Daily Telegraph.

HARRISBURG, PA.

Saturday Afternoon, March 1, 1862.

Dr. Jones will see patients at Herr's Hotel, on Monday at 11 o'clock, when he goes to Lancaster, where he will practice at the City Hotel till the 18th of March.

Flag Presentation.—The ceremony of presenting one of the State flags to Col. Schlaudecker's 111th Pennsylvania regiment, took place in front of the State arsenal at 11 o'clock this morning, and was witnessed by a large concourse of citizens. The 111th was mostly recruited in Erie and Crawford counties, and is one of the finest looking regiments that have entered the service.

Married.—We see by this evening's Hymeneal Record, that our friend, Mr. Kennedy, sitting member of the Legislature from Perry county, has seceeded from batchelorhood, and made a settlement in the blessed State of Matrimony. The oath of allegiance has been taken, and he and his amiable bride have declared in favor of union now and forever. May their happiness and prosperity ever attend them.

At Home.—Col. Seneca G. Simmons, of the 79th Pennsylvania regiment, and Mr. William Garret, sutler of the same regiment, arrived in town yesterday morning, direct from Gen. Banks' division on the Potomac. Col. Simmons has returned home on furlough to recruit his health, which has been seriously impaired. Mr. Garret gives a glowing picture of the state of affairs along the Potomac, and represents the boys from this neighborhood as being in excellent fighting trim, and anxious for a pop at the enemy.

Burglars About.—Burglars are beginning to prowl in our city again. Last week, as already noticed in the Telegraph, they robbed Hoover's meat shop in South street. On last Tuesday night they visited the confectionary shop of Mr. Odell, in Third street, and helped themselves to a large quantity of oranges. On Washington's birthday night they made a demonstration at Zimmerman's broker's office, in Market street, but failed to effect an entrance. On the next night, Thursday, they broke into the restaurant of K. Bryer, from which they succeeded in carrying off a quantity of butter, knives and forks, segars and other articles.

Proposition to Amend the Fee Bill.—A bill has been read in the Legislature amending the fee bill of 1821. It enacts that the second section of this act shall be so construed, that in all actions heretofore or hereafter commenced by writ, in any court of record in this Commonwealth, the legal and equitable plaintiff or plaintiffs in said action or actions, shall be liable to the attorney instituting the same for the costs and fees allowed by said act, in like manner as defendents are liable in cases where judgment has been recovered, and the same may be recovered as debts of like amount are now by law recovered.

The Recent Shooting Affair—Lieut. Koniganmacher Bailed on Bail.—Lieut. Samuel C. Koniganmacher, of the Fifty-sixth Pennsylvania regiment, charged with shooting the soldier, Van Valtenberg, in Raspberry alley, in this city, on Tuesday night, was brought before Judge Pearson, last Thursday evening, on a writ of habeas corpus, and, after a hearing of the case, was committed to bail—S. C. Slaymaker, Esq., of Lancaster, Col. S. D. Meredith, and the defendant each binding themselves in the sum of five hundred dollars, for the defendant's appearance to answer. Van Valtenberg, the wounded man, still remains at Herr's Hotel, and although still very feeble, his attending physicians pronounce him out of danger.

The New Court House.—The County Commissioners and Auditors.—The difficulties existing between the Auditors and Commissioners of this county have at length culminated in legal proceedings. The Auditors last week required the Commissioners to appear before them with their books, and to answer all interrogatories that might be put to them. The Commissioners conceiving that the board of Auditors were somewhat prejudiced, refused to comply with the request. The Auditors then gave the Commissioners to understand that they would exercise the power vested in them by law to compel attendance. The Commissioners, in order to prevent that, filed a petition asking the court for a rule upon the Auditors to show cause why a quo warranto should not issue against them. The rule was granted, and the hearing fixed for next Monday, March 3. In the meantime, the Auditors conceiving that the granting of that rule was not a supersedeas, issued an attachment, and have now the persons of the Commissioners in the custody of the Sheriff. Thus the matter rests for the present.

