Library Industries, a new volume by Hubert Howe Bancroft, is announced as nearly ready for publication by Harper & Brothers. The work is largely autobiographical, and contains the story of the conception of Mr. Bancroft's great history, the manner of its composition, and the methods by which the materials for its completion were collected. There are many interesting reminiscences also of the famous men with whom Mr. Bancroft was from time to time thrown in contact, and numerous literary digressions, which give additional zest to an already entertaining narrative.

Evans E. Wiersing, son of a well-to-do Wharton township, Fayette county, farmer, was plowing, Saturday, on his father's farm, and about 9 o'clock he came to the house for a revolver, saying he wanted to shoot some animal. He soon returned and secured another revolver, saying that the first was no good. His niece soon after noticed the horses standing idle, and on going to investigate found Wiersing lying dead with a bullet hole through his head. His mind had been rather weak for some time, and since the death of his brother, some month ago, he had been more melancholy. He was 25 years of age and unmarried.

In a farmhouse in Sewickley township, Westmoreland county, there is a human centrality, and few people outside of the immediate neighborhood know of it The freaky specimen has partly the form of a woman, and is two feet three inches in height. The face is more like that of an animal than that of a human being, while its hands resemble the paws of some wild beast. Its arms are unusually long, reaching to the ground. The creature cannot speak, but utters a strange sound and makes its wants known by signs.

When the father and mother of this strange little woman died years ago they made a will leaving all their property to their son, providing he would build a house for one of the farms for his helpless sister and see that she is well provided for, which they say he has faithfully performed. Three clerks and a book-keeper are kept busy in his mammoth store.

The many friends of ex-County Commissioner "Dave" Wagner will be pained to learn that he is suffering with a cancer on his right cheek. The cancer made its appearance several months ago, and has been steadily increasing in size. Mr. Wagner has placed himself in charge of Dr. J. S. Taylor, of Johnstown, who has met with great success in removing these alarming and often fatal growths. The doctor says he will have no difficulty in effecting a permanent cure for his patient.

If all goes well, this town will be crowded with people as it never has been before on the glorious 4th. The Jr. O. U. A. M. are not only making every effort to attract a large crowd, but they are making efforts to entertain the crowd that will be here. Advices from the towns along the railroad between here and Johnstown are to the effect that everybody is coming. The same report comes from towns all over the county. The railroad company has promised to furnish cars for all who desire to come over their line, and will run a special train to Johnstown in the evening for the benefit of visitors from the north. A half-dozen musical organizations will discourse patriotic airs throughout the day and an orchestra has been engaged to furnish dance music in the Opera House. The chief feature of the celebration will be the parade of members of the Jr. O. U. A. M. Nearly every Council in the county will be represented, while many councils will turn out to a man. The 4th is pre-eminently a day for oratory and a number of distinguished gentlemen have consented to be present and address the multitude. Great preparations are being made to decorate the town, and if the American Eagle is not proud of Somerset's display on the 4th it will not be the fault of the committee having this part of the celebration in charge. An abundant supply of fireworks has been ordered and will be shot off in the evening.

The Republicans of Cambria county held their nominating convention at Ebensburg Monday and nominated the following ticket: President Judge, A. V. Barker; Sheriff, James M. Shoemaker; Poor Director, Peter A. Melhorn; Jury Commissioner, J. J. Kidd. Hon. George M. Reade, of Ebensburg, was chosen for delegate to the Constitutional Convention, and D. G. Meyers and Ed. O. Fisher delegates to the State Convention. J. C. Stineman was elected Chairman of the County Committee.

A rain fall in the nature of a water spout struck this place at an early hour Sunday morning and for a short time it looked as though our town would be swept from its high eminence. It only continued for about twenty minutes, but in that short time enough water had descended to overflow many gutters and convert them into raging torrents. Several piles of lumber were swept away and carried two or three squares before they lodged on the side of the hill. Policeman Gilbert was patrolling his beat at the time and he says that the rain didn't come down in drops, but in streams, and that for a few minutes he contemplated mounting to the top of the soldiers' monument in the hope of finding a place of safety.

