IMPORTANT NEWS OF TOWNS IN CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA

TWO SURVIVORS ATTEND REUNION

Duncannon Veterans the Only Ones Left of Fifty in Cavalry Regiment

BOTH ENROLLED IN 1861

U. B. Minister Transferred From Duncannon to West Fairview Charge

Duncannon, Pa., Oct. 20.—William H. Pennell and William H. Willis, members of the Twenty-first Regiment, Pennsylvania Cavalry, during the Civil War were in attendance at a reunion of the survivors of the regiment at Greencastle last Thursday. In 1861 there were fifty Perry County boys enrolled in this regiment. Mr. Pennell and Mr. Willis are the only survivors of that number.—The United Brethren conference has transferred the Rev. Filmore T. Kohler, who had charge of the pastorate here for several years, to West Fairview. He is succeeded by the Rev. W. J. Marks.—Harry Sellers, of Coatesville, spent Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William McCann. — George Zerfing has bought the hardware store of the Dr. J. W. Glover heirs in South Market square.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gamber and children and J. F. Fritz, father of Mrs. Gamber, spent several days on a visit to relatives at Rockford, Ill.—Mrs. P. F. Duncan is at Clarion called there by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Clara Reutter, widow of Dr. H. D. Reutter of Duncannon. Mrs. Reutter is at the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzgerald, with whom she was visiting. — Borough Council has appointed James Rosborough supervisor, Harvey Arter having resigned.—Miss Ruth Wills, an instructor in the Hancock, N. Y., high school, spent the weekend here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wills.—The graduating class of the borough public schools received their class pins on Wednesday.—Large truckloads of potatoes were taken out of Perry County almost daily the past week.—Thomas E. Winter and son Earl D. Winter spent the weekend as the guest of relatives at Lock Haven.—A large flock of wild geese, northward bound, passed over here on Wednesday morning.

Thirty Acres of Corn Will Yield 2,500 Bushels

Halifax, Pa., Oct. 20.—Jerry S. Chubb, of Halifax township, has thirty acres of corn on his farm, which is expected to yield about 2,500 bushels. A well-known cattle dealer, who recently traveled through nineteen counties, says this is the finest corn he has seen this year.—Leslie R. Shope, son of the editor of the Halifax Gazette, has enlisted in the United States Army.—The Rev. A. I. Collom preached on Sunday evening in St. Paul's Methodist Church at Lancaster, where several years ago he served as pastor. The occasion was the sixty-sixth anniversary of the church and the end of the first year in their new temple.—A. P. Ettier spent Saturday at the home of his son, John P. Ettier, at Northumberland.—Mrs. John Donley, Miss Ethel Adams and Ben Williams, of Williamstown, and Ben Kaufman, of Tower City, were Sunday viistors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Shumaker.—Samuel Leo, stationed with the United States Army at Gettysburg, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Leo.—Horace Neitz spent the week-end with his parents at Port Treverton.—Harry C. Chubb, who attends Shippensburg State Normal School, spent Sunday here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Chubb.—Mrs. Elizabeth Bower paid a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Scott Matter, at Dalmatia, on Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Pike and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Habbyshaw, of Hummelstown, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowman.—Miss Hannah Patton, of Millersburg, spent the week-end at the bedside of her brother, G. W. Westfall. Mr. Westfall, who had been very seriously ill the past month, is now somewhat improved.—Postmaster John C. Miller was at Harrisburg on Monday evening to hear Secretary of War Newton D. Baker deliver an address at the Chestnut Street Auditorium.—C. A. Cratzer, of Atlantic City, N. J., spent Sunday here with his father, John Cratzer.—John C. Gilmor, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday at the home of John Bixler.—Elmer E. Daugherty attended the funeral of Mrs. Samuel Bowman, who burned to death at her home near Matamoras on Wednesday. The funeral was held at Long's cemetery, near Matamoras, on Sunday.—Miss Grace Pike, of Millersburg, formerly of this place, has entered the Methodist Hospital, Philadelphia, as a student nurse.—Mrs. John Holly, of Sunbury, spent the weekend here with her sisters, Mrs. J. M. Schroyer and Mrs. Isaac Gilbert.—Mrs. George Schroyer and children, Ethel and Wilmot, of Palmyra, spent part of the week here with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Schroyer.—Mr. and Mrs. Homer Stailey and little daughter, Edith, Mildred, of Harrisburg, were week-end guests of her mother, Mrs. Isaac Bowman.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Dale Diehl, of York, spent Saturday and Sunday here, visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Pike.—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jury spent Sunday visiting friends at Muncy.

