HARRISBURG, PA.

Friday Morning, March 14, 1862.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD STOCK.—Pennsylvania railroad stock is now up to $45,50 per share. Its par value is $50.

IN TOWN.—Rev. C. Dennison, Chaplain U. S. A. for a long time stationed at Fortress Monroe, Va., was in town yesterday, on a visit to friends.

WELCOME.—The days. The rays of old Sol grow stronger, and genial, bright-eyed welcome Spring will soon be with us again. How fast the seasons succeed each other; and how rapidly one year after another is engraved on time's dial-plate, as we are hurried on in our journey.

PENNSYLVANIA RESERVE CORPS. The Pennsylvania Reserve Corps are in a healthy condition, some regiments having scarcely a man in the hospital, and others not having lost a man by death. Their physical condition is excellent, and they are universally anxious for forward movement.

BEWARE OF SPURIOUS COIN.—Thompson's Bank Note Reporter warns the public against the numerous and very dangerous counterfeit of the half dollar gold pieces which are circulated extensively, and almost defy detection, except by an expert. The genuine coin is opened, fully one-half the gold taken out, then filled with copper, or some other equally heavy substance, and then closed up, the coin itself, to all appearance, remaining the same.

FUNERAL OF MR. JACK.—The funeral of Mr. James A. Jack took place, from his late residence in Second street, at half-past two o'clock yesterday and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends, and the members of State Capital Lodge, No. 70, I. O. of O. F., of which the deceased was a worthy member. Mr Jack for many years held subordinate positions in the Legislature, and the public offices on the hill, but lately he has been assistant in his son's book store, in Market street. He was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends for his many good qualities; and his death is much lamented.

THE CHARTER ELECTION takes place in our city on Friday of next week. Numerous candidates are already presenting their claims in the way of especial qualifications for the various offices, from councilmen down to ward constable, and so great is the anxiety manifested by some in regard to their chances of election, that we are actually fearful that the consequence of a defeat will result in some kind of mania. While we like to see pains manifested in the selection of good men for the different posts to be filled, and while we know this is essential to the peace and welfare of the city, we truly abominate the too prevalent practice of individuals forcing themselves before the public, rather than trusting to their own merits, which, if very conspicuous, will not escape sight of by the people.

MIDDLETOWN AFFAIRS.—A few days since, Messrs. Nisley, Bro. & Co., proprietors of the Susquehanna iron and brass foundry, received a bell from Canada for some of their celebrated farm bells. The bells manufactured by above firm are superior to any cast-iron bells made in the State, and are being extensively used for churches, as well as for farms. The German Reformed congregation have rented Union Hall, and secured the services of Messrs. Gerhart and Porter, of Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, who will officiate one-half two weeks, alternately.

The stockholders of the Middletown market company met at Union Hall, on Monday evening, and elected the following managers, to serve the ensuing year:

Mr. Monaghan, J. Rohrer, C. W. King, J. Rise, John Raymond, Samuel Ulrich and J. Rise.

After the election, the managers organized, and elected the following officers:

President, John Monaghan; Secretary, J. Rise; Treasurer, C. W. King; Market-master, William Smith.

Journal says that the light from the reflector in our city was plainly visible there, and seemed as though half the city was on fire.

REV. DR. DEWITT.—We announced a short time since that Rev. Dr. Dewitt had delivered his church, before his own congregation, and a large number of citizens of other denominations, a discourse on the anniversary of his seventieth birth-day, and the forty-fourth year of his pastorate over his present charge.

The congregation, immediately after, prepared to surprise the Reverend Doctor with a material token of their affection and confidence. On Wednesday night, a very large assembly, composed of his own and other congregations, filled the lecture room of his church, the New School Presbyterian, to witness the presentation of the presents, consisting of useful and elegant household furniture, among which were several pieces of very beautifully-wrought silver plate. They were presented to the Doctor on behalf of the congregation by the Rev. Mr. Robinson, the junior pastor, with some appropriate remarks, in which Dr. Dewitt's long and successful pastorate was happily alluded to. The Doctor replied in a few touching remarks, in which he alluded to the affection, sympathy and the confidence which his people, through the whole forty-four years of his ministry, had manifested toward him. His allusion to the pious dead of his charge brought tears to many eyes. On the whole, it was not only a very interesting, but happy occasion.

