SUNBURY, PA.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1865.

Local Affairs.

☞ Miss M. L. Gessler, has just opened her fall and winter stock of Millinery Goods. Ladies will be suited at her store, as she keeps a large assortment of the best quality of Bonnets, Hats Trimings &c.

☞ The brick of the new Court House is about finished, and the heavy rafters are all in place, ready for the sheeting, upon which the slating will be fastened. On Wednesday the frame work, 40 feet high was placed on the brick work of the north west tower, which is about 58 feet high.

☞ A special train bound on a pleasure trip to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, and came up on Wednesday afternoon over the Northern Central road. On board we observed the President, Superintendent, Engineer and Directors of the road, with their families.

☞ NARROW ESCAPE.—On Tuesday Mr. Daniel Haas was struck on the head with a piece of scantling that fell from the upper scaffold at the new court house. The edge of the timber just grazed his forehead, taking away the skin to the bone, but doing no serious injury.

☞ SORGHAM MOLASSES.—Mr A. J. Sarch has been engaged the past week making this molasses from the sorghum or cane raised by himself. The molasses is a good article. Mr. Sarch intends to engage in the business, and is well prepared with machinery for the purpose.

☞ The election in this county resulted in the election of C. W. Tharp, Esq., of Milton, for Assembly; John Farnsworth, for Treasurer; Jeremiah Snyder, for District Attorney; John Eckman, for Commissioner; Cyrus Gensey, for Coroner; Philip Frederick, for Surveyor; Henry K. Culp, for Auditor.

☞ ESCAPED OF PRISONERS.—Several prisoners confined in the jail for stealing, escaped on Monday night by breaking through the wall. Edward B. Rhodes, who has been convicted for the murder of Mrs. Chamberlain, and is now waiting for a new trial, refused to leave, but got out of the hole, went to the front and gave the alarm to Sheriff Weaver. They had threated to shoot Rhodes if he was to quiet before they left. This action is certainly favorable to Mr. Rhodes.

☞ Mr. J. E. Smick, of this place, is opening a large assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, &c., at his tailoring establishment in Fawn street, to make up into garments for his customers Mr. Smick is an experienced workman, and those purchasing of him will find that he keeps a good article at fair rates. Advertisement next week.

☞ Maj. Gen. Hancock and Staff are paying an official visit to Gettysburg, which place they reached yesterday. An official inspection of the grounds will be made, and the progress of the cemetery, as a national enterprise, be reported to the Secretary of War. Gen. Hancock commanded a corps in the battle of Gettysburg and the present is his first visit to that memorable battle-field since the great contest there.

☞ In answer to numerous inquiries about the burial of the Union dead at Salisbury, N. C., Brevet Brig. Gen. Heath, commandant at that point, has written that all those who died there were buried in trenches, and it is therefore impossible to distinguish them. There are fourteen trenches, which contain no less than ten thousand dead bodies of Union soldiers.

☞ PARTICULARS.—We were enabled to get the particulars of the shooting affray at Locust Gap, noticed in our last issue. They are as follows: A personal difficulty had existed for some time between George, the man shot, and McIlwee, the keeper of a saloon at the above place. On Sunday evening Garner entered the saloon when high words ensued, which ended by McIlwee's shooting him with a pistol the shot taking effect in the right breast. Dr. Robins extracted the ball early Monday morning, taking it out from his back, it having gone almost through his body. The Doctor expects his recovery as very probable. McIlwee has not yet been arrested. —Shamokin Herald.

☞ ACCIDENTALLY SHOT ASHLAND.—On Tuesday last, at Centralia, Columbia county, Pa., near the line of Schuylkill, as Mr. William Stetler, a constable, was engaged in serving a warrant on Thomas Devine, Thomas Dolan and Patrick McNarney, charged with the larceny of a horse and wagon, they resisted the officer. In the scuffle Devine forced the constable's revolver from his pocket and beat him severely. Mr. Stetler endeavored to recover his pistol, and while wrenching it from Devine's hand, it was discharged accidentally, and the contents entered the body of Devine, who subsequently died from the effects. Mr. Stetler went to Ashland, and surrendered himself to the authorities. He was held to bail in the sum of $5,000, by Squire Dewitt, to answer at Court.

☞ TERRIBLE RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.—Two terrible accidents occurred on the Philadelphia and Erie railroad, on Saturday last—one near Williamsport, and the other three miles below Williamsport. The one at Watsontown occurred at an early hour in the morning, by the Erie Express south running into a freight train standing on the track. One man, an employee on the road, died shortly after the accident from injuries received. How many others were injured we do not know, as we are without the particulars.

