THE oldest stove, probably, in the United States, is that which is still in use at the Capitol in Richmond, Va. It was made in England in 1770, and was sixty years in the House of Burgesses in Virginia, before it was removed to the Capitol, where it has been thirty years.

THE senate has under consideration a bill investing clergymen with authority to administer oath or affirmation to parties intending matrimony. This is well enough; a little swearing at first would often prevent a great deal of swearing afterwards.

WILLIAM PANCAST, of Springfield, Delaware county, has a cow that is hard to beat. She calves, second time, March 17, 1873, and made two hundred pounds of butter from April 3, 1873, to March 11, 1874, besides supplying two families with milk, and is yet making from three to four pounds of butter every twelve days.

"THINK of it! Ninety millions of dollars thrown away every year for drinks. It is shameful for men to keep drinking. In this connection, also, we may mention that it costs $200,000,000 a year for funerals, and that it's shameful to keep dying. Think all the poor orphans that $200,000,000 would support."—Cincinnatti Times.

The farmer's chief of the nation,
The oldest of nobles is he:

From want and from envy how free!

A WHITE swan was shot on the Casselman, a short distance below Salisbury one day of last week by Mr. Herman Farner. It measured 6 feet and 6 inches, from tip to tip of wings, and 4 feet 3 inches from bill to tip of tail. White Swans are exceedingly rare birds in this portion of the country, being seen only at long intervals.

THE Pittsburg Methodist Episcopal Conference which was in session at Blairsville last week, made the following ministerial appointments for this county.

Somerset—W. A. Stewart.
New Lexington—M. D. Lichtliter.
Meyersdale—S. W. Davis.

COUNT the number of cards in a pack, and there are fifty-two, the number of weeks in a year; there are also four suits, the number of weeks in month. Count the spots on a pack and you find three hundred and sixty-five, as many days as there are in a year. There are twelve picture cards in a pack, representing the number of months in a year; and counting the 'tricks,' there are thirteen, the number of weeks in a quarter.

DR. A. P. BRUBAKER, who has been attending lectures at the Jefferson Medical College, arrived home last week. The Dr. went through the examination with flying colors, and is now the happy possessor of a "sheepskin." Mr. Brubaker is a young man of marked ability, and we predict that where'er he may hang out his "shingle" he will meet with the success he so richly merits.

WE saw it noticed recently, that three calves from one mother had appeared in Munster township this county, and now comes our friend Mr. Peter Mulvehill of Yoder township, who lives a short distance from this city, who owns a cow that recently gave birth to three healthy and fully developed calves, all of which are growing rapidly. Can Bedford or Somerset beat it.—Johnstown Tribune.

MR. AMOS STECK, of the firm of Baughman & Steck has severed his connection with that firm, and is about leaving our town to start business in the neighboring town of Somerset. We are sorry to lose Mr. Steck. He is a model young man, with the most correct and accommodating business habits. He will be missed from among the young men of Greensburg. We commend him to the good people of Somerset as an honest, upright, and faithful business man and worthy of their respect and patronage.—Greensburg Herald.

ALL the gentlemen in this and adjoining counties, engaged in the mercantile business, will doubtless be pleased to learn that Mr. J. V. McIntyre has connected himself with the large and favorably known Dry Goods House of Messrs Jacob Riegle & Co., of Philadelphia. Merchants will find it pleasant to do business with so accommodating a gentleman as Mr. McIntyre, and with so well known and reliable a house as that of Jacob Riegle & Co.

ABOUT BITTERS.—At certain periods of life a tonic is a necessity; but there is danger in using stimulants that injure the organs of digestion while giving temporary relief. To obviate this, and present to the public a tonic free from ALCOHOLIC POISON, Dr. Greene prepared the OXYGENATED BITTERS, a sure cure for DYSPEPSIA and all kindred complaint's. Sold everywhere. JOHN F. HENRY, CURRAN & CO., proprietors, 8 and 9 College Place, New York.

