DEMOCRAT.

Rev Joel E Bradley.

The citizens of Bloomsburg and this entire community, will be gratified to learn that the Rev. Mr Bradley, has completed his arrangements for opening in this place early in April, an ENGLISH AND CLASSICAL SCHOOL. Mr. B is an estimable man, a competent instructor, and we doubt not his residence amongst us, as a citizen, will be hailed with great satisfaction, and the High School he proposes conducting, will prove a permanent public benefit to the surrounding country. We direct attention to his Card, in another column, headed Bloomsburg Academy."

Literary Periodicals.

We acknowledge the receipt of the "American Metropolitan Magazine," New York, for February, "Graham's American Monthly," Philadelphia, for March, and "Gosley's Lady's Book, do do., and regret that we have neither time or space to give them a more extended notice.

Dr. Lambert's Lectures.

Dr. T. S. LAMBERT, of Brooklyn, New York, has just completed a course of Phisological and Anatomical Lectures in Bloomsburg. His Lectures have been well attended, especially by the Ladies, and were received with the utmost satisfaction There is no hum-buggery about Dr. Lambert, either in theory or practice, and we are gratified to know that he carries with him the esteem and confidence of our citizens.
