extensive information, says, as per a letter just received from a friend in New York:

"Mr.——says that England will not lend the South a dollar, and France cannot if she would. He says we have no idea of the energy with which England is prosecuting the cultivation of cotton in India and Australia. In India twenty-six millions of acres are under cultivation for this purpose. As a planter he felt interested in investigating the subject. He says that in much less than ten years she will need no cotton from America. Why will not the South see this?

Jackson, who assassinated Col. Ellsworth, was the cannibal who cut off a piece of John Brown's ear, after he was hung, and chewed it. It is also a remarkable fact that nearly all who engaged in the pageantry of the proceedings attending the execution of Brown, have either met violent deaths, or become insane.

COLUMBIA.

BY THE BARD OF THE EASTON HALL OF FASHION.

Since sixteen hundred twenty,
When a little pilgrim band,
In the dreary winter season
On Columbia's shore did land—
We've become a mighty nation,
Our banner is unfurled
From masts in every harbor
In the whole enlightened world.

Large thriving towns, and cities,
Are scattered far and wide,
And on our many rivers
The whizzing steamships ride;
From all commercial countries
Vessels anchor on this shore,
And into this great hive produce
From every country pour.

If we pass from Maine to Oregon
At that point take our stand,
"Trace the resources, and extent"
Of this great favored land—
We can read a glorious future
In that extensive view,
If to our country's int'rests
Her sons prove brave and true.

Then will the deep'ning shadows,
The dark and threat'ning cloud,
Which now our beauteous country
So fearfully enshroud—
Give place to peace and comfort,
Each face wear a glad smile
Like that seen on the countenance
Of man, when decked by Pyle.

A splendid lot of Spring and Summer Goods at Pyle's Easton Hall of Fashion, opposite the old Easton Bank.

DIED.

In Stroud township, on the 11th ult, Susan, wife of John S. Van Vliet, aged 54 years, 3 months and 24 days.

We had the pleasure of being well acquainted with the deceased. She was a kind and amiable lady, beloved by all her acquaintances. Her departure is severely felt, especially by her friends and relatives. In her death they will mourn the loss of a kind friend and neighbor. In her latter days she expressed a readiness and willingness to die.

Dearest mother thou hast left us,
And thy loss we deeply feel:
But tis God who has bereft us—
He can all our sorrows heal. *