A PROPOSITION is pending in Congress for the repeal of the tax upon bank checks, the annual revenue from which amounts to $1,600,000. One great difficulty standing in the way of getting rid of this nuisance is, should the law be repealed the amount that must be refunded for checks which have already been purchased would aggregate $5,000,000. This amount is likely to prove a barrier against repeal too strong to be overcome in the present depleted condition of the Treasury.

THE late legislative re-union has brought to the surface a number of old members of the legislature whom the people generally thought were dead, and the newspapers are busy resurrecting the few whose names and habitations were forgotten by those having the re-union in charge. We have the names of no omitted members to suggest; but when the re-union of the legislative frauds takes place, Blair county will fill her quota who served in the lower House.—Blair County Radical.

SIXTY thousand Mennonites of Russia are to purchase twenty-five square miles from our government upon which to found a colony. The government should "jump at 'any reasonable bid. The "Mennonites" have been tried in Somerset county, of this state, and no class make better citizens in state, and no class make better citizens in every respect. They are peaceful, frugal, temperate and industrious, and modles of virtue and honesty.—Phila. Age.

TROUT fishing will legally commence to-day, April first. Fine $10 for each fish caught out of season—one-half to the informer. The fine for catching black bass or pike in any way from the 1st of March to the 1st of January is $25—one-half to the informer. The fine for fishing in streams inhabited by trout or where black bass have been placed, with nets of less than three inches mesh, is $25—one-half to the informer. A trout caught in a net even in fishing time, subjects the catcher if he keeps it, to the same fine.

THE Corporation Bill as it has passed the Senate contains a section which prohibits corporations from keeping stores for the sale of anything but their own manufactures or the purchase of anything except materials used in such manufactures. It also prohibits any employee of the corporation from keeping such stores, or the keeping of them by any one on the premises or in the property of the corporation. This will effectually cut off the employment of men with store goods, so far as corporations created under the act are concerned.

"THERE is a tendency in these days," said Mr. Beecher in his evening sermon, "to account naturally for the passage of the children of Israel through the Red Sea. Now I like these old stories, and I am not going to have the bottoms knocked out of them by materialism. I shall stand by the old history and glory in it. Yes, they did go through the sea, and it was a miracle, too. And the fish looked out at them from the water on either side, and wondered who those other monsters were."

THE Missouri Legislature has passed an act prohibiting any change in the text books of the public schools for five years from the 1st of January, 1875. In view of the hordes of Yankee book agents now perambulating the country, and too often with the collusion of interested school directors, forcing parents to buy unnecessary new books for their children, this action of the Missouri legislators is eminently proper, and might be advantageously imitated by the Legislatures of other States, not excepting Pennsylvania.

NEWSPAPERS—An exchange truly says: "It costs less than a cent a day to take your weekly paper—less than a diligent hen could earn in a year at the market price of eggs; less than one cigar a week and a very cheapone at that; less than the barber would charge by the year to keep one's hair trimmed; less than a good sized thanksgiving turkey, less than a seat one night at the opera: less than an energetic kitchen girl will waste in a week. A penny a day can be saved in many a way better than by stopping a family newspaper.

THE office of the Treasury of Elk County was broken into one day last week, the safe opened by the robber, and the entire contents carried off. The Treasurer was down street at the time of the occurrence, and when the news was brought to him that his safe had been robbed, he turned pale and gasped—"Did the thief carry off the safe?" When informed that he did not, but that he had made away with its contents, he remarked with a sigh of relief, that it didn't make much difference, as a ten cent order was all it contained.

IN Tioga County there is a small post-office from which the department could get no returns. Finally a prominent citizen of a town a few miles distant was instructed to call on the postmaster and learn his reason for not making the quarterly returns. He did so, and that official replied that he did not owe the Government anything, as he bought his stamps at Wellsboro; neither did it owe him, and therefore there was no need in making a quarterly report.

IT appears that we were in error in our statement in regard to the Brethren's school at Berlin, last week. The representatives of the Brethren of this county at the meeting at Martinsburg, were Rev. H. R. Holsinger of Meyersdale and Mr. Franklin Forney of Berlin, and not Messrs Emanuel Meyers and F. J. Countryman as we stated. The latter gentleman is, we understand, a member of the Reformed Church. We cheerfully make this correction in order that the credit may be placed to the account of those to whom it rightly belongs.

