COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT

BLOOMSBURG,

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 14, 1863.

☞ "CLING TO THE CONSTITUTION, AS THE SHIPWRECKED MARINER CLINGS TO THE LAST PLANK, WHEN NIGHT AND THE TEMPEST CLOSE AROUND HIM."—Daniel Webster.

PURPOSES OF THE WAR!

CONGRESS, BY A VOTE NEARLY UNANIMOUS, PASSED THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTION, WHICH EXPRESSES THE VOICE OF THE NATION AND IS THE TRUE STANDARD OF LOYALTY:

"That the present deplorable civil war has been forced upon the country by the disunionists of the Southern States, now in arms against the Constitutional Government, and in arms around the Capital; that in this National emergency, Congress, banishing all feeling of mere passion or resentment, will recall at only its duty to the whole country; that this war is not waged on their part in any spirit of oppression, or for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, or purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of those States, but is defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution, and to preserve the Union, with the dignity, equality, and rights of the several States unimpaired; and that as soon as these objects are accomplished the war ought to cease."

☞ Since 1857 the amount of tax assessed to Columbia county, by the State, is $203,170 22, and the amount actually paid is $207,694 98.

☞ The Philadelphia Press speaks of Judge Naar, of New Jersey, as "having been the slave of James Buchanan."—This is the coolest piece of impudence on record. If ever James Buchanan owned a slave, a cur who licked his feet, and went and came at his bidding, that slave, that cur, was John W. Forney, now the dirtiest whelp in Lincoln's kennel.

☞ The Tribune informs the nation that "Simon Cameron, true to this policy and to the manhood of his report of 1862, proposes to lead a brigade of colored Unionists into the heart of the rebellion." The Tribune is hard upon its chromatic patriots. Simon Cameron may be very happy to lead a brigade of "colored Unionists" into the heart of the rebellion (wherever that may be) or anywhere else out of the reach of Dr. Boyer and senatorial committees. But what will the "colored Unionists" say to the matter? "Wendell Phillips," said a certain Boston lawyer of dubious fame to an acquaintance, "called me Judas Iscariot in a speech to night, but I don't mind it." "I dare say not," replied his acquaintance "but how do you suppose Judas would like it?"

☞ GEO. D. BOWMAN, Esq., has sent us the first number of a neat opposition paper, issued at Lock Haven, Clinton Co., entitled the Clinton Republican.

CHARLES G. BARKLEY will be a CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT at the Common Schools of Columbia County. March 14, 1863.

MARRIAGES.

On the 3d inst., by Rev. Wm. J. Eyer Mr. SAMUEL SCHULER to Miss CATHARINE MENSH, both of Franklin township, Columbia county.

DEATHS.

On Tuesday last, the 10th of March, 1863, in Cattawissa township, Columbia county, at the residence of his parents, Mr. JOHN A. HARRISON SHUMAN, son of Solomon and Hannah Shuman, aged 20 years, 4 months and 22 days.

We record this untimely death of our worthy young friend HARRISON with unalloyed sorrow and regret.—Regret, that one so young, so able, so brave and generous, should be thus early called away from our society in his youth, that his dear parents and friends have lost their fondest anticipation of a dutiful son and brother, whose future gave high promise of a career of great usefulness.

HARRISON was engaged for some years with the writer of this tribute to his bravery, in learning the Art and Mystery of Printing, in the office of the Columbia Democrat. When this war was inaugurated, although from scarcely eighteen years of age, he volunteered with the noble band of the "Iron Guards," and marched to the defence of "our Country's glorious Flag." His motto was:—

"Yes, yes, I go," he whispered soft,
"In Freedom's cause my sword to wield;
Columbia's cause waves aloft,
And Glory calls me to the field."

He served his country faithfully for near two years upon the battle field, having been engaged in the sore conflicts of Ball Run, Antietam and Fredericksburg when, at the latter place he was wounded by a rebel ballet passing through his left arm, and about a month ago returned home, and died (on Tuesday) in the hope of peace beyond the grave, in the arms of his devoted parents. On Thursday his mortal remains were conveyed to Cattawissa, where a very feeling and appropriate sermon was preached by the Rev. Wm. J. Eyer, after which—followed by the largest concourse of sorrowing friends ever convened there on a similar occasion—they were interred in the Lutheran burial ground with the honors of war.

"How sleep the brave, who sink to rest,
By all their Country's wishes blest!
Here Honor comes, a pilgrim gray,
To bless the turf that wraps their clay,
And Freedom shall awhile repair
To dwell a weeping hermit there!"

In Jerseytown, on the 4th ult., PAMSON VERLEONA, daughter of Samuel and Eleno Rimby, aged 11 years, 11 months and 20 days.

Well may the bereaved family mourn the loss of an affectionate sister and a loving child. Always merry, yet gentle, obedient and kind. But three days before her death she was in the bloom of youth, in the vigor of life and health; but now is wrapt in the icy chilliness of the tomb. Such is life's history.

"Leaves have their time to fall,
And flowers to wither at the north wind's breath,
And stars to set—but time, thou hast all
Seasons for thine own, O Death!"

Madame Zadoc porter's Balsam is prepared with all the requisite skill from a combination of the best remedies the vegetable kingdom affords, its remedial qualities are hard on its power to assist the healthy circulation of the blood, through the lungs. It is not a violent remedy, but consistent—warming, searching and efficacious can be taken by the oldest person or the youngest child.

Madame Zadoc Porter's balsam has been in use by the public for over 18 years, and has secured its present sale simply by being recommended by those who have used it to their afflicted friends and others.

Most Important.—Madame Zadoc Porter's Curative Balsam is sold at a price which brings it in the reach of every one to keep it convenient for use. The timely use of a single bottle will prove to be worth 100 times its cost.

NOTICE.—Save your money! Do not be persuaded to purchase advices at 25 to $1 which do not contain the virtues of a 12 cent bottle of Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, the cost of manufacturing which is so great as almost any other medicine; and the very low price at which it is sold, makes the profit to the seller appreciably small, and unprincipled dealers will sometimes recommend other medicines on which their profits are larger, unless the customers insist upon having Madame Porter's and none other. Ask for Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, price 12 cents, and in large bottles at 25 cents, and take no other.

☞ Sold by all druggists and Storekeepers at 12 cts., 25 in larger bottles at 75 cents.
