IMPORTANT NEWS OF TOWNS IN CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA

FAIRVIEW TWP. TEACHERS MEET

First Institute to Be Held at Pleasant Grove School Building

PROGRAM OF EXERCISES

Officers For Year Chosen at Recent Meeting of Teachers of District

Lewisberry, Sept. 15. — School teachers of Fairview township will hold their first institute at the Pleasant Grove school house on Saturday, September 29. The program follows:

2 P. M.—Devotional services, Miss Tessie Kerlin; "The First Day of School," Miss Malinda Bayler; "School Room Decorations," Miss Lizzie Kunkel; query box.

Evening Session, 7.30—Address, J. F. Greenfield; character sketch of Horace Mann, H. M. Sutton; recitation by a teacher; debate, "Resolved, That there is more scenery in the United States west of the Mississippi river than east of it," affirmative, W. C. Trout and George L. Harring; negative, Blaine Seitz and A. P. Kerlin; gazette, Miss Bertha Bayler. The teachers organized as follows. President, H. M. Straley; vice-president, H. M. Sutton; secretary, Miss Tessie Kerlin; treasurer, W. C. Trout; organist, Miss Lizzie Kunkel.—Miss Lorena Kilmore, of Mechanicsburg, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Annie Laird, after spending the summer at Atlantic City with her sister, Miss Manetta Kilmore.—Mrs. Clarissa Sterrett left Tuesday for her home in Decatur, Ill., after spending the summer with her brother and sister, Harry and Miss Carrie Cline. —On Sunday morning a son, Harry, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Zeiders. Mrs. Zeiders prior to her marriage was Miss Ruth Snyder.—The Rev. and Mrs. L. Elbert Wilson and son, Warren, will leave today for their new home at Mercersburg. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Armstrong and daughter, Laurabel, will take them in their automobile, returning home on Sunday.—Mrs. W. S. Nortenheim and daughter, Caroline, returned to their home at Philadelphia after spending four months with her father, W. S. Hammond.—The Rev. and Mrs. L. E. Wilson and son spent Thursday with friends at Lisburn. The Rev. Mr. Wilson delivered his last messages on Sunday to large congregations in the Methodist church. At the morning service three persons united with the church in full membership and two by letter. In the evening before the sermon the pastor held an installation service for the Senior Epworth League officers, who are: President, Miss Elsie Nebinger; first vice-president, Miss Edith Cline; second vice-president, office made vacant by Mrs. Wilson leaving; third vice-president, Mrs. Elizabeth U. Laird; fourth vice-president, Mrs. J. H. Shettel; secretary, Miss Marjorie Ensminger; treasurer, Miss Evelyn Harlacker.—Mrs. Ella M. Sutton left last week to visit friends and relatives in Ohio. —Miss Katherine Snyder, of Fishing Creek Valley, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lincoln Zeiders.—Preaching services will be held in the local Methodist church on Sunday evening. The pulpit will be filled by the Rev. A. O. Stone, of Harrisburg. — Harry Cline spent Tuesday at New Cumberland where he was the guest of relatives.—Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Beidel and children and Mr. Jones spent Sunday at Centerville.

Enjoyable Party on Birthday of Miss Walmer

Union Deposit, Pa., Sept. 15.—A pleasant party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walmer in honor of their daughter, Mary's, 16th birthday. The following were present: Misses Grace Stauffer, Kathryn Jones, Bertha Hoover, Clara Rambler, Alice Silks, Beatrice Gingrich, Ruth Wagner, Mary Lehrs, Blanch Walmer, Mary Walmer, John Eisenhour, Frank Grumbein, Herman Wagner, Norman Hoover, Enos Boyer, David Long, Mrs. Harry Kaylor, Mrs. Ella J. Rapp, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Eshephour, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walmer and son, William. The room was nicely decorated and refreshments served. All wished her many more happy birthdays. —Mrs. Jacob Snyder spent Sunday at Bressler visiting her daughter, Mrs. Elmer France.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Pattison, of Harrisburg, and Mrs. John Wolf and children, of Hummelstown, were the guests of Mrs. Henry Boyer.—Miss Carrie Letterman spent a day at Harrisburg.—Preaching services will be held tomorrow evening in the United Brethren church by the pastor, the Rev. George W. Hallman.—Samuel Letterman, of Little Neck, Long Island, after spending several months with his grandmother, Mrs. Lizzie Letterman, has returned home.—Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Hughes and daughter, Eva, spent Sunday at Rockville visiting the former's brother, Harry Swallow. — Hauden Weirbach, of Quakertown, visited his aunt, Mrs. Ella J. Rapp, on Sunday.—Roy Landis left on Monday for State College. —Mr. and Mrs. David Reigle, of Hummelstown, visited Mrs. Rebecca Staley, on Sunday.

