THURSDAY, JUNE 15TH, 1876.

From the Pittsburgh Telegraph, June 18th.

Affairs at Cincinnati. The effort to adopt the unit rule in the New York delegation last night was a failure. No one will question the integrity of George William Curtis, editor of Harper's Weekly, nor will any one dispute his political sagacity, and his manly stand in the caucus of the New York delegation last evening against Conklin will have great weight with the more intelligent delegates to the Convention. Our special correspondent telegraphs us that Mr. Curtis said he could not vote for Conklin, for the reason that he believed the latter could not be elected. That belief is shared by earnest and influential Republicans in every part of the Union, and notably so along the shores of our navigable rivers. All the gold of Jones, of Nevada, backed by all his wealth of silver, cannot elect Conkling, and the fact that delegates are being bought up to vote for him would aid materially in his overwhelming defeat should he be nominated.

The Pennsylvansa delegation will hold a caucus this morning and we predict there will be a stormy session Don Cameron, it is given out by our correspondents, is anxious that the delegation should adhere to Hartranft all the time, and an effort will be made by him and his faction to adopt a resolution to that effect. The design that the majority of the delegation is favorable to him as second choice, and that in no event can Conkling obtain their votes. If the delegation can be international conference on the Eastheld for Hartranft, it spoils Blaine's chances, and does not help Conkling, and thus the vote of Pennsylvania would be of little or no account in determining the choice of the Convention. Mr. Blaine, however, has warm active and influential supporters in the delegation, and we will not be surprised to learn that under the leadership of John H. Hampton, Esq., their votes will be recorded for Mr. Blaine in Convention. An effort will be made in caucus to-day to cast the vote of the State for Blaine, in case the fifty-eight votes of Pennsylvania will secure his nomination. This will be asked for on the ground that Mr. Blaine is a native son of Pennsylvania, and is entitled to the support of the delegation when it will secure his success. Should this point not be conceded, and the Cameron party insist upon their programme being carried out, the right of representative delegates to cast their own votes will be sprung in Convention when a ballot is reached. bly, a few days ago, a resolution look-Blaine will gain their point. As the New York delegation could not afford adopted recommending the use of the to insist upon the adoption of the unit term "Sabbath" instead of "Sunday." rule, but allowed the two Bristow men to vote their preferences, the ringleaders of the Pennsylvania delegation will probably take the same wise course, but much against their will.

Our dispatches this morning represent the Blaine men as active and confident of success on either the first or second ballet. We commend the dispatches of our correspondents to our readers, for they are impartial and accurate.

CENTENNIAL PROCLAMATION,-President Grant has issued a proclamation enjoining all citizens, in compliance with the resolution of Congress passed on the 13th of March last, to celebrate the coming Centennial Anniversary of our National Independance, by assembling in their respective counties ortowns, and causing to be delivered on that day an historical sketch of said county or town from its formation. A copy may be filed in the clerk's office of said county, and also in the office of the Librarian of Congress, thus forming a complete record of the progress of our country.

A. T. STEWART'S WILL.-The CORtest in regard to the will of the late A. T. Stewart has commenced. Notice was served last week upon the Surro. gate of New York that the will is to be contested. The paper is signed by James Bailey, for the contestants, and the plea is want of proper notice to the "heirs" when the will was read, and "improper influences on the part of Henry Hilton and others unknown."

Not a Dye; makes harsh hair soft and silky; cleanses the scalp from all impurities, causing the hair to grow where it has fallen of or become thin.

Can be applied by the hand as it does not stain the skin or soil the finest linen. As a Hair Dressing it is the most perfect the world has ever produced. The hair is renovated and strengthened, and natural color restored without the application of mineral substances. Since the introduction of this truly valuable preparation into this country, it has been the wonder and admiration of all classes, as it has proved to be the only article that will absolutely without deception, restore gray hair to its original color, health softness, lustre and beauty, and produce hair on bald heads of its original growth and color.

This beautiful and fragrantly perfumed article is complete within itself, no washing or preparation before or after its use, or accompanyment of any kind being required to obtain these desirable results.

Here is the Proof of its SUPERIOR EXCELLENCE. Read this Home Certificate, testified to by Edward B. Garrigues one of the most competent Druggists and Chemists of Phila-delphia, a man whose veracity none can
