COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

John G. Freeze, Local Editor.

SATURDAY MORNING, JANUARY 18, 1862.

☞ To-morrow is the second Sunday after Epiphany.

First English parliament met January 20, 1269.

Louis XVI beheaded, January 21, 1793

Lord Byron born January 22, 1783.

Frederick the Great born, January 23, 1712.

The crusade begins January 24, 1203.

The conversion of Saint Paul 25 January.

☞ The Odd Fellows held their annual celebration in Bloomsburg this week.

☞ Judge Peckham will hold his first court in Bloomsburg, on Monday the 3d February next.

☞ A press of jobbing this week has put the boys slightly behind with the paper; and their thanks are tendered to the Star for very material aid.

☞ Last Monday morning the walking on our streets was of the worst possible description—numerous falls but no accidents resulted ☞ Prof. Shank, late of the Grangeville Academy will lecture in the Court House on Tuesday evening; on, we are informed, some literary topic.

☞ We are inexpressibly pained to learn of the severe and protracted and distressing illness of the Hon. Paul Leidy, of Montour County. At the present writing the hopes of his ultimate recovery are but faint.

☞ Our thanks are due to Will G. Brower, Page to the Senate, for a pamphlet copy of the Governor's Message.

Also, Mr. Tutton, Mr. Divins and Col. Tate have our thanks for legislative favors.

☞ We are pained to chronicle the fact that another Columbia County Volunteer has died in the army, at Fort Good Hope. That person was the son of B. of P. Fortner of Cattawissa, aged about 17 years, and who enlisted in November last, with the "Baldy Guards." His disease was typhoid fever His remains were brought to Catawissa for interment. He died on the 3rd inst. Peace to his ashes. Star

☞ Richard Torby, of Centre township, this county was imprisoned in this place, one day last week, for striking a man with a shovel, by the name of Andrew Bailey, who died in the course of twelve hours after. As to the particulars of the affair we refrain from speaking at the present The matter will undergo a full investigation before the proper tribunal. The said affair happened at Upper Lime Ridge.—Star.

☞ The Continental Monthly No. 2—J. R. Gilmore No. 110 Tremont Street Boston, Publisher is on our table. It is decidedly tasteful in get up, and its articles look interesting We have not had time to read it yet. Among its contributors are some names well and favorably known, others Horace Greeley for example, calculated to do more hurt than good. "Artemas Ward" will appear in the editorial department. Terms $3,00 a year, postage paid by the Publishers: Will they be good enough to send us the first number? Since writing the above we have dipped into the Continental, and find it nigger, abolition and emancipation!

☞ About 2 o'clock on Sunday morning last, Mr. WILLIAM ERASMUS of this place, met with a serious accident, by falling from the top of the "hoisting works, "some sixty feet, at the Bloom Furnace.—In the fall one of his legs was broken, and his whole person very much injured, both internally and externally. He was engaged at the top of the Furnace stack, and it is supposed through a misstep, in the dark, probably fell from the place above mentioned. It was a miracle, considering the height and hard surface upon which he fell, that he was not killed outright.—Doubts are entertained as to his recovery.

P. S. Since writing the above the person injured has died. He leaves a wife and two children. Aged about 29 years.

☞ Our neighbor of the Democrat has left for Harrisburg. His paper will be conducted by Col. JOHN G. FREEZE during his absence. We may expect a more decently conducted sheet, for barring the Colonel's radical partisan proclivities, he has some appreciation of the amenities which should control editorial conduct.—If any coarse, vulgar abuse is allowed to disgrace the columns of the Democrat this winter we will acknowledge that we have been mistaken.

"Some appreciation," Dr.? Begging your pardon—Some is not a good word—it is susceptible of, you know, a depreciatory construction. When you go to oblige a fellow, dont do it by halves. It seems as if you meant to Damn with faint praise, assent with civil leer, And without sneering teach the rest to sneer. But we know you did not so mean it; therefore accept our acknowledgments all the same as if "some" was out.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, the Hon. AARON K. PECKHAM, President Judge of the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace and Court of Common Pleas and Orphan's Court, in the 26th Judicial District, composed of the counties of Columbia, Sullivan and Wyoming, and the Hon. John McReynolds & Stephen Baldy, Associate Judges of Columbia county, have issued their precept, bearing date the 5th day of Dec. in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one and to me directed for holding a Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail delivery, General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, Common Pleas and Orphan's Court, in Bloomsburg, in the county of Columbia, on the first Monday, (being the 24 day) of February, next, and to continue one week.

