COLUMBUS, O., July 14 .- In the vicinity of Lowndesville and Big Prairie, Ohio, yesterday, a rain storm in the shape of a water spout prevailed lasting nearly an hour, destroying fields of wheat and carrying off nearly a hundred head of sheep, also doing damage to the railway track, washing out several hundred feet of track in some places to the depth of eight feet.

Somebody says that the rhymes to Hayes are easy to raise whenever it pays to honor and praise his name in such ways; but to find rhymes to Wheeler is a "regular squealer." An honest, plain dealer, by way of a feeler says a very good peeler looks out for each steeler and every concealer; the tapper and heeler, the sailor and scaler in flat-boat or keeler, the spinner and reeler, from the banks of Gila to the Monongahela, all go in for Wheeler, That settles it .- Clarion Republican.

IMPORTANT TO HOTEL KEEPERS .-The act passed by the last Legislature for the protection of hotel, inn and boarding house keepers, and restaurants requires that printed copies of the act be posted in all such places before the parties can be entitled to its benefits. This act went into effect the 1st day of June last, and those interested who have not complied with its terms would do well to look after the matter. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act subjects the person offending to fine and imprisonment.

Printed copies of the same can be had upon application to this office, at moderate rates. Send in your orders. We contend that a person has no more right to turn his beasts out to graze on the streets than he has to build a fence accross the road or locate the corner of his house in the middle of the street. This nuisance is not tolerated in other places, and why should we be thus prosecuted? U. S. Courts.

CHANGE IN THE UNITED STATES COURTS-REARRANGING THE DIS-TRICTS.

An order was made by the supreme court at its session in Harrisburg under an act of assembly approved last spring rearranging the districts throughout the state. The order transfers from the eastern to the middle district the counties of Cameron, Clearfield, Clinton, Elk Lycoming. McKean, Potter, Snyder, Sullivan, Tioga, Union and Warren. The eastern district will therefore hereafter consist of the counties of Berks, Bradford, Bucks, Carbon, Chester, Deleware, Lehigh, Luzerne, Monroe, Montgomery, Northampton, Philadelphia, Pike, Schuykill, Susquehanna, Wayne and Wyoming. For the district there will be two special return days for writs of error, process and proceedings issued after the first Monday in July of each year, first special return day being the first Monday in January for writs issued before the first Monday in December, and the second special return day the first Monday in February for writs, etc., issued on or after the first Monday in December. The order also assigns the first eight weeks of the term for the hearing of Philadelphia cases, being two weeks more than heretofore.

PHILIPSBURG FIRE No. THREE .-On Friday evening, June 30th, our neighbors had their borough placed in jeopardy again by a disastrous fire, which broke out in the oil-room of Flegal's hardware store. From this point the fire spread northward along the turnpike leading to Bellefonte, and southward toward the passenger depot, consuming everything for about two and a half squares. But for the destruction of Taylor's hotel and McCausland's building in May last, the fire would have taken a western direction along Front street, and where it would have ended, but for this gap, no one can tell.

The Phillipsburg Journal gives the following details of the properties destroved: "The flames swept up Presqueisle street from Flegal's hardware store taking in rapid succession Hoop Humes & Co's, store, Wesley Runk's store, and Hoop, Humes & Co's, office, Haughawaut's and Flegal's residence, Miss Flegal's milinery store, Mrs. lekes' candy store, Faulkner's office, Musser's tin-shop, Gray's brick building, and the Moshannon House. Down Second street, it took Matthew Johnson's furniture store and dwelling, Wm Harper's residence, and the residence of Robt. Taylor, residence stables which were on these properties. It is impossible to say where the fire would have extended had there been houses on the Diamond, but as there were none on it, the fire reaching the Moshannon House it had to abate its fury on vacancy and finally died down into schee and smoke. Hard fights Oxford, formerly of Smyrna came the buildings of A. J. Dress and E. C. Bender, Presqueisle street, and only wall, was the latter building saved. Only by determined labor and fearless daring were the buildings on the opposite side of Laurel street, consisting of the bakery and some other buildings, saved at all; for men stood and wet the roof and sides until they were badly scorched,"

The estimated loss is put down at $60,000, with an insurance thereon of probably $40,000. The origin of the fire is unknown unless it occurred from matches which some boys had been playing with in the yard a short holders, at the Cannon Street Hotel time before. The fire was so precipitate papers, except the blotter and cash reduction, as shown above, is over book which happened to be on the $3500.00.—Renovo Record. desk .- Clearfield Republican.

NEWARK, N. J., July 14.-Yesterday three young Germans, brothers, named Fichorn, who have been known as desperate characters for years, were ar-rested by police officers. Dickerson and Elsden dead and fatally wounded Dickerson. Escaping from the crowd, the desperadoes ran up street to F. W. Dawson's tannery, in River street, where they formerly worked. There they called for Mr. Meyer, the foreman, who had discharged them, but not finding him, they commenced an in-discriminate firing on the shop, which resulted in the killing of John Alburs assistant foreman, and the wounding of two workmen. The employees of the shop turned out en masse and into the water and attempted to escape across, but were stoned to death by the outraged workmen. The wounded were taken to St. Michael's Hospital. One, named Fisher, is dead; Dickerson will not recover, the other wounded are in a precarious state. Alburs and Elsden have families. The body of one of the Fiehorns has been recovered from the river. It shows marks of bad cutting about the wrists. Men are now engaged in dragging for the others. The shooting had no connection with the recent labor troubles here. The murderers were desperate characters, and shot innocent men out of mere deviltry. During the excitement F. W. Dawson, proprietor of the factory where the shooting occurred, was robbed of $2,230 in checks, which he was about to deposit. Policeman Dickerson died of his injuries at five o'clock. He was one of the colored men on the force. The deaths number seven—Policemen Elsden and Dickerson, and the three Fieherns, Alburs and a workman. Most intense excitement prevails in the city, and the summary action of the workmen is generally commended

A rumor reached us of the commission of a terrible murder, a few days ago, near Orangeville, in Mercer county though the name of the victim was not learned. A young lady school teacher who had occasion to go to her school-house at an early hour in the morning to write copies for her pupils, was, while writing, caught by three men, who in turn outraged her, cut her tongue out of her head to prevent her telling, and left her lying on the floor.