Attended Dell Family Reunion at Latta Grove

Yeagertown, Pa., Sept. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dell and grandson, James Delby, have returned home from Mapleton, where they attended the Dell reunion at Latta Grove, five miles up Smith valley.—Mrs. William Ingram, of Philadelphia, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Furcell.—Mrs. Beulah Bassow returned to her home in Youngstown, Ohio. She was accompanied by her daughter Lucile.—Miss Shirley Austin, of Newton, was a visitor Thursday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harry Albright. — Misses Lillian Armstrong, of Big Valley, and Esther Wagner, of Milroy, were Thursday visitors with friends at this place. — Miss Edna Piper, of Belleville, was a recent caller at the home of C. F. Wharton. — Mrs. James Markley has returned from a week's visit with her sister near Beaver Springs.—Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Neidigh, Mr. and Mrs. Ennis Neidigh and Miss Maud Orth, of Blain, were guests at the home of Lewis Orth and Willis Yeager. — Mr. and Mrs. Malick Fitzpatrick and daughter, of Oleon, N. Y., accompanied by Mrs. Phoebe Hoover were recent visitors at the Sarah Mendenhall and William Gibson homes. —Mrs. Harry Weiler and two children, of Toledo, Ohio, visited the former's uncle, Charles Ulsh.

FOUR GENERATIONS OF PETERS FAMILY

Marietta, Pa., Sept. 15.—A remarkable four generation group is here pictured, the four generations being of the fair sex. Mrs. Elizabeth Peters is the oldest of the group, and is making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Elmer E. Greenawalt. She will soon be 77 years of age. The others in the picture are her daughter, Mrs. Philip Krampel; her granddaughter, Mrs. Mary Hjalmar, and her great-granddaughter, Anna S. Hjalmar.

CENTRAL PENNA. PERSONALS

Mount Joy.—Miss Grace Kinard has been elected a high school teacher to take the place of Professor O'Neil, who enlisted in the army—Clayton Pannebecker, of Baltimore, is visiting his parents here.—Harry Royer, of Pittsburgh, is visiting his mother here.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brandt, of Pittsburgh, are the guests of Mrs. John M. Brandt.—Walter Ebersole, of Wilmington, Del., is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Ebersole.—Freight Agent C. S. Good is off on a week's vacation. —Miss Pearl Getz, of Ephrata, is the guest of her brother, Paul E. Getz. —Henry Smeltzer, the borough supervisor, has resigned his position.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Hoffman were at York attending the funeral of Mrs. George H. Burger.—Mr. and Mrs. Homer Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Eshleman, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hollinger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Groff, Mr. and Mrs. David Schroll and family, Mrs. Anna Fetter, Benjamin Groff, Harvey Sheaffer and Jacob M. Schroll spent a day at Gettysburg.—Dr. A. I. Snyder attended the funeral of his mother, Mrs. J. F. Snyder, of Fairview, Luzerne county. —Mrs. S. M. Witmer received word of the death of her son-in-law, Frank Cahoon, of Massachusetts. — Mrs. Simon Mennaugh spent some time in Philadelphia.—Miss Esther Weber left for Avola where she will visit Dr. William Helborn. — Frederic Sweigert, of Philadelphia, spent several days with his father, the Rev. A. M. Sweigert.—Miss Helen Templar, of Philadelphia, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Eshleman.—Miss Gertrude Greenawalt left for Cornwall, where she is teaching school.—Miss Ethyl Sheaffer left for Baltimore and York where she will spend a month with friends.—J. R. Missemer, Benjamin F. Missemer and Florence Missemer were at St. Joseph's hospital, Lancaster, on Sunday, visiting Edgar R. Missemer, who is a patient at that institution.

