RECEPTIONS, PARTIES, WEDDINGS, ANNIVERSARIES

DOCTOR'S AUTO RUNS OFF BRIDGE IN FOG

Perry County Physician Finishes Trip Behind Old Reliable Horse

FOREST FIRE BURNS TANNERY

Letter From Ohio Says Rabbits Have Foot and Mouth Disease

New Germantown, Pa., Dec. 5.—Teachers of Toboyne township all attended the teachers' institute at New Bloomfield. — Dr. H. W. Woods, of Blaine, was called to the residence of J. R. Gutshall, near Union schoolhouse, on account of Mr. Gutshall's son Harry having an attack of typhoid fever early Tuesday morning. The doctor attempted to make the trip in his automobile, but the deep fog prevailing just before daylight caused the lights on his automobile to show the road but a short distance ahead, and in crossing the bridge at the side of the old Blemel mill the auto ran off the bridge. The doctor was then taken to his destination in H. N. Hart's buggy while some of the neighbors "jacked" up the automobile and got it on the bridge again.—Miss Rhoda Morrow assisted Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Foose, of Madison township, to butcher on Wednesday.—E. F. Middleton, who resides with S. B. Trostle, had a letter from his sister living at Columbus, Ohio, in which she says that Ohio is badly afflicted with the foot and mouth disease, even the rabbits being afflicted, which makes it almost impossible to stamp out. —While chopping wood a week ago Philip Sheaffer had the misfortune to have a chip strike him in the left eye. A physician who examined the eye says Mr. Sheaffer may lose the sight of it.—A. D. Bowman, an aged gentleman of this place, is very ill.—A fire, which broke out on the Tuscarora mountain in Horse Valley, destroyed the old Harris tannery at the entrance of the Concord Narrows.—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. David Mumper.—Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mumper and Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Stokes autoed to Newport on Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. William Stokes.—James Baltozer killed a March pig which cleaned 293 pounds.—An old-fashioned country dance was held at B. F. Henry's on Friday night.—Lester and Oren Morrison, of New Bloomfield, are spending the week with their grandfather, T. A. Morrow. — Assessor Foster T. Seager was in Harrisburg. — Albert Mumper, of Utica, Ill., is visiting his uncle, A. L. Mumper.—Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, of Shiloh, Ohio, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emert Trostle, of Jackson township. —Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pershing, of Bellwood, and Bruce Jacobs, of Honey Grove, visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Tressler.—Mrs. Harry Briner has the grip.—Dr. W. R. Brothers, of this place, has gone to Landisburg to practice during the illness of Dr. William J. Allen, of that town.

MANY DAUPHIN VISITORS

Callers Hospitably Entertained During Week

Dauphin, Pa., Dec. 5.—Mrs. Howard Bailey, of the Touraine, New York city, has returned home after a short visit with her aunt, Mrs. Sarah Spossler.—Miss Martha Cresswell, of 211 Harris' street, Harrisburg, spent the Thanksgiving vacation with Miss Sabra Clark.—Mrs. W. D. Kinter is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Whitley, at Trenton, N. J.—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Winegardner, of Harrisburg, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rhoads.—Judge Henry Duffy, of Baltimore, has returned home after a visit with the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Fulton Stirling.—Miss Mary Umberger is visiting Miss Emma Reel at Harrisburg.—Mrs. Emory Wierman and daughter Julian, have returned to their home in Harrisburg, after a short visit with Miss Julia Kinter.—Mrs. Sarah Spoutsler and Miss Maggie Poffenberger spent Thanksgiving at York, Pa.—James Lewis Gross, a student at the Lehigh University, South Bethlehem, returned on Sunday after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gross.—Mrs. Frank Kline, of Philadelphia, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Kline, last week.—Miss Dorothy Helman, of Harrisburg, is spending the week-end with Miss Sabra Clark.—Miss Arne Shaffer, a nurse at the Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia, has returned after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaffer.—Edward Garman, of Brooklyn, is the guest of his brother, William Garman.—Mrs. Edwin Winterborn, of Philadelphia, has returned home after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Masoner.—Mrs. Charles Bowman and children, George and Ruth, have gone to their home at Renova after a visit with Mrs. Bowman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kinter.—Mrs. F. Haas, of York, was the guest of Miss Cora Coffrode.—Arthur Lutz and Harold Lutz, Enola, are spending some time with their grandparents, the Rev. and Mrs. Lutz. —Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Forney, Miss Ethel Forney, and Edgar Forney, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Freeman C. Gerberich.—P. B. Young, of Haddonfield, N. J., arrived to-day for a short stay with Miss Margaret Brooks.—Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Gerhart, formerly of Piketown, have moved to North Erie street, Dauphin.