John Baily, a native of this county, was committed to jail Friday, the 19th inst., by Esquire Noah Casebeer in default of bail to answer at the next term of quarter sessions to an indictment charging desertion, adultery and bigamy on information of his wife, Maggie Baily, an inmate of the county poor house, and known as Mrs. Baily No. 2. On the 19th day of May Baily was married to one Caroline Durst, a resident of this borough. 'Squire Casebeer performed the ceremony, the groom producing a license secured from the Recorder of Bedford county. After enjoying one brief month of honeymoon Baily was brought before the justice who had performed the ceremony and was straightway committed. About twenty-five years ago Baily was married to one Lizzie Rector, and after living with her for a half dozen years and becoming the father of several children he separated from his wife and in 1883 married Maggie Struthers, from the county home. He continued to live with wife No. 2 for six years and three children blessed the union. In 1889 Baily was granted a pension, receiving several hundred dollars arrearages, and it is said took up with wife No. 1 until he had spent the money. When he married No. 3, Miss Durst, No. 2 objected, and the festive lover now languishes in jail.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces to the people of Western Pennsylvania that the excursions to the seashore, which have won so great a measure of popularity in past seasons, will be repeated during the present summer. A series of four excursions will be run, the first on Thursday, July 9th, the others following on July 23d, August 9th and 20th. Each one of these tours offers a choice between Atlantic City, Cape May, Sea Isle City, or Ocean City, the rate being the same for each.

Excursion tickets good for ten days will be sold at a rate of $10.00 from Pittsburg, and at correspondingly low rates from other stations.

A special train of Parlor Cars and Day Coaches will leave Pittsburgh at 8.50 a. m. for Philadelphia, stopping at all important junction points where connection will be made with trains from branch lines. Passengers will spend the night in Philadelphia and proceed to the seashore by regular trains of the next day.

These excursions, on account of the desirability of the seashore points, the liberal limit and low rate of the tickets, and the fine equipment of the special trains, present the the most attractive of summer outings.

The rate from Johnstown is $9.25; special train leaves Johnstown at 11:05 a. m.

West Point Cadetship.

A competitive examination of applicants for the appointment from this Congressional district to the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, was held at the Court House in this place, Wednesday of last week.

The examining committee were Dr. H. S. Kimmell, County Superintendent J. M. Berkey, and J. A. Berkey, Esq.

The applicants were Francis G. Smith, of Tyrone, and Kyle Roller, of Hollidaysburg, Blair county; Charles W. Carter, and Herman Baumer, Jr., of Johnstown, and Simon M. Lutz, of Lutzville, Bedford county. They were a class of bright, fine-looking young men and were subjected to a very thorough examination at the hands of the committee.

The committee reported that Francis G. Smith had stood the best examination, with Charles W. Carter a good second. In accordance with the report of the examining committee Congressman Scull has recommended Mr. Smith for the appointment, with Mr. Carter as alternate. Both young men will report at West Point for examination next June.

An Aged Man's Fight With a Ram.

John Deshong, aged eighty years, of Licking Creek, Fulton county, had an experience with a vicious ram the other day which he will not soon forget. He was suddenly attacked in a corn field, knocked down and hit four times while on the ground. Mr. Deshong caught the ram by the horns and fore leg and threw it. Man and sheep were then both down. Mr. D. dared not let it up in casting round for some means of help, he saw a stone which he succeeded in grasping, and with which he went to work with what strength he had, upon the animal's head He beat it on the nose below the eyes, until it was bleeding at the nose and bleated with pain. Mr. Deshong then let the ram go and it ran away.

THE UMBERGER TRAGEDY.

An Injunction Issued Restraining the Publication of E. H. Werner's History of the Case—The Book will Shortly be Placed on Sale with the Objectionable Matter Eliminated.

Last Thursday counsel for Rev. C. W. Granger, pastor of the Disciples church of this place, appeared before Judge Baer and asked for a preliminary injunction restraining the sale of E. H. Werner's book, "The Umberger Tragedy."

Following is a copy of the Plaintiff's bill:

No. 6, Equity Docket, 1891.

C. W. Granger vs. Edward H. Werner. } Bill in Equity.

18 June 1891 filed.
W. H. SANNER, Prothonotary

In the Court of Common Pleas of Somerset County, Pennsylvania, sitting in Equity, between C. W. Granger, Plaintiff, and Edward H. Werner, Defendant.

To the Honorable, the Judges of said Court:

Your orator complains and says,

1. That he is a citizen of the borough of Somerset, Pa., a preacher of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and Pastor in charge of the congregation of the Disciples of Christ worshiping in the said borough of Somerset, Pa.

