Metal Stocks Share in Movement to Moderate Degree; Steel Rises

By Associated Press

New York, Nov. 13. — War shares and allied issues were the only features of interest in to-day's opening which with gains of one to two points on moderate dealings. Metal stocks shared in the movement to a moderate degree, but most of the former speculative favorites were backward. United States Steel rose a small fraction at the outset, but soon fell back. Bethlehem Steel rose two points to 445, with further activity in the automobile group. Initial transactions in Union Pacific and Lehigh alley showed nominal losses, while Reading and Canadian Pacific were fractionally higher.