SHOVELED MONEY INTO FIRE

Shoe Factory Engineer Thinks He Burned Pay Envelope

Millersburg, Pa., Dec. 5.—Mrs. Maria Metzgar, an aged woman who resided with her daughter, Mrs. Mason Foulkroad, east of Millersburg, was buried at Meiserville Monday.—F. G. Novinger, who was kicked on the leg by his horse last week, is slowly recovering.—C. G. Shetron, while cleaning a sea bass Tuesday discovered in its stomach a baby octopus which the bass had swallowed for food. The head and tenticles of the sea vampire were perfect and are on exhibition at Shetron's store.—An illustrated lecture with fifty pictures of the Passion Play will be given in the Methodist Church this Saturday evening; admission free to all.—Mrs. Grace Gilbert gave a dinner Tuesday evening in honor of her son, Allen, it being his seventeenth birthday anniversary. The following members of the Pioneer Cabin Club, of which he is a member, were present: R. R. Novinger, Clark and Jack Cooper, R. L. Franke, George Buffington, Alfred Hoffman, Roswell Day and Herbert Miller.—H. W. Forney, engineer at the Johnson-Baillie shoe factory, missed his pay envelope containing $30, which he had placed in a vest pocket. The supposition is that the envelope worked out of the pocket while he was shoveling coal into the furnaces and that it was shoveled into the fire and consumed.

Lebanon Valley Student Pastor of Montclare Church

THE REV. JOHN O. JONES

By Special Correspondence

Annville, Pa., Dec. 5.—The Rev. John O. Jones, who has been appointed the pastor of the Otterbein United Brethren Church at Montclare, twenty miles west of Philadelphia, is a senior at Lebanon Valley College. He is the son of the Rev. M. H. Jones, who was pastor of the United Brethren Church at Penbrook several years ago. The Rev. John Jones is a member of all the religious societies at the college and expects to enter a theological seminary as soon as his work is completed at Lebanon Valley. Next week he intends to hold revival at his church. Prominent clergy of the United Brethren Church will make addresses.

BIG TANK CRUSHED

Blows Off Platform and Is Struck by Train

By Special Correspondence

Halifax, Pa., Dec. 5.—The Rev. C. W. Stinespring, of Baltimore, Md., occupied the pulpit of the Otterbein United Brethren Church on Sunday morning and evening in the interest of the Quincy orphanage. A total collection of $16.50 was lifted for the day.—William Hilbut and family left on Tuesday for their new home in Snyder county.—Mr. and Mrs. Homer Stailey and little daughter visited the former's mother, Mrs. Lillie Stailey, at Liverpool over Sunday.—Mrs. C. A. Funk spent Tuesday with friends at Harrisburg.—One of the galvanized tanks to be used in connection with the erection of the light plant at the new schoolhouse arrived at the local freight station last Saturday and was left lay on the platform. During the heavy storm which prevailed that night the tank was blown upon the tracks and a night passenger train hit it with the result that nothing remained the next morning but pieces. —Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bottomstone, of Watsontown, spent Thursday with friends in town.—Mrs. William Millard and two sons, Abner and Daniel, of Plymouth, spent a few days at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Pike.—Warren Pottieger, of Chambersburg, spent a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Pottieger.—Miss Miriam Dunkel and Miss Mary Clippinger, of Steelton, were guests of Miss Charlotte Heisler over Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sipe, of Herndon, spent Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Zimmerman.—Elias Flowers, of Steelton, visited friends in town on Sunday.—Mrs. I. P. Miller and Mrs. I. O. Miller, of near Fisherville, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Keiter.—Joseph Shive spent Sunday at Harrisburg.—Dr. and Mrs. F. P. Barndt and Mr. and Mrs. William Mourer, of Hegins, spent Sunday at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Bowman and Mrs. Caroline Chubb.—George W. Bowman, who has been seriously ill at his home, is slowly improving.—Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Brubaker visited Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hoffman at Harrisburg on Sunday. — Mrs. Alfred Bowman and daughter have returned home from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Harvey Rouch, at Highspire.

