COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

John G. Freeze, Local Editor.

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 24, 1862.

☞ There was but little business at the Danville Court.

—:o:—

☞ The Sheriff took Richard Torby to the Penitentiary on Monday last.

—:o:—

☞ Speculations are being indulged in on the Congressional question. There is a prospect of a lively time.

—:o:—

☞ The Star's Devil has been bitten by a dog. Was it the dog of the daddy of the Gal he was after? Look out for Towner sonny.

—:o:—

☞ We had a most delightful rain on Wednesday evening and night. We do not remember, so early in the season to have seen the earth so dry. The rain will be worth thousands of dollars to the county of Columbia.

—:o:—

☞ We had a run over to Danville, Milton and Lewisburg, and found the appearance of fruit and grain most promising; And the late rain last Wednesday would vastly increase the chances.

—:o:—

☞ We are informed that Miss Vance was more seriously hurt by the dog than was first supposed. There are a few of the one hundred and ninety-two dogs of Bloomsburg, that will be killed before long if their owners do not keep them chained. They are nuisances.

—:o:—

Mrs. Mary A. Franklin, of Scituate, N. Y., on the morning of April 1st, was awakened by some one knocking at the door—spoke once to her children, and in a few moments was a corpse. She had been laboring under a fear of being turned out of her tenement on that day, and it is presumed the knocking at the door frightened her to death. The husband is in the army.

—:o:—

DEATH OF A CITIZEN.—We have been again called upon to record the death of another of our Mexican Volunteers, in the person of David Jones, of this place, who died at his residence on Friday last, and was interred by the honors of war, on the following Sabbath, the "Home Guard" participating. The funeral was largely and respectably attended. He served as a soldier during the war of Mexico, having volunteered and entered the service with a Company from Pottsville. He was an industrious citizen, and leaves a family consisting of a wife and five little children to mourn his death. His disease we have not learned, but can say that he had been unwell for a long time. Aged about 38 years.—Star.

—:o:—

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Monday morning last, a Son of Henry Wolf, of this place, met with a fatal accident by jumping off the platform of the hind car of the down passenger train while in motion, on the Lackawana and Bloomsburg Railroad a short distance below the Depot at this place, where the boy, with a number of others had stopped on the train, it is said, to ride to Rupert Station. The train was making some 20 to 25 miles per hour, when the boy leaped from the platform, upon the track behind the train, striking his head against a rail and otherwise injuring himself. He was picked up senseless by persons on the train (the train having immediately stopped) and carried to his father's house, where he expired in the course of a few hours, his age was eight years. Too much care cannot be exercised about the Depots in keeping the boys off the trains. We are informed that the boys have been in the habit of getting on the trains at the Depot at this place and riding to Rupert Station, where they would wait for a train to ride back upon. This is a warning for all. One other boy, a brother to the deceased, jumped from the train but escaped without receiving much injury. He sprang to one side of the track.—Star.

WHITE HALL CLOTHING BAZAAR, Southwest corner of FOURTH AND MARKET STREETS, PETER S. LEVICK, Proprietor.

Nov. 16, 1861. (May 1, 1861—12m.)

Uniformity of Prices!—A New Feature in Business! Every one his own Salesman! JONES & CO. of the Crescent One Price Clothing Store, No. 504 Market street, above Sixth, Philadelphia.

In addition to having the largest, most varied and fashionable stock of Clothing in Philadelphia, made expressly for retail sales, have constituted every one his own salesman, by having marked in figures, on each article at the very lowest price it can be sold for so they cannot possibly vary—all must buy alike.

The goods are well sponged and prepared, and great pains taken with the making so that all can buy with the full assurance of getting a good article at the very lowest price. Also, a large stock of piece goods on hand of the latest style and best qualities, which will be made to order, in the most fashionable and best manner, 25 per cent., below credit prices.

Remember the Crescent, in Market, above Sixth Street No. 504. JONES & CO.

☞ THOMAS W. MATTSON, Received the Prize Medal at the World's Fair in London 1851, for TRUNKS CARPET BAGS, Boots, shoes and Gaiters. Great inducements are now offered to purchasers of the above articles. This is much the largest stock of trunks, Carpet Bags, Gaiters, &c., in Philadelphia very cheap for cash No. 402 Market Street, one door above 4th. South side.

MILITARY UNIFORMS.—There is, perhaps, no department of military business in which there has been a more marked improvement than in the clothing of soldiers. Not many years since officers and privates were clad in garments which were almost skin-tight. They were leather stocks, which were worthy of the name, for they kept the wearer in tribulation; while their padded breasts and tight sleeves made volition a matter of great difficulty. During the present war, such of our volunteers as procure their uniforms at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth Philadelphia, obtain clothing that is perfectly easy, substantial and becoming. The firm named have gone largely into the business of making Military Clothing, and their facilities enable them to fill the largest order in the shortest possible time.

THE PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER,

Double Sheet, Forty-Eight Columns.

Published every Morning, (Except Sundays,) by Wm. W. Harding, No. 121 South Third Street, Philadelphia, Pa. The Greatest newspaper of Philadelphia! The trying times of the nation's history, in which we live, render a Live Newspaper! an indispensable to every man who would keep himself informed of the important events which are daily transpiring. To furnish a paper which will meet the just expectations of the public in such a time as the present, requires an amount of labor and of extraordinary expense of which the community at large have no conception. The publishers of

has spared no efforts or money to make it all that it could be made. Besides improving and strengthening the home force during the past year, several of the best Reporters and Letter writers in the country have been sent, at great expenses, with the Army and Navy, and have frequently given the public the first and fullest accounts by telegraph and by mail, of important

EVENTS AT THE SEAT OF WAR.

The Inquirer was the first northern paper to give the account of the Hatteras and Port Royal victories, and was twelve hours in advance of any paper in the country, in its publication of the details of the Bull Run Battle. What the Inquirer has done, is but an earnest of what will be done, in order to give its readers and best accounts of every event of interest connected with and at the same time have it maintain its reputation as the best general newspaper in the country.

The increase in the circulation of the Inquirer during the year, is the best evidence of the extent to which the public rely upon it for the news of the day. Its circulation has averaged for several months' past, a week, or nearly forty thousand a day, and it has, during the year, in times of excitement, reached over seventy thousand a day—testing the capacity of our first press to the utmost to supply the demand. It commenced the New Year with new and beautiful copper-faced type, and with renewed vigor and activity in its News and Editorial departments.

OVER TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND COPIES

The Inquirer is independent in politics.

☞ Prices at which the Philadelphia Inquirer is furnished:—Single copies Two Cents, or twelve cents a week; Daily Paper $5 per annum, in advance; Two months $1; Tri-Weekly $1. All letters should be addressed to WM. W. HARDING, Publisher, Inquirer Building, 121 South Third S.
