LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS

Wellsboro, Wednesday, Nov. 19, 1862.

New Advertisements.

Union Academy—S. B. Price, Principal.
Auditor's Notice—James Kelley.
Notice—George Boal, Assessor.
Administrator's Notice—Jno. L. Robinson, Adm'r.
List of Letters—Tioga Post Office.
List of Letters—Wellsboro Post Office.

M. E. CHURCH.—The pews in the M. E. Church will be rented for the coming year, next Friday evening. Let there be a good attendance.

TRUE.—There is much truth in what an exchange paper says that the hardest critics in the community are to the course of its local papers, are those who wouldn't take them.

WILSON'S SERIES OF SCHOOL READERS,—introduced into some of our Common Schools, may be obtained at J. F. Robinson's Book Store at the lowest cash price. New advertisement next week.

GONE.—Mr. Parsons Darling, the Rebel Captain who was confined in our jail for the last two weeks, on suspicion of having broken his parole, has been taken to Washington by our Sheriff, upon an order of the Provost-Marshal-General to that effect.

UNION ACADEMY.—By an advertisement elsewhere, it will be seen that the Winter Term of this Institution commences Dec. 2d. The Fall Term just closed if said to have been quite successful and the prospects for the next term are still better.

YOU CAN ALWAYS TELL.—Before you go a shopping look at the advertisements of a newspaper. The man who advertises very liberally is always a liberal dealer; he sells more goods than an old fogy who hides his light under a bushel, and is therefore able to sell cheaper.

WAR NEWS is scarce. There is nothing of importance from the army, during the past week. The Grand Army has been divided by Gen. Burnside, into three corps, two on the left under Franklin, two on the right under Sumner, and the two in the centre, under Hooker. We shall hear from them soon.

JOLLIFICATION.—We learn that a grand Democratic Jollification is to take place here on Friday night next, in honor of the late Democratic victories. We don't know whether the Administrators of the late "Union-No-Party" of this county, are invited or not.

A bear, weighing two hundred pounds was killed by Anderson Roberts, and shot by Robert Hermick, on the mountain side opposite Daniel Speight's farm, near Montoursville, this county, recently. An old settler says that a bear had been killed at this same place every year for the last thirty-four years.—Lycoming Gazette.

FIRE.—Last Tuesday (11th inst.,) a fire broke out in the large frame barn of T. I. Mitchell in Tioga township and communicated to the large frame shed adjoining. Both were completely destroyed, including about 15 tuns of hay, &c. Loss $600—only partly insured. We believe the origin of the fire is unknown.

"SOGER BOY"—our correspondent in Niles' Company, has joined his Regiment after a visit to the Rebels in Richmond, and greets the readers of the Agitator once more. We welcome him back to our columns, and can't see but what he is as cheerful as ever. "G. W. M.," and Lieut. Mitchell are on hand, the latter giving us a most interesting account of the fall Richmond-ward.

FIRE IN WILLIAMSPORT.—The large and valuable Lumber Mill at Williamsport, belonging to Perrin, Langdon & Diven, of this village, was entirely consumed by fire on Saturday night last. Its estimated value was $30,000, on which there was an insurance of $25,000. About $10,000 worth of lumber also destroyed.—Elmira Press.

RAIL ROAD ACCIDENT AND LOSS OF LIFE.—A collision of two coal trains occurred on the 13th inst. (last Thursday) on Corning and Blossburg Rail Road about four miles this side of the former place, by which one man lost his life instantly and others were badly wounded. We did not get the Corning Journal last week, and have no particulars. The mail due here at noon did not reach us till near one o'clock in consequence of this accident.

SPECULATION IN BUTTER.—Just now speculators are engaged in buying up the butter crop of this county. Butter has suddenly gone up in the New York market, not because of a scarcity, but because the rate of exchange on London is so high that butter can be profitably shipped. If it sells abroad for the price it brings in New York the premium on gold pays for the transportation and leaves a handsome margin profit. Butter in firkins brings the market price.

TIOGA COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The Teachers' County Institute, held another session in the Chapel of the Seminary, last week, at Mansfield. We learn that about two hundred teachers were in attendance. The exercises were conducted by County Superintendent, assisted by Ex Co. Supt., Reynolds, Supt. C. R. Coburn, of Bradford Co., Profs. (Ex-member H. R.,) Profs. Wightman, Jones, and others. The Sessions were unusually interesting, and the evening Sessions are said to have been largely attended than ever before. Much valuable information was imparted to the teachers, which cannot fail to have the desired effect in our Schools.

EDITORIAL CHANGE.—JAMES PARKER, Esq., for years, Editor of the Chatauque (N. Y.) Journal, has withdrawn from that Journal. Mr. P. wielded a trenchant pen on behalf of Democracy—not that spurious kind of which the Buchanan, the Hughes of our State, and the Woods, the Ganos, and the Seymours of New York, are the exponents—but that kind of Democracy which acknowledges every man has the right to the proceeds of his labor, and that the Constitution of the Republic was intended to protect Freedom instead of Slavery.

Since the retreat to Harrison's Landing, Parker has been the unflinching advocate of McClellan's removal, alleging the incapacity of that officer as a reason therefor; and it must now be a gratifying gratitude to the retiring Editor, to know that some of his friends "didn't see it," Old Abe did. Good bye, "Judge." Here is our best wish to yourself and your successor, with our paper.

