Smart & Silberberg.

The Store for the People.

Don't you think it's most satisfactory to know that when you buy a single article or an armful, you get our "One Price"—the "Lowest Price," the Only Price? This basis established and every article marked in plain figures puts doubt and dickering out of the deal. A blind person or a child pays just the same as a horse trader. Now here's a little point—the fact that we mark everything in plain figures and stick to the price; and still "grow and grow," shows conclusively that there are no lower prices found. Our "little profits and thousands of sales" principle has won out and that's proof of its pleasing you, for without you we couldn't have become this big, modern store.

Kimonas and Wrappers $1.19.

A most famous special this is. No idea of the daintiness of this garment can be obtained from this description. See them yourself and you can appreciate this extraordinary value.

The Kimonas are made of Lawn, Demity and Long Cloth. They usually sell at $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00 and are made in various style.

The Wrappers are of lawn in all new designs and colors. They have yoke back and front and are finished with fancy braid, with deep flounces on bottom of skirt.

Colored Silk Waists $1.90.

It may seem hard to believe, but it is a fact—these waists were $5 and $6, and are all of this season's make. We advertised a lot a few days ago at $2.90. These are what's left of that lot; probably two dozen in all.

Three Bargains in Comforts.

Prices to close out every comfort we have that is carried over from last season. In a couple of weeks we'll receive over 50 bales of new ones—hence our readiness to sacrifice these.

At 89c—20 or 25 Cotton Filled Comforts, covered with good quality Silkaline, regular price $1.50.

At $1.19—25 or 30 hand tied comforts, not one of them worth less than $2. Filled with white cotton and covered with best quality Silkaline.

At $1.59—12 or 15 Fine satin covered comforts, the ones that have been selling at $3 and $3.50. Made in the best manner and of the best materials.

Wash Petticoats $1.19.

A final sweeping reduction on Washable Petticoats. Some were $1.75, but most all of them were $2.

A Case of Flannellettes at 5c yd.

A couple of thousand of these, in good quality and good styles. Pinks, Blues, Tans and Greens. We don't believe you can equal this quality elsewhere less than 8c.

Specials in Dress Suit Cases.

At $1.90—22 and 24 inch steel frame, linen lined, sold everywhere at $3.00.

At $5—Heavy English Sole Leather, stitched all around, heavy stitched handles, fine canvass lined, sold by exclusive dealers at $7.50.

Straight Front Corsets 50c

The best corset ever put on the market at the price. Made of good quality coutil, and on the same lines and model that the high priced Corsets are; in fact you get the effect of the $5 and $8 Corsets in the 50c line. All sizes, white and drab.

Good Velvet Carpets 69c yard.

You may as well have Worsted Velvet Carpets as Tapstries for your parlors; halls and stairs. There is an air of luxury about them that satisfies particular housewives. Our regular price is $1.00 yd. and some stores ask $1.15 for them. Of all the Carpet offers of the season, this is the best and strongest.

STATE CAMPAIGN PLANS

Chairman Reeder Arranges To Inaugurate The Coming Canvass.

THE CLUB LEAGUE CONVENTION

Young Republicans All Over the State Are Preparing for a Great Meeting of Delegates at Scranton On September 17 and 18.

(Special Correspondence.)

Philadelphia, Aug. 27.—General Frank Reeder, who has just been re-elected chairman of the Republican state committee was in this city yesterday arranging for the formal opening of the Republican state campaign.

General Reeder says he expects to find the party reaping the benefit of the exhibition of harmony given at the state convention last week and that he counts upon the enthusiastic support of Republicans of all factions in behalf of the state ticket.

The headquarters of the state committee are being fitted up and soon the machinery of the organization will be working night and day to get the canvass under way.

What will practically be the formal opening of the fight will be the annual convention of the State League of Republican Clubs which will be held at Scranton on the 17th and 18th of September. There has been a wonderful interest manifested in the workings of the league and the prospects are very gratifying for a large attendance of prominent Republicans at this gathering of the clans. The City of Scranton is noted for its hospitality and there is reason to believe that exceptional arrangements will be made this year for the entertainment of the delegates and other visitors to the convention.

J. Hampton Moore, president of the State League of Republican Clubs, has just issued his call for the convention.

As usual, the league will have the honor of opening the Republican campaign in the state. Steps will be taken at once in Scranton and on the part of the executive officers to arrange for a convention that will not only be pleasurable to all attending, but highly beneficial from a Republican point of view.

There will probably be a lively contest this year for the various offices. There have been several candidates suggested for the presidency of the league, among them Deputy Attorney General Fred W. Fleitz, of Lackawanna; Postmaster Isadore Sobel, of Erie, and ex-Mayor Crosby N. Black, of Chester. While there has been no one slated for this honor, the indications seem to favor the election of Mr. Fleitz, a talented young Republican, who has done splendid work upon the stump in several campaigns. The fact that the league will take a conspicuous part in the next gubernatorial campaign makes this year's convention one of special importance.