2. That he was the spiritual adviser of one David Nicely, who was with Joseph Nicely convicted of the murder of Herman Umberger, as appears by the record of the Court of Oyer and Terminer in and for Somerset County, to No. 2, May Term, 1889.

3. That said David and Joseph Nicely were confined for a period of more than two years in the jail of Somerset county, during which period your orator made frequent visits to said David Nicely, reading the Scriptures to and praying with him.

4. That prior to the execution of the said Joseph and David Nicely which took place on the 2nd day of April, 1891, the said David Nicely made a written confession of his presence at the murder of said Herman Umberger, which confession was entrusted by said David Nicely to your orator with the injunction that it be withheld from the public for the period of one week after the execution of the said David Nicely.

5. That the confession aforesaid was as required by the said David Nicely withheld by your orator for one week from the public, after the expiration of which time it was by your orator given to and published by the newspapers in the borough of Somerset.

6. That the confession made by the said David Nicely is as follows, to wit:

* * * * * *

7. That after the publication of the said confession in the newspapers at Somerset, the Johnstown Democrat, a paper published in the city of Johnstown, Cambria County, Pa., published an interview of its correspondent with one A. H. Coffroth, an attorney at Somerset and of counsel for the defendants in the case of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania vs. Joseph Nicely and David Nicely, No. 2, May Term, 1889, Court of Oyer and Terminer, Somerset County, Pa.; murder of Herman Umberger, on information of Hammer Caulfield.

8. Said interview, published as aforesaid, in the said Johnstown Democrat, a newspaper of the city of Johnstown, as aforesaid, is in words as follows, to wit:

* * * * * *

9. Edward H. Werner, the defendant, a citizen and resident of the borough of Somerset, Pa., is printing and publishing a history of the arrest, confinement, trial and execution of the said Joseph and David Nicely for the murder of the said Herman Umberger, and in the said history has had printed the said interview as published in the said Johnstown Democrat—which said interview appears in paragraph 8th—and is a libel, defamatory of the good name of your orator, intended to injure and destroy his character and reputation for truth and his influence and usefulness as a preacher of the gospel, as aforesaid.

10. And your orator further avers that said book is to be published within a few days, and that if the said interview is published as aforesaid, it will do him irreparable injury in his profession and business, and he will be without an adequate remedy at law.

Your orator therefore prays: That the defendant, Edward H. Werner, his publisher, agent or agents, employes and factors, be restrained by the order and injunction of this court from publishing the said interview, set forth in paragraph 8th, in his said history of the arrest, confinement, trial and execution of Joseph and David Nicely for the murder of Herman Umberger, and from the printing and publishing of the said interview in any book, newspaper, magazine, pamphlet, circular or otherwise.

11. That such other relief may be granted as to your honors may appear necessary and expedient.

18 June, '91.

Somerset County, ss.

Personally appeared before the Prothonotary of said county C. W. Granger, who, being duly affirmed, says that the facts set forth in the forgoing bill as far as derived from his own knowledge are true, and in so far as he has derived them from other sources he believes them to be true.

Affirmed & subscribed before me this 18 day of June, 1891. } C. W. GRANGER.
W. H. SANNER, Proth'y.

To Edward H. Werner, the within named Defendant:

You are hereby notified and required within fourteen days after service hereof on you, exclusive of the day of such service, to cause an appearance to be entered for you in the Court of Common Pleas of Somerset County to the within Bill of Complaint of the within named C. W. Granger, plaintiff, and to observe what this said Court shall direct.

Witness our hands at Somerset, Pa., the 18th day of June, 1891.

F. J. KOOSER,
SCOTT & OGLE,
Solicitors for Plaintiff, Somerset, Pa.

NOTE.—If you fail to comply with the above directions by not entering an appearance in the Prothonotary's office within 14 days, you will be liable to have the bill to be taken pro confesso and a decree made against you in your absence.

Following is a copy of the decree of the court granting the prayer of the petitioner:

SOMERSET COUNTY
COMMONWEALTH OF PA., ss. }

To Edward H. Werner, Greeting.