SUPERINTENDENT RESIGNS

H. S. Bittner Retires From Greencastle Plant

By Special Correspondence

Greencastle, Pa., Dec. 5.—H. S. Bittner, superintendent of the Greencastle Electric Light Company, handed in his resignation last week. His successor has not yet been appointed. William Alexander and F. D. Mickey, of Chambersburg, are new members of the board.—Mrs. William Richardson Davison entertained at a reception Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. John Garfield Davison. Quite a number of out of town guests were present. Mrs. E. O. McLanahan and Mrs. P. F. Carl poured tea.—Announcement has been made of the marriage of Frank Hoffman, Jr., of West Madison street, to Miss Lena Lear, of Hagerstown. The wedding took place on Thanksgiving Day in Hagerstown. —The Music Club was entertained on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Emily Collier.—Alice Snively is ill with scarlet fever at her home near Greencastle.—Miss Camilla Starr, of Reading, was the guest this week of Miss Elizabeth Brendle.—Misses Margaret Goetz and Isabel Reymer spent the week at Philadelphia.—W. S. Fleming and daughter, Miss Gladys, are visiting in Philadelphia.—Mrs. C. P. Omwake was hostess of the Bridge Club on Thursday afternoon at her home in Shady Grove.—Mrs. Martha Kauffman has returned from a visit at Harrisburg.—Miss Belle Pittinger spent the week-end in Winchester, Va.—Miss Frances Cremer was the guest of Harrisburg friends this week.—Miss Katharine Omwake has returned from Harrisburg.—The home of Mrs. Sophia Cain was slightly damaged by fire. The roof caught from an overheated stovepipe.—Paul Miller, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Greencastle friends.

MEN'S MEETING AT DILLSBURG

Dillsburg, Pa., Dec. 5.—A men's meeting will be held on Sunday afternoon in the Methodist Church by the Rev. S. B. Goff, the evangelist.—Charles Morris is installing a steam heating plant in the Rossville Lutheran Church.—Miss Martha Bailey, a student in the Women's Medical College at Philadelphia, visited her mother, Mrs. Josephine Bailey.—Professor J. E. Hartman, of New York city, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hartman, over Sunday.—The Rev. Mr. Myers, of Logansville, is conducting a series of revival services in the Brethren Church at Shepherdstown.—Mr. and Mrs. John Goudy began house keeping on Thursday in the H. L. Miller home in South Baltimore street.—Miss Esther Bentz, of the South Baltimore street millinery store, is ill with pneumonia.—Ira L. Heikes began the erection of a garage at his home in South Baltimore street.—A series of revival services are in progress in the Franklin Church conducted by the Rev. G. H. Eveler.

COMMUNITY TREE IN NEWPORT SQUARE

Committees Appointed to Arrange Details For Christmas Celebration

TO HAVE 200 ELECTRIC LIGHTS

Many Visitors Hospitably Entertained at Perry County Town

Newport, Pa., Dec. 5.—The idea of having a community Christmas tree here this year has grown to such an extent that at a recent meeting sufficient enthusiasm was displayed to lead to the appointment of the several committees to carry out the project. It is purposed to locate the tree in the Square and to place on its top a large star, all to be lighted with some 200 electric lights.

The committees appointed are:

Committee on tree—John E. Eby, William G. Loy, Wesley W. Potter, William T. Tanly, B. F. Damaree, William M. Benson, Paul R. Hombach, John L. Snyder, E. S. L. Soule, George W. Taylor, Roy Wagner, David Ickes, Ray Wertz, Wylie Davis and Albert L. Dorwart.

Executive committee — Francis A. Fry, Anson B. Wright, the Rev. William Dorwart, Joseph B. Baker and H. Munson Corning.

Finance committee—The Rev. William Dorwart, William T. Hanly, Lewis M. Blatzer, Paul R. Flurie and W. Nelson Grubb.

