WRIT.

No. 22 NOVEMBER TERM, 1860.

William Shipman vs. Abraham Sarvis, Executor of the last will and testament of Harman Shipman, deceased, with notice to Susan Shipman, widow of said deceased; Mary Sarvis, daughter of said deceased, and her husband Abraham Sarvis; John Weiser husband of Lydia Weiser, deceased, who was a daughter of said deceased and John Weiser and Thomas Benton Weiser, sons of said Lydia Weiser, deceased, and William Shipman son of said deceased, all heirs and legal representatives of said Harman Shipman, deceased, terre-tenents.

NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY, SS.

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Sheriff of Northumberland county, GREETING:

Whereas, William Shipman, plaintiff, lately [L. S.] in our Court of Common Pleas for the county aforesaid, before the Judges of the same Court at Sunbury, to wit: 22d day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, by the judgment of the same Court, did recover against Abraham Sarvis, executor of the last will and testament of Harman Shipman, deceased, as well and certain debt of one hundred and ninety-six dollars and eight cents, as also eight dollars and sixty eight cents, costs, whereof the said defendant is convicted, &c., as appears of record, &c.

Yet the execution of the said judgment remaineth to be made as on the information of the said plaintiff, we have been given to understand; Wherefore the said plaintiff besought us to provide for him a proper remedy is this behalf, and because we are willing, that those things that in our same Court are rightly acted, should be brought to do execution: We command you, that justly and without delay by good and lawful men of your bailiwick, you make known to the said defendant, that he be and appear before our Judges at Sunbury, at our Court of Common Pleas, there to be held the first Monday of November next, to shew cause if any he has why the said judgment should not be revived post annum et diem and to continue lien for five years and also why the said plaintiff, execution against him, according to the form and effect of the recovery aforesaid, ought not to have, and further to do and receive all and whatever our said Court shall consider in that behalf—And have you then and there this writ. EVANS & WATSON'S
Philadelphia Manufact'd
Salamander Safes.
No. 304 Chesnut Street,
PHILADELPHIA.

THESE Safes are now in use all over the United States, and have been tested in many fires; the following shows another instance of their capability in resisting fire:

WITMER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Township, July 30, 1860.

MESSRS. EVANS & WATSON,—Gentlemen:—The small size No. 1 Salamander Safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr Adam R. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 4th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. The Safe, containing all my books, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill, which was destroyed on the night fo the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The Safe was on the second floor, and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the Safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders, a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from me.

Yours, respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK.

Another Victory for Evans and Watson's Salamander Safe.

OSWEGO, N. Y., March 27 1860.

Gentlemen—It affords me much pleasure to inform you that the Safe No. 5, (upright) which I purchased of B. Stroud, your traveling agent, has passed through an exceedingly hot fire in a three story brick building, which heated the Safe to a white heat, so that the corners of it appear melted; but it preserved my books and valuable papers to the amount of several thousand dollars, for which I feel thankful.

Yours, respectfully, J. N. ELDRIDGE.

☞ A large assortment of the above SAFES always on hand, at 304 Chesnut street, (late 21 South Fourth st., Philadelphia.

They are offered as premiums to those who make up clubs of 10 to 100 subscribers for the AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST, according to the cost of the article desired. No such liberal and easily obtained premiums have ever before been offered, and it is only done now, because the publisher wishes to raise the subscription of the twentieth annual volume to a round 100,000. The price of the paper is only $1 a year, or 90 cents when in clubs of ten or more, and almost any person can in a single neighborhood, readily make up a club, large enough to secure one of one, any one of the above articles, and that may be desired. (The papers for a club of subscribers may be sent to several different Post Offices.) Over 1600 persons have received one or more of the above premiums from the AGRICULTURIST during two years past, and with universal satisfaction.

The AGRICULTURIST has been before the public for 19 years, and has subscribers at most of the Post Offices in the United States. Its present regular readers number more than 60,000. It is, therefore, so well known, that little need be said here respecting its high and valuable character.

☞ Any person yet unacquainted with it, or any one desiring a specimen copy for raising a club, will be supplied free of charge by sending his name and P. O. to the Publisher.

The Agriculturist needs only to be seen to be appreciated. It is especially adapted to the Farm, Garden and Household, and contains a vast number of practical hints, and much reliable information, useful to every one who cultivates a foot of ground, and to every housewife in the land. The 32 double quarto pages in every number, give ample space for the discussion of all Farm, Garden and Household matters; and in addition, a highly useful, instructive and entertaining department for Girls and Boys; it is therefore the most complete and desirable Family Magazine in the country; and owing to its large circulation, the publisher is able to furnish it at a lower price than even journals of inferior size and character. Every annual volume contains $2,000 to $3,000 worth of pleasing and instructive engravings, many of them of large size.

☞ Those who know the Agriculturist will bear out the above assertions, and those who do not should send for a copy, which will cost them nothing but writing for it to the Publisher.