Important to School Superintendents.—A bill has been introduced in the Legislature having for its object the examination of our county School Superintendents, with a view of ascertaining their capabilities to discharge the duties of the position to which they aspire. It provides that the Judges of the District Court, together with the President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas in all counties except Philadelphia, and the President Judge of the judicial district, together with the Associate Judges of each county, shall appoint before June a committee of three teachers, the best they can find, who shall examine all persons voted for at this office at the Triennial Convention of Directors, and the General Superintendent shall commission the person found duly qualified who has the most votes. The examination shall be practical and theoretical, and twenty five per cent. of the questions must be orally answered. The Committees shall hold office for three years, but the members may be removed by the General Superintendent of Schools on proof of unfitness being given him; the citizens shall have a right to call for a new examination of a County Superintendent, and teachers have a right to appeal to the Committee on Examination.

The Rt. Rev. W. B. Stevens, D. D., Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, will officiate in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in this city to-morrow morning and evening. The rite of confirmation will be administered in the evening.

Notice.—In the absence of the pastor, Rev. D. Gans, the Rev. John W. Nevin, D. D., of Lancaster city, will preach in the German Reformed church next Sunday, March the 2d, both morning and evening. All who may have a disposition to hear this distinguished philosopher and divine are cordially invited to attend.

Church Dedication.—Rev. Charles Cook, D. D., of Philadelphia, will preach in the Locust street Methodist Episcopal Church at 10½ o'clock A. M., to-morrow, and Rev. J. H. Torrence at 7 o'clock P. M. The form of dedication will be held in the new Methodist Episcopal Church on Ridge avenue at three o'clock P. M. All the ministers and the friends are invited to attend. Preaching in the new church in the evening at seven o'clock.

Arrest of Deserters.—An order from Capt. Dodge, superintendent of the recruiting service in this State, makes it the duty of recruiting officers to arrest deserters and send them to him at Harrisburg, with the evidence of their desertion, when they will be transmitted to their respective regiments. Advertising rewards for the apprehension of deserters, a practice rather common of late, is prohibited.

A Remarkable Freak of the Wind.—Dame Nature is often fantastic in her conduct, and she often startles us by the superior skill she displays when she attempts to imitate human workmanship. A remarkable affair of this kind was exhibited in our city to-day by Maj. David Mumma, in the shape of a piece of a flag which his son had in his patriotism erected over his father's country residence upon the 22d of February, in honor of Washington's birthday and our recent victories. By the peculiar force of the wind the flag was torn into shreds, and platted firmly together in a regular four ply plat, as evenly and regularly as if done by the hand of some skillful workman; and as if to make an omen of good for our country, after the stars and stripes were firmly platted, a most curiously wrought knot was fastened at the end to prevent them, as it were, from ever becoming separated again.

Skating—Big Thing on Ice.—To the great delight of skaters, J. Frost, Esq., paid us another visit last night, and the ice this morning on Dowding's Pond was in grand condition. Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather, a large number of ladies and gentlemen were present, engaging in the invigorating and healthful exercise, which has lately become so popular. Old Boreas was unusually rude and churlish, whisking about the draperies of the fair damsels who braved his wrath, and pinching the cheeks and noses of their cavaliers, but the only effect seemed to be to make the beaux and belles draw nearer together and make them skate the faster. To go down the Pond before the wind was all very pleasant, but skating back again was not so easy. All fancy skating was out of the question. We saw one gentleman, indeed, executing several fanciful movements, but as we observed him shortly afterwards sitting down upon the ice, we concluded that his exertions had been rather too much for him. Still, in spite of the cold, the scene was extremely enlivening and cheerful. Here would go some young couple in full sail, tacking across the Pond to avoid the full force of the wind. There comes a gallant, backing up right in the teeth of the breeze with a fair craft in tow, in all the glories of ermine skating-hood and crimson balmoral. The ladies, indeed, seemed to pride themselves upon their hardihood in resisting the wind and the storm, and certainly they deserve all credit for their courage. If they only took proper precautions against being chilled after becoming overheated by their exertions, they will probably experience no ill effects from their exposure, although we doubt not that many old ladies sagely shook their heads to-day, when the young people returned from skating, and prophesied all sorts of evils in the future.

