SEVERAL cases of small-pox are reported in Jackson township, this county.

A HORSE attached to a buggy took freight at a train of cars, near the railroad bridge crossing the river, on Wednesday last, and fell over the bank on the ice. The buggy sustained considerable damage whilst the horse and driver escaped without injury.

WE regret to learn that A. E. Kapp, Esq., of Northumberland, is lying dangerously ill. He has been confined for several weeks.

THE slight sprinkle of snow on Tuesday, gave us a taste of winter. Sleigh bells were heard on our streets for several days.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.—Mince pies are much improved by a small quantity of Youngman's Wine put into them. This wine is the cheapest and purest liquor that can be bought.—2t.

POSTMASTER.—G. W. Gross has received the appointment of Postmaster at Shamokin Dam, Snyder county, vice A. G. Rohback, resigned.

THE number of boats that passed the collector's office at Northumberland during the past boating season, was 6,217.

WM. Weimer, Esq., the very efficient postmaster at Northumberland, has been reappointed. Our sister town could not have selected a better officer than Mr. Weimer. Having rendered general satisfaction there was no need of a change, and both parties accepted the office to Mr. Weimer, who is a good Republican.

GRAND CONCERT.—During the first week of the coming January Court, a Concert will be given for the benefit of the Presbyterian Sunday School of this borough. First Class talent has been secured, and the public may rely upon a capital entertainment.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. Jeremiah Fassold, of Upper Augusta township, died suddenly at his residence, on Friday night of last week. He was afflicted with neuralgia in the face, and it appears he had taken a quantity of laudenum to alevlate the pain before retiring in the evening, which is supposed to have caused his death.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Mr. Jackson Watts, employed on the Shamokin Division of the N. C. Railway, fell from the cars near Snydertown, on Saturday last and broke his arm. It was set by Dr. A. C. Clark, the Company's physician in this place.

THE TREMAINE BROTHERS.—The agent, Mr. Showles, of the Tremaine Musical Troupe was in town a few days ago, undetected an arrangement for their celebrated Operatic Troupe to give an entertainment in the Opera House on Christmas Eve. As this will be a first class musical entertainment, and he troupe are special favorites with many whom've heard them before, we bespeak for them a crowded house.

Tickets can be had at Hazleline's book store.

LOOKS LIKE BUSINESS—The large crowd of persons attracted to C. S. Hazleline's store, every evening are well convinced that there never was such an endless variety of holiday goods offered to this community. The store is brilliantly lighted with gas, and customers are waited upon in the most polite manner. Those wishing to make holiday presents can find most elegant books, Albums, fancy toys and the largest assortment of fancy articles at Hazleline's.

THE Lutheran Sunday school propose to erect a large Christmas tree in the school room of the church, whereon will be hung presents from teachers to scholars, schols to teachers, wives to husbands, and husbands to wives. Every one is privileged to place presents on the tree. A merry time may be expected.

THE Omaha Tobacco Ste, in Simpson's building, Market Square, was entered through the transum on Monday nit last, by some thief who carried off about sixdollars in money, and a lot of segars and pipes amounting to about fifty dollars.

Since writing the above we len that a young man named Charles Weaver is spected of having committed the above robbr, some of the stolen goods having been seen his possession at Harrisburg the day after the turrence.

THE Northumberland county Ritute met in the Public School House at Northtberland on Monday last, and was called to der at 1.30, p. m., by the County Superintendent, Shipman. The Institute organized by the elean of Messrs. W. H. Gilger and Wm. Shaffer Vice Presidents; L. B. Owen, as Secreary, J. Mr. Lesher, as Treasurer. There was a larattendance of teachers present, and the exercise were interesting throughout.