RALLY DAY AT HECKTON

Dauphin, Pa., Oct. 20.—Rally day services will be held in the Methodist church at Heckton on Sunday evening with the Rev. W. H. Skeizig, the pastor, in charge.—Mr. and Mrs. Temple Heck, of Detroit, Mich., are visiting Mr. Heck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Heck.—Mrs. Lizzie McDonnell, of Harrisburg, visited her mother, Mrs. George Gilday.—Miss Elsie Bognuer, of Harrisburg, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Wesley Bricker, of South Erie street.—Miss Carrie McClure, of Harrisburg, was the guest of Miss Margaret Robinson on Tuesday.—Mrs. George Gildey, who was taken suddenly ill while on a visit at William Keiter's in Stone Creek Valley, is improving.—Mrs. Samuel Detweiler and daughter Miss Ruth, of Pottstown, are spending sometime with their brother, George Gilday.—Mrs. T. M. L. Poffenberger, of Harrisburg, spent several days here.—Mrs. Ralph Lutz, of Oberlin, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gilday.—Revival services of the Evangelical church at Louisville are very interesting and well attended, will be continued indefinitely.—Miss Emma Keeney, of Harrisburg, next Sunday with Miss Ethel Forney.

$400 GIVEN FOR RED CROSS WORK

J. Gilmore Fletcher, of New York, Makes Generous Contribution

PROMOTED TO SERGEANT

New York Company Leases Mont Alto Evaporator Works From Owner

Greencastle, Pa., Oct. 20.—J. Gilmore Fletcher, of New York, a son of Colonel L. H. Fletcher, has sent a check of $400 to the Greencastle branch of the Red Cross Society. This generous donation will enable the society to accomplish a lot of work that had been planned, but had to be abandoned because of insufficiency of funds. — A. Neil Brumbaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Brumbaugh, of the Quartermaster's Department, at Camp DuPont, Delaware City, has been promoted to the rank of sergeant.—J. E. and C. P. Omwake, of Greencastle, have leased their Mount Alto Evaporator to a company from New York, of which Irvin Hockenberger is the manager.—Mrs. Sarah Belle McCrory, one of Greencastle's oldest residents, has been seriously ill at her home in South Carlisle street.—Mrs. D. B. Dornberger, of Dahlgren street, has returned from the Chambersburg hospital, where she recently underwent surgical treatment.—Mrs. Sarah Byers is visiting her son at Huntingdon.—Miss Grace Brumbaugh left Saturday for Rockford, Ill., where she will spend the winter.—Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Thompson and children left Monday for their home in Amenia, N. Y., after a ten days' visit with Mrs. Thompson's parents.—Miss Julia Harnish has issued invitations for a masquerade on Tuesday evening, October 30.—Miss Katherine Johnson left on Thursday for her home in Franklin, W. Va., after a three weeks' visit with Mrs. C. P. Omwake, at Shady Grove.—The Rev. Morgan Cross and T. J. Clary left Monday for York where they will attend the fall meeting of the Lutheran synod. Mr. Clary is the delegate from the Greencastle Lutheran Church.—The Travelers' Club was entertained on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. W. R. Davison, East Baltimore.—Miss Elizabeth Hostetter is spending this week at Philadelphia and New York.—Earl Minnich, who has been spending the past few days at his home in East Baltimore street, has returned to Allentown, where he is with the Ambulance corps.—The Greencastle High school will hold a Hallowe'en masquerade party in the school auditorium on Wednesday evening, October 31.