Miss Gertrude Mertz, of Lewistown, was a recent visitor to the family of David Mingle.—Mr. and Mrs. William H. Happle spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Harry Kaylor, and her husband, at Union Deposit.—Silas S. Kuhn is enjoying a ten days' visit to Jacksonville and Tampa, Florida. — Miss Annie Dewalt is the guest of friends in Philadelphia.—Charles E. Kerr and family, of Harrisburg, are visiting Mr. Kerr's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Irvin Kerr.—Mr. and Mrs. Oscar C. Miller are on a visit to Philadelphia.—David Ickes, who spent some months in Texas, has returned home. Miss Hazel Flurie recently entertained her cousin, Miss Margaret Flurie, and Miss Ethel Watts, of New Cumberland.—Mrs. Emilie Fleisher had for guests this week her sister, Mrs. Ellen Heim, of Loysville, and Mr. and Mrs. Plummer McVitt, of York; Mrs. B. F. Demaree and her daughter, Miss Claire K. Demaree, attended the funeral of Mrs. Demaree's niece, Miss Edna McKee, at Harrisburg. — William S. Gregg, a prominent attorney of New York, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emmor Gregg.—Mrs. Curtis C. Flurie and her children, Mildred, Mary and Ellsworth, are visiting friends at Harrisburg.—Drs. K. P. Harvey and Gregg Curtis, of Washington, D. C., and William H. Hoopes, of town, performed a very delicate operation on Mrs. Emmor Gregg on Thursday.—Mrs. J. Kyle Gilmore, who has spent some weeks with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Orris, has returned to her home in Minneapolis.

ANNUAL TURKEY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Herr Entertain Relatives

By Special Correspondence

Annville, Pa., Dec. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kreider returned from New Haven, Conn., this week where they were the guests of their son, D. Albert Kreider.—Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Herr entertained their children and grandchildren at a turkey dinner at their home on Thursday. This is an annual affair and was thoroughly enjoyed.—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller announce the birth of a son, Howard, Jr., on Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. George Levan, of Harrisburg, were visitors on Saturday.—M. H. Shaud and Dr. H. Zimmerman made a trip to Philadelphia.—Mrs. Morris Nye and daughter of Lebanon, are the guests of Cyrus Herr.—John Hinkle, of Williamsport, is the guest of his mother here.—Miss Elizabeth Marshall spent Thursday at Harrisburg.—Miss Margaret Fronfield, of Philadelphia, is spending a few weeks at the home of her cousin, Miss Jessie Marshall.—W. M. Rohland and family spent Sunday in Shellsville, making the trip in Mr. Rohland's car. While at the latter place they visited Mrs. Paul Lingle.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE POSTPONED

By Special Correspondence

Berrysburg, Pa., Dec. 5.—A number of people attended the concert at St. John's Church on Saturday evening.—Miss Lena Hartman, of Carlisle, spent a few days with her parents.—Paul Lehman, a student at Ursinus College, spent several days with friends.—Isaiah Daniel, of Elizabethville, was a caller in town on Sunday. —Mr. and Mrs. Michael Reigel, of Big Run, were Sunday visitors at the home of G. M. Hartman.—Ceylon Bowman visited his parents for several days. —Moving pictures were shown in the school on Friday evening by Harry Smith. — Teachers' local institute at Uniontown will be postponed until December 19 instead of December 12 as stated. — Superintendent Shambaugh visited the town's schools on Wednesday.—Mrs. Harry Miller and children of Harrisburg, were visitors at W. M. Bowman's.—The Christmas entertainment of the Lutheran and Reformed Sunday school will be held December 24 in the evening.—The Berrysburg Band has a call from the West End Republican Club of Harrisburg to furnish music on inauguration day.—Monroe Heim, a single man, about 50 years old, living with his brother on George A. Weaver's farm near Pillow, was found dead in the barnyard Wednesday morning. Apoplexy was the cause of his death.

ATTENDED FAMILY REUNION

New Cumberland, Pa., Dec. 5.—Mrs. Annie Smaling and daughter Ruth attended a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fink, Mrs. Smaling's parents, at Zion's View.—Thomas Ferry, who resides on an island near Marsh Run, made sale of his stock on Tuesday.—Miss Elizabeth Smaling has returned from a visit to relatives at Lancaster.—Mrs. Clarissa Sterret, of Decatur, Ill., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jesse Sipe.—Miss Prudence Meir, of Third street, has returned from a visit to Miss Grace Shelly at Shippensburg. —Mrs. J. C. Neff, of Philadelphia, was the guest of her niece, Mrs. Margaret Prowell, this week.—Mrs. Cyrus Long, of Rutherford Heights, visited friends here this week.—Miss Chastina Yensel spent the week with friends at Lancaster.—George Haverstock, who has been visiting his parents in Market street, returned to Annville College.—Mr. and Mrs. John P. Sweeney, Mrs. Elizabeth Kreiger, Miss Mahala Fisher and John M. Fisher attended the funeral of Mrs. George Umberger at Williams Grove, Monday.—Mrs. R. R. Reiff visited her home at Wellsville this week.

