HIGHER RANGE OF PRICES IN MARKET

United States Steel Made New Record For Recent Years on Its Advance

By Associated Press

New York, Oct. 5.—Accumulation of buying orders over the holiday was denoted by the higher range of prices on the resumption of trading to-day. The most noteworthy exception was Reading, which opened at the new "dollar basis" of 80, decline of ½ to ⅝ from Monday's close. Baldwin Locomotive opened at 131 to 132, soon touching 134, an eight point gain and Studebaker at 147 to 147½, rose 2½. Westinghouse, another "dollar basis" stock rose a fraction while the Maxwell group was materially higher. U. S. Steel made a new record for recent years on its three-eighths advance to 83⅜. Railways were irregular.