Sunday Services in Three Linglestown Churches

Linglestown, Pa., Oct. 20.—Church services will be held to-morrow morning at the Church of God, at Wenrich's Reformed Church in the afternoon and at the United Brethren Church, in the evening.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warner and Mr. and Mrs. John George, of Harrisburg, on Sunday were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bolton.—Mr. and Mrs. George Goss, Mr. and Mrs. William Look and Mrs. Annie M. Smith on Sunday were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Look at Chamber Hill.—Mrs. Mary Webber, of Chicago, is spending sometime with her sister, Mrs. Clarence Jeffries.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Koons, formerly of Linglestown, now of Fisherville, announce the birth of a daughter.—G. W. McIlhenny, of Harrisburg on Sunday was the guest of Mrs. Annie Smith.—Mrs. Austin Schaner spent Tuesday at Harrisburg visiting her mother Mrs. Maria Zimmerman, who fell and fractured her wrist.—Mrs. Charles Walters on Tuesday was the guest of her mother at Oberlin.—Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lebo of Riverside were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Care.—Mrs. Harry Crist and Mrs. William Conrad, of Harrisburg, were recent guests of Dr. C. H. Smith and daughter Grace.—Samuel Shoop and Miss Agnes Felix of Harrisburg were guests of friends here on Sunday.—Mrs. Hicks and Mrs. McKee, of Harrisburg, were guests of Mrs. Rebecca Baker on Sunday.—Prof. Stewart Oyler spent the weekend at his home at Fayetteville.—Mrs. Eliza Hepner of Harrisburg is spending the week with Mrs. Fannie Backenstoe.—Mr. and Mrs. William Moorehead of Philadelphia, Mrs. Nye, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Moorehead of Harrisburg, spent Wednesday and Thursday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. McClellan Hench.—Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Shoemaker announce the birth of twin boys, October 13.—Mrs. William Ball spent several days with her son, Joseph Hall, at Baltimore—Mr. and Mrs. Luther Crum and children, of Penbrook, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Buck.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hocker and children of Penbrook on Sunday were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Lutz.—Miss Nellie Webber, of Harrisburg, was the guest of Miss Helen Jeffries.—Mrs. Elizabeth Reese of Penbrook on Sunday was the guest of her son John Reese.—Mrs. John Buck and daughter Ruth on Wednesday were the guests of Mrs. Annie Buck.—William McIlhenny, of Harrisburg, was a recent guest of Mrs. Annie Smith.—Edward Buck has received an order to report at Princeton Aviation Training Camp to-day.—Mr. and Mrs. Rondenbush and J. H. Strite, of Highspire; Miss Ethel Warfel and Miss Nellie Mintmeyer of Johnstown; Clarence Warfel and Edward Nicols of the Seventh Infantry, at Gettysburg, spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Shreiner.

HALLOWEEN FESTIVAL.

Pillow, Pa., Oct. 20.—A Halloween festival will be held in the Band Hall here on Saturday evening, October 27. Chicken corn soup and refreshments will be on sale for the benefit of Pillow Red Cross Auxiliary. Music will be furnished by the Pillow Band.—The Rev. Ira Gass is spending the week at Lancaster.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stedford and daughter Ruth and Mr. and Mrs. Sweigert and child of Newport spent Sunday at the home of Morris Snyder.—Misses Anna and Adda Witmer and Emma Boyer was at Berrysburg and Curtin on Saturday evening.—Mr. and Mrs. John Wirt and children and Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Gessner and children attended the Lutheran Church services at Urban on Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Artz moved their household goods on Tuesday to Spring Glen, where they will make their home.—Mr. and Mrs. Felix Wolfgang and children of Countyline; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fauber and son of Elizabethville, and James E. Snyder, of Harrisburg, attended the Lutheran services here on Sunday.