"MATRIMONIAL EXCHANGE" ON DILLSBURG OPERA HOUSE STAGE

Personal News Items From Nearby Towns in Central Pennsylvania

By Special Correspondence

Thompsontown. — Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Johnson, a son. Mrs. Johnson was Miss Grace Allen before her marriage. — John Allen spent several days in McCoytown this week. — David Keiser, of Williamsport, was a week-end guest of his father, Jonathan Keiser. — Mr. and Mrs. Ira Boyer, of Van Dyke, and Mrs. Burris and two children, of Mexico, spent Tuesday with their mother, Mrs. Nate Vanhorn. —Mrs. Almyra Logan is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Abram Sieber, of Bunkertown. — John Glace and family moved into the Gayman house. — Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cameron, of Harrisburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sausman, over Sunday. — Mrs. Jesse Nyehart, of Lewistown, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Z. Sowers.—The Lutheran parsonage is much improved by the addition of a new porch—Jacob Sausman, Jr., spent several days with his sister, Mrs. Eugene Cameron in Harrisburg. — Misses Margueretha and Marion Dimm visited Albert Ward in Pfoutzes Valley, over Sunday.

Shippensburg. — Miss Miriam Oyer, a student of Lebanon Valley College, spent Thanksgiving at the home of her parents. — Rodney Angle, of Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, spent Thanksgiving in town. — Miss Nettie Russell, a teacher of New Jersey, spent several days here. — The Rev. S. D. Daugherty, of Oakville, and the Rev. G. W. Sherrick exchanged pulpits last Sunday. — Roy Guyer, the Lebanon Valley football coach, spent some time with relatives here. — Frank E. Philips left this week for a trip to Chambersburg and Waynesboro, where he will visit friends. — Walter Rebuck, a student at Gettysburg College, spent Thanksgiving with his parents. — Russell Jacoby and family spent several days at Mr. and Mrs. Baker's, near Dry Run. — Ethel Powell, teacher at New Cumberland visited relatives here.

Piketown. — William and Ezra Wilt, of Enola, are guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Wilt. — Misses Mary and Mabel Mumma spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Grant Peters, at Progress. — Mervin Strohm spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Strohm, at Stone Glen. — Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Shaeffer, of Penbrook, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hughes, on Sunday. — The Rev. Dr. C. H. Forney, of Harrisburg, spent several days this week with G. W. Fox.—Mrs. George Kennedy and daughter, Viola, of Charlton, spent Sunday with friends near here. — Mr. and Mrs. George Witherow, of Hershey, spent several days with the latter's father, Thomas Ramsey. — Mr. and Mrs. Simon Straw visited Isaiah Mumma, at Charlton, on Sunday. — Miss Tillie Cassel spent several days as the guest of Mrs. Bellaman at Grantville. — Miss Luella Runkle, of Fishing Creek Valley, visited her sister, Mrs. George Wade, Jr., on Sunday. — Miss Emma Megonnel spent Sunday with friends near Dauphin. — Isaac Seiger, of Fishing Creek Valley, was the guest of Harry Mumma, on Sunday.

Dalmatia. — D. W. Radel returned home on Tuesday from a trip through the western states. — Miss Lizzie Showers and Miss Anna Lenker visited at Harrisburg recently. — Mrs. Catharine Lutz, of Hazleton, visited at the home of Andrew Spotte several days. — Mrs. M. R. Fenstermacher returned home from Philadelphia, where she visited.—Mr. and Mrs. David Boswell and Miss Mary Bubb, students at the Bucknell University, Lewisburg, were guests at the home of W. C. Bubb, several days. —Mr. and Mrs. Linn Batdorf attended the funeral of the latter's father, at Lansford, on Tuesday. — William Anderson is visiting at Danville. — W. O. Bingeman, of Philadelphia, is a guest at the home of his son, John G. Bingeman. — H. S. Byerly, of Norristown, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Byerly, on Tuesday. — Mr. and Mrs. John Hasenplug and daughter, of Philadelphia, were guests at the home of D. F. Botdorf. — Mrs. Charles Trego, of Tower City, visited Mrs. Mary Seider. —T. J. Batdorf, of Harrisburg, called on friends here on Wednesday. — Frank Bunnett, of York, spent Tuesday in town.

