COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT,

BLOOMSBURG,

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 11, 1863.

☞ The July "American Agriculturist," that good and great agricultural work of New York, is on hand and in excellent condition.

☞ The State Democratic Editorial Convention will meet at Lancaster, on Thursday, the 16th of July.

☞ M. & E. W. WYNKOOP will commence their second term of school, on the 20th of July.

☞ When Abolitionists now charge Democrats with being "disloyal," we have only to point to New York and New Jersey to silence them.

☞ We are requested to announce, that Rev. G. W. SCOTT, will preach in the Baptist Church of Bloomsburg, on Sabbath morning at 10 o'clock. Also, at half past two in the afternoon, and half past seven in the evening.

☞ We see some able-bodied young men still lounging about our streets who could well be spared in this emergency, having neither business nor family to detain them. If they were strong enough to carry wide awake lamps two years ago we should think they could carry a musket now.

☞ As one of the evidences of the utter unfitness of General Hooker for the position from which he was so recently discharged, we quote a remark made by him to some of his officers while the battle of Chancellorville was going on. He said "GOD ALMIGHTY CANNOT PREVENT MY CAPTURING LEE AND HIS ARMY. Comment is unnecessary.

☞ A New Post Office, is Petitioned for at Eyer's Grove, in Greenwood township, Columbia county, to be entitled "Eyer's Grove Post Office," asking for the appointment of Rev. J. FRANKLIN EYER, as Deputy Post Master. It is located on the Bloomsburg and Millville mail route, in an important business section of the country—at Col. JACOB EYER's new village—and will not increase the expenses of the P. O. Department. We think this office should be granted.

☞ The Shamokin Herald, published at Shamokin, heretofore a Republican paper, has passed into the hands of Mr. SAMUEL B. SISTY, and appears with the Democratic Flag waving at its mast-head. Mr. SISTY is a practical printer, an energetic young man, and a thorough Democrat. We commend the Herald and its Editor, to the liberal support and confidence of the noble Democracy of Northumberland.

☞ Mr. HENRY ZEPPINGER, has our sincere thanks for a large lot of his beautiful and delicious Black Mountain Raspberries. Mr. Z., is a practical Gardener and Scientific Horticulturist. Those who may wish to witness the perfection of neat Gardening and Fruit-raising, and the natural results of honesty and industry, can realize its ocular demonstration by paying a visit to Mr. Zeppinger's Garden in Bloomsburg.

Remember the Soldiers.

BLOOMSBURG, JULY 7, 1863.

Editor of the Democrat.

As the season of ripening fruit is at hand, we would recommend that all persons should prepare, some of that abundance, with which a bountiful Providence is supplying us, for the sick and suffering in our hospitals. Raspberry, blackberry, elder and currant jellies, wine or vinegar, all making refreshing drinks for the fever-parched lips. Currant jelly and blackberry syrup or cordial is particularly needed; also, pickles and all kind of dried fruit, dried biscuit, &c., &c.

HARRIET RUPERT.
HARRIET SHARPLESS.

☞ The ladies' aid Society is requested to meet on Saturday, July 11th, will be happy to receive and forward all hospital stores entrusted to them at their room above Mr. Lutz's Drug Store.

THE following statement was received in a letter from Harrisburg, says the Age, in reference to a matter upon which we are glad our correspondent has enlightened the public. It has frequently happened that attempts of this kind have been made by the Jacobins to induce the belief that there was cheering for JEFF. DAVIS at Democratic assemblages. But the dodge has not answered the purpose intended, and, as in the case referred to by our correspondent, it is always found that it is the work of the Jacobins to make political capital for their own cause. Our correspondent says:

"At the Buehler House, in Harrisburg on the night before the late Democratic Convention, a number of soldiers and Democrats were cheering for McClellan, when an individual, rising on a chair, proposed three cheers for JEFF. DAVIS. He was taken out of the house to protect him from assault, and upon investigation it was found he came there to throw odium upon the Democratic party by his proposition, and have it said the Democracy were cheering for JEFF. DAVIS. The individual was one of Lincoln's paymasters in the army—by name Alexander McDonald Lyon—and a son-in-law of Morrow B. Lowry."

What a Desecration.