ENTERPRISE.—Persons who have spare capital should encourage any enterprise that promises to be advantageous to the community or will pay a fair rate of interest. Now is the time to enter on improvements—to prepare for the erection of factories and shops—and give an impetus to business. Farmers should also improve their lands and act on the hint of a successful farmer who used fertilizers extensively and remarked that they would pay ten per cent. on their application to land, and any investment that would yield that rate of interest he regarded as highly profitable. We presume that he had never taken lessons in usury or his idea of profit for risk would have been more exalted. Let all however, bring out their money bags, let loans be made to the industrious and deserving, and a new impetus be given to the growth and prosperity of the country.

"Is it wicked to dance? Some ministers insist that if the young folks wish to proceed directly along that broad road which leads to eternal perdition they need only indulge in "tripping the light fantastic," and their calling and election is then made sure. Other spiritual instructors do not look upon dancing as such a crying sin, and among this class is the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, who was recently questioned by letter as to whether it was wicked to dance. In the Christian Union he makes the following reply: "It is wicked when it is wicked, and not wicked when it is not wicked In itself it has no more moral character than walking, wrestling, or rowing. Bad company, untimely hours, evil dances, may make the exercise evil; good company, wholesome hours, and home influence may make it a very great benefit."

TESTING SEEDS.—Now that spring and the planting season are approaching, it is often important to test the vitality of seeds before sowing them. We have heard the following simple and easy method described. Fill a box, pan or flower-pot partly with rich mellow earth; make the upper surface perfectly smooth, and on this surface draw a straight cross lines, and drop a seed at each intersection so that they may be easily counted. Then take a wide hoop or frame, and make a bottom to it with cloth stretched across, so as to resemble a sieve. Place this upon the seed and fill it with enough fine mold to form a sufficient covering for the seed, which should generally be four or five times the diameter of the seed for the depth. Keep soil sufficiently moist and in a warm place. The sieve can be lifted easily and the seeds examined without disturbing them. In this way corn, wheat, clover seed, turnip seed and many other kinds can be easily tested, which may be of considerable importance where the age or freshness of the seed is not certainly known.

OUR office is supplied with two spring chairs. You can throw them back so as to be in an easy resting position. On Tuesday Mr. Kirk came into the office. Mr. Kirk is a young man of the times, sports a cane and wears a plug hat. We pushed one of the spring chairs towards him and invited him to take a seat. He sat down, threw the chair back into position and commenced discussing the liquor crusade. Allow us to say here that the legs of these chairs are furnished with castors. Mr. Kirk waxed warm with his subject and leaned a little too far back, his feet went into the air, his head in a spittoon and the chair slid gracefully from under him. The spittoon hadn't been emptied that morning, and as Mr. Kirk wiped his shining tile he made use of some scriptural language in regard to the use of tobacco, and the evil of having chairs with castors on them, as he went out of the office he referred us to a young lady whose name sounded like Helen Dam for the rest of his argument on the crusade.

Scientific and Safe Treatment.

When applied with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche and accompanied with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery as contsitutional treatment, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy produces perfect cures of the worst cases of Catarrh and Ozœna of many years, standing. This through course of medication constitutes the only scientific, rational, safe and successful manner of treating this odious disease that has ever been offered to the afflicted. So successful has it proven that the proprietor has long offered a standing reward of $500 for a case of Catarrh which he can not cure.

INDISPUTABLE EVIDENCE.

THOS. J. BISHOP, of South Brooklyn N. Y., writes that his wife had suffered since a child with Catarrh until it had resulted in what eminent physicians pronounced Consumption; that she has used Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and they have wkored wonders with her case.

WE are pleased to learn that the German Reformed Congregation of this place, are about securing, or perhaps we might say have secured, the lot on the corner of Main Cross and Union streets, formerly occupied by the Lutheran church, with the intent of erecting thereon a new and commodious house of worship. We consider this the most eligible site for a church in the town, and the design of the house, which has been shown to us, is very beautiful. The congregation proposing to erect this church is not a large one, but it contains some "generous givers," and the commendable pride that desires a house of worship comparable in location, comfort, and beauty with those lately erected by other denominations, will doubtless be an incentive to all its members to make liberal donations.