Wormleysburg. — The Rev. G. B. Renshaw spent a few days in Lykens this week. — Miss Clara Baltaser had as her guest on Sunday, her niece, Miss First, of Harrisburg. — Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hipple entertained Mrs. Jacob Hipple and son, on Thanksgiving Day. — The Rev. and Mrs. G. B. Renshaw had as guests Miss E. M. Eckert and J. J. Hemner. — Mrs. John Reel is ill. — Mrs. Winton Baker is able to be up and about again. — Mrs. Harry Baker and daughter, Mrs. Kaylor, of Hagerstown, have returned home after spending some time with Charles Baker. — Mrs. J. J. Hemner is entertaining her niece, Miss Mary Ilgenfritz, of New Kingston. — Mr. and Mrs. Holcome have been entertaining relatives from Philadelphia for several days. — Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Holcome spent Sunday with his grandfather, Mr. Gregorey, of Elizabethtown.

Union Deposit. — Mrs. C. Landis spent Sunday at Elizabethtown with her daughter, Mrs. Emma Hershey. — Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Fasnacht, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Miller and son, Harry, and Mrs. Harry Fasnacht, made a visit to Michael Overcash, at Steelton, on Sunday. — Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fox, of Palmyra, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerold Fox.—Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Stauffer spent Sunday at Harrisburg.—Harry Walmer and family, Mrs. W. H. Rapp and Harry Fasnacht, spent Sunday at Elizabethtown.—Many of our people go to Harrisburg to hear Evangelistic Stough. — On Sunday morning, at 10.0 o'clock, there will be preaching services in the United Brethren Church, by the pastor, the Rev. G. W. Hallman. — C. C. Groff and family and Mrs. John Groff spent Sunday at Elizabethtown. — H. P. Peiffer and Henry Carmany spent Wednesday at Middletown.

Grantville. — Mrs. Caroline Lingle entertained her son, Calvin, and his wife, of Hershey, at Thanksgiving dinner. — Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Keim entertained the following at Thanksgiving dinner: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Blatt, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bickle and Miss Rosa Basehore. — Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Lingle entertained the Rev. and Mrs. O. R. Bittner at Thanksgiving dinner.—Mr. and Mrs. John Sellers and daughter, Pearl, Mrs. Smith and son, and Mrs. Snyder, all of Annville, called on the Rev. and Mrs. Bittner. — Mr. and Mrs. J. Spayd Bomberger and Daughter, Margie, and Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Whitmyer, of Palmyra, took Thanksgiving dinner at the Grantville hotel.

TURKEY DINNER FOR PARTY OF FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Haines Entertain at Pen Mar Hotel

By Special Correspondence

Waynesboro, Pa., Dec. 5.—Herbert L. Grimm, Pennsylvania State editor of the Philadelphia North American, spent Sunday with his parents, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. Lower Grimm.—Mr. and Mrs. A. Gasman Hains, proprietors of the Glenden Hotel at Pen-Mar, tendered a few of their friends a fine turkey dinner on Sunday afternoon. Those partaking of Mr. and Mrs. Haines' hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bowyer, Miss Sarah C. Way, T. Lester Earp, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Todd and Miss Isabel Todd, of Waynesboro. — In honor of his birthday, Samuel Care, of Waynesboro, was given an elaborate dinner Sunday by his daughter in Chambersburg. Mr. Care's family were all present. — Dr. Mark L. Heefner, Faber Heefner, Daniel Heefner and Omar Kauffman motored to Philadelphia on Wednesday, where the latter two will resume their studies in the University of Pennsylvania.—A. D. Adams and F. H. Adams have returned home from a several days' visit at Hanover and York.—Mrs. Clayton Philips and Miss Sue Philips spent the week-end at Baltimore. — Miss Marjorie Funk left for Philadelphia to-day, where she will spend several weeks.—Mr. and Mrs. John M. Newcomer returned this afternoon from their farm at Big Pool, Md., where they spent the summer and Fall. — Clarence Hartzook, formerly of the Philadelphia Shoe Store, this city, and now with G. M. Spangler in the insurance business in Harrisburg, spent Sunday with his mother here. — Mr. and Mrs. George Bartholow, son and daughter, Lloyd and Gladys, returned to their home in Pittsburgh after a visit with Fred Bartholow, proprietor of the Hotel Warner.—The Ruby Seal Band of the Methodist Episcopal Church met Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Ethel Washabaugh, Potomac avenue, and rendered a short program. Refresments were served by Miss Washabaugh.—Miss Mary Babb, of Carlisle, is spending a few days with freinds here.—Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Enniss have returned home after a few days at New York and New Haven, Conn.

