COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 31, 1863.

THE PRINTER'S WANTS.

We want Cider, Corn, Pumpkins, Grain, Beef, Pork, Poultry and Money.

Also, a few loads of Pine Wood.

STONE COAL is selling at Bloomsburg wharves at the following rates: No. 5, $2,00; No. 4, $3,50; and No. 3, $4,00.

—o—

CONSCRIPTS.—The Syracuse Constitutionalist argues that—

"A man coerced against his will,
To go to war, will seldom kill."

—o—

THE difference between an Abolitionist and a rebel ram is, that one goes for the Union with an if, and the other goes against the Union with a but.

—o—

STANDATD DEMOCRATIC DOCUMENT.—The New Testament and the Constitution of the United States. We commend them reverently to our people.

—o—

DO YOU KNOW OF ONE?—Reader, do you know of a single loud-mouthed, brawling Abolitionists, that has professed to be full of fight and fury in this war, who has been drafted, and means to go?

—o—

NEW GOODS.—S. H. MILLER, has just received a large and beautiful assortment of Fall and Winter Goods. Those in want of choice goods should give the Ex Sheriff a call.

—o—

THE falling leaves are a nuisance on streets or walks, but are very good manure on grass, strawberre beds, &c.—Sweep or rake them out of the way, and put them where they will be useful.

—o—

A SPECULATION was got up in Bloomsburg on Tuesday evening last, in the shape of a "Curtin Supper;" at Dodson's Forks Hotel. The object was to keep up spirit and rejoice over the abolition victory in Pennsylvania.

—o—

DR. HIRAM C. HOWER has lately improved his residence on Main Street, Bloomsburg. The Doctor is an energetic man, a good citizen, and a strong and unflinching Democrat, Long may he wave

—o—

"Lost his reputation—COL. TATE."
Smut Machine.

A thing that will never happen to you, Dr. John, or any other Abolitionist of your ilk.

—o—

Dr. Pee John, denominates JOSEPH C. BUCHER, Esq., as "Bucher, the blackguard!" A more gentlemanly stranger, than Lawyer Bucher, has never spoken to the people of Columbia. But this Pee John, would malign the character of the Angel Gabriel, if he were not a Tory-Abolitionist.

—o—

☞ The "Smut Machine" boasts of the re election of Curtin, "notwithstanding he pardoned the Bloomsbug Rioters." This is what all decent people expected, viz: that the election of Curtin, would be an endorsement of rascality and outrage. It is a premium offered for violated trust and Constitutional obligation.

—o—

IT is stated that the health of our loyal league, as developed before the Board of Enrollment, is in a deplorable condition. The Provost Marshal and his assistants wept profusely over the sad spectacle.—One can scarcely conceive how so much infirmity could make such a noise as our loyal friends did during the campaign.—Surely their lungs are not diseased, though their courage and patriotism may be.

—o—

BEFORE the draft, Tilton, of the New York Independent, wrote:—"Honor to the conscripts who, scorning pitiful evasion, obey the behests of the law." After the draft, Tilton found he was among the elected, and went, and went——and paid his little $300.

—o—

THERE were a number of brave young "patriots," in our midst, who during the last campaign, talked eloquently about their determination to "stand by the soldiers in the field." Now that the President has issued a call for three hundred thousand volunteers, we are anxious to see whether they really intend to do so. In Bloomsburg, a conspeious chap who was loud in the abolition "glee club" in singing "down with Copperheads," and "every drafted man shall go," forgot his patriotism but not three hundred dollars, when summened to Troy, as one of the elect. Such fanatics are the last men, that will 'stand by the soldiers in the field.'

—o—

WE are extremely happy to announce to the juvinile portion of the community that to-night, (Saturday) is "Hallow'een" or "Hallow eve," as common parlance has it. According to old Scotch traditions this was the night on which the fairies and witches held their high old carnivals; and amongst all classes of people it was celebrated with merry makings. Fortunes were told and destinies read by many strange devices. In this practical age of ours of course nobody believes in fairies and witches, and therefore the young folks take it upon themselves to conform to the old customs as nearly as circumstances will allow, by raising the ancient Nickolas on their own account.

One sweet flower has drooped and faded,
One sweet infant voice has fled,
One fair brow the grave has shaded,
One dear object now is dead.

But we find relief from sadness,
For our child is happy now,
It has knelt in soul felt gladness,
Where the blessed angels bow.

SPECIAL NOTICES

A FORTUNE FOR ALL!

EITHER MEN OR WOMEN!!

NO humbug, but an entirely new thing. Only three months in this country! No clap-trap operation to gull the public, but a genuine money-making thing!—read the circular of instruction once only, and you will understand it perfectly. A Lady has just written to me that she is making as high as twenty dollars some days! giving instructions in this art. Thousands of Soldiers are making money rapidly at it. No person has to be urged to patronize it. It is a thing that takes better than anything ever before offered. You can make money with it home or abroad—on steamboats or railroad cars, and in the country or city. You will be pleased in pursuing it, not only because it will yield a handsome income, but also in consequence of the general admiration which it elicits. It is pretty much all profit. A mere trifle is necessary to start with.

There is scarcely one person out of thousands who ever pays any attention to advertisements of this kind thinking they are humbugs. Consequently those who do send for instructions will have a broad field to make money in. There is a class of persons in this world who think that because they have been humbuged out of a dollar or so, that everything that is advertised is a humbug. Consequently they try no more. The person who succeeds is the one that keeps on trying until he hits something that pays him.

This art cost me one thousand dollars, and I expect to make money out of it—and all who purchase the art of me will do the same. One Dollar sent to me will insure the prompt return of a card of instructions in the art. The money will be returned to those not satisfied.

This is decidedly one of the best articles ever offered for traders and speculators. Engineers, emigrants, and persons travelling, will find them superior to any other, alteration of climate will not affect their accuracy. Price, packed in good shape and good running order, only $25, or case of 6 for [illegible].

PIANO-FORTE ESTABLISHMENT

No. 427 Broome Steet, NEW YORK.

The subscriber respectfully invites the attention of his friends and the public generally to his Piano-Forte Establishment at No. 427 Broome Street, conor of Crosby Street.

Having withdrawn his interest, stock and material from the late firm of "Lighte & Bradaburry," which firm was dissolved on the 31st January ult., and having purchased the entire stock of Piano Fortes and Piano-Forte Material owned by his brother, Edward G. Bradbury, in the said firm, he is now preparped to supply the increased demand for his celebrated Piano Fortes. Employing the most skillful and experienced workmen, with a large stock of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material and an abundance of capital he has taken in hand the personal supervision of the the whole business of manufacturing his instuments and is enabled to turn out Piano-Fortes of unequalled tone and durableness.

BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANO FORTE.

In the arrangement of our new scale, drawn and prepared with the utmost care, expressly for our new instruments, we have added every improvement which can in any way tend to the perfection of the Piano-Forte, and we can confidently assert, that for delicacy of touch, volume, purity, brilliancy and sweetness of tone, combined with that strength and solidity of frame necessary to durability, these instruments are unequaled.

"STRENGTH AND BEAUTY" is our motto, and we invite the closest criticism of the best unbiased judges in the land.
