Columbia Democrat.

ALEM B. TATE, LOCAL EDITOR.

Bloomsburg, January 16, 1858.

☞ Governor Pollock has appointed our townsman, Mr. A. C. Mensch, Notary Public. A good appointment.

☞ A brilliant Aurora Borealis or Northern Light, was observable, for a short time on Friday evening last.

☞ We received yesterday, under the frank of James Buchanan, a copy of his first message to the thirty-fifth Congress.

☞ The trial of William Muller, for the murder of George Mathias is now progressing in the courts of Luzerne county.

☞ Mr. A. C. Mensch, has been appointed Agent for Howards & Co's., Express Line, in Bloomsburg. His office is in his Store, on Main Street.

☞ For Magazines, New York and Philadelphia Dailies and Literary and Illustrated Papers go to Mrs. Clark's Book Store.

Legal Advertising.—The Sheriff's Sales for February term will be found in this paper. Other legal notices are also inserted.

☞ On Tuesday last the Term of Henry S. Mott, as Canal Commissioner, expired, and Nimrod Strickland was sworn in as his successor.

☞ There was lying at Hong Kong, at the latest accounts, a steam yacht, intended as a present from the English Government to the Emperor of Japan.

☞ Senator Douglas is a Vermonter by birth. He is 44 years old. Mr. Douglas learned the cabinet-making business in his youth, but afterwards studied law.

☞ Friday the 8th instant, was the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans.—It was commemorated in Philadelphia and other cities, by the parade of military companies.

Court.—The February term of our Court will commence on Monday the 1st day of February. From what we can learn there is but little business of importance to dispose of, and hence we may expect a short session.

Weddings.—The last few weeks have been prolific in weddings. The young folks are stepping up to the hymenial altar at an alarming rate. We chronicle some half dozen this week. The next best thing to be done is to subscribe for the "Democrat."

☞ The Lecture delivered before the Bloomsburg Dramatic Institute, last evening by Dr. D. H. B. Browne, Editor of the Montour American, was a happy effort. The doctor is a finished and pleasing lecturer, blending the serious and comic in such an agreeable manner that it cannot fail to win the applause of all who may hear him.

Revivals.—Our exchanges bring us news of revivals from almost every quarter of the State. A series of meetings, we understand, will soon be held by churches in this place. There is every where room for reformation, both in and out of church. Lovers of christianity and morality cannot fail to sympathize with these efforts to do good.

☞ The proceeds of the exhibition given by the Bloomsburg Dramatic Institute on Wednesday, the 6th inst., for the benefit of the Poor, was placed in the hands of a committee, composed of the following named gentlemen, I. W. Hartman, A. C. Mensch and Caleb Barton, Jr., who inform us that they have appropriated the sum for the purpose above mentioned.

☞ The Weather during the past week has been neither the one thing nor the other; indefinite and indefinable weather, that between a chill and a thaw, has been keeping us freezing and melting alternately, with miserable rains intervening at intervals, as if to try our tempers at every assailable point. We long for a right good spell of real, genuine winter weather, such as we read of in Thompson's 'seasons,' or in the indubitable chronicles of the actualities of by gone days.

The Thoroughfares.—No one, be he a stranger, or citizen, can fail to observe the miserable, sickening and uncomfortable condition of the streets and side walks in Bloomsburg. It has been the source of very much comment, and all agree that there is a great necessity for a remedy.—The crossings in many places are so bad that it is impossible to pass over them without getting up to—the knee, we were going to say, and in some instances it would not be far out of the way—ankles in filth and mire. We do not wish to blame any one, yet it does seem that there is gross negligence somewhere, to allow this disagreeable state of affairs. The side ways in many places are almost as bad as the streets, and indeed at some places filth has accumulated upon them to such an extent that it would do credit to the dirtiest barnyard in existence. The sorry state of these alone would render it necessary that something should be done to change the scene.