ORGAN CONSECRATION.—On next Sunday morning, the 22d inst., the large and very superior Cabinet Organ, secured by the members and friends of the Reformed Congregation of this place, will be consecrated in their church. Special services will be held, and Rev. Dr. L. V. Gerhart, of Lancaster, Pa., will preach the consecratory sermon. The choir have been practicing for the occasion for some time already, and the music will, no doubt, be a rich treat. The public are respectfully invited to attend the service, and we have no doubt that all who will embrace the opportunity of going will be delighted, both with the music of the choir, and with the sermon of the Reverend Doctor.

A Church or Organ consecration is something in which not only a particular congregation is interested, but the whole community; and, as we have no doubt the citizens of Sunbury so regard the matter, we predict a crowded house for our Reformed Brethren on Sunday morning.

E. P. K.—The annual session of the Grand Conclave was held in Philadelphia on last week. Grand Commander Gen'l J. K. Clement, of this place, presiding. There was very important business transacted relating to the Order. Among the nominations for Grand officers to be elected in June next, we notice the names of G. G. Jacoby, for Vice Grand Commander, and George L. Simpson, for Grand Herald and Grand Trustee, all of Sunbury. The attendance was very large, and the Sir Knights expressed themselves delighted with the harmony that prevailed, and the adoption of measures which cannot fail to benefit the Order whose motto is, "Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye so unto them."

THE ice on the river at this place, is about six inches in thickness, and is probably the finest and clearest that has been seen for many years. The surface during last week was more than ordinarily smooth, giving a fine opportunity to those who delight in the exhilirating exercise of skating, to have a full benefit on the beautiful basin in front of our borough, the dimensions of which exceed any skating place in the State, being over half a mile in width, and almost three miles in length, extending from our sister town Northumberland to the Shamokin dam—all as smooth as glass. On Friday and Saturday we noticed large numbers, male and female, in the full enjoyment of this vast skating pond, and the number of lady skaters present, gracefully gliding over its glassy surface, was remarked by some one present as having few superiors in the way of making time on steel. But there were others present not quite so skilful, and may need yet larger chignons, and a larger supply of bustle paper, who should not become discouraged, as they, by perseverance, may yet become perfect.

A JEWELRY STORE ROBBED.—On Wednesday morning as Mr. Thad. S. Shannon of this place came to his store, on the corner of Third and Market Square, about 9 o'clock, he found it closed, and on entering discovered a large amount of goods missing. On examining whether the room had been forcibly entered he could find no trace, and at once concluded that Martin E. Shipe, an apprentice, was the guilty party, as he was not about to open the store as he had been accustomed to do. On inquiry it was found that Martin Shipe had left in the night train, and had purchased a ticket for Philadelphia. Information was also given that he had been seen in Harrisburg during the night in company with another young man from this place, whose name we withhold for the present, as it is not known that he was an accomplice. Telegraphic despatches were sent to Harrisburg, Philadelphia and other points, for the arrest of Shipe. Mr. Shannon and J. F. Kirby started on the next train in pursuit of the thief. The articles stolen were several gold watches, gold rings, and about one hundred dollars in money, altogether amounting to about eight hundred dollars.

Since writing the above, Shipe was arrested in Philadelphia, and brought back on Thursday evening. He was taken before Esquire Parsel who committed him for a further hearing this (Friday) morning. Some of the goods were recovered.

A WILD CAT KILLED.—A large wild cat was killed in Jackson township, this county, by Mr. John Kulp on the evening of the 8th inst. Mr. Kulp is watchman on the Trevorton branch of the Reading railroad, and having lost a leg several years ago walks on crutches. As he was passing along the road, he discovered the animal on a tree, and threw a stone, when his catship made a leap, and alighted a few feet from him. A dog accompanying Mr. Kulp, made an attack, and in a short time, with the assistance of his master, succeeded in dispatching the monster.

COL. Eckman, Postmaster at Danville, contemplates remodeling his office by placing the boxes in the centre of the room, facing avenues on each side, with a general delivery in front, and money order windows at the rear end of each avenue. The Danville Intelligencer says: "This improvement indicates another lease of official life to the present incumbent which will no doubt meet with general approval."

