THE AGITATOR.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

H. J. RAMSDELL, EDITOR.

Wellsboro, Wednesday, Feb. 27, 1861.

S. M. PETTENGILL & Co., 119 Nassau St., New York, and 10 State St., Boston, are the Agents for the Agitator, and the most influential and largest circulating Newspapers in the United States and the Canadas. They are authorized to contract for us at our lowest rates.

New Advertisements.

Wellsboro Academy—M. N. Allen, A. M.
Mansfield Seminary—E. Wildman, A. M.
Orphans' Court Sale—Estate of Geo. Mattison.

☞ TO CORRESPONDENTS.—"Jake."—When the rock of Gibralter crumbles to dust and moss covers its remains, then will we publish your poem. It is altogether too sentimental for these rebellious times.

"N. W."—Be patient. We will try to find room for your article next week.

"Ivy" must send us her real name. We do not want it for publication, but as an evidence of her sincerity.

☞ The Rev. Mr. Mitchell, formerly of Binghamton, N. Y., will preach in the Presbyterian Church this (Wednesday) evening.

☞ Smith, at the Bookstore, has just received a large stock of wall paper, paper-hangings, fixtures, &c., as also a quantity of all kinds of school books.

☞ Mr. G. W. Waters offers at his studio a variety of landscape scenes, figure pieces, &c., painted in oil colors, at exceedingly low prices. Go and look at them.

☞ Our village and county are flooded with Lottery circulars, offering extravagant inducements to the credulous. We hope none of our subscribers will get their eye-teeth cut by these swindling concerns.

☞ The Bradford Herald of last week contains the announcement that for the present the publication of that paper is to suspended. This does not speak very well for the Democracy of Bradford. We shall miss the Herald.

☞ The Spring Term of the Wellsboro Academy, as may be seen by the advertisement, will open on Monday, March 25th. Mr. Allen has come to be known throughout the county as a thorough and efficient teacher, and we bespeak for the Academy continued success.

☞ THE GAME OF LIFE.—In youth, hearts are trumps; in manhood, diamonds and clubs; but at the close of life, spades are sure to win.

I would like to know what kind of a hand you hold, Mr. "Local" of the Agitator. Does hearts triumph, or are diamonds trumps? Let me hear from you. J. H.

N. B. I turn down clubs; you make it.—Democrat.

—Diamonds are trumps with us, JOSEPH, but we hold "nary" trump. Since you ask us to make it, we shall have to say spades; you play first.

☞ NEW MUSIC.—We have received from the publishers, Messrs. Oliver Ditson & Co., 277 Washington St., Boston, the following pieces of new music: "Douce Reverie," by T. Bardarzewska, 25 cents; "Greatest Plague on earth is Love," from the Opera of Robin Hood, by G. A. Macfarren, 25c; "Petit Infant" (French and English) from Lyre francaise, a collection of French songs, romances, &c., 25c; "Valse de Beau Monde," by A. P. Lighthill, M. D., 25c; "Cujus Animam," by Rossini, 15c; "Vesper Hymn," by Brinley Richards, 50c; "Darling Willie," words by W. T. T. Wright, music by Anthony Nish, 25c; "I cannot lose the dream of thee," ballad, by J. W. Cherry, 25c. Any of these pieces will be sent by the publishers, post-paid, on receipt of the price. Messrs. Ditson & Co., are extensive publishers of, and dealers in, sheet music, music books, &c., and anything in their line will be supplied on application. Give them your orders.

☞ THE FESTIVAL.—The Firemen's Festival at the Court House, last Wednesday evening, was a grand success, and our firemen reaped a golden harvest.—A very large company was in attendance, and for the most part everything passed off agreeably. The rooms and tables were nicely trimmed and decorated, and the latter looked really inviting. The ladies of Wellsboro against the world! During the latter part of the evening, Henry Sherwood, Esq., in behalf of Mrs. H. A. Guernsey, presented the Hose Company with a beautiful wreath. Julius Sherwood, Esq., responded for the Company is his usual humorous style. Both speeches were apt and timely, and were well received. The national colors which hung so gracefully over the hall received a passing notice from each speaker, and the hope expressed that it might never be dimmed by the loss of a single star, was greeted with immense applause. It was a grand time, and the firemen have every reason to be grateful (as indeed they are) to the the citizens, and particularly to the ladies who interested themselves so much in the entertainment, and contributed so materially to the enjoyment of the guests. We have been handed the following as expressive of the sense of a regular meeting of the Fire Company, held on the 20th:

WHEREAS, The Festival for the relief of the Wellsboro Fire Company, held at the Court House on the 20th inst., having resulted in a much greater benefit to the Company than we had expected; and

WHEREAS, Owing to the zeal and interest manifested by the committee of ladies appointed to assist in making arrangements for the tables we consider the success of the Festival to a great extent is legitimately due. Therefore,

Resolved, That we return for their services so generously rendered, we return to each of said Committee our warmest thanks.

