The Somerset Herald.

GEORGE E. SULL, Editor.

WEDNESDAY ..... April 28, 1887.

Some men are born lazy.

Maple buds are swelling.

Go to Sumer's for shoes.

Make the necessary spring improvements.

Decoration day this year comes on Monday.

Go administered at McMillan's Dental Rooms.

Elephant stocks are popular among spring pennyroyal.

His bottom will not be permissible on a whisky reel.

Dress want big barguins, deal at Sumer's shoe store.

People whose nerves feel worn, should eat raw onions.

Coal will soon be getting more plentiful and cheaper.

The crowning glory of a woman is the latest style bonnet.

Blackberries month leaves and blossoms will be growing.

The oaks and wheat fields are beginning to green.

Allowance for walls and ceilings, at Hoffman's Brothers.

Collins makes rock bottom prices, at Brooklyn's corner.

Buckwheat is a healthy spring salad, and should be used freely.

Friday will be Arbor Day, when every person in Somerset should plant a tree.

The Republican primaries in Indiana, which will be held on Saturday, June 4th, promise many more than have been sent to the penitentiary of those, innocuting to date.

Everybody who can handle a spade should plant a tree or plant at least one tree on Arbor Day.

The Meyersdale Enterprise will hereafter be published on Saturday instead of Friday, as heretofore.

Anyone who has blessed a person of rare arrived Sunday morn, who has no other occupation should be thinking now.

The best and cheapest boots, shoes, etc., by far, in Somerset, is at J. G. Sumer's shoe store, No. 1 Mammoth Block.

The Cambria Iron Company have completed the foundations for their new hospital, for the benefit of their employees at Johnstown.

Anyone