THE MARKETS

NEW YORK REFUSES TO FOLLOW LONDON

Early Quotations in Markets Were Mixture of Gains and Losses

By Associated Press

New York, Jan. 6.—The only notable feature of to-day's stock market was its refusal to follow the lead of London, where Americans were again lower, with losses of a point or more in several of the transcontinental issues. Early quotations were a mixture of gains and losses, most of the leaders showing little change either way. There were one point gains, however, in such specialties as Texas Company and Sloss Sheffield Steel. Trading was the lightest of any recent day, a tie-up of the local subway causing some confusion and delay in the financial district.

GUYER AND BARBER BOTH RE-ELECTED

"Perfect Harmony" Reigns at Annual Reorganization of the County Poor Board

Smiles and mutual patting upon the back characterized to-day's reorganization of the Dauphin County Poor Board instead of the expected flurry over the re-election of Clerk John P. Guyer and Steward S. F. Barber, and these two officials were chosen for another year without a single whimper of opposition.

All the other attaches of the board weer re-elected, including Harry A. Walters as president and Charles L. Boyer as agent. Director Thomas S. Manning nominated Mr. Walters and Mr. Walters returned the compliment by casting his ballot for Mr. Manning. Director Manning, however, questioned whether it was really necessary to have an agent, as the law didn't provide for the office. Solicitor B. F. Nead said the selection has always been a matter of precedent and custom and he thinks it wise for the Poor Directors, in the absence of any law, "to follow custom and precedent."

The Poor Board's requisition for $58,000 for the new year included one new item. This is $900, set aside for the salary of the social worker, Miss Rachel Staples.

Flour Takes Sudden Leap Toward the Sky

Seven dollars and ninety cents a barrel for the mest grade of flour is the price Harrisburgers are paying as a result of the recent raises in price due to the war. The price rose 20