☞ MORE OF THE CHURCHILL AFFAIR, AND MORE CREDIBLE FOR "A TROUBLED FATHER."—It is now settled beyond the possibility of successful contradiction that the celebrated Clark Churchill, than whom there does not live a more designing scoundrel, is in Jacksonville, Oregon, alive and well, and that his oily-tongued father has known these facts for the last eight months. The story of his supposed robbery and murder is too well known in this county to need repetition here. Our readers doubtless remember how meetings were gotten up by the "troubled father" and engineered by him; how resolution after resolution was passed, drawn up by his own hand, testifying to the good character of said Clark Churchill and sympathising with the bereaved (!!) family; how money was freely given and time spent by the philanthropic citizens of this and Erie counties to ferret out and punish the robbers and murderers; and we know how the "troubled father" came wining and dining us with long and senseless reports of meetings made out by himself—and all this, we have every reason to believe, when he knew that his son was alive and well. If Charles Churchill, the "troubled father," as he styles himself, can rest well and with a clear conscience with the knowledge that his own and his son's iniquities are known, we do not envy him his peace of mind. If the "troubled father" wishes additional evidence that he cannot longer humbug the people, we are prepared to furnish it. A gentleman, formerly of this place, and well known by most of our citizens, who is now living in Jacksonville, Oregon, in a letter to his friends here, says he has seen Clark Churchill. There cannot be mistaken as to his identity. The letter is dated Jan. 9th. We are kindly permitted to make the following extract:

"A young man by the name of Churchill, whose case I see mentioned in the Agitator as having turned up in Oregon, called on me a month or two ago. He brought a long certificate which he said his father had given him, and said his father and all parties interested where he was. I see by the paper that the old man rather denies knowing his son's whereabouts. I believed the young man to secrete himself no longer, to assume his real name and hereafter act in an open and honest way. There is no mistake about the man as Mr. —— has seen him and knows him well."

☞ Mr. Augustus F. Eckenstine, of this place, has in his possession two manuscripts, one dated 1550, and the other 1582.—Williamsport Bulletin.

—If Mr. Augustus F. Eckenstine will come to the AGITATOR office, we will give him about a bushel of manuscripts dated 1860, and another bushel dated 1861. He might label them "Rejected Addresses" with a good show of truth.

☞ TAKEN.—However, that is neither here nor there; she went home to breakfast, and had scarcely caught the full flavor of her first sip of tea, when the servant passed her a plate of biscuit, the sight of which, to say nothing of smell, immediately threw her into violent hysterics. "Oh!" she exclaimed, in an agonizing tone of voice, "take the horrid things from my sight." This sad spectable would have been prevented had the cook used D. B. DeLand & Co.'s Chemical Saleratus, instead of the worthless, impure stuff which did find its way into that otherwise peaceful and happy household. It can be procured of most dealers in groceries, and at wholesale from grocers in large towns, and of the manufacturers at Fairport, Monroe Co., N. Y.

MARRIED.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

MASONIC.

A regular Communication of OSSEA LODGE, No. 317, A. Y. M., will be held on Tuesday evening Mar. 26, at 7 o'clock. All transient brethren in good standing are fraternally invited to attend. WM. ROBERTS, W. M.
M. BULLARD, Sec'y.

A CARD.

We, the undersigned, having in use "P. P. Stewart's Celebrated Summer and Winter Air Tight Cooking Stove," purchased of Parker Brothers, Wellsboro, take pleasure in testifying to the complete satisfaction with which we have used them. For all the practical uses of a Cooking Stove, as well as for economy in fuel, they are unequaled by anything with which we have ever been acquainted. While in winter the amount of heat is amply sufficient for all purposes of health and comfort, its capacity for controling the heat is so perfect that in summer all the operations of the kitchen may be carried on, without inconvenience from the heat, thus making it the most healthy and convenient, and by its perfect fitting, (ensuring durability) in our estimation the cheapest and best Stove in use.