Elizabethtown.—The Rev. P. E. Mathias, pastor of the King's Highway church at Bridgeport, Conn., was the guest of H. E. Reem and family.—Mr. and Mrs. Philip Neff, of Sunbury, were the guests of Mrs. Emma Brubaker.—Miss Helen Shirk visited among friends at Hershey.—Mrs. A. C. Hampton was the guest of friends at Lancaster.—Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Gantz and son John, and Mrs. I. H. Hoffman, of Pleasant View, spent a few days with relatives here.—The Rev. Preston Strauss and wife and daughter Miss Helen, of Long Island, were guests of friends in the borough.—William Wisegarver, of Philadelphia, spent several days with Merchant J. E. Hoover and family in Park street.—The Rev. R. W. Schlosser delivered an interesting address at the missionary meeting in the Church of the Brethren at Lititz.—H. H. Beates, C. K. Coble, H. H. Clausen, C. A. Foltz and H. Warmley were recent visitors to Harrisburg.—Roy Balmer was the guest of friends at Middletown. — Willard Galebach visited friends at Lancaster.— Henry E. Groff, of Spring Lake, N. J., is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Martha Groff.—Samuel Lessley was the guest of his parents at Terre Hill.—Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Foltz were recent visitors at Harrisburg.—Miss Susie Sherbalun is seriously ill at her home in South Poplar street with tuberculosis.—Iva Keisey, who has been engineer at the Keider Shoe Factory, has tendered his resignation to accept a similar position at Steelton.—Levi Rutherford has accepted a position with the Klein Chocolate Company. — Misses Myrtle and Violet Geibe, of Middletown, spent several days with relatives here.—Miss Helen Dennison was the guest of relatives at Hillsdale. — Henry Hershey and sister Miss Mary, of Maytown, spent several days with D. B. Brandt and family.—Mrs. Wesley Honseal, of Maytown, spent a few days with S. B. Becker and family.

Duncannon. — Mrs. Andrew Shull and daughter, Miss Agnes Shull, of Harrisburg, are spending several days here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Owen. Mrs. Shull and Mrs. Owen are sisters. — Dr. E. C. Smith has sold his drug store at New Bloomfield to H. Earl Book, of Port Royal, who, will take charge of the business on Monday. — John Hart has enrolled as a student at Lehigh University. — Miss Elizabeth Owen is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Lester Himes, at Highspire. — Misses Ethel and Pearl Orr have returned to their home, at Altoona, after a visit here as the guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Williams. — The Standard Novelty Works since the first week in July up to the latter part of last week, shipped thirty-five carloads of sheds. — Harry L. Fritz spent the forepart of the week at Washington, D. C. — Mr. and Mrs. Harvey F. Page have returned to their home, at Waterbury, Conn., after a visit to relatives here.—Miss Ruth Willis has returned to Hancock, N. Y., to begin her third term as a teacher in the public schools, after having spent the summer vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Willis. — Mrs. George P. Thayer and nephew, Ralph Forsht, of Altoona, spent Thursday here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sieg.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kline, of Bedford, were week-end guests of the former's mother, Mrs. M. B. Comp. — Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Vogel have returned from a visit to Wilmington, Del., where they were guests of their son, Edward Vogel

Halifax.—Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Smith entertained at their home in Second street Saturday and Sunday the following Pottsville people: Miss Josephine A. Penn, assistant matron of the Pottsville Orphans Home; Miss Irene Guyer, C. N. Jenkins, Charles B. Schum, of the Pottsville Daily Republican, and Mrs. Schum. —Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Fetterhoff accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William Straw, of Highspire, left Sunday on an automobile trip to Elmira, N. Y., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Straw.—Miss Annie Bierie, of Palmyra, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary Bierie over Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. James Gipple and Mr. and Mrs. Galin Gipple and daughter Martha, of Lancaster, were guests at the home of Mrs. Jane Miller over Sunday.—Mrs. H. W. Snyder and daughter, Helen, of Northumberland and Mrs. M. D. Lehr and daughter Catherine, of Lykens, visited at the Miller home on Monday.—Mrs. C. B. Wilkert spent several days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. G. Dunn, at Lancaster. She was acompanied by her daughters, Mrs. Ernest Hathe, of Millersburg, and Miss Bethel Wilkert, of Harrisburg. — Mrs. Elizabeth Bayanowski, of Steelton, and Frederick Hieng, of Braddock, visited at the homes of A. C. Newbaum and August Mummerig.—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Pike, of Hummelstown, spent Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. George W. Bowman.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bowman, of Renovo, were guests of Mrs. D. K. Smith.—Mrs. John Singer, of Sault-Sainte-Marie, Ontario, Canada, spent several days the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Smith. Upon her return home she was accompanied by Miss Frances Smith. Mrs. A. M. Smith accompanied them as far as Buffalo, N. Y.—Mrs. Lydia Landis and son Reed, spent several days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Kennedy at Palmyra.

