MARKET COMES TO STANDSTILL

Marks Time at Noon; New Haven Continues Decline Unsettling Prices

By Associated Press

New York, April 11. — New Haven continued to decline, falling 2⅝ to 60⅝ on active dealings and unsettling prices elsewhere. The stock's heaviness was accompanied by rumors of disappointing March earnings. There were recessions of 1 to 3 points in Marines, Goodrich, Petroleums and Industrial Alcohol, common and preferred. New York, Chicago and St. Louis, second pfd., broke 6¾ to 50. These were partly counterbalanced by the strength of Crucible, Cuban-American Sugar and United States Smelting, the latter making a new record at 75⅞. Trading dwindled later, the market coming to a standstill at noon. Bonds were irregular, Canadians displaying strength, with further pressure against Anglo-French 5s.