WHEREAS it hath been represented unto us at our court of Common Pleas for the county of Somerset, in a certain cause there pending, wherein C. W. Granger is complainant, and you, the said Eward H. Werner, are respondent, on the part of the said complainant that you the said Edward H. Werner are printing and publishing a history of the arrest, confinement, trial and execution of Joseph and David Nicely for the murder of Herman Umberger and in the said history you have printed an interview of the correspondent of the Johnstown Democrat with one A. H Coffroth, an attorney at Somerset and of counsel for the defendants in the case of the commonwealth of Pa., vs Joseph Nicely and David Nicely, No. 2, May term, 1889 O. & T., murder of Herman Umberger on information of Hammer Caulfield, which said interview appears at length in paragraph of complainants bill, and is a libel defamatory of the good name of the complainant intended to injure and destroy his character and reputation for truth and his influence and usefulness as a preacher of the Gospel, we therefore, in consideration of the premises aforesaid do strictly enjoin you and command you, the said respondent, your agents, employes, servants and all other persons that you do from henceforth desist from printing and publishing the interview of the correspondent of the Johnstown Democrat with A. H. Coffroth set forth in the 8th paragraph of complainant's bill, in his, the said defendant's "History of the Nicely Boys, or the Umberger Tragedy" and from the printing of the said interview in any book, newspaper, magazine, pamphlet, circular or otherwise until our court make further order to the contrary, with leave to the defendant to move for argument of the motion and for dissolution within ten days.

Witness the Honorable W. J. Baer, President Judge of our said court at Somerset the 18th day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

W. H. SANNER, Prothonotary.

Served the within writ of injunction upon the within named defendant, Edward H. Werner, by producing the original, informing him of its contents and by giving him a true and attested copy thereof at about 9:10 p. m., June 18, 1891.

ISAIAH GOOD, Sheriff,
per H. F. BARNDS, Deputy.

After consultation with his counsel Historian Werner decided to eliminate the objectionable pages from his book.

The offensive interview appeared in the Johnstown Democrat several days following the 9th of April last, when Rev. Granger gave the confession of David Nicely to the public. No attention was given it by the clergyman until it became known that Mr. Werner had embodied the interview in his book and proposed spreading it broadcast.

Our quiet little town and surrounding community, have lately been the scenes of life in various forms. Although somewhat secluded we find many an "animated lump" who seems to think that the entire place and surroundings belong to him. Lately much ado has been made by Mike and Sigel, the latter, after the fray, turning up missing. As life in all its forms goes to make a place and a world we do not lack them here.

The latest fad is the "reunion" at H. Barron's. The entire community has been invited as one guest. A photographer, Mr. Truxal, a relative, has been invited to attend and take a picture of the group consisting of great grand-father, grand-father, grand-mother and so on ending with the fourth generation. The group consists of twenty or more and will be one of the finest as well as an excellent heirloom to bequeath to posterity.

A regular "shin-dig" was indulged in by the young people of this place. Saturday night was the date selected. Either from mismanagement, indifference or otherwise the "shin-dig" did not prosper and singing school was next resorted to with equal success. Climax reached—party "busted"

At the head of all blood-purifiers is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. But it's different from all of them. Whatever is claimed for this, it's guaranteed to do. The money is refunded in every case where it fails to benefit or cure. It's because it is different that it can be sold so. All diseases originating from a torpid liver or impure blood yield to it. It cleanses and purifies the system, freeing it from all manner of blood-poisons, no matter from what cause they have arisen. For Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Scrofula, Salt-rheum, Tetter, Erysipelas, or any blood-taint or disorder, it is an unequaled remedy. Nothing else can take its place.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol to inebriate, and no syrup or sugar to derange digestion.

It's a concentrated vegetable extract; put up in large bottles; pleasant to the taste, and equally good for adults or children; works equally well all the year round.

That Tired Feeling

Is a dangerous condition due directly to depleted or impure blood. It should not be allowed to continue, as its debility the system is especially liable to serious attacks of illness. It is remarkable how beneficial Hood's Sarsaparilla is in this enervating state.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Possessing just those elements which the system needs and readily seizes, this medicine purifies the blood, and imparts a feeling of serene strength which is comforting and satisfying. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best remedy for that weakness which prevails at change of season, climate or life.

"I have been convinced that Hood's Sarsaparilla is one of the greatest medicines in the world. I say this for the benefit of all other tired out, run down, hard-working women. Hood's Sarsaparilla is not only excellent as a blood purifier, but for all other female complaints, even if of long standing." MRS. M. A. SCARLETT, Northville P. O., Mich.