STORE ORDER TAX.

As the citizens of Pennsylvania reflect upon the work of the last legislature they will discover that there was much done by that body, which is entitled to commendation.

DO YOU WANT TO BE CURED TO STAY CURED?

That is just what we claim and propose to prove to you right here. The great claim for Thompson's Barosma Backache, Kidney and Liver Cure is, that it not only cures but makes a PERMANENT cure. We offer $500 if the following statements are not genuine.

Cured Twenty Years Ago.

Twenty years ago last Christmas I was taken sick with Dropsy. My legs and feet were badly swollen, I was confined to my bed, all my friends thought my time had come. My head pained me terribly, and finally my wife was urged by Mrs. Spring, the nurse, to try Thompson's Barosma and Dandelion and Mandrake Pills, "they would cure me," she said. As a last resort we tried Barosma, Liver, Kidney and Lumbago Cure and Dandelion and Mandrake Pills. I wish to say that the pain and swelling began to leave me at once, and a few bottles made a complete cure. I have recommended it to others with good results. I am well and have been ever since, which was the fall Garfield was elected. Anyone can call on me if they wish to know the virtues of "Barosma."

No Return of Disease in Fifteen Years.

About fifteen years ago I was all run down with nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart (often getting black in the face and thought to be dying). I lost flesh till from 190 pounds my weight was reduced to 90 pounds, and for six months I was confined to my bed. A relative of mine who had been troubled with female weakness and nervous prostration and had been cured by Thompson's Barosma, recommended it to me. I began to take the Barosma at once and was not only cured of nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart but began to gain in flesh until in a short time I weighed 190 pounds, AND FROM THAT TIME UNTIL NOW I HAVE BEEN PERFECTLY WELL, doing my own housework.

The demand from the working men of the state for the passage of a law which would break up the iniquitous store order system, under which employees have been paid their wages in orders on company stores instead of cash, was recognized by the Republican members of the legislature in the passage of the bill taxing store orders.

The corporations which have been affected by this legislation are already seeking to get around the act and they have appealed to the courts to help them.

This is one of the acts endorsed by the United Mine Workers' legislative committee.

EXASPERATING WOMEN.

The Bright Girl Has Something to Say on This Subject.

"Have you ever met a woman who exasperated you to the point of fighting?" asked the bright girl yesterday. "Have you ever listened to her 'es,' so distinctly enunciated, and her 'os,' so nicely rounded, and sat speechless and tongue tied before her while she used the words you had always wanted to use, but could never think of at the right moment?

"She is the most infuriating type of woman in the world to me. There is no other that so thoroughly paralyzes my faculties and that makes me appear at such a disadvantage. In the presence of the witty woman I can at least laugh and appear animated to that extent; with a beauty around I can still be agreeable, but no sooner do I hear the cool, well modulated voice of the perfectly self possessed member of my sex than I feel like flying to the other end of the earth, wherever that may be.

"Once for my sins I had such a person for a neighbor. When I first knew her, I felt an extravagant admiration for her conversational dexterity, so when I gave a dinner party I invariably invited her. Then I would sit at my own board and see the hostess-ship calmly taken out of my hands.

"'My neighbor' directed the conversation, patronizingly letting me into it every now and then. 'My neighbor' told little stories, charming little stories, slowly and with detail, bringing the point out clearly and joining her delightful laugh to the chorus that greeted the denouement.

"Occasionally I would have something really good to tell, but 'my neighbor' so transfixed me with her glittering eyes and her eyebrows were so expressive of concern at my temerity that I would hasten the recital, jumble the events and forget the point.

"When I finished, my cheeks would be burning, and my self possessed neighbor would observe evenly: 'Never mind, dear, I'm quite sure every one understood just what you were trying to tell us.'

"I have felt as young in that woman's presence as 18 months. I have felt as awkward as a turtle. I have forgotten how to pronounce the simplest words, and I have said 'it is him' an innumerable number of times. She belongs to a class. It's a large class, with more members in the north than in the south, but I tell you this—when I hear the voice of the appallingly self possessed woman in the hall of a new hotel or boarding house where I have planned to stay for a time, I pack my trunk and instantly flee.

"I have no desire to meet the owner of the voice. I know that as soon as I do I'll lose my nerve and my intellect and become a gibbering lunatic."—Baltimore News.

To us this is a simple business proposition. We have been spending $3,000 a year to tell you the merits of The McCuen Company's Famous Ready-to-Wear Clothing. About $500 of this year's advertising appropriation goes to pay for the difference between the cost and the sale price of this lot of SOUVENIR SUITS.

We will consider the money well spent if we can put the Clothing on the backs of men and boys who have not been wearing our Clothing, knowing that the merits of the suits will make customers out of every man and boy who is lucky enough to get one of our SOUVENIR SUITS.

REMARKABLE CURE OF CROUP.

A Little Boy's Life Saved.

I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steer of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth to-day.—John Demont, Inwood, Iowa.
