The Withdrawal of Mr. Oyster.

Oyster, as Republican candidate for Register of the land office for New Assembly from this county. This action on Mr. Oyster's part, narrows the Territory and was active Governor the question of "who shall represent of the same for the period of some us?" down to Messrs. Earley and Wimmer. Mr. Earley, the regular Demo- to Clarion county and again engaged cratic nominee, and Mr. Wimmer, In- in the oil business, and now ranks as dependent Democrat. Had the question been merely of men, or politics, sive oil operators in the Pennsylvania Mr. Oyster would not have withdrawn, oil region. His personal qualities and his withdrawal was not because defeat was certain, for in this county parties, and his executive ability and Republican candidates can generally Cuneo, farmer; U. W. Rogers, farmer; | count on certain defeat, but, because did he remain in the field the election Thompson, armer; Thomas Dollinger of Mr. Wimmer was more than possibackanith, Michael Gliton, stone ble, and Mr Earley's defeat more than probable The election of Mr Wimmer, then, was a result which Mr Oyster, and his friends desired should not be, for several reasons, among which may be given his misrepresentation of twothirds of the county while in the Legislature, by his night-mare of "My Bill," and the fact that he has no claims at all on the people, either by long resid ence' or public enterprise. On the other hand we find a man whom it is useless for us to say is the friend of every man, woman and child from Benezette to Millstone, and from the centre to the circumference of Elk county; a man who has done as much, if not more, for the development, improvement, and advancement of our interests than any man we can now think of; a | for him. man whose generosity is only encompassed by his means, and whose whole life from manhood, to the verge ofold age, has been spent in our midst. There are times when party should give way to other questions, and this seems to be the case now. Our local interests are in jeopardy; shall we neglect the warning until it is too late or will we cast aside, for the time being, the misguiding cry of "any thing for party," and cast our ballots for the best interests of our people? Much as we desired to see Mr Oyster succeed. we could not overlook the facts in the case, nor be blind to the danger we were encountering. We wish to have tleman; Samuel W. Miles, plasterer; our Republican friends understand that Mr Oyster withdrew, not from fear of his own defeat, but from the desire he had not to be a stumbling block to the successful accomplishment of an end we all devoutly desire, and we hope they will all so consider it We ask Republicans, throughout, the county, therefore, to support C. R Earley for the position to which Mr. Oyster aspired The wish is father to the thought when we say that C. R. Earley will be elected, next Tuesday by wintery blast. Go at once and be a handseme majeri ty.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT. WASHINGTON, D. C., October 28 '76. By the President of the United States of America-A PROCLAMATION.

From year to year we have been ac customed to pause in our daily pursuits, and set apart a time to offer our thanks to Almighty God for special blessings He has vouchsafed to us, with our prayers for a continuance thereof. We have at this time equal reason to be thankful for His continued protection, and for the many material blessings, which His bounty has bestowed. In addition to these favors accorded to us as individuals, we have especial occasion to express our hearty thanks to Almighty God that by His providence and guldance our Government, established a cenury ago, has been enabled to fulfill the purpose of its founders in offering an asylum to the people of every race, securing civil and religious liberty to all within its borders, and meting out to every individual alike justice and equality before the law. It is, moreover, especially our duty to offer our humble prayers to the Father of all Mercies for a continuance of His divine favor to us as a nation, and as individuals. By reason of all these considerations I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do recommend the people of the United States to devote the 30th day of November next to the expression of their thanks and prayers to Almighty God, and laying aside their daily avocations, and all secular occupations, to assemble in their respective places of worship and observe such day as a day of thanksgiving and rest.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 26th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and first. By the President:

U. S. GRANT.

HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

A Very Creditable Record.

The record of Maj. Henry Wetter, Republican candidate for State Senator in this district, is one of which both he and his friends may well be proud. At the beginning of the war Major Wetter enlisted in the 37th Regiment of Pennsylvania Reserves, and was successively promoted or gallant conduct. He shared with his regiment in the bloody battles of the Peninsula, was wounded at Charles City Cross Roads, June 30th, 1862, and was again wounded at the second batmay demand. Possessing a practical knowledge of the oil business, the leading interest of not only this county, but the entire district, we can appeal to them to cast a complimentary if not a solld vote for him, one of their representative men The need of a man of such practical, comprehensive views, has ong been felt in our State Legislature to secure such legislation as would be best calculated to benefit the interests of the entire business. An extended notice of Major Henry Wetter, in this county, or wherever he is known, is unnecessary. No gentleman in the district is better qualified or more deserving of the position, and his friends, we are confident, will labor earnestly to secure it

Newspapers at the Centennial.

The Special Correspondent of the Loudon Times says it would be difficult to find an apter illustration of the big way in which the Americans do things than that furnished by the "Centennial Newspaper Building," in the Exhibition grounds. Here you may for Stores' Avenue.

Seized and taken in execution as the property of Nelson Wemmer & John P. Wemmer, Copardners, trading as N. J. Wemmer & Son, at suit of as a favor to see them, but invited, nay, pressed, to confer the favor of entering, the building and calling for what paper you like. It is about as cool and agreeable a place—quite apart from its literary attractions—as a visitor to the Exhibition could wish to be offered a chair in, He may at first wonder how, among 8,000 papers among them such mighty sheets as the New York Herald, he is to get at the small, loved print of his home, thousands of miles away, it may be, over the Rocky Mountains. But the management is so simple that by consulting the catalogue, or even without the aid of the catalogue, any one can at once find whatever paper he wants. They are pigeon-holed on shelves in the alphab etical order of their States or Territories and their towns, the names of which are clearly labelled on the shelves. The proprietors of the Centennial Newspaper Building are advertising agents, the largest in all America—Messrs. G. P. Bowell & Co., of New York. Their enterprise will cost altogether about $20,000 or $40,000, including the building and the the penses of "running" it for six months The 8,000 and odd American newspapers are declared, by the same authority, to exnations of the earth.