Dr. Dewitt, now in the seventy-first year of his age, enjoys remarkable health, and continues to discharge his ministerial duties with the vigor of youth. Never was he more beloved by his congregation than at present. May he live to grace his pulpit and adorn his profession in this community, where he is highly appreciated.

SPRING GOODS.—A new and splendid assortment of spring goods, for ladies and gentlemen wear, has just been received at Jones' store, Market street.

Now is the time to buy a good SHUTTLE SEWING MACHINE. An agent wanted for this place. Apply to R. C. MORGAN,
1t*-mae United States Hotel.

LIEUT. COL. SIPES of the Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry, Col. Wynkoop, having fully recovered from his severe indisposition, has made arrangements to leave town to-day to join his regiment, which he supposes to be some where in Tennessee.

FROM THE FIFTIETH PENNSYLVANIA.—A correspondent belonging to the Fiftieth Pennsylvania writes us that that gallant regiment is still stationed at Beaufort, S. C. The boys are generally enjoying good health, and the regiment has not lost a single man by death since it left Washington city.

AN ITEM FOR THE LADIES.—The new tax bill provides for a tax on steel hoop skirts, or skirts with any metalic hoops, valued at not above $10 per dozen, of $2 per dozen; valued at above $10, and not above $18 per dozen, $3 per dozen; valued at above $18 per dozen, $4 per dozen.

FIRST OF APRIL CHANGES.—City subscribers who intend to change their places of residence the first of April, and desiring their paper sent to a different place, will save much trouble by giving early notice of the fact to our carriers, or by leaving word at the office, always stating where they are now, or have been sent. The matter will at once be attended to, and subscribers will not be subjected to the loss of any papers.

CAMP ORR.—The last act of the military existence of Camp Orr was played out on Thursday last. The barracks, a lot of old boxes, barrels, and whatever else the United States could lay claim, were knocked of to the best and highest bidders, at very good prices. The grounds will now be prepared for the more peaceable purposes of the Armstrong Agricultural Society, and will be enlarged and refitted for the next annual fair.

BLITZ AND VALENTINE.—The renowned Signor Blitz, with his learned canaries, and the inevitable "Bobby," together with the famous Dr. Valentine, will open Sanford's Opera House next Monday evening, for a short season of their inimitable performances in magic and ventriloquism. The return of these celebrated artists is always hailed with gratification by our amusement loving public, and we may therefore look for a succession of full houses.

THE PEACH CROP.—Those who are much interested, and who are competent to judge in such matters, predict a large crop of peaches the coming season. The winter has been most favorable, and the critical period is said to be passed. One of our exchanges says:—We are certain that it will pay farmers to raise fruit, and the better the fruit the better the pay. No portion of a man's farm is quite so profitable as a well cared for orchard. The crop is full as certain as any other, and requires much less hard work to raise it. Farmers should give a little early attention to their fruit trees.

TRIMMING TREES.—The present is the proper season to attend to this work, before the sap begins to ascend from the roots to the trunk and limbs, and thus insure a plentiful growth of roots, and consequently an abundant foliage, which, as everybody knows, is a very desirable thing around one's dwelling during the sultry months of summer. The present month and April will do for preparing and planting out young trees, but the latter month is rather too late for trimming. In this section too little attention is paid to a proper time for trimming, and too many prune their trees in the latter part of April and in May, when the buds are not only ready to burst, but even are open.

