The Elections.

Up to the time of going to press, today, we are unable to give the result of the elections in Ohio and Indiana, on the 10th first., with any hope of being correct It is almost a certainty, however, that the Republicans have eral, township, borough and special elec carried Ohio by from 3,000 to 5,000 majority. Indiana is uncertain, both parties claiming the state, and it may take the official vote to decide which judges of courts voted for, and to be labeled party is the winner. We have faith Indiana will take her place in the Republican column.

The Democrats had a large procesaccording to the Commercial:

It is painful to observe that the boys were not satisfied with their big pro-cession—they wanted it bigger—ro they doubled up a little so to speak. Bordentown, October 10 .- This morning the body of a young man, apparently 29 years of age, was found floating in the Deleware river, op-posite Mershon's wharf. The skull was crushed in, oncarm and both legs were broken and there was a stab in the left lung and other knife marks on the thigh. There was no clothing on the deceased, and consequently noth-ing by which he could be identified The physicians say the body has been in the water two weeks.

"If there is one thing that shocks the Democratic mind more than another, it is the news that the fall trade is opening briskly. The testi-mony is overwhelming as to the fact. Manufactories are starting up. The stores are filling larger orders than usual. Country merchants are in better spirits than they have been since the panic. This is all good news, but it does not please the Democratic party, which assumes that there as no possible salvation for us save in the rule of the Southern Confederate politicians, who, when they dragged their constituents into war, manifested daz-zling incapacity."-Cincinnati Commercial