SMALL BALLOON FLOATS 50 MILES

Released at Hagerstown and Found in Adams County Cornfield

TRIP IN NINETY MINUTES

Gettysburg Bakers Arrive in France With United States Troops

Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 20.—Grace Reck, ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Reck, who live about five miles from here, found a balloon in a cornfield in which her parents were husking corn Thursday afternoon of last week. The balloon carried a card saying it had been let go at the Hagerstown fair at 3 o'clock that afternoon and it had reached the Reck farm, a distance of about fifty miles, before 4.30. Attached to the balloon was a card with "Finder will please write to Al. Behling, 24 South Potomac street, Hagerstown, Md."—Word has been received from Horace E. Smiley, Gettysburg's chief of police, and Charles Robinson, who sailed from Halifax on the afternoon of September 21 as members of Baking Company No. 16 of the Army, that they have arrived safely in France.—The temporary bridge over the Conewago creek has been completed and put in use, which opens the Lincoln highway to travel.—Sheriff Hartman has been going about quietly and has discovered the workings on the inside of the county jail by which a number of prisoners have escaped during the past several weeks. The investigations disclosed the fact that several trusties were instrumental in the flights to freedom and were assisting the men to escape. It is said they had been bribed to steal the keys to the prison so they could unlock the doors for the ones who got away.

Heneekis Camp Fire Girls Entertained by Miss Dimn

Millerstown, Pa., Oct. 20.—On Tuesday evening the Heneekis Camp Fire Girls were entertained at the home of Miss Olive Dimn. — Mrs. Carl Lauver is visiting in Washington, D. C., and at Camp Meade, Md.—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rippman were in New York City this week.—Mrs. Harry Hunter and sons, Harold and Paul, of Steelton, spent several days with her father, T. T. Grubb.—Mr. and Mrs. George Stackpole and mother, Mrs. Stackpole, of Lewistown, and Miss Anna Rowe, of Harrisburg, were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Rowe, on Sunday.—Mrs. Emma Bell, who has spent several months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nankivell, left on Monday for New York City.—Mrs. William Rounsley is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Edward Rumple, at Cardiff, Md.—James E. Rounsley was a recent visitor at Harrisburg.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hopple spent Sunday with their son, Herbert Hopple, and family.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Page went to Reed's Gap to accompany their mother, Mrs. William Walker, home, who had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Hutchinson.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hopple spent a day at Harrisburg.—H. C. Sessemann, of Harrisburg, spent several days in town this week.—William Rowe, of Camden, N. J., was the guest of D. M. Rickabaugh on Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kipp visited for several days at Harrisburg.—Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Patterson, of Brooklyn, N. Y., were guests of D. A. Lahr.—Robert Shenk, of Camp Hancock, Augusta, Ga., was called home on Monday by the death of his grandmother, Mrs. Frank Deck.—Nelson S. Rounsley, of Base Hospital No. 34, at Allentown, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Hannah Rounsley.—Mrs. J. O. Charles and Miss Jessie Kipp visited Mr. and Mrs. Claire Landis, near Millerstown, Tuesday afternoon.—George Yohn and a friend from Gettysburg spent Sunday with Alfred Yohn and family.—Mrs. William Gregg and Miss Cora Brandt were visitors at Newport on Monday.—Mrs. Margaret Brown, of Huntingdon, spent Monday with Miss Nan Hough.—Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rowe and son, Earl, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Williams at Newport.—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reisinger visited friends at Ickesburg, Sunday.—Mrs. James Rounsley and daughter, Edith, left Saturday for Rahway, N. J., where they are visiting Mrs. Isaac Kinter. They were joined Wednesday by James Rounsley, who had gone to Philadelphia, Tuesday, on a business trip.—Miss Margaret Rickenbaugh, of South Dakota, was the guest of Mrs. Chester Ulsh on Monday.—Mrs. Anna Eckels was a visitor at Harrisburg Thursday.