MANY DEER KILLED

Thirty-eight Bucks Shot in Seven Mountains Region

By Special Correspondence

Lewistown, Pa., Dec. 5.—The "One Hundred Christmas Club" started by W. F. Eckbert, Jr., is growing.—Mrs. Mary Eberly, of Cleveland, Ohio, is calling on friends here.—Miss Ruth Snyder has returned from a visit to the western part of the State.—Chas. Woomer, halfback of the strong Yeagertown football team, is improving from an injured back, received while playing in Harrisburg a week ago.—Andrew Long is foreman of a printing office in San Rafael, Cal.—Raymond Schell has returned from a visit to Johnstown.—Miss Jennie Nighthart, of Philadelphia, is calling on friends here.—Jeryl Bowers is home from Ohio, where he had been employed for some time.—H. C. Estep and two daughters, of Harrisburg, have been calling on friends here.—John Gantz, Mifflin county's oldest hunter, aged 90, bagged some rabbits this season. —Thirty-eight deer this season are reported to have been killed in Mifflin county in the Seven Mountains region.—John Fike will have his name presented to the Carnegie Hero Commission for saving three lives.

SUPERINTENDENT TO PREACH

The Rev. Dr. A. S. Fasick Will Visit Lewisberry

By Special Correspondence

Lewisberry, Pa., Dec. 5. — The district superintendent, the Rev. Dr. A. S. Fasick, of Carlisle, will preach in the local Methodist Episcopal Church on Sunday, both morning and evening, and the following three evenings. The pastor, the Rev. D. L. Dixon will begin his special services in the church on Sunday evening, continuing indefinitely. — Miss Lorena Kilmore, of Mechanicsburg, is spending the week at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Annie Laird. — Mrs. Ella M. Sutton, Mrs. Margaret Zinn and Miss Edith Cline attended the Stough meetings at Harrisburg on Tuesday evening and heard the sermon on "Hell." — Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hammond, of Washington, were recent guests of Mr. Hammond's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hammond. —Mrs. Mary S. Myers and Miss Edith Cline, of Lewisberry, and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Smith, of Baltimore, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Traver, of Yocumtown. — Miss Mabel Yinger returned from a visit at New Cumberland. — Malcolmn and Helen Reiff, of New Cumberland, are spending the week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Reiff. — Mrs. Eliza A. Pennington spent the past week at Harrisburg, where she attended the meetings at the Stough tabernacle. — Miss Celia Ballets is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Erney. — Mr. Fitzgerald, teacher of a school in Newberry township, will spend the week-end with Bruce Nebinger.

Ladies of Monaghan Round Table Give Enjoyable Play

By Special Correspondence

Dillsburg, Pa., Dec. 5.—Recently the ladies of the Monaghan Round Table gave their annual play called the "Matrimonial Exchange" in the Dillsburg opera house and it was the most successful ever given by the local society. Above is a picture of the cast of characters. From left to right, back row: Charles Smith as Billy Light, foot actor and singer; Mrs. Ira Heikes as Mrs. Bridget O'Flanannegan, with furnished apartments; Robert Bailey, as Michael McGinnis, of the police force; Mrs. Charles Sidle as Mrs. Clyde, a widow; Harry Grimes as Laurence Gotrox, a banker; Katherine Altland as a colored maid; Daniel Altland as Lord Reginald Montgomery, a fortune hunter; Mrs. Charles Altland as Fanny Gusher, a matrimonial applicant; Grant Sheffer as Professor Gustave, trainer of world wide fame; Gretna Beitzel as Pareppa De Claimer, an actress and poetess; Mr. Cook as Laury Gotrox, son of Laurence Gotrox; Katherine Gintzer as Nellie Clyde, daughter of Mrs. Clyde; Mrs. Robert Smith as Alvira Slimmins, a matrimonial applicant. Front row: Mrs. M. W. Britcher as Mrs. Malmdy Jane Perkins Gabble with talented children; William Sheffer as Thomas Jefferson Gabble; Elizabeth Cook as Malinda Gabble; Katherine Graff as Katherine Clyde; Mrs. Clyde's daughter; Bertha Sidle as Sarah Elizabeth Gabble; James Smith as George Washington Gabble; in front, seated, are the two black cats represented by Robert Sheffer and Keith Cook.