The accident below Williamsport occurred about four o'clock in the afternoon. The Erie Express west was half an hour late, and collided with a freight train bound south, producing one of the most extensive wrecks of the kind, we are informed, ever witnessed.—Mr. Holstein, a passenger on the Express, and slightly injured, now at the residence of his father-in law, in this Borough, has furnished us with the following statement:

"The Erie Express, which left Philadelphia at 7½ o'clock this morning, (7th inst.,) collided with a freight train three miles below Williamsport, about four o'clock in the afternoon. A brakesman on the freight was instantly killed; Mr. Baker, baggage master of the Express, lived two hours.

Among the passengers injured were Mrs. C. Rhoades, of Lewisburg, leg broken; Mrs. Walsh, of Tarpenport, N. Y., severely injured—her recovery very doubtful; Mrs. W. Sneden, Red Bank, New Jersey, severe contusions of head and limbs; Rev. James Watson, Milton, leg broken; James Warren, Milton, slightly; J. E. Youngman, Rockfield, Ill., leg fractured; C. Stancliff, Tenn., head badly cut and body bruised, brakesman of express, foot cut. The engineers and firemen of both trains escaped with slight injuries by jumping from their engines. The front passenger car in which the ladies were, being a complete wreck, took fire and it was with difficulty the ladies were rescued. The fire was extinguished by some of the passengers and employees carrying water in their hats; no buckets at hand.

It seems to us that these accidents, particularly the one near Williamsport, are the result of the most culpable negligence, and we do hope those interested will demand the most rigid legal investigation, and that the guilty whoever they may be, will be severely punished. It seems outrageous that a freight train should have been started from Williamsport at an hour this one was, in the face of the fact that the express was overdue, and was endeavoring to make up its lost time.

WE regret to notice that the Rev. Dr. Watson, of Milton, is again a sufferer, by this accident, he having had a leg broken by a collision near the scene of the late accident, only last winter.—Mining Lantern.

☞ ANOTHER SAD AFFRAY.—We regret to be called to record another shooting affray, and one too, that occurred in our Borough. It seems that a political dispute arose, on Tuesday night about 9½ o'clock, in Henninger's saloon opposite Mowry's Hotel, between Daniel M. Kashner and Francis Taby, which resulted in the shooting of the latter by Kashner, the ball entering the right breast near the nipple. The wound was examined by Dr. Robins, but he was unable to extract the ball. The injury is considered very serious, and it is feared will prove fatal, as hemorrhage of the lungs has continued ever since he was shot. Kashner was arrested, and had a hearing before Esq. Caldwell, who committed him to jail to await the result of Taby's injuries. There are extenuating circumstances, it is alleged by Kashner's friends, that can be adduced in his favor, so that till there is a further legal hearing we forbear any comments. He is a returned soldier, and when sober is represented as a kind and peaceable man.—Shamokin Herald.

☞ KILLED.—On last Tuesday afternoon, the freight train ran over and killed a little girl near Hough and Hersh's breaker. We did not learn her name; she was aged about twelve years.—Shamokin Herald.

☞ CLEAN YOUR CHIMNEYS.—Now that the fall season is at hand, when high winds are prevalent, our citizens should see that their chimneys are properly cleaned before they put up their stoves for the winter. It may be the means of preventing destruction by fire.

It is stated that the Chicago Republican has a working capital of $500,000, and spends $600 a week for editorial labor and correspondence. Charles A. Dana, late Assistant Secretary of War, and formerly of the New York Tribune, is its managing editor.

An editor says his attention was first drawn to matrimony by a skilful manner in which a pretty girl handled a broom. A brother editor says the manner in which his wife handles a broom is not very pleasant.

A fire occurred in Savannah, Ga., on the 25th of September, destroying property valued at $3,000,000. Several bonded warehouses with their contents were consumed.

The captain of a whale ship, which not long since arrived at New Bedford from a voyage of thirty-seven months, took as his part of the proceeds the handsome sum of $42,000.

In Montreal, J. S. Barlett and his wife were lately indicted for stabing each other. They are a bad Bartlett pair.—Louisville Journal.

The chinese giant in England put a clause in his contract that if he died he should be sent free of expense to China. He carries his coffin with him.

Leslie the tight rope performer of Niagara celebrity, made a balloon ascension with Professor Lowe from the New York Central Park on Saturday, and astonished the populace when at the height of half a mile, by some startling feats on ropes hung from the car.

W. S. McCormick, the inventor of the famous reaping machine now generally used in the Western prairies, and by which he made an immense fortune, died lately in the Illinois Lunatic Asylum. He was a native of Virginia.

☞ To get a good Photograph, go to Erskine's Room.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

ESTRAY HORSE.

CAME to the enclosure of J. W. Cake, in Upper Augusta township, on the 27th of September last, a dark brown horse, about 12 years old, branded on the shoulders, sixteen hands high.
