Something useful and much needed in our town, is a town clock. Towns of less note with a less population are far in advance in the way of enterprise. A town clock placed in a suitable and central part of town is what we are greatly in need of. Could not some of our good citizens make a move in securing one?

It is stated that in 1876 Mr. Deckar, of Centre county, Pa., found a grain of wheat in a package of coffee purchased at a village store. He planted that single grain, and this fall he thrashed twenty-nine bushels. It is a white wheat, very large in grain, and weighs sixty-six pounds to the bushel. Mr. Deckar calls it the coffee wheat. He will sow sixteen acres this fall from a single grain planted four years ago.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRES.—One day of last week whilst Mr. Jacob C. Horner, of Jennes township, with his family were on a visit to Johnstown his house and spring-house with all their contents were entirely consumed by fire.

During the same week the house of Mr. Michael Riffle, of Conemaugh twp., with all its contents was entirely destroyed. Both fires are supposed to have been caused by defective flues.

BLYMYER has made great reductions in prices of Hardware. You can buy goods just as cheap from him as you can buy them in the city. He buys his goods from the manufacturer, and in large quantities, and therefore buys them at the very lowest prices, and is determined now to sell goods at a very low price. Call and see him and get his prices. His stock is very complete, including Building Hardware, Paint and Glass, Oils, Varnishes, and Wooden Pumps. Again we say, call and see Blymyer, and buy your hardware from him and you will save money.

INCENDIARY.—At an early hour on Sunday morning of last week, the large flouring mill belonging to the heirs of Wm. Graham, deceased, about one and a-half miles from West Fairfield, was completely destroyed by fire, with all its contents. The loss is estimated at $4,000; no insurance. The mill, which was one of the largest and finest in the county, was to have changed hands on Monday, and the former owner was in it about ten o'clock Saturday night, when all seemed right. The fire was undoubtedly of incendiary origin. From the spirit of lawlessness which has characterized that locality of late, means should at once be taken to rid the community of the outlaws with which it is infested.—Latrobe Advance.

A number of young folks took advantage of the beautiful weather of last week to go down the mountain on a outing excursion. The party was composed of some fifteen or eighteen young ladies and three gentlemen. Owing to the shortness of "Ye Local's" pug he did not have the pleasure of accompanying the party, but judging from their gay laughter as they drove through town, and from the fact that they were comfortably and snugly stowed away in the large hand wagon with the gentleman with the "long character" to draw the ribbons up the four prancing bays, we would say that they spent a very pleasant day and had an immense time.

Our young friend Harvey Musselman, who has been engaged in teaching school in the Cupp school house, about three miles east of town, met with a very painful accident last Thursday evening. After dismissing school for the day, Harvey, in company with Joan Geiger, one of his scholars, started to explore the new coal mine that has been opened near the school house. On their way out of the mine Harvey was on the coal car while Geiger was pushing it when he was thrown violently from the car, the wheels of which passed over his face cutting a deep gash in the ridge of the nose, between the eyes, and nearly tearing the nose itself from off his face. Dr. Kimmel was sent for and succeeded in fixing it up in such a manner that with exception of a bad scar he will be none the worse for the accident.

The Postmaster General has refused to listen to the petition of our business men concerning the carrying of the U. S. Mail between this place and Mineral Point. The Railroad Company have decided not carry it for a reduced sum, and in consequence a notice can be seen tacked up in the Post office advertising for proposals to carry one mail per day between these two points. This is a pretty how-de-do, but we are powerless to do anything. What a relief it would be and how we would swear if Carl was only at the head of the postal department.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—At a meeting of Company G, 10th Regt., N. G. P., held on Saturday evening, Oct. 27, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, Our late Captain George W. Kimmel, has been removed from our midst by death, therefore,

Resolved, That in his death we have sustained the loss of an able officer, a noble man, a generous friend. The insatiate archer could have stricken no more shining mark.

Resolved, That we attend the funeral in a body.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in the county papers and transmitted to the sorrowing relatives of our deceased Captain.

Our present lord Mayor has had more streets macadamized, more new pavements and cross walks put down, more ash piles and other rubbish removed from the streets and has done more for the general comfort of citizens and appearance of the town during the past summer, than any of his predecessors did during their entire term of office, and still he is not happy. He has been going around for the last week with an overcoat on and his head muffled up in a comfort, and the reason of all this is that he has been suffering terribly with a boiled jaw. Woe be to the disorderly, or violators of Borough ordinances who may be unfortunate enough to be brought before his majesty to have justice meted out to them while in his present condition. We deeply sympathize with your highness but can only suggest that you bear your trouble with stoicism, and fortitude worthy of one occupying so high and important a public trust.