Thompsontown.—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dennis, of Philadelphia, spent a week with the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary Gross.—Thomas Bolton, of Harrisburg, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Correll. — Mrs. Almyra Logan is spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Abram Seiber at Bunkertown.—Miss Annie Patton is visiting friends in Mifflin county.—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Boganrief, of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Colyer, of Harrisburg, and Miss Margaret Rickenbaugh, of Orwig, South Dakota, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Colyer.—Mrs. Nelson Lloyd, of Mifflintown, and Mrs. Harry Lloyd and two children, of New York, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Thompson.—Miss Erie M. Henkles, of Alexandria, is visiting Mrs. Irvin Lantz.—Max and Miss Gladys DeArmitt, of Altoona, spent the week-end with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Colyer. — Mrs. Charles Cummings and Burd Crowther, of Philadelphia, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Thompson on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson accompanied them home to Philadelphia and will spend the week-end with Mrs. Thompson's parents at Oak Lane.—Miss Grace Cameron and Mrs. Emma Puffenberger, of Harrisburg, were recent guests of Mrs. H. Z. Sowers.—Mr. and Mrs. John Mueller and childen and John Smith, of Philadelphia, are occupying the E. A. Tennis home during September.—Mrs. Will Rowe, of Millerstown, spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Yeigh.

New Bloomfield. — Miss Mary Prisler, of New York, is visiting Mrs. W. F. H. Garber. — Frank McCaskey, of Pittsburgh, is spending his vacation here and at Shermansdale. — Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Clouser, of Philadelphia, visited Mr. Clouser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Clouser. — Mrs. W. A. Sponsler and son, Richard, of Steelton, were in town on Monday. —Frank Kell left for Harrisburg on Thursday, where he has accepted a position as clerk with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. — After spending their vacations, at their homes here, Miss Edith Bernheisel, of Green Park; Miss Grace Adams, Miss Annabelle Shearer and Miss Rose Miller have returned to Camden to teach. —Mrs. Frederick Nelson and son, Frederick, Jr., of Philadelphia, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kerr. — Mrs. Charles O. Davis, after two weeks at Asbury Park and Atlantic City, returned home on Tuesday evening. — Warren Seibert left Monday for State College, where he will resume his studies. — Miss Olive Garber and Kenneth Presler left Monday for Shippensburg State Normal School.

Pillow—Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Runk autoed to Pittsburgh, where they are spending several days with relatives. —W. O. Wiest and family and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Snyder spent Sunday at Herndon.—Mr. and Mrs. John Buffington spent Monday in Snyder county.—Misses Anna and Ada Hilbish, of Freeburg, spent several days with their brother-in-law, the Rev. D. E. Fetterolf.—Mrs. W. H. Bowman and grandson spent several weeks at Sunbury and Shamokin.—Mrs. Michael Wert returned to her home here after spending several weeks with her daughter near Gratz. —Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Koppenhaver and children spent Sunday at Hegins. —Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Moyer and Mr. and Mrs. Lozier, of Harrisburg, spent several days with J. A. Laudenslayer.—Thomas Snyder made a trip to Red Cross and Klingerstown on Tuesday.—Mrs. Edgar Snyder, of Philadelphia, is spending several weeks here.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dunkleberger and children, of Shamokin, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Snyder.

Hummelstown. — Lawrence Wolf is ill with typhoid fever at his home, in West Main street. He was just about to leave for the preparatory school at Bethlehem. — Mrs. Ida Thompson entertained Mrs. George Erby and Mrs. Emma Frantz, of Lebanon. — Guy Fox, of Philadelphia, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox. — Mrs. William Garrett is slowly recovering from a prolonged siege of illness. — The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sutcliffe, of Maytown, spent a day with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sutcliffe, of East Main street. — W. E. Bevan, of Mauch Chunk, transacted business in town on Thursday. — Professor Paul Beck, of the State Department, visited our schools on Tuesday. — Mrs. Legrange Minnich and daughter, of Scranton, have returned home after a visit with Mrs. Mary Wheeler, the mother of Mrs. Minnich. — Mrs. Samuel Hummel has returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emory Fetterman, after a short visit to Fountain Springs. — Mrs. F. B. Graupner spent Tuesday with friends at Harrisburg. —H. H. Petersen spent Sunday with his family, who are visiting Mrs. Petersen's parents, at York. — The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. John P. Deiffenderfer left Tuesday for their home, in Easton, after spending several weeks with Mrs. Deiffenderfer's parents, Attorney and Mrs. F. J. Schaffner.