Calumny.—The meanest man on earth is the slanderer. He who, taking ambush behind the convenient phrase "they say," endeavors to destroy the reputation of an enemy is a wretch beneath contempt. The foot-pad who stops the traveller with his "stand and deliver" is worthy of respect, compared with the cowardly knave who stabs his foe in the dark, as Iago did Michael Cassio. His deed is courageous, if it is wicked, and he has at least the merit of making no false pretences. But the tattlers form another class, which is not altogether confined to those old ladies who delight to gossip over their tea, and before whose remorseless tongues reputations melt away like the sugar in the boiling Bohea.—Idle, chattering, empty-headed creatures, who delight, parrot-like, to repeat the last new story, but more particularly if it is to the disadvantage of those whom they call their friends, are to be found in every circle of society and of both sexes. They repeat only what they have heard. "So-and-so told me, I cannot vouch for the truth of it, very likely it is not so. I wouldn't on any account have the story come from me." And so these ill-omened magpies go hopping about, prating of that of which they knew nothing, and sowing the seeds of misery for many an honest man or innocent girl, when in their presence, their words will be sweeter than honey. It is a very good rule, but one which is often disregarded, to say nothing behind a man's back which you would not say before his face. It is the golden rule applied to the use of the tongue, and that member being proverbially unruly, perhaps it is no wonder that slander is so rife. The best man has some flaws in his character. The best man occasionally does things of which he is afterwards ashamed. It is, to say the least, charitable to pass them over in silence, and let them be forgotten as speedily as may be.

The Second Concert of the Continental Old Folks, at Brant's Hall, last evening, was an unusually pleasant entertainment. There are splendid voices among the Old Folks, and they use them to the best advantage. The voice of Mrs. Nichols is unsurpassed for sweetness, and she alone would be sufficient to "draw a house." Mrs. Sheppard is also a very superior vocalist. The basso of Mr. Gulick is powerful, and there is an alto voice in the party that is remarkable for strenth and melody. The whole troupe appear in ancient costumes, Mrs Nichols wearing the identical dress worn by Queen Elizabeth the first time she appeared before Parliament in 1599. The Old Folks will give another concert this (Saturday) evening, and we advise every person fond of good music to be on hand.

To the Public.—The condition of our country a few months since, and the fear of a protracted war, was the inducement with some of our manufacturers to advance the price of cotton goods, outside speculation also contributed to an additional advance, from the fact of holding large quantities of goods out of the market. The recent victories of the federal army, and the probability of a speedy settlement of our difficulties, has thrown those goods upon the market, hence a small abatement in prices; it would be folly, however, to expect much change until an uninterrupted supply of cotton finds its way to the northern states. We will, however, sell the following makes of calico at twelve and a half cents per yard: Pacific, English, Sprague, Cocheco, American, Hamilton and Gloscester and all other goods, at the same reduction.

Yours respectfully,
Urich & Bowman.

Two Hundred Pieces of beautiful new spring calicos; a large lot of bleached and unbleached muslin of the best make; blue checks at 12½ cents per yard; white stockings, at 12½ cents; another lot of those good white ribbed stockings; ladies' pocket handkerchiefs, at 12½ cents; children's pocket handkerchiefs, with border, 5 cents; shirt breasts 12½, 15 and up to 37½ cents; 25 pieces new pant stuff; undershirts and drawers very cheap; cotton and woolen socks, at all prices; 40 dozen woolen stockings, for children, 12½ cents; 1¼ yard bleached muslin 12½ cents; all wool French merinos, all colors, at 62 and 75 cents. Having bought the balance of the stock of a city wholesale house of plain and figured Swiss muslins, brillants, white cambrics, Nausuck and Victoria lawns, suitable for dresses, as those goods will be very scarce and dear next summer now is the time to buy. Our stock of Furs at cost.