Signor Bosco, the great European Magician, will open his enchanted palace of illusion at the Court house on Friday, November 2nd and continue the magical entertainment on Saturday and Monday evenings the 3d and 5th. He has performed before several of the crowned heads, and princes of Europe, from whom he has testimonials of his skill. In addition to his new and wonderful illusions he will introduce the great Japanese top feat, and the instantaneous growth of flowers. Signor Bosco's entertainments both in Europe and this Country are spoken of in the highest terms. He far surpasses the renowned Signor Blitz. Introducing entirely different and more difficult feats, and in bare arms, and without pockets, covered tables or any assistance whatever. Admission with one envelope, 25 cents. Reserved seats with envelopes, 50 cents. Children under 12 years of age, one envelope, 15 cents.

ASTONISHING SUCCESS.—It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor dying consumptive at least to try one bottle, as 40,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your Druggist about it. Sample bottles to try sold at 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. Sold by G. W. Benford.

We understand that some of the "boys" who signed the Murphy pledge, and recently were so unfortunate as to violate the same, have offered as an excuse that the conduct of the church people, in failing to recognize them and offer that encouragement necessary. No doubt many, perhaps a large majority of church people, are at fault, and should make the work of saving these poor fellows more a personal matter, but we cannot but rebuke the weakness manifest in the complaint above spoken of. Men should be true men, and stand of their own strength and that given them by their God, and not depend upon riding on the coat tail of any church member, for these have often all they can do to keep hold of the willows. We are sorry any should fall away, and sincerely hope that any who may have done so will try again, determined to do their best, God helping them.

THE SEASON OF INTERMITTENTS.—All miasmatic complaints, in other words, all disorders generated by unwholesome exhalations from the earth or water, are prevalent this season. In every section subject to the visitation of fever and ague, or other forms of intermittent disease, the causes which produce the maladies are now actively at work. This, therefore, is a period of the year when the inhabitants of such localities should prepare their systems to meet the unwholesome conditions of the atmosphere by a course of tonic and alterative treatment. Foremost among the invigorants, recommended by time and experience as a means of fortifying the system against all endemic and epidemic maladies, stands Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. By a timely use of the Bitters, the feeblest resident of an unhealthy soil may escape the sickness which, without the aid of this potent ally of nature, will be apt to overtake the strongest.

LAVANSVILLE, PA., Oct. 26, 1877.

DEAR HERALD.—At an early hour on Thursday morning the naturally timid people of Lavansville were startled by the appearance of two men dressed in female garb, each bearing a shot gun in a "right shoulder shift." The people of this village had read of intimidation in Louisiana and their first thought was to seek some safe place of retreat, but one who was bold enough to venture near to these knights discovered that the foremost man was Mr. Will Tayman, and the man in the rear on the crupper, our friend and whilom Nimrod, Mr. Daniel Adams. They only stopped the procession long enough to supply themselves with ammunition, when they gallantly rode off toward the woods. "Gottle mercy" but they did look funny.

Our community lost an esteemed citizen, Mr. Isaac Barron in having gone to seek a home in the far West. Whenever I passes his tent the people will find him a good neighbor and an honest man. May prosperity go with him and his family.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—At a meeting of Somerset Lodge No. 428, I. O. of O. F., held October 27, 1877, to take action in regard to the death of our esteemed brother George W. Kimmel, it was

Resolved, That we deeply deplore the death of our brother, who in business and private life always evinced the character of a true brother, and who by his sterling integrity and unfaltering devotion to truth and justice won the respect of all who knew him.

Resolved, That by his death the Lodge has lost a worthy member, the family a dear friend, and the community an honored and trusted citizen.