YOUNG BULLS RIDDEN IN RACES

Adams County Boys Break Animals to Saddle and Use Them Like Horses

PHYSICIAN JOINS ARMY

Sales of Stamps at Gettysburg Three Times as Large as Last Year

Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 15.—Murray and Ralph Chronister, aged 10 and 12 years, respectively, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chronister, of Huntington township, have had much amusement this summer training a pair of yearling bulls to the saddle. The animals obey the slightest pull of the reins and can run like a marathon racer. The bulls were ridden by their youthful trainers at the matinee races at Griest's Park, York Springs, Saturday afternoon.—First Lieutenant Edgar A. Miller, of the medical corps of the United States Army, a son of S. Miley Miller, of this place, a practicing physician of East Berlin, who has been stationed at the army medical school at Washington, D. C., for the past month, has been detailed for foreign service and will go to France.—Daniel C. Jacobs, one of Adams county's orchard and poultry men, has temporarily left his farm and gone to State College to study scientific agriculture.—The sale of stamps and stamped paper at the Gettysburg post office for the month of August was just about three times the amount of that of last year. In August of 1916 the sales amounted to $1,967. In August, 1917, these sales reached $5,480.—J. E. C. Miller, Jr., of New Oxford, was sworn into the government service and will spend a short time in Washington, from which place he will be transferred to Philadelphia as an inspector in the ordnance department.—A Junior Red Cross will be organized in this community and at many places in the county, the work to be done in connection with the schools and will have schools as units.—David Yohe, one of the town's young men to enlist in the army and who had been in Company B, Fourth Regiment, for some time, has received notice to report to the commanding officer at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, where he will enter the school for aerial observation instruction, having been picked from his regiment for this special duty.—Mr. and Mrs. John S. Herbst, of Dixon, Ill., motored to Seven Stars, and are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Settle. Mr. Herbst moved west in 1884 with his parents and this is his first visit east in the thirty-seven years.—Gettysburg horses are making records for themselves at the fairs this season. Dr. H. M. Hartman's horse won the 2.24 trot at the Byberry fair and a purse of $400, and at the same fair Gretchen Hale, from the Buttonwood stock farm, won the trot for two-year-olds and the purse of $500. —After assisting at threshing without feeling any ill effects, Meryl Sanders, who lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Sanders, near Swift Run school house, suddenly became unconscious during the evening, in which condition he remained during the night. In the morning he regained consciousness but could remember nothing that occurred for several days previous.

Berrysburg Red Cross Members Making Supplies

Berrysburg, Pa., Sept. 15.—On Tuesday afternoon the Red Cross Auxiliary met in the school gymnasium and will meet hereafter every Tuesday afternoon. Two sewing machines were donated for the use of the auxiliary by Mrs. Katie Hartman and Mrs. William Moyer. A third one will be donated by next week's meeting.—A chicken corn soup supper will be held next Saturday evening. The auxiliary has thirty-five members.—Mr. and Mrs. Kaise and son, Henry, of Baltimore, are visiting at the home of Henry Kindervater. — Jennie Weiser has gone to Millersburg.—Frank App is visiting his parents. He is a graduate of State College and is traveling for an experimental school in New Jersey.—Mrs. M. S. Daniel spent the week at the Hershey Industrial school.—Hoffman's church picnic was held Sunday on account of the rain on Saturday. The Berrysburg band furnished music.

Sunday School Will Keep in Touch With Soldiers

Shippensburg, Pa., Sept. 15.—The United Brethren Sunday school has appointed a committee to keep in touch with the soldier boys of the school who have gone to the army. A large crowd of people gathered the length of Earl street to see the soldiers pass. A number of farewells were given to Shippensburg boys.—The Cleversburg school has been closed down on account of black diptheria.—Mrs. Harmon, of Baltimore, is visiting her son, Charles, of East Orange street.—Mr. and Mrs. John Sheaffer and Mrs. Lillian Sheaffer spent Sunday at Biglerville.