A number of handsome church edifices have been erected in this borough and in other portions of the county within the past few years, and as nothing attests the liberality and refinement of a people more than the number of these structures, we are, therefore, gratified at the determination of this congregation to build a church creditable to themselves, and worthy the cause to which it will be dedicated.

A QUESTION concerning the authority to appoint a foreman of a grand jury came up recently before the judges of the courts of Clinton County. The majority of the judges decided that the grand jury has authority to appoint its own foreman. Judge Wm. Dunn, Associate Judge of the courts of the county, gave an opinion that the Sheriff alone has the power of making this appointment. In support of his opinion he presented a sketch of the history and organization of the English courts from the time of the Saxon conquest in England. In the first county courts, the Sheriff, together with a Bishop and Alderman, presided. After noting the various changes that ensued by the organization of new courts and the distribution of judicial authority, he concludes with the remark that when its present authority became vested in the Court called the County Court, the Sheriff's duties before court prevented his presiding on the grand jury, and consequently he appointed a foreman.

In this county it is customary for the grand jury to be drawn first, and then a selection of one gentleman to act as foreman is mutually agreed upon. The gentlemen empowered to draw the jury invariably select some person who is fully capable to discharge the duties that are likely to devolve on him, and, as elsewhere, the oath is administered to him as foreman of the Grand Jury.

A LIGHTNING ROD SWINDLE.—Some farmers in this section of the State are just now experiencing the effect of patronizing the lightning rod peddler. There is a regular season for these pests, just as there is for potato bugs and other foes to bucolic pursuits. Last lightning rod season one Dr. C. Brooks traveled through this county putting up rods. A farmer in Irwin township, who wished to secure immunity from lightning, gave Brooks a job of ironing his barn, the price of which was to be twenty-three dollars. After the work was finished the farmer offered to pay Brooks the money, but Brooks was in no hurry for cash. He would give the farmer all the time he wanted, and therefore produced what he called a contract in duplicate. The farmer signed one of the papers and gave it to Brooks, Brooks, signed the other paper and gave it to the farmer. The paper Brooks kept was a judgment note; what the farmer held was a simple contract. And now for the sequel.

Last week a testatum writ from Washington county, issued by Brooks against our Irwin township farmer, was received by Sheriff Mark. The writ calls for $123—one hundred dollars more than the price of the lightning rods, as agreed to by the parties. Brooks has issued eleven fi. fa. writs in this county against persons in neighboring counties, which will be followed by testatum writs sent to the counties where the victims lived. And it is said, many will pay Brooks' charges rather than incur the expenses and loss of time required to go to another county to fight his writs.—Yeanango Spectator.

CALDWELL, KANSAS, March, 25th.

Seeing many of our stock raisers advertising their "short horns" for sale, and getting such extravagant prices for them, I think it no more than justice to myself, to let the public know of my extra breed, imported from Red Leg township, Blue Stem county. Their pedigree can be traced back to Gen. 41st chapter 3rd and 4th verses. They are none of your mooleys. Their horns look like hoop poles stuck on their heads, but this, you see, is an advantage. They are easily kept as they help themselves. When they come to a fence it is not much in the way, as they can with one sweep lay down from one to three panels, so you see the advantage of long horns. They do not often get mired as they walk as if they were on stilts their bodies being out of the mud. For milch cows they cannot be surpassed, the udder is close up to the body and so well shaded as to give good cool milk in winter. They do not need a great amount of grain to winter on, as that would spoil their original good looks. To improve the breed they should be fed straw, prairie hay, or corn stalks. I do not ask extravagant prices for them. They can be had, for cash, of Edward Parer or D. C. Garlitz.

WE like an active boy, one who has the impulse of the age—the steam engine in him. A lazy, plodding, snail paced chap might have got along in the world fifty years ago, but he won't do for these times. We live in an age of quick ideas: we think quickly, and slow coaches are not tolerated. "Go ahead if you burst your boiler," is the motto of the age: and he succeeds the best in every line of business who has the most of the do or die, about him.