THE Etymological Reader, published by E. H. Butler & Co., and compiled by Epes Sargeant and Alman May, is as complete a work as we have yet seen. The book is designed for schools, and can truly be said is the best and most practical reader that can be introduced. It is handsomely embellished with the finest wood cuts. The selections are of the best, while the select Etymologies give the readers the most correct definitions of every word. Dr. A. C. Eyster is now introducing this valuable work into the schools throughout the State, and finds no difficulty in having it adopted on account of its completeness.

THE County Commissioners have men employed raising the Court House bell. The sound is effected by its being low in the steeple. The striking of the town clock cannot be heard half a mile, but by this improvement it can be heard two or three miles.—Sunbury Daily.

We presume our neighbor means that the bell is hung too near the floor of the bell room, and not too low in the steeple. The raising of the bell we consider of little importance as compared with the close lattice windows which confine the sound of the bell. The lattice work should be 6 or 8 inches apart, or taken out altogether. The bell is an excellent one, and even encloseed as it is can be, and is heard over two miles, when the wind and location is favorable.

A GREEDY EDITOR.—The editor of the Jersey Shore Herald week before last, killed three large hogs, and then generously invited the editor of the Watsontown Record to give him a pop visit, and he would fill him up with sausage, scrapple, &c. The editor of the Record declines the invitation for thirty days, for the reason, it is supposed, that during the holidays, he intends to feast on food, and impertinently asks his friend of the Herald to kill a beef or two by the time of his intended visit. John's appetite must be on the decline.

BURGLARY.—On Monday morning last, it was discovered that the store of W. J. Wolverton, in the Masonic buildings, had been burgliariously entered, and a lot of pocket knives, segars, tobacco, &c., stolen. Suspicion rested upon three boys who had been seen loitering about the building the day before, and upon charging one of them he made a confession, and told on the rest. A warrant was procured from Esquire Pursel for the arrest of George Koenig, Wells Gross, and Frank Galloway. When brought before the Justice they confessed, and told where the goods could be found. They were committed in default of bail.

NEW BOWLING SALOON.—The fine hall of Ira T. Clement adjoining the billiard saloon of Jno. P. Pursel, Esq., is being fitted up handsomely for a bowling saloon by Mr. Pursel. The alleys are being constructed by first class workmen. A door has also been put in the partition for an entrance from the billiard saloon. These two rooms will be handsomely furnished, and those who delight in the exercise of the cue, and in knocking the pins, will find it a first class resort.

HUFF'S HOTEL.—This splendid structure lately erected in the borough of Milton, is fast gaining popularity with the traveling public. The house is large and the rooms well arranged to make guests comfortable. Mr. J. Fasnaught, who is conducting the business department, is well calculated for that business. Being of a genial disposition, and polite and attentive to all who stop, he is gaining the friendship of all, and travelers are made to feel the comforts of a home. Altogether Huff's Hotel is a model, and with the addition of the United States Hotel, our friends in Milton can well boast of having as good hotel accommodations as can be found in the country.

W. C. Kapp. has been appointed Notary Public by Governor Geary, to be located at Northumberland for a term of three years.

HOME ON A VISIT.—Mr. Jacob Hendricks, formerly of this place, now a resident of Virginia, arrived on Wednesday evening last to spend the holidays with his parents, and numerous friends in this place.

AT the annual election of the Farmer's Mutual Ins. Co. held at their office in this place, on Tuesday last, the following named gentlemen were elected to serve as officers for the ensuing year:

President, Wm. Follmer. Directors, Wm. Follmer, Wm. York, Jno. McWilliams, Abraham Shipman, Abraham Wagner, D. A. Bowman, M. S. Appleman, H. R. Kline, Samuel Snyder, John Vought, J. Grob, Geo. Scott, Wm. W. McWilliams, Jas. E. Ferguson, and Jno. W. Hoffman.