BOY SCOUT TROOP AT MOUNT WOLF

Organization Perfected During Past Week With More Than Twenty Members

W. EISENHOWER MASTER

Boys Will Take Long Hike Over Country as Soon as Equipped

Mount Wolf, Pa., Sept. 15.—The Boy Scout movement has taken definite form here with the organizing of a troop in charge of Scoutmaster Wilbert Z. Eisenhower, having more than twenty members. Although only a trifle over a week old the following roster has been made up: Wilbert Z. Eisenhower, scoutmaster; president, Guy Albaugh; vice president, Roy Hoffman; secretary, Bayard Kunkle; Robert Jacobs, Harry Hoffman, Stewart Holler, James Fitzkee, John Fitzkee, Samuel Baney, Earl Hoffman, Earl Eisenhower, Walter Shank, George Ebaugh, Chester Ebaugh, Henry Diehl, Ezra Livingston, Lloyd Warner, Philip Bahn, George Lehman, Charles Krebs, and Vernon Miller. The boys will meet each Thursday evening for drills and instructions in a vacant house in Third street owned by Scoutmaster Eisenhower. Plans are being considered for a hike in the near future. The boys have not yet been affiliated with the national movement, but will take that step as soon as they are fully established. Dr. C. E. B. Brane, editor of the Religious Telescope, of Dayton, Ohio, will be the principal speaker at the annual rally to be held by the United Brethren Church on Sunday, September 30. Dr. Brane will deliver a sermon at the forenoon service and lecture during the evening. The rally day program will be given during the afternoon.—Arrangements have been completed by the Mount Wolf lodge of Odd Fellows for the celebration of their fourth anniversary on Friday evening. Several speakers will be secured for the occasion. Music will also be a feature of the entertainment and a luncheon will be served.—Milas Miller, who has been seriously ill at his home the past several weeks is reported to be recovering.—Postmaster Charles M. Hummer and W. A. Knaub, have returned from a trip to Toledo, Ohio.—The Rev. G. A. Livingston, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, entertained his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Livingston, and his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Livingston, of New Oxford, Adams county, during the week.—James Diehl has resigned as bookkeeper at the Union National bank to accept a similar position at the Keystone Table plant. Edward Glatfelter will be the new bookkeeper at the Union National bank.—Jerry Brown, connected with the local station of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and Mrs. Brown, are spending a two weeks' vacation. They will take an extended trip through the State before returning home.

Upper End Sabbath Schools Hold Picnics on Sunday

Elizabethville, Pa., Sept. 15.—The Rife Sunday schools and the Hoffman's church school held their respective picnics on last Sunday on account of the threatening weother on Saturday.—Carolus Martyn, of Harrisburg, spent several days with Howard L. Weaver.—Mrs. J. W. Shaffer and son are visiting her parents at Millville.—Mrs. Bertha Lloyd, of Camden, N. J., is the guest of Mrs. Jonas Swab.—The estate of the late Charles T. Mattis, sold three of the farms last Saturday at reasonable prices.—Miss Kate Bonawitz, of Sunbury, spent two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Bonawitz.—N. N. Bingaman, P. R. R. ticket agent at Milton, spent several days with F. P. Margerum and family.—Postmaster Miller, of Halifax, spent Wednesday afternoon here.—Mrs. H. Hagen, of Harrisburg, spent several days with Mrs. Romberger.—Mrs. Iva W. Klinger and daughter autoed to Reading on Tuesday where the daughter will enter college.—A. E. Grove spent Wednesday at Watsontown.—Jesse O. Zeigler, of Annville, spent several days with his brother here.—Mrs. May Zeigler spent several weeks at Long Beach, N. J.

Surprise on Birthday of Miss Ruth Horley

Tower City, Pa., Sept. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Horley surprised their daughter, Ruth, with a party in honor of her 21st birthday. Forty guests were present. Games and music were indulged in and refreshments were served.—At a special meeting of the K. L. C. E. of the United Evangelical church, it was decided to send a delegate to the convention of the K. T. C. E. and Sunday school to be held at Shamokin in October. Mrs. Harry Houtz was elected delegate and she will represent both the K. L. C. E. and the Sunday school.—Leroy Kaufman was a Williamstown visitor during the week.—The W. C. T. U. held its regular monthly meeting of the home of Mrs. Teel.—Ten new members were received and committees were appointed to take up temperance and mission work. A program committee was also appointed.—Charles Snyder, Henry Reinhart, Charles Troutman and Clyde Erdman autoed to Harrisburg on Sunday. — Martz Schoffstall will go to Mercersburg to attend preparatory school to fit himself for college.—Miss Ruth Robson spent several days at Sacramento. —Ed. Harris, of Harrisburg, spent several days with friends here.