To all the prize is open,
But only he can take it
Who says with Roman courage
I'll find a way, or make it.

Strive, boys, to catch the spirit of the times; be up and dressed always, not gaping your eyes as if you were fast asleep, but wide awake whatever may turn up, and you may be something before you die.

Think, plan, reflect, as much as you please before you act, but think quickly and closely, and when you have fixed your eyes upon an object, pull off your coat cheertully roll up your sleeves in earnest, and with a merry song spring at the task at once.

"A cheerful spirit gets on quick;
A grumbler in the mud will stick."

But above all this be honest. If you intend to be an artist, carve it in the woodchisel it in the marble; if a merchant, write it in your day book and spread it in capitals in your ledger. Let honesty of purpose be your guiding star.

MARRIED.

SULLIVAN—McFARLAND—On the 24th inst., by Rev. J. R. Brown, Mr. John Sullivan to Miss Caroline McFarland, both of Confluence Pa.

DIED.

WALTER—On the 25th of March 1874, Mr. Jacob Walter of Milford Tp., aged 66 years and 8 months.

SHAFFER—On the 18th of March 1874, Mr. Jeremiah Shaffer, aged 60 years, 11 months and 28 days. The town and neighborhood have lost a good and peaceable citizen, and the Evangelical Lutheran Church a pious and devoted member. The church may say:

"In church, who will take his seat,
Who for him in council meet,
In prayer meeting missing too,
Oh Lord, what shall we do?

Why love and serve the Lord,
For sure is his promised reward,
Yes, and we can all meet on the other shore
With God to part no more."

H. S.

STANTON—In Johnstown Pa., on Wednesday, March 11th, 1874, Alex. V. Stanton, aged 52 years, 1 month and 14 days.

He was born in Delaware, and in early youth was brought with his father's family to Lancaster Pa. In 1840 he went to Bedford Co., where he learned to be one of the best Millers of his generation, and was there married to Miss Mary J. Lightfoot. In 1840 he came to this county and bought the "Stantons Mills" property where he resided until his death.

During a visit to his son, residing at New Stanton, Westmoreland county, he took a chill, and though quite unwell attempted to return home. When he arrived at the residence of another son, in Johnstown, where he died, two physicians were called in, who pronounced his disease pneumonia. He was there visited by his wife and nine of his twelve living children, and was comforted in his last moments by their presence and kind attention.

He died in peace, taking each of his family and friends who we present by the hand, and bidding them farewell, assuring them of his faith in Christ as his Saviour.

He was a kind husband and father, and a good neighbor, always attentive to the wants of the afflicted whether friend or foe.

A FRIEND.

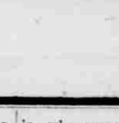
Centaur Liniment.



There is no pain which the Centaur Liniments will not relieve, no swelling they will not subdue, and no lameness which they will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. They have produced more cures of rheumatism, neuralgia, lockjaw palsy, sprains, swellings, caked breasts, scalds, burns, salt-rheum, ear-ache, &c., upon the human frame, and of strains, spavin, galls, &c., upon animals in one year than have all other pretended remedies since the world began. They are counter-irritant, and all healing pain reliever. Cripples throw away their crutches, the lame walk, pelsonous sores are rendered harmless, and the wounded are healed without a scar. It is no humbug. The recipe is published around each bottle. They sell as no article ever before sold, and they sell because it does just what they pretend to do. Those who now suffer from rheumatism, pain or swelling deserve to suffer if they will not use Centaur Liniment. More than 1,000 certificates of remarkable cures, including frozen limbs, chronic rheumatism, gout, running tumors, &c., have been received. We will send a circular containing certificates, the recipe, &c., gratis, to any one requesting it. One bottle of the yellow wrapper Centaur Liniment is worth one hundred dollars for sprained or sweenied horses and mules, or for screw worm in sheep.—Stock owners these liniments are worth your attention. No family should be without them. "White wrapper for family use;" Yellow wrapper for animals. Sold by all Druggists. 50c per bottle; large bottles $1 00. J. B. ROSE & CO., 53 Broadway, New York.