BAD PLACE TO PUT MONEY.—The Easton Express says that a few days ago a rich farmer of Mount Bethel, in that county, had nine hundred dollars in notes that he did not know exactly where to place for safety, but at last concluded to put it in a stove in his house that was very seldom if ever used. A short time after he had deposited it there, one of the females of the house made fire in this same stove, while the old man was absent, when the money was burned up, the girl not being aware of its having been hidden there, and in a very few minutes the old man's nine hundred dollars were in ashes. We are told that this is a fact. The name of the farmer was given to us. He will probably never put money in a stove again for safe keeping.

THE PHILADELPHIA CONFERENCE of the Methodist Episcopal church will commence on Wednesday next, at the Union Church, Fourth street above Market, in that city. The Methodist churches of Dauphin county are embraced within the jurisdiction of this Conference, and of course the pastors, besides a large representation of lay-members, will be present. Among the interesting subjects introduced at the last session, and which will no doubt, be again agitated, was the division of the Conference. It was proposed to divide by the State line between Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland, the advocates of the measure being referred to a Committee, who reported that, in view of the national difficulties and embarrassments, and the disturbed condition of the public mind and the conflicting opinions of the churches in Delaware and Maryland on the subject, that a division was deemed inexpedient at that time. The Committee recommend to the Quarterly Conference of the Peninsula, a consideration of the matter, with a view to future action. The report of the Committee was adopted. The slavery question was also agitated at the last Conference, and it was disposed of without much debate. A preamble and resolution was submitted by the Committee on the State of the Church, in which it was declared to be indispensibly necessary to the restoration of peace and harmony in the Southern borders of the Conference, that the new chapter on slavery, inserted in the discipline, should be repealed, and requesting the Conference at its next session to repeal the same. The chapter referred to was supposed by some to embody a new condition of membership.

KITES.—There is an old maxim that there is a season for everything, and the boys certainly follow this rule, so far as their games are concerned. Every sport has its own appropriate time of year allotted to it, and a boy would no more think of playing ball in the marble season, pegging away with his top, when he ought to be using his shinny-stick, than a good Catholic would think of going to a ball in Lent, or eating meat on Friday. Just now the boys take advantage of the March winds, and the kite season has commenced. Every pleasant day the gally painted toys may be seen fluttering about on a level with the housetops, and sometimes soaring skyward, but more frequently perversely dragging their long tails in the mud of the gutters. Some of the kites are ornamented with all sorts of curious devices, and the picture of Jeff. Davis hanging by the neck to a gallows seems to be a favorite embellishment. The trees which line our streets, and the telegraph wires are the great obstacles to the city boy's kite flying, and many a car fully-made frame has, on the first trial, been wrecked either on Scylla or Charybdis—a stunted maple on one side of the street, or a wide-spreading ailanthus on the other. The fate of these toys reminds one forcibly of the results of the plans of the Southern renegades. They made their kite very carefully, and painted it very finely, but when they tried to raise it, it soon got entangled in the good old Union tree, and is now well nigh ruined. They may pull and twitch at the string as much as they will, but they will never be able to fly it.

INFLUENCE OF NEWSPAPERS.—Small is the sum that is required to patronize a newspaper, and amply rewarded is its patron. I care not how humble and unpretending the paper he takes, it is next to impossible to fill a sheet without putting into it something that is worth the subscription price," as for instance the location of Ulich & Bowman's cheap Dry Goods store, south-east corner Front and Market streets.

TWO HUNDRED PIECES of beautiful new spring calicos; a large lot of bleached and unbleached muslin of the best make; blue checks, at 12½ cents per yard; white stockings, at 12½ cents; another lot of those good white ribbed stockings; ladies' pocket handkerchiefs, at 12½ cents; children's pocket handkerchiefs, with border, 5 cents; shirt bosoms 12½, 15 and up to 37½ cents; 25 pieces new pant stuff; undershirts and drawers very cheap; cotton and woolen socks, at all prices; 40 dozen woolen stockings, for children, 12½ cents; 11 yard bleached muslin 12½ cents; all wool French merinos, all colors, at 62 and 75 cents. Having bought the balance of the stock of a city wholesale house of plain and figured Swiss muslins, brilliants, white cambrics, Nansuck and Victoria lawns, suitable for dresses, as those goods will be very scarce and dear next summer now is the time to buy. Our stock of Furs at cost. S. LEWY, Rhoads' Old Stand.