Notice is hereby given, to the Coroner, the Justices of the Peace and Constables of the said county of Columbia that they be then and there in their proper persons at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, with their records, inquisitions and other remembrances to do those things which to their offices appertain to be done. And those that are bound by recognizance, to prosecute against the prisoners that are or may be in the Jail of said county of Columbia to be then and there to prosecute them as shall be just. Jurors are requested to be punctual in their attendance, agreeably to their notices. Dated at Bloomsburg, the 28 day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and in the eighty sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America. (God save the Commonwealth.)

BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL

ESTABLISHED AS A REFUGE FROM QUACKERY.

The Only Place where a Cure can be Obtained.

DR. JOHNSTON has discovered the most Certain, speedy and only Effectual Remedy in the World for all private Diseases, Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Stricture, Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsy, Languor, Low Spirits Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Diseases of the Head, Throat, Nose or skin, Affections of the Liver Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible Disorders arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth—those secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Marines of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c. impossible.

YOUNG MEN

Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most exalted talent and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence or wielded to extacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, organic debility deformities, &c., speedily cured.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. Johnston, may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS

immediately cured and full vigor restored.

This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excess from not being aware of the dreadful consequence that must ensue.

Now, why that understanding this subject will pause and ponder—why that the power of procreation is not sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent.

PUBLIC NOTICE FOR LICENSES.

(Late of 518 Market Street Philadelphia)
IMPORTER & MANUFACTURER OF, and DEALER IN ALL kinds of FANCY FURS, For Ladies Misses and Children's wear.

Having now manufactured and in store my usual large and beautiful assortment of all the various styles and qualities of Furs adapted to the coming Fall and Winter seasons I would respectfully invite an examination of my stock and prices from those intending to purchase, as I am enabled to offer them very desirable inducements.

All my Furs have been purchased fresh and made by experienced and competent hands, and as I at present monetary troubles render it necessary that I should dispose of my goods at very small advance on cost.

I am satisfied that it will be to the interests of those now design purchasing, to give me a call.

☞ Recollect, the name, number and street: John Fareira. (New Fur Store,) 718 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Thirty Men Needed!

THE undersigned having been detached by Adjt Gen Thomas for the recruiting service, has come to Columbia Co. for that purpose. The recruits will be attached to BATTERY F, (or Matthews' Battery),

FIRST PENNA. ARTILLERY,

now under the command of Maj. G. A. Banks and doing duty on the Upper Potomac. It has already an extended reputation, and has seen much service. We number six guns, 120 men, and have all the necessary equipments. One section is composed of the celebrated steel rifled Parrot Guns, capable of doing execution four miles.—The recruits if they desire can be held as reserves, until they attain the necessary proficiency. Those who prefer going to drivers can do so. Gen. McClellan has declared that "this is to be a war of artillery;" hence it is considered the most important arm of the service.—The pay is liberally and interesting. In action, while cavalry and infantry are waiting for or moving towards the enemy, we can plough their ranks or storm their fortifications with shot, shell and canister. Artillerymen never stand guard duty, nor appear at daily parades nor travel on foot. While the infantry are plodding along with heavy knapsacks and gun equipments, cannoneers can ride along pleasantly and at a comparatively fast rate. The objection to heavy artillery is that the men are always cooped up in narrow fortifications, and "doing nothing" is a soldier's abomination. The chance for promotion in this arm are double that of any other service.

To arouse the patriotism of the young men of this community, I can't need refer to the threatening attitude of England. Do not let her find our men backward when she threatens.

Pay is equal from enlistment. For particulars enquire at the office of E. H. LITTLE, Esq., when I can generally be found. Recruits will be promptly cared for upon their arrival.

THE WEEKLY JOURNAL OF COMMERCE.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The approaching New Year is a good time for renewing subscriptions and increasing the circulation of the Journal of Commerce. We address ourselves to the old readers of the paper, with entire confidence in their willingness to aid us, and to extend the influence of the sound conservative principles and morals which have hitherto characterized and will hereafter characterize this paper. Every Subscriber is to the Journal of Commerce might do a great service to these principles, and strengthen us in our ability to support and circulate them, by sending us the name of at least one new subscriber in his town.

Devoted firmly as we have been to our country's interests, and have long been called "Union Savers" as a term of reproach, we are and shall be the firm upholders of opposing with heart and pen every man, South or North who is an enemy to either. Every form of disorganization and revolution will find us ready for the combat.—Among the foes of the American Union and American principles, we rank side by side, and we propose with all our strength to defend the nation against the attacks of both.

THE UNION AND THE CONSTITUTION

ABOLITIONISM AND SECESSIONISM

We belong to no political party, owe obligations to no government or party patronage, but retain in all respects our independent right to uphold the good while we oppose the bad, of whatever name.

We are firm defenders of

CHRISTIANITY AND CHRISTIAN MORALITY,

in public and private life. Without publishing a religious newspaper, or making any pretences to religious character, we shall be found hereafter, what we have heretofore been, the only