Soldiers From U. S. Army Camps Visit Relatives

New Bloomfield, Pa., Oct. 20.—Sergeant Henry G. Myers, stationed at Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Myers.—John Johnston, of the Allentown Camp Ambulance Corps, spent several days with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Johnston.—Paul Swartz, a member of the band of the Fifty-ninth Regiment at Gettysburg, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Swartz.—Charles DeLancey, of the Gettysburg camp, spent Sunday with his father, Joseph DeLancey.—Lieutenant Porter E. Adams is now stationed in the West Indies.—John A. Dunaway, of Philadelphia, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Luke Baker.—Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Darlington and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meetch, of Harrisburg, spent Monday and Tuesday at the home of Mrs. John Darlington, near town.—Mr. and Mrs. A. Black, Miss Maybelle Hughes and Clarena S. Moore, of Altoona, spent the weekend at Hotel Rhinesmith.—Miss Rheuybelle Alter left Monday for Mary Lyons School, at Swarthmore. Her father, James T. Alter, accompanied her.—Miss Elizabeth Walker, who was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Philip Roth, left for her home at Indianapolis, Ind., on Wednesday.—Mrs. A. G. Fastnacht, of York, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. William S. Seibert.—James R. Magee is visiting his father, United States Marshal James S. Magee, at Scranton.—Miss Annie G. Clouser left for Philadelphia on Monday, where she will engage in the study of nursing under the Red Cross regulations. Her brother, Cyrus, has also gone to Philadelphia.—Amos Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Smith, has accepted a position with the Adams Express Company at Harrisburg.

TWO HUMMELSTOWN SOLDIERS NOW AT PANAMA

EARL J. STOUT

ELMER GRATER

Hummelstown, Pa., Oct. 20.—Earl J. Stout, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stout and Elmer Grater, both of Hummelstown, are now serving in the United States Regular Army in the Panama Canal Zone. They left home together on April 22, last, and the above photograph was taken at their camp at Panama.

CENTRAL PENNA. PERSONALS

Wiconisco.—Mitchel Foster spent the weekend at the home of Rudolph Hersch at Steelton.—Mrs. I. J. Coles has returned home after spending several weeks with her son, William, at McGregor, Colorado.—Mrs. A. M. Botdorf and children visited Elma Schwalm at Muir on Sunday.—Harry E. Deeter, of the United States Ship Montana, is the guest of his father, Lafayette Deeter.—The Rev. John J. Hunt and family are spending a week at Bangor.—Asa Blackway, of Detroit, Mich., is visiting his mother, Mrs. David Blackway.—Maude Steever entertained several friends at her home on Saturday evening.—Hannah Thompson visited her aunt, Mrs. James Badoud, at Minersville on Sunday.—K. H. Royer, of Jersey City, spent several days with his brother, Dr. E. L. Royer.—Laura Simons, of Philadelphia, is visiting at the home of John H. Batdorf.—Samuel Kinsinger, of Harrisburg, came here on Sunday and visited at the home of Amos Kinsinger.—A. L. Sheafer and Emma M. Bailey have returned home after spending several weeks in Maryland and Delaware.—Joseph Kavanaugh, of Pittsburgh, is the guest of his father, Martin Kavanaugh.—George Rowe, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday here.—James Calnon, of Philadelphia, visited at the home of Mrs. Hannah Calnon.—Mrs. Francis Daniels and daughter, Ernestine, are visiting relatives at Reading.—Mrs. William Rettalick and Buela Pontius, of Williamstown, called on relatives here on Sunday.—Mary Howells and David Watkeys are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Ed. Rees, at Kingston.—Maude Bordner spent Tuesday at Tower City.—Jere Romberger is spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sierer at Harrisburg.—Mrs. Thomas Coles, Sr., is home after visiting relatives at Philadelphia.—Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Gerhart and daughter and Mrs. William Gerhart, of Harrisburg, visited George S. J. Keen and family on Sunday.—Miss Edith Long is spending several days with her sister, Minnie, at Minersville.—Mrs. L. K. Diefenderfer spent Thursday at Harrisburg.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Messner, of Allentown, visited Lewis Stuppy.