NEW GOODS.—I am now selling off my entire stock of goods at and below cost, or 25 per cent. cheaper than you can purchase elsewhere, viz: fine linen shirts, 75 cts. to $1; shirts, 50 cts., and 60 cts. with linen bosoms; night shirts, 50 cts; under shirts and drawers, 40 cts. to 87 cts., all wool; monkey jackets, 50 cts. to $1; cotton and woolen hose 10 cts. to 15 cts; silk ties, 12½, 15 and 18 cts; collars, 8 cts. to 15 cts. a piece; ladies' collars, 4 and 5 cts.; cuffs, 4 and 5 cts. a piece; under sleeves, 18 cts.; fine cambric at 18 and 18 cts. per yard, worth 25 cts.; Marseilles bosoms of a new style, and fast collars, 12½ cts.; all linen bosoms, 15 cts and upwards. If you want cheap and good goods just go to James A. Lynn, at the Harrisburg Cheap Shirt Manufactory, where he is selling off without reserve. N. B.—Shirts, &c. made to measure, Room next to Hummel & Killinger's grocery store, 12 Market street.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES.

"Read the following certificate" from one of the first ladies in Utica, N. Y., who called upon my agents in that city (Mr Wm. Bristol & Co.,) and told them that she, of course, did not wish her name made public, but if any one should doubt the wonderful efficiency of Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills, they might refer any Lady to her, as she considered it a duty, as well as a pleasure, to her knowledge of their efficacy, as administered to her daughter, a young lady 17 years old. She was fast going into consumption—had taken cold—nature became obstructed. Two boxes of these Golden Pills entirely cured her, and she is now in robust health.—We were particular in buying the genuine. Full and explicit directions accompanying each box. Price $1.—Sold wholesale and retail by C. A. BARNARD, No. 2, Jones Row, and C. K. KELLER, 91 Market street, Harrisburg, Pa. By sending either of them $1 00 throught the Harrisburg Post Office the Pills will be sent confidentially by mail to any part of the country, "free of postage."

N. B.—Look out for counterfeits. Buy no Golden Pills of any kind unless the box is signed S. D. Howe. All others is a base imposition and cheat; therefore, as you value your lives and health, (to say nothing of being humbugged out of your money,) buy only of those who show the signature of S. D. Howe on every box, which has recently been added to the genuine of the Pills none counterfeited. The ingredients composing the above Pills are made known to every Agent, and they are safe, and will perform all claimed for them.

Sold also by, T. L. Lumberger, Lebanon; A. J. Kauffman, Mechanicsburg; M. Marks, Lewistown; S. Elliott, Carlisle; S. G. Wild, Newville; J. C. Attick, Shippensburg; J. Spangler, Chambersburg; E. T. THE UNION AND CONSTITUTION.

"OUR GOVERNMENT: an explanatory statement of the system of government of the country, presenting a view of the government of the United States, and of those of the several States." By M. M. KINREY.

At the present juncture a patriotic sentiment, founded on a knowledge of our civil institutions, should be specially cultivated, as the chief element of nationality. It can be operative and abiding or useful purposes, only as induced by an intelligent approbation of the nature and principles of our government. Such intelligence, familiar and general among all classes of the people, is essential to the permanence and prosperity of the government. This is requisite especially now, from the extraordinary events of the time, and the vastly important questions of national polity soon to be solved. The above work gives the construction of the provisions of the Constitution of the United States, and of those of the several States, as determined by judicial authority and settled practice, or derived from standard writers. It is a fact, that the views of constitutional law thus presented on some subjects of the greatest importance, which formerly and at the time of the first publication of the book were discussed with much difference of opinion, have become recognized as settled doctrines, to be acted on in reference to the highest interests of the nation in this most eventful period.