Messrs Ayer & Co have received from Alexandria a cargo of rags to pay for their medicines. They are evidently gathered from all classes and quarters of the Pacha's dominions—the cast-off garments of Hadjis and Howadjis—white linen turbans loose breeches, and flowing robes. Not the least part of their bulk is cloth in which bodies were embalmed and wound for preservation three thousand years ago! They are now to be made into paper for Ayer's almanacs; and thus, after having wrapped the dead for thirty centuries are used to warn the living from the narrow house which they have so long inhabited.

Exchange.

Shades of Isis and Osiris to the rescue! Will you suffer the despoiler to disturb your subjects' names without in some way visiting him with your displeasure? And you, O Sphinx? and Memnon, and the sacred bull Apis! open your lips of stone and hurl fierce wrath and denunciation at those who unroll the bandages from your kings, and who perhaps, removed the swaddling garment from Cleopatra herself to furnish material for a Yankee pillvender's almanac.—Scientific American.

☞ Mr. F. P. Blair, father of the Postmaster General and of the Missouri Congressman, was a Democrat and a gallant champion of popular freedom. Had he not been such he could not have retained the confidence of General Jackson. While he edited the Globe and was battling with wonderful power and energy against the ideas controlling the Government he said:

Under no possible emergency, not even in insurrection, or amid the throes of civil war, can this Government justify official interference with freedom of speech or of the press, any more than it can with the freedom of the ballot. The licentiousness of the tongue and of the pen is a minor evil compared with the licentiousness of arbitrary power.

☞ We have the Rochester, "Genesee Farmer," for July, richly laden with choice agricultural information and scientific developments.

MARRIAGES.

On the 23d ult., by H. G. Dill, Mr CLARK PRICE, and Miss SARAH RICHTER, both of Bloomsville, Col. co.

On the 11th inst., by Rev. D. C. John, Mr ISAAC H. KITCHEN, and Miss SARAH GIBSON, all of Bloomsburg, Col. co.

At Town Hill on the 4th inst., by Rev. E. Wadsworth, Mr. JOSEPH HOUSEL, of Huntingdon to Miss ARALAIDO HODEN, of Fair Mount.

CHILDREN owe much of their sickness to colds. No matter where the disease may appear to be seated, its origin may be traced to suppressed perspiration, or a cold. Cramps and Bad Complexions are direct products of cold. In short nine-tenths of the Sufferings of half the diseases that afflict humanity, for as they are caused by checked perspiration, and as five-sixths of the waste matter of the body escapes through the pores, if these pores are closed, that proportion of diseases necessarily follows. Keep clean, therefore, of colds and coughs, the great occasion of disease, or if contracted, break them up immediately, by a timely use of MADAME PORTER'S CURATIVE BALSAM. Friends and Relatives.

OF THE

BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.
AND OINTMENT.

All who have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy should take especial care that they be amply supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their Friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS.

Will be speedily relieved, and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE, INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feeling which so sadden as usually arise from trouble or annoyance, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach—These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taken according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence, a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the Bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange, that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach, and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system, however deadened, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

YOUNTEERS, ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH.

Sores and Ulcers, Blotches and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured, if the Pills are taken night and morning, and Holloway's Ointment be freely used as a fomentation and rubbed well into the part affected. If from any other cause they can not be present to speak out in another—Whenever this Ointment will reduce the humors from the system, and leave the Patient in vigorous and healthy tone. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS RECEIVED ON OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, SABRE, OR THE BULLET, AGAINST OR BRUISES.

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable, there are no medicines so safe, sure, and convenient, as Holloway's Pills and Ointment. The wounded and almost dying sailor or soldier finds have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all round it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking, night and morning, 6 or 8 Pills to cool the system and Prevent Inflammation.

Every Soldier's Knapsack and Sailor's Chest should be supplied with these valuable Remedies.

CAUTION:—None are genuine unless the words "Holloways, New York and London" are discernable as a Water mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

☞ Sold at manufactory of Professor Holloway, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the civilized world, at 25 cts., 62 cts. and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taken the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

June 20, 1863—y.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—The advertiser having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used, free of charge, with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for consumption, asthma, bronchitis, &c.—The only object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.