Resolved, That as a tribute of respect to the memory of our deceased brother we attend the funeral in a body and that we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That we tender his sorrowing family and relatives our warmest sympathy in this their bereavement.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the county papers and a copy thereof sent to the family of the deceased.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.—At a special meeting of Somerset Lodge, No. 358, A. Y. M., called on Friday evening, Oct. 27, 1877, a committee was appointed to draft a series of resolutions in regard to the death of P. M. George W. Kimmel, as follows:

WHEREAS, this Lodge has received the sad and melancholy intelligence of the sudden death of our brother, Past Master George W. Kimmel, and desiring to manifest our common sympathy for the bereaved, as well as a tribute of respect to our lost brother, therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of brother Past Master George W. Kimmel, our community has lost a good citizen and an honorable man, our Lodge an efficient and useful member, and the Masonic fraternity an esteemed brother, whose services were of great benefit to the Craft.

Resolved, That in this dispensation of Providence we see the admonition which is ever recurring, and while we lament it and deeply sympathize with those who were near and dear to the deceased in their bereavement, it is our duty not to murmur, but to so order our temporal affairs that when the time cometh which no man knoweth we may be ready for the great change.

Resolved, That in further testimony of our respect the gavels, columns, jewels, and furniture of the Lodge be clothed in mourning for the space of three months, and that these resolutions be published in the papers of the county and a copy sent to the friends of the deceased.

Respectfully submitted,

CAMP WYOMING,
October 24, 1877.

DEAR HERALD.—We have an entire Regiment, the 1st Pennsylvania Volunteers, in camp at this place, which is about a mile from Scranton and although it may sound queer for one of the members to say so, a magnificent body of troops it is. The command was formally reviewed and inspected by the Governor and Staff on Wednesday, the Gubernatorial party being accompanied by Gen. Morrow of the U. S. Army, and a number of the officers of his command. Many and flattering were the comments on the soldierly bearing, the discipline, and the exactness with which movements were made, in fact, the officers and men of the First are quite proud of their Regiment.

The same day the Governor reviewed the Scranton City Battalion and they were mustered into the service. The battalion is but lately organized, and is composed of the finest young men about the city, it will undoubtedly make a first class organization. After the review of the Battalion, a lunch was given to the Governor, to which the officers of the First were invited to do justice; served at the Lackawana in a style indicative of the usual and prodigal hospitality of the people of Scranton. It might more properly have been called a feast than a lunch. As a matter of course there were the usual "Three cheers and a tiger for the Governor," and much saying of "How," happy speeches and brilliant replies; "Our guests" and a hammering of tables and clapping of hands until the glass and china danced and the knives and forks rang out their glee; in short it was one of those happy, joyous occasions that, were it to occur after night, would wind up with, "We won't go home till morning."

The men of the different companies are excellent friends already, so intimate do they seem, that one wants to alter "Miles O'Reilly's" famous ditty, so as to make it read:

There are bonds of all sorts this world over,
Fetters of friendship and ties of flowers,
And true lover's knots I ween:
The girl and the boy are bound by a kiss,
But there's never a boat, old friend, like this,
We've drank from the same canteen.

It's sometimes water, and sometimes milk,
And sometimes whiskey, mine as this;
But whatever the tipple has been,
We share it together in hunger or thirst,
And I warm to my friend when I think of the
We drank from the same canteen.

Everyone needs keep his eyes wide open now, for since we have come into camp it has been nothing but drill, and every one, from the Colonel to the powder boys of Breck's Battery, is on the watch to see if his superior or equal makes a mistake. In fact so sharp are they becoming on all points that the Tactics and Blue Book are the favorite studies in the camp.

The miners have gone to work in nearly if not all the mines and some of the citizens in other parts of the State commence to think it is time the troops were disbanded and sent to their homes, but the people of the Lehigh and Lackawanna valleys, who certainly should know something of the character of the parties we have to deal with are fearful that if the troops are removed violence and the torch will again be resorted to. So anxious are the Scrantonians that the troops should remain that I understand that they have offered the use of the Lackawanna House with gas and fuel enough for the entire command free of charge.

The weather has been remarkable; rain, rain, rain, and mud, but in spite of its inclemency the health of the command remains good and the Surgeon is by no means the busiest man in the camp; of course there are a few bad colds, but that is to be expected. The diseases most to be dreaded here are fever and ague and pleurisy, but thus far we have had but few cases of the former and none of the latter.

