back yard. Brigham Young spoke a few words of wisdom the other day to a youthful Chicago enthusiast who called upon him. He said: "Young man, be sure you are through with your search for the kind of partner you want-be sure you have got the pattern of woman that suits you, before leading her to the altar. Don't wait till after marriage, as I did, and then be obliged to keep on sampling.' Lawyers are sometimes very partic-llar. The other day one was waited ular.