LADIES' SOLDIERS' AID SOCIETY.—On the 22d of September, the ladies of Middlebury, met and organized themselves into a society to furnish supplies to the Army Hospitals. The following ladies are the Officers of said Society: President, Mrs. A. Allen; Vice Presidents, Mrs. I. Newhall, Miss M. Allen; Treasurer, Mrs. Dr. G. Stevens; Secretary, Mrs. C. Adams. The members of the Society have met twice, and in just one month from the first meeting, sent, as the result of their labor, a box containing the following articles:

Feather pillows, 18 bearers for wounded heads, 6 double wrappers, 6 shirts, 3 pairs Canton flannel drawers; 12 eye-shades, 14 linen towels, 20 pairs slippers, 10 pin-cushions, with a quantity of old linen and cotton, 12 lbs. lint, 1257 yards of bandage; 200 stump and dove-tail bandages; 77 lbs. dried apples; 27 lbs. dried berries; 18½ lbs. butter; 1 can of pickled gages; 1 five quart can of sealed tomatoes; 4 papers corn starch; 2 lbs. castile soap; 1 sponge; 1 bottle black currants—weight of box, three hundred and thirty-four lbs. Eight dollars and fifty cents, is all the money that has been contributed, but the ladies have been very generous with other things which are essential in making up a box.—We design to keep up the "Society" during the war and feeling grateful for past help, we trust that our friends will not "weary of well doing," but continue to bestow liberally, so long as they shall be needed. Though we trust that the broad banner of liberty may soon be waving proudly over every State, from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico; and that "War," with all its attendant horrors may cease to be, and our loved ones safe with us again.

MARTHA C. ADAMS.

FEMALE SHOP-LIFTER.—These "cold chilling winds of November" are a not very gentle reminder that the sterner frigidity of winter are close at hand, and it is the duty of every "good wife" to see that her liege lord be well fortified against the coming blasts. So, at least, evidently thought Mrs. Gideon B. Hodges, of Sullivan township, Tioga Co., Pa. On Tuesday last, together with her husband, she came into town, and immediately commenced a regular guerrilla raid upon our numerous clothing stores. At one place she seized upon a couple of vests; at another a pair of pantaloons (hope for the sake of her innocent Gideon she didn't want to wear 'em;) at a third a coat, and so on ad infinitum, until she had received near $60 worth of clothing, which she (careful dame) packed away in a trunk at the Hotel where she was sojourning. She and the innocent Hodges then retired to dream of the admiration they would elicit as they, arrayed in the habiliments of comfort and fashion, dashed in among their rural friends of Tioga. But, alas! "the best laid plans of mice and men (and we think women, too,) oft gang a. glee." Yesterday morning Officer Hill called on the twain, and took them together with extensive wardrobe, before Justice Cooley. The fact of the arrest soon becoming known among those who, in these chilly times, contribute so acceptably to the outer man, there was a rush to the Police Office, and, some carried away mementoes of the Pennsylvania adventurers. The bill of goods thus dispensed by Major Cooley foots up as follows:

Guttenburg & Co., 2 Vests	$14 00
Gladke, 1 Vest	1 75
" 1 Cap	75
Stuart & Co., 1 pair of Pants	8 00
" " 1 pair Boys' Boots	1 50
S. Stryker, 2 pair of Gloves	2 25
C. Werner, 1 pair Pants	5 00
E. Lehman, 1 Shirt	1 50
Unknown, 3 Coats	20 00
Total	$54 00

On the identification of the property, the guilty parties coolly admitted their crime and urged in extenuation that it was their first attempt in this method of shopping. The husband, however, very ungallantly, as we think, endeavored to place too much responsibility on the wife, notwithstanding the fact that a portion of the goods were found on his back. Gideon said he owned a good farm, and was able to pay a fine if they would let him off so. After a consultation all around, he was fined $100. Upon the payment of this, he will be allowed to depart for the Key of the Arch, and we trust will sin no more.—Elmira Press.

In Knoxville, Pa., Oct. 15th, CHARLIE, Son of Charles and Helena Billings.

Scarcely two years had our little Charlie been with us, but during that brief period he had become the idol of our hearts. How fondly we cherished our darling, and how tendearly we guarded our flower from every rude breeze of life. But what earthly love could save our loved one from the icy breath of death? and one sad autumn morning the "Pale Messenger" bore our Charlie away; and the little one that blessed our lives with its winning sweetness, is now an angel beyond the silent stars. But while we mourn his early loss, we feel it is far better that our darling has thus early gone from the shadows of life, to that better land, where death and sorrow never come.

"It is well our Heavenly Father
Took him while his life was pure;
It is well he did not leave him,
All life's troubles to endure.
It is well, and yet the tear drop
Falleth, for alas we know,
That our fire side will be lonely,
We shall miss our darling so."

BOOTS, SHOES, LEATHER AND FINDINGS.

DR. FRANKLIN SAYS:

"When you have anything to advertise, tell the public of it in plain, simple language."

I am manufacturing good custom made Boots and Shoes which I will sell at fair prices, and only for READY PAY. Such work cannot be sold at as low rates per pair as eastern made slop-work, but it can and will be sold at prices which will enable the purchaser to protect his feet with good substantial boots more cheaply than with a poor slop shop article, which, even if it chances not to fall in pieces with the first weeks service, is but a doubtful protection in wet and cold weather. Try me.

Buck and Doeskins Wanted, in the red and short blue, for which I will pay cash and a good price.

Beef-Hides and Calfskins Wanted,

for which I will also pay cash.

Sheep Pelts Wanted,

for which I will also pay cash and the highest market price.

An assortment of sole, upper, calfskins and linings, pegs, thread, awls, knives, shoe-hammers, &c., &c., kept constantly on hand, which I will sell cheap for cash. Shop on Main Street between Wilcox's and Bullard's.

G. W. SEARS.

Less than Current New York Prices,

and still makes a small profit. Advantages of

SUCH PURCHASES

will at all times be given to the customers as far as possible. A years experience in selling Goods for