Last night there was a grand display of torches and half grown boys in honor of, and to encourage the supporters of the Greenback ticket. If the length of the procession be any indication the heresies taken a strong foothold here and will be an important factor in the coming election. It is actually a fact that some of the poor deluded devils believe that were the Greenbackers to be successful that each and every person would be presented with all the currency that they desire. Some of them need money bad enough, God knows, it being no unusual sight to see a woman and her family of half grown girls without shoes or stockings and with but a single garment to protect their nakedness picking coal from the Railroad tracks or slack piles, and yet these poorly clothed, ill fed wretches with faces blue and gaunt and pinched, damn the soldiers as they pass them on the street, calling them in derision, "blue bellies sent here to grind the poor." Poor they are, verily, but this poverty of this world's goods is not so deplorable as their poverty of mind. Staying out of employment week after week, many of their wives and children almost naked and starving because their leaders had told them that the price asked for coal would justify higher wages, and that the Companies were trying to take advantage of them. As an evidence that the men themselves as a rule know nothing about the true state of affairs, but blindly followed their leaders, we have only to refer to the conclusion of the strike, the ten per cent increase. This increase was simply a blind, and a very transparent one at that, as it was tacitly understood that it should only be in force until November 1st; long enough though, for the leaders to make their blind followers believe that they had gained a grand victory over the monopolies. It was a terrible mistake and simply means that this thing will have to be fought over again in the future, for no who thinks that these men are willing to acknowledge that they are whipped and will be afraid to attempt a repetition in the future is sadly deceived.

There is no telling when the command will be sent home. NED.

Our community was appalled on last Friday afternoon, at half-past one o'clock, by the announcement of the sudden and unexpected death of Captain George W. Kimmel. Captain Kimmel was a young man just in the prime of life, being but thirty years of age, and was universally beloved and admired by all who knew him. He was a member of the Banking House of J. O. Kimmel & Sons and was esteemed an able and efficient officer. He was noted for his many excellent business habits, his suavity of manner, his fine personal appearance, his generosity and great goodness of heart. He was a true friend to the poor and needy none in distress or need ever applied to him for assistance in vain. "He had a hand open as day to melt in charity." His remains were carried to the grave by twelve of his former friends, escorted by Company G, of which he was Captain, and by large delegations of Masons and Odd Fellows, both of which organizations he was an honored member. That he was a universal favorite was fully testified by the fact that over a thousand of his friends, from all parts of the county, attended his funeral. A number of his young lady friends, with their own fair, trembling hands worked a beautiful cross of flowers to be placed on his coffin. His bereaved relatives have the sympathy of all, but they are not alone in their deep trouble and sorrow, there is not an individual loss, the entire community grieve and mourn his death as that of a good citizen and a much loved friend.

"Green be the turf that grows above thee,
Friend of my youthful days,
None knew thee but to love thee,
None named thee but to praise."

GRAND REPUBLICAN RALLY AT MEYERSDALE.—The announcement was made during the fore part of last week that a Republican Mass Meeting would be held in Meyersdale on Thursday evening, and that our candidates for State Treasurer and Auditor-General, Capt. Hart and Col. Passmore, would be there. Although the time was too short for it to become generally known throughout the county, the turnout from Meyersdale and vicinity, to say nothing of the delegation from Somerset, was very large and the meeting was one of the largest and best ever held in that place. Owing to sickness Capt. Hart was unable to be present. Col. Passmore arrived on the 3:30 train and was escorted from the Depot to the Dale House by a large concourse of distinguished citizens, headed by the Chairman of the County committee. The meeting was held in the public square and was addressed by J. G. Ogle, Col. Edie, Col. Passmore, A. J. Colborn and Wm. H. Koontz. The speeches were all good, and were listened to with marked attention by the large crowd in attendance. Col. Passmore's remarks were brief but to the point, and we will venture to say that never were more friends made in so short a time, and we have but little doubt that when, on the 6th of this month, Meyersdale and the adjacent townships roll up their old-fashioned majority for Sterrett, Hart, Passmore, and the whole Republican ticket, Passmore will be at the head of the list and will have run a goodly number of votes ahead of the rest of the ticket. The Meyersdale and Somerset Silver Cornet Bands were in attendance and enlivened the occasion with appropriate music.

NO FAILURE KNOWN.—There are no cases on record where Dr. Morris' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound has failed to give satisfaction. On the other hand, wherever it has been used by our people, in severe colds, coughs, asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and consumption, they are enthusiastic in its praise. Containing no opium or other dangerous drug, it does not constipate, and is safe to administer to all conditions of health. This is an important announcement, and the suffering are advised to heed it. Trial size 10 cents; large size 50 cents and One Dollar.