Yeagertown.—Mrs. Samuel Wilson, of Kelly Row, left on Saturday for a visit with the Rev. Mr. Knisley and family at Altoona.—Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Goss, of Akron, Ohio, are visiting at the homes of Reed Bachman and Charles Arbogast.—Mrs. John Horton, of Pittsburgh, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woomer.—Miss Eleanor Albright has returned from a trip to Philadelphia and Lancaster:—Mrs. Elizabeth Filson returned on Tuesday evening from Greensburg, where she was attending the State W. C. T. U. Convention.—Miss Ella Johnson returned home on Wednesday from a visit at Philadelphia.—Mrs. Francis Albright and son, Donald, and daughter, Helen, were visitors on Tuesday with the former's sister, Mrs. Frank Lingle, at Humphrey Row.—Mr. and Mrs. John Warner and family spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Benner and daughters, of McAllisterville.—Mrs. Story Spanple and daughter, Ruth, of Everett, are spending some time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Price.—Mrs. Manback, of Beaver Springs, spent several days at the home of Miss Kate Shannon.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grenoble, of Lewistown, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Grenoble.

Annville. — Mr. and Mrs. Allen Walton and Miss Carol Walton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walton and Miss Anna Walton, of Hummelstown, were among the out-of-town guests at the Brightbill-Statton wedding on Thursday.—Misses Ella and Lillian Brightbill attended the funeral of Mrs. James G. Fox at Hummelstown on Tuesday.—The Rev. W. F. De Long, Mr. John Biever, Mrs. H. H. Shenk and daughter Esther, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Heilman and family attended the Reformed synod at Lancaster on Wednesday and Thursday.—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shenk, daughters Lucile and Esther, attended the funeral of Mrs. Shenk's sister, Mrs. James G. Fox at Hummelstown on Tuesday.—Mrs. S. H. Derickson, son George and daughter Mary returned from a visit to Harrisburg, on Monday.—Mrs. Agnes Longenecker, of Lancaster, visited here on Wednesday.—Prof. and Mrs. C. E. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Kriesely, of Red Lion, were guests of Prof. and Mrs. S. O. Grimm.—H. L. Kinposts presided at the Liberty Loan mass meeting on Monday evening. Addresses were made by E. E. McCurdy and D. J. Leopold, of the First National Bank, of Lebanon.—The Rev. F. L. Stine, instructor in the college and academy, has been appointed pastor of the United Brethren Church at Mont Alto, to which place he will move next week.

Malta.—Mrs. C. E. Wert, son, John, and daughter, Effie, of Countyline, called on James M. Snyder and family here on Saturday.—Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lower, of Berrysburg, were guests of J. M. Schroyer on Sunday.—William Rothermel fell on a step and broke his leg.—Mr. and Mrs. William L. Kopenhaver and M. T. Wertz were at Pillow on Saturday.—Miss Fay I. Grimm, of Millersburg, visited her parents here over Sunday.—E. D. Witmer and son, Clarence; William L. Kopenhaver and William A. Martz, of Malta, and Oscar Lenker, of near Pillow, went to Lancaster on Monday.—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Zerbe and Robert B. Zerbe and family visited the former's son, Landis, and family at Dalmatia on Sunday.—Charles H. Hepner and daughter, Helen, were at Sunbury on Saturday.—Mr. and Mrs. James M. Snyder transacted business at Hickory Corners this week.

Berrysburg.—Mrs. Henry Heