Late War News

GERMAN STEAMER SUNK BY BRITISH CRUISER YARMOUTH

English Also Reported to Have Captured Greek Steamer Pontports

London, Oct. 15, 4.53 p. m.—The Admiralty announces that the British cruiser Yarmouth has sunk the German Hamburg-American Line steamer Markomannia in the vicinity of Sumatra and has captured and is taking into a harbor the Greek steamer Pontports.

Both the Markomannia and the Pontports have been reported previously as accompanying the German cruiser Emden. The Yarmouth has sixty German prisoners of war on board.

The Markomannia had a gross tonnage of 4,505 and was engaged in the African service.

Great Britain Will Not Interfere With Ally

By Associated Press

Peking, Oct. 15.—Replying to the Chinese protest concerning the occupation by the Japanese of the railroad in Shantung province, which has been made use of in connection with the campaign against Kiao-Chow, Great Britain has declared that she is unable to interfere with her ally. Japan had no alternative, the British answer says, owing to the fact that this railroad is German-owned and that the Gernans were using it for military purposes.

Emperor's Headquarters Are Moved Into France

By Associated Press

Berlin, Oct. 15, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I. — Information concerning the progress of the war was given out in Berlin to-day as follows:

"German troops in Belgium are now marching in part toward Ostend and in part in a southerly direction toward the French frontier. The headquarters of Emperor William have been moved farther into France.

"The Russian armored cruiser Pallada, 8,000 tons, built in 1906, has been torpedoed by a German submarine at the entrance to the Gulf of Finland. The torpedo launched by the submarine caused an explosion on board the cruiser and the Russian vessel, with her entire crew of 600 men, went straight to the bottom."

GOLDAP IS EVACUATED

London, Oct. 15, 2.05 P. M.—A dispatch to the Reuters Telegram Company from Amsterdam says: "The evacuation of Goldap in East Prussia by the civilian population is revealed by the Cologne Gazette's correspondent at Rastenburg who says the departure was caused by military reasons and precautions."

NEW PASTORS TO BE HERE IN NOVEMBER

May Not Preach First Sermons Here Until Close of Stough Campaigns

The two new pastors, the Rev. J. A. Staub, of the Nagle Street Church, and the Rev. F. J. M. Thomas, of the Maclay Street Church, will come to this city and take up their charges on the first of November.

Action of the councils of these churches will determine when the two pastors will preach their first sermons. If the two churches are closed until the end of the Stough campaign, the sermons will not be given until that time. Otherwise they will be given the first Sunday of November.

To Talk on Evangelism.—Dr. J. T. Spangler will give an address on "The Modern Evangelistic Movement" at a meeting of the United Brethren Ministerial Association which will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, Second and Locust streets, next Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Big Chestnut Hunt. — Members of the men's Bible class of the United Brethren Church left this morning for Indiantown Gap on a chestnut hunt. A big crowd turned out and nine touring cars filled with men left the church this morning and more will go at noon. Arrangements were completed yesterday by G. I. Gilbert, chairman of the arrangement committee. At least sixty-five men were in the party, among them O. K. Kimes, president of the class, and the two teachers, O. P. Beckley and Harry A. Carl.

"Hanging of the Crane." — The "Hanging of the Crane," adapted from Longfellow's poem, will be presented to-night in the auditorium of the Curtin Heights Methodist Church by the following cast: Minerva Roher, Sarah Estelle Butler, Mrs. W. B. Bricker, Mrs. John Haas, Mrs. B. F. Funk, Mrs. Reynolds, Blanche Ennis, Helen Broomall, Rhea Miller, Eliza Lingle, Mollie Lingle, Lula Beard, Emma Hollinger, Cora Martz, Sarah Burgoon, Ruth Taylor, Mary Taylor, Fern Gross, Elizabeth Sykes, Reba Geisking, Emma Williams, Katherine Bricker, Dorothy Haas, Vernon Huntsberger, J. H. Poore, C. O. Ely, Mr. Barnhart, Jerry Weibley, Charles Frank, Charles Buch and Clifford Sellers. Several readings will be given by Miss Pauine Hauck and Mrs. Emma Downey Hockenbury with Mrs. Clara B. Lackey as accompanist.

Pine Street News.—The preacher at Pine Street Presbyterian Church on Sunday will be the Rev. Dr. Lewis S. Mudge, the pastor. The sermon at the evening service will be the fifth in the current series on the general topic, "What Men Have Done With Jesus," the topic of this one being "The Man Who Betrayed Jesus." The music at this service has been selected to add to the worship of the hour and to assist the message of the sermon. The anthem will be "Lord, Remember Not Our Offenses" (Marks) and the solo "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say" (Harris). On Wednesday evening at the regular hour for midweek service will be held the monthly missionary meeting, when there will be an illustrated lecture on the "New Era in Asia." The pictures were taken on the recent tour of Dr. Mott and Mr. Eddy around the world and show in a very vivid way the progress that Christianity is making throughout the whole world.

HOME RULE LEAGUE OF COUNTY OCT. 23

Executive Committee of Dauphin's Organization Plans Meeting Here

Plans for holding a meeting, October 23, of the recently organized Municipal Home Rule League of Dauphin County were discussed yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the executive committee in the City Council chamber. The committeemen present included Charles W. Rank, Williamstown, president; C. B. Shelley, Highspire, vice-president; F. C. Campbell, Millersburg, secretary-treasurer; S. S. Straub, Williamstown, and W. P. Mills, Millersburg.

The committee discussed the constitution and regulations for the county league, which has been organized along the same lines as similar organizations in other counties. Thirty-nine boroughs and townships are represented in the membership thus far.

The purpose of the organization—the repeal by the Legislature of the act creating the public service regulations insofar as they affect the conduct of utilities in boroughs, townships and cities—is explained in the printed constitution. Copies of a circular letter on the subject will be sent out to all the boroughs and townships urging their attendance at the session October 23. This will be held in the Council chamber at the Courthouse at 1 o'clock.

Court Librarian Young Returns.—Court Librarian David F. Young returned to the Courthouse library for awhile yesterday and held what amounted to almost an informal reception. This was Mr. Young's first appearance for nearly a month, as he had been confined to his home from the effects of a stroke.

To Grade Wiconisco Street. — Bids for the grading of Wiconisco street from Sixth to Jefferson will be opened at noon Saturday, October 24, by City Commissioner William H. Lynch.

County Audit Ready November 1.—County auditors are finishing the examination of a few smaller accounts and upon the completion of this work will begin the verifications. The board hopes to have the audit ready to present to court November 1.

41 Youngsters in Juvenile Court.—Forty boys and one girl are included in the list of small defendants who are listed for hearing in September Juvenile court to-morrow. The girl has been arrested by Colonel J. B. Hutchison, chief of police, who charges her with having been an inmate in a house of questionable character. She is only fifteen years old. The charges against the boys are felonious entry, larceny, incorrigibility and truancy. The forty-one youngsters are included in twenty cases.

City Pays Out Much For Improvements.—Two vouchers aggregating more than $25,000 were issued for payment of estimates on city improvement work by City Treasurer O. M. Copelin to-day. The largest warrant was for $21,739.11 and went to Stucker Brothers' Construction Company for work on the river front steps and wall. The other, $3,778.16 was paid to Frank N. Skene Company for work on the river dam.

This May Happen to You

Life is punctuated with emergencies. It is accompanied with the unexpected. Things happen for which we have not been looking. In every life there is always the element of the uncertain. This is a well-established fact. Things are bound to happen. They always have. They always will. We are in a world where the future is not revealed. We must take things as they come. But a certain amount of preparation for the uncertain future is both possible and wise. It is a necessity as well—if we are to meet emergencies capably. Getting ready to-day for the emergencies of to-morrow is a part of our most serious business.