MIFFLIN GIRL WINS FIRST PLACE IN W. C. T. U. WORK

By Special Correspondence

Mifflintown, Pa., Dec. 5.—Miss Louise Jackman, musical instructor at Albright College, Myerstown, spent Thanksgiving at her home here.—Miss Gladys McCauley, of Wilson College, Chambersburg, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCauley.—Mrs. D. L. Berry spent Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Neely, at Churchill.—Given Ebright spent Sunday with his brother Leigh, who is recovering from an operation in the German Hospital, Philadelphia.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder, of Cresson, are visiting at the Pennell home.—William Neely, of Harrisburg, spent Thursday with relatives here.—Mr. an Mrs. Orr, of Lewistown, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Margaret McClintic. — Dr. Norman Ebright is spending a month in Norristown.—Miss Elizabeth Buchfield attended the Army and Navy football game at Philadelphia on Saturday.—Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Espenschade, of Pittsburgh, are visiting their parents, Frederick Espenschade and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scholl.—Mrs. Wilson, of Juniata, spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Mahlon Guss. — Miss Elizabeth Okeson left on Friday for Harrisburg, where she expects to spend the winter. —Miss Mary Zug, of Bowie, Md., is visiting at the home of H. E. Watters. —For an intercounty grand gold medal oratorical contest held last May in the Ridge Avenue Methodist Church, the state superintendent of medal contests has awarded to Miss Lavina Lemon, of Mifflin, first place for excellence in the Woman's Christian Temperance Union grand gold medal work the past year. —The Rev. Mr. Osburn, of Bradford, occupied the pulpit Sunday morning and evening in the Westminster Presbyterian Church.—Miss Rebecca Doty left Tuesday for a visit with relatives in Philadelphia.—Mrs. Charles Flood and two little sons, of Nook, are visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles McClellan.

HELP BELGIAN FUND

Millerstown Collection at Religious Services Adds $23

By Special Correspondence

Millerstown, Pa., Dec. 5.—Mrs. O. O. Wagner and son Oren visited her parents at Wooster, Ohio, this week.—A. A. Willis, of Forest City, Iowa, was the guest of his cousin, Mrs. J. C. Hall, over Sunday.—Mrs. C. C. Page left Wednesday for Altoona, where she will visit relatives.—Misses Mame Kepner and Nan Hough, Mrs. Margaret Brown and D. A. Lahr were visitors at Harrisburg on Wednesday. — Misses Anna Bollinger, Helen Rounsley and Professor J. Charles attended teachers' institute at New Bloomfield this week. —Calvin Dimm and James Kipp, of Harrisburg, who had been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kipp, for several days, returned home Sunday. — Walter Allen and daughter Grace, of Altoona, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Spangler Sunday.—Miss Grace Light, who has been a patient in the Jewish Hospital at Baltimore for several weeks, returned home Sunday.—Mrs. Susan Wagner, of Harrisburg, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ida Ward.—A collection was taken up for the benefit of the Belgian sufferers at the union services on Thanksgiving evening and at the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school on Sunday morning, which amounted to over $23.—Mrs. Mary Pellow was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Calvin Cox, at Newport.—Mrs. Rounsley and aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Crocker, spent Sunday in Mifflin, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rumple.—Mrs. Hoyt Johnston and daughter Anna Lacey and Mrs. Roland Harrison and children, who have been visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Wingert, returned to their homes in Washington, D. C., on Tuesday. They were accompanied home by their sister, Miss Clara Wingert.—Miss Lillian Nankivel, of Steelton, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nankivel.—Mrs. C. A. Pike, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. D. Bollinger, for several weeks, returned to her home in Washington, D. C., on Sunday.

SHOT 200-POUND BUCK IN CLINTON

Benjamin Gochenaur Only Member of Elizabethtown Club to Get Prize

GAVE OFFERING TO SCHOOL

Samuel S. Stacks Celebrates Sixty-Fifth Birthday in a Novel Way

By Special Correspondence

Mount Joy, Pa., Dec. 5.—Benjamin F. Gochenaur, of Mount Joy, accompanied the Elizabethtown Gunning Club on a two-weeks' gunning trip to Keating, Clinton county, and he was successful in capturing a fine 200-pound deer the only one that was shot by the members of the club.—Harry Grosh and wife, of Johnstown, are guests of Harry W. Grosh and wife.—A jolly party of