Venerable Bishop Bowman Visits Friends at Annville

Annville, Pa., Sept. 15. — The venerable Bishop Thomas Bowman, of Allentown, was greeted by many friends during his visit here last Sunday when the Evangelical Church held its anniversary exercises at which event he was the principal speaker. Owing to the crowded condition in the Annville schools the school board has been forced to seek other quarters outside of the school building for the seventh grade. — Mrs. Saylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Imboden, of College avenue left for California yesterday —Mrs. Mary Vallerchamp of Harrisburg returned after spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. S. H. Derickson. — Miss Esther Shents is visiting relatives near Hummelstown.

374 PUPILS IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Greencastle Opens Term With Big Enrollment; High School Has 78

MISS MINNICH TEACHER

Army Medical Officers Transferred From Indianapolis to Des Moines, Iowa

Greencastle, Pa., Sept. 15.—Greencastle's public schools which opened Monday have an enrollment of 374 pupils. The high school comes first with seventy-eight pupils on its roll. Miss Mae Minnich, of East Baltimore street, has been made a member of the high school faculty and will teach English history and civics.—C. K. White and family have returned from a ten days' camping trip along the West Conocheague creek.—Russell Hostetter, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Hostetter, has entered Pierce Business College, Philadelphia.—Major Ralph Shook, of the United States Army Medical Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Z. Shook, of East Baltimore street, has been transferred from Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, Indiana, to Camp Dodge, Des Moines, Iowa.—Harry Gillan, of Harrisburg, spent the week-end at his home in South Carlisle street.—The Rev. Lester M. Conrow has returned from his vacation spent with his mother at Long Branch, N. J.—George Carl and Harold Kauffman left this week for State College.—Miss Ruth Schaff has resigned her position with the Greencastle Light, Heat, Fuel and Power Company and has been succeeded by Miss Sara Valentine.—Mrs. Emma Bolten, who spent the summer in the home of Arthur Reeves, has returned to Philadelphia.—Miss Viola Barnhart has resumed her duties with the Bell Telephone Exchange after a three months' absence because of ill health.—Greencastle friends have received announcement of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Harrold Drew, of Ansonia, Conn. Mrs. Drew was formerly Miss Constance Shook, of Greencastle.—Paul Shook, who was graduated from the Greencastle high school in June, has entered Gettysburg College.

Harrisburg Red Cross Expert to Teach Knitters

Wiconisco, Pa., Sept. 15. — On Friday, September 21, one of the women from the Harrisburg Red Cross Chapter will be at Wiconisco Red Cross Room from 6 p. m. to 7 p. m. where she will teach all those interested in knitting. — Mrs. William Esterline is spending several weeks at the Fountain Springs Hospital. — Mrs. William Kissinger accompanied her daughter, Pauline, to May Baldwin Seminary, Staunton, Va. on Saturday. — Ira F. Keeter is home from a visit to Philadelphia. — Mrs. Earl Doutrich and children, of Harrisburg, are visiting at the home of J. H. Acaley. — Laura Reigle and Edna Umholtz returned home Monday after spending the summer at Atlantic City. — Harry Starnosky of Harrisburg spent the week-end with Mrs. Sarah Starnosky. — Mrs. Joseph Lupold and daughter, Olive, spent several days at Reading. — Jere R. Esterline visited relatives in Dalmatia last week. — John Higgins is home from a visit to Harrisburg. — Mrs. L. K. Dufenderfer spent Saturday at Harrisburg. — Guy R. Smeltz left on Tuesday for Lancaster Business College. — Mrs. Francis Daniels of Reading is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Serfer. — Misses Jennie Seip, Mary Byerly and Margaret Lems have resumed their studies at Shippensburg Normal School. — Maude Bordner spent Sunday at Philadelphia. — Michael Kerwin is home from a visit to Harrisburg. — Joseph Petek of Akron, O., is visiting at the home of Joseph Boran. — Miss Elizabeth Malick of Shamokin, visited Margaret Hoffman over Sunday. — Mr. and Mrs Charles Davis and son of Philadelphia, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis. — Mr. and Mrs. George Koch of Herndon spent the week-end with J. M. Foster. — Mary Schoffstall left Tuesday for Harrisburg after spending a week with her parents here. — Horatio Lewis and Olwyn Phillips, of Philadelphia spent several days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Phillips. — Jennie and Irene Seip returned home Wedesday after spending the summer at Atlantic City. — Samuel T. Mark, of Norristown, is the guest of J. H. Seip and family. — Mrs. H. C. Sheafer is home after spending several weeks at Ocean Grove, N. J. — Walter Foster, of Hershey spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foster.—Edward Fegley has returned to his home at Plymouth. — Ruth Evans is spending the week at Philadelphia. —Mary Diefenderfer has resumed her studies at State College. — David Watkins spent Tuesday at Elizabethville. — Miss Ida Reiber is home from a visit to Philadelphia. — Albert Zeigler of Sunbury visited at the home of J. H. Seip. — Agnes Mogg has returned to her home in Philadelphia after spending the summer with relatives here.

