YEAR ENDS WITH WIDE ADVANCES

Steel Duplicates Maximum With Offering of 12,000 Shares

New York, Dec. 31. — The last day of the year the Stock Exchange opened with wide and general advances, the outcome of the Austrian situation being signallized by a broad buying movement. United State's Steel's initial offering consisted of 12,000 shares at 89 to 89½, an overnight gain of two points and duplicating its maximum of the last five years.

Shares of the so-called war class were one to three points higher, with especial strength in Studebaker, Baldwin Locomotive and Republic Steel. Coppers rose more moderately, likewise rails, but the oil group added substantially to recent gains.

Dealings in the first hour were the largest in several weeks, approaching 300,000 shares. Steel, American Smelting and Petroleum were the most active issues.

Prices reacted soon after the opening, the temptation to take profits being too strong. The market took all offerings, however, and representative shares extended early gains substantially. St. Paul rose 3¼ to 101⅛ and the Pacific and New York Central were higher by one to two points.

Another rise in copper created a fresh demand for that group, Smelting rising 3¼ and Anaconda 2⅛ to 91¼. Among the few backward issues was Bethlehem Steel, which declined one-half to 455. Bonds were steady.

NATIONAL BANKS' SHARES UNDER TAX

Hargest Rules That State Transfer Tax Must Be Paid

Auditor General Powell was to-day advised in an opinion by Deputy Attorney General Hargest that the new State stock transfer tax, which will become operative to-morrow will apply to transfers of shares of national banks. In the opinion Mr. Hargest says: "It is apparent from a consideration of the whole act that the tax imposed is upon the sales or transfers of the stock and not upon the stock itself. * * * I am of the opinion that there is no constitutional or other prohibition against the power of the State to impose the tax; that all transfers and deliveries of the shares of national banks are within the scope of said act of assembly, and therefore taxable.

Warning was issued to-day by the State Department of Agriculture that oleomargerine may not be sold in Pennsylvania to-morrow unless a 1916 license is secured or application and certified check for license has been forwarded to the State Capitol. The agents of the dairy and food commissioner will immediately stop all sales by stores where licenses are not displayed. The commissioner's office worked all day and most of the night getting out the licenses and Monday a canvass of stores will be made to see that the act is being enforced.

Six million stock transfer stamps have been delivered at the State Capitol in addition to the numbers already issued for the new tax which goes into effect to-morrow. There are heavy demands from Philadelphia.

Governor Brumbaugh dropped into the city late last night, having given up his proposed trip to Scranton. He cleared his desk of business for the old year and left about noon for Philadelphia. He gave no intimation about prospective appointments.

Secretary of Agriculture Patton is expected home from Texas next week.

R. P. Cox of the auditor general's department, is taking a vacation.

Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, State Commissioner of Health, has issued a new year's sentiment to his friends from his home at Black Rock Farm, Bryn Mawr. The doctor writes: "As the new year comes in let us regard the laws of nature that we may have health, the foundation upon which the Temple of Preparedness can stand."

Countess Ida Is in Ridiculous Predicament For One Worth 3 Millions

Special to the Telegraph

Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 31. — The honeymoon of the former "Countess" Ida Marie von Claussen and her husband, Francis Albert Gilbert Dona is in grave danger of running short of funds unless Matthew Claussen, her brother and custodian of her estate, meets overtures made through Miss Lille, secretary of the "Countess," who to-day acted as the emissary in an effort to have him loosen the purse strings and replenish funds that are fast becoming exhausted, according to the confessions of the bride, who shows no disposition to return to New York after having gotten out of Matteawan.

"They'll never get me back there," she declared to-day. "I'm perfectly sane and I love my husband. Isn't he a fine boy, though, and she twined her arms around his neck. "It does seem ridiculous, but we haven't got a whole lot of money with us, we hurried to the shore so quickly. Imagine such a predicament for one worth about three millions. But we are entirely happy and are not worrying about the future."

MOOREHEAD CO. GIVES DINNER

Big Textile Firm Has Enjoyable Occasion at Harrisburg Club

It was the night before the last night of the old year, the place was the Harrisburg club and the occasion was the annual dinner of the Moorhead Knitting Company. Also, it was a great occasion for the officers, the heads of departments, the salesmen, the stockholders and their guests and likewise it was a beautifully-decorated room in which the annual feast was spread. Christmas greens, blooming plants and other trimmings gave a holiday atmosphere to this interesting event.

Of course, there was a good deal of business scattered in among the courses of the dinner, bu this shop talk was so interladened with good stories, jokes and hearty greetings that the serious business of the evening was quite as enjoyable as the more festive features of the program.