S. Lewy,
Rhoads' Old Stand.

The Latest News.—Bargains! Selling off the entire stock of winter goods below cost, viz: Woolen, merino, cotton and canton flannel, under shirts and drawers, 40 and upwards; woolen mufflers, woolen and cotton ½ Hose, 104 and upwards; silk ties, 18 and upwards; suspenders, 12; also fine shirts, $1 00@1 25, actually worth $1 50@1 75; collars, all linen, 12½, and night shirts, 50; also a large lot of monkey jackets, all wool, from 75c@$1 00; also a large lot of Union shirt breasts, 10c.; fine bleach muslin, 1½ yard wide, 15c.; also bleached muslin, 6c., and fine Irish linen, 18@20c. per yard; Brooks, Clarks and Coal's enambled spool cotton, 4c. Ladies and gentlemen this is the place to get a bargain. Please call and examine for yourselves, as one call will suffice to convince the public of the above facts. Also, on hand a large lot of ladies' collars, cuffs, undersleeves, which I will sell equally cheap for cash. N. B.—Shirts, collars, &c., made to measure or from sample, on the shortest notice and most reasonable terms. If you want a bargain and a good fitting shirt, &c., just to go James A. A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES.

"Read the following certificate" from one of the first ladies in Utica, N. Y., who called upon my agents in that city (Mr. Wm. Bristol & Co.,) and told them that she, of course, did not wish her name made public, but if any one should doubt the wonderful efficiency of Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills, they might refer any Lady to her, as she considered it a duty, as well as a pleasure, to her knowledge of their efficacy, as administered to her daughter, a young lady 17 years old. She was fast going into consumption—had taken cold—nature became obstructed. Two boxes of these Golden Pills entirely cured her, and she is now in robust health.—"We were particular in buying the genuine. Full and explicit directions accompanying each box. Price $1.—Sold wholesale and retail by C. A. Barnyard, No. 2, Jones Row, and C. K. Keller, 91 Market street, Harrisburg, Pa. By sending either of them $1 00 thought be Harrisburg Post Office the Pills will be sent confidentially by mail to any part of the country; "free of postage."

N. B.—Look out for counterfeits. Buy no Golden Pills of any kind unless the box is signed S. D. Howe. All others is a base imposition and unsafe; therefore, as you value your lives and health, (to say nothing of being humbugged out of your money,) buy only of those who show the signature of S. D. Howe on every box, which has recently been added on account of the Pills being counterfeited. The ingredients composing the above Pills are made known to every Agent, and they are safe, and will perform all claimed for them.

Sold also by, T. L. Lumberger, Lebanon; A. J. Kauffman, Mechanicsburg; M. Marks, Lewistown; S. Elliott, Carlisle; S. G. Wild, Newville; J. C. Attick, Shippensburg; J. Spangler, Chambersburg; E. T. Miller, York; J. A. Wolf, Wrightsville; S. S. Stevens, Reading; and R. P. Hunter, Reading, and by "one druggist" in every town and village in the United States, and by

UNION RESTAURANT,
BILLIARD AND BOWLING SALOON,
NO. 119 MARKET STREET, NEAR FIFTH.

THE subscribers having erected a large building at the above place, expressly for the purposes above indicated, beg to call the attention of the public to the following:

The Restaurant, on the first floor, with a dining room attached, is fitted up in first-class style, and it will at all times be supplied with the best OYSTERS to be had in the Atlantic cities, together with terrapin, fish, and all kinds of game in season. Oysters served up in every style, and meals to be had at all hours. The Ales of all the celebrated breweries in the country constantly on hand.

The Ten-pin Alley, or Bowling Saloon, is in the rear, and contains three alleys of modern construction, where the lovers of this healthy exercise can enjoy themselves.

The Billiard Saloon is up-stairs—elegantly fitted up, and contains three marble top combination cushion tables, equal to any made.

Harrisburg has long felt the want of a grand combination of this kind, and as the proprietors are determined to conduct it in a quiet and orderly manner, and do everything in their power to make it a fashionable resort, they hope to receive a liberal share of public patronage.