Miss Theda Jacobs Gives 500 Party at Manchester

Manchester, Pa., Sept. 15.—Miss Theda Jacobs gave a five hundred party at her home on Thursday evening. Those present were: the Misses Mary Gladfelter, Sarah Deitz, Sadie Buchar, William Shaffer, Paul Jacobs, George Deitz and Ervin Brenner. — Ella Good, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Godd, is confined to her home by illness.—Jesse Gladfelter, a sailor, stationed in the United States Navy Yard at Philadelphia, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gladfelter.—The Loysville Orhan's Home band will play in the Lutheran church Sunday morning, and George Frey, of York, will give a talk on the Sunday school lesson. The band will also give a sacred concert in the church in the evening. The Rev H. L. Gerstmyer will make a short address.—The Otterbein Guild met at the home of Miss Almena Reachard on Tuesday evening. The following program was rendered: Instrumental solo, Mrs. Scott Knaub; vocal solo, Thelma Everhart; violin solo, Almena Reachard; accompanist, Alverta Strickler. Refreshments were served: Those present were: the Misses Florence King, Anna Mathias, Alverta Strickler, Almena Reachard, Mary Weigle, Thelma Everhart, Mrs. Scott Knaub, Mrs. David King, Mrs. D. O. Everhart, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Reachard.

Dauphin Boy Goes With Eight Regiment to Georgia

SERGEANT A. RAYMOND LONG.

Dauphin, Pa., Sept. 15.—A. Raymond Long, a son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Lane Long, left Monday with the Eighth Regiment for Camp Hancock, Augusta, Georgia. Young Long, who was an employe of the Harrisburg Light, Heat and Power Company, enlisted in May as a private in the Regimental Supply Company, and has now risen to the rank of sergeant.

Harrisburgers Spend Week at Camp Near Millerstown

Millerstown, Pa., Sept. 15.—William Snyder, Scott Leiby, Dr. Burger, Hull Bros. and Mr. Burd, of Harrisburg, and James Snyder, of Philadelphia, camped this week at The Elm cottage above town.—Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Williams and son, of Newport, spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Martin Rowe.—On Tuesday Holman Cathcart, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson and daughter, Kathaleen, automobiled to State College where Miss Kathaleen entered as a student.—Mrs. J. Harry Messersmith, of Harrisburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. P. Cathcart.—W. H. Huggins, of Harrisburg, called on his old friend, D. M. Rickabaugh, on Monday afternoon.— Richard Shover, of Newport, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Ida Shover.—Miss Mayno Kepner, of Altoona, is visiting at the home of John Ward.—Miss Lillian Nankivell, who had spent her summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nankivell, returned to her work as teacher in the Steelton schools this week.—The Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Dyer, of Blackwood, N. J., called on their many friends at this place Tuesday afternoon, being accompanied here by William Fetter, of Landisburg, by automobile. The Rev. Mr. Dyer was former pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place.—Mrs. William Satzler was operated on at the Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia, Tuesday afternoon for appendicitis. —John Patterson, of Brooklyn, N. Y., visited his aunt, Miss Elizabeth Patterson.—Mrs. Grace Ditzler and daughters, Miriam and Elizabeth, visited her brother, Charles Allen, and family, at Middleburg this week. —Mr. and Mrs. William C. Moore, son, Harold, and Miss Ella Tyson, automobiled to Harrisburg Monday. —Mrs. W. D. Bollinger was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Walt Snyder at Marysville on Wednesday. — Miss Mary Rowe was married to George Stackpole, of Lewistown, at York, on Saturday, September 8. — Mrs. Charles Pike, of Washington, D. C., is visiting at the home of William D. Bollinger.—Mrs. William Ames and daughter, of Clarendon, Va., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Wingert.—The Rev. C. F. Himes, Emory