COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

Saturday Morning, Jan. 20, '66.

☞ Representative JACOBY, has our thanks for the Daily Legislative Record, and other public documents.

☞ Senator MONTGOMERY, of this District, has our thanks for the Report of the Auditor General of Pennsylvania.

☞ We should not forget to call attention, again this week, to our large list of important New Advertisements.

☞ Fishy!—The selection of Simon Cameron to preside over the late Fisby Convention! Excellent. Nothing could have been more appropriate.

☞ Rev. J. W. STEINMETZ, by Divine Permission, will preach on to-morrow (Sunday) evening in the Bloomsburg German Reformed Church Edifice

☞ Mr. Rhoads has just had his second trial at Sunbury for the murder of Mrs. Chamberlain. At the first trial he was convicted. At this trial he was cleared and discharged.

☞ We had a fine snow on last Tuesday morning—avering about six inches in depth,—and is being well improved by those who have the convenience for Sleighing to the tune of the gingle of the merry Bells.

☞ Mr. Jos. P. Conner's house in Centre township, this county, was entered on Saturday last, by two theives, in the absence of Mr. & Mrs. C, and clothing and other property were taken away.

☞ The Hagerstown Mail, by PECKHERT & NESBITT, has been much enlarged and greatly improved. It is a beautiful democratic newspaper. We wish it success.

Removal—Capt. C. B BROCKWAY, has removed his Law Office into Mr. Pursell's building, on Main Street, first door below the Court House. It is a very eligible location and easy of access for his numerous clients. See his Card in another column.

DIRECTORS—The Danville National Bank on Thursday last, elected the following Board of Directors:

Edward H. Baldy, Geo. A. Frick, Peter Baldy Wm. H. Magill, C.M. Shoop, J. C. Rhodes, John Sharples.

DIRECTORS.—The First National Bank of Danville, on Tuesday last, elected the following Board of Directors:

Thos. Beaver, Chas. Fenstemaker, Geo F. Geisinger, Wm Hancock Wm. T. Ramsey, A. G. Yorks, Samuel Yorks, Jr.

More New Goods.—Hon. PETER ENT & SONS, of Light Street, have just received another supply of Winter Goods.—This is the fifth arrival of that House this season, and they are going off like cakes and Butter. These gentlemen know the secret of selling Goods—they ADVERTISE

An Important Institution—Messrs. Thos. J. Barton and Solomon Smith have erected a spacious building and opened a new Smith Shop, in Willow Grove, and are doing a fine business. They are both good workmen and industrious young mechanics. May they succeed.

MIRROR OF FASHION.—Mrs. Demorest's (New York) Mirror of Fashion, is one of the most beautiful and artistic publications of the day. Ladies who wish to keep in sight of the Styles of dress, find it necessary to consult this monthly visitor, as it contains all that is new and elegant, in the world of fashion The January number before us is a perfect gem. Price $3.00 per annum.

PICTURES.—If you want a good picture go to Rosenstock's old Stand, in the Exchange Block, where you will always be suited. Our reader's attention is invited to the fine-toned and life-like pictures taken by Mr. Brandau, who is decidedly the best artist in this vicinity. His facilities are such as give complete satisfaction to all his patrons. Call and see the specimens! Good likenesses guaranteed in all kinds of weather. Prices moderate. See card in this issue.

Sale of Valuable Property.—Maj WM. B. KOONS, has sold the Bloomsburg Exchange Hotel and Furniture, for about $15,000, to JOHN F. CASLOW, Esq., of Milton. Maj. Koons has been a most polite and gentlemanly Landlord—made a moderate fortune out of the Exchange property—and his retirement will be regretted by his numerous friends and the public generally. Mr. Caslow, takes possession next April, and we hope will find his investment a source of profit, and met with equal success as a Hotel Keeper.

CHANGE OF PROPERTY.—Our townsman, M. E. Jackson, Esq., purchased a few days since of Messrs. Bowman and Owen, the corner property occupied by them as a store room and dwelling including the row of small offices on Front St., for the sum of $10,000. He designes moving the row of offices so as to front on Market Street, and erect in their stead an immense brick building for public and private purposes. He also contemplates converting the upper room into a suitable Town Hall. We wish the enterprise success.—Berwick Gazette.

D. P. Crosby, ex-Postmaster and ex-Burgess of Pottstown, certifies as follows:

POTTSTOWN, 1865, Jan. 3,

This certifies that I have used the Phoenix Pectoral in my family, and I recommend it to the public as the very best remedy for Cough and Colds that I have ever tried. One of my children was taken with a cold, accompanied with a Croupy Cough, so bad indeed, that it could not talk and breathe. Having heard so much said about the Phoenix Pectoral, I procured a bottle of it. The first dose relieves the difficulty of breathing, and before the child had taken one-fourth of the bottle it was entirely well. Every family should have it in their house.

J. G. Smith, druggist, of New Hope, Bucks county, Pa., in writing to Dr. Oberholtzer, says: "A few days since I bought two dozen of your valuable cough remedy to try, and find it very good, and as it is nearly all gone I would like you to send me a gross of it.

"Your medicines give better satisfaction than any other I have in the store. I am agent for some of the most popular cough preparations, but yours seems to be doing the most good.

The following is an extract from a letter from Hiram Ellis, merchant, near Pottstown, Pa.: "I have tried the Phoenix Pectoral, and find it to be the best cough medicine extant. It meets with a more ready sale than any other that I have ever had in my store."

The proprietor of this medicine has so much confidence in its curative powers from the testimony of thousands who have used it, that the money will be PAID BACK to any purchaser who is not satisfied with its effects.

It is so pleasant to take that children cry for it.—Price THIRTY-FIVE CENTS; Large Bottles ONE DOLLAR.

It is intended for only one class of diseases, namely, those of the Throat and Lungs

CELEBRATED
Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly reinvigorate broken-down and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, HEAVES, COUGHS, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, POUNDER LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite—gives a smooth and glossy skin—and transforms the miserable skeleton into a fine-looking and spirited horse.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It increases the quantity and improves the quality of the milk. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent. and make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. By putting from one-half a paper to a paper in a barrel of swill the above diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.