We are proud of our last monthly return. Our friends have done well, and we take pleasure in giving them due credit, for the faithful discharge of a known duty, trusting they may continue to be "mindful of the Printer," and enjoy the additional satisfaction of reading their names prominently recorded on the "ROLL OF HONOR." Few newspaper establishments in the country enjoy a better patronage, than the Columbia Democrat, a continuance of which we shall strive to merit, and hope our business intercourse, during the current year, may prove mutual and increasingly encouraging.

A NEW IDEA.

THIS PAYS WELL!—SEND FOR IT!

FOR FIFTY CENTS, in coin or stamps, I send to any address, my "Self Instructor," which I guarantee will enable any one to go right to work and make from 20 to 40 GOOD CORN BROOMS PER DAY. The necessary fixtures can be made by almost any person, at a mere trifle of expense. The Selinsgrove Democrat, of August last, says: "We are always glad to announce anything new that may be turned to a useful purpose. P. H. Fisher, of this place, is doing the public no small degree of service by the introduction of his very simple mode of making Corn Brooms; by which any one can make them at a very trifling cost. We cheerfully recommend his Self Instructor, as something worthy the attention of all who are growing Broom Corn." It also gives the best mode of raising and curing it.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

From the Principal of the Fredonia (New York) Seminary.

FREDONIA, July 17.

Dr SETH W. FOWLE, Dear Sir: From my youth I have been subject to lung complaints. In February last I took cold, a cough set in. I expectorated freely, but the mucous raised from the lungs indicated a disease deeply seated. Two or three physicians kindly sent me their medicines, which have been very efficient in curing coughs, but they failed to reach my case.—In the latter part of April I left home, intending to travel a while, and, if possible, escape by that means from present danger. When I reached Buffalo, my cough was considerably aggravated. A friend there advised me try the Balsam of Wild Cherry, but I told him I had swallowed medicine enough. The next day my friend urged me again to try "Doctor Wistar," and at 3 P. M., I was willing to try anything, for I coughed constantly. I procured a bottle, drank of it, continued taking it from that bottle one week, and when the Balsam was gone my cough and pains were gone, and I have not coughed since.

Respectfully yours,

F. A. REDDINGTON.

None genuine unless signed I. BUTTS on the wrapper.

Extract from a letter by the Rev. Mr. Churchill, of Boston, who is now travelling for his health in the East.

"It gives one an ever present idea of its expansive enterprise of his countrymen, to find their commodities or name are continually in his path wherever he goes. I have not visited any considerable city of Turkey, where I did not find the Medicines of my country, represented by AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. In Smyrna, Aleppo, Jaffa, Jerusalem and Constantinople, we see in each, on the door post of some bazaar, the peculiarly American looking Iron card, of Dr. Ayer, saying in a language which not one in a thousand of the passers by can read, "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for Coughs, Colds and Consumption, Sold Here." On a shelf behind the cross legged Mussulman are seen the bottles with their English, Spanish, French and German faces turned towards the crowd, and on enquiring we are told that foreigners are not the only purchasers, but the true believers themselves wave their trust in fate to try this product of American skill, when they find there is no other cure for them.

I was told yesterday that the Cherry Pectoral had been presented to the Sultan, and is now in constant use in his harem and in the hospitals of the Empire."

☞ A NEW FIRM AND BUSINESS UPON NEW PRINCIPLES.—THOMAS P. DILL & CO., have become proprietors of the WHITE HALL CLOTHING BAZAAR, corner of Fourth and Market streets, Philadelphia, but will not follow in the beaten track. We are satisfied that the only way to build up and keep a large business is to sell goods cheap and give satisfaction to customers (pretence will not answer and humbug has had its day) and we intend to sell our goods at 5 per cent. advance upon cost (no less and no more) and no variation in marked prices. This system will sustain itself without puffing. We shall buy and sell exclusively for Cash. Our Clothing will be made as well as clothing can be made. Our assortment for men and boys is the largest in Philadelphia, and our prices much lower than others. Call and see for yourself.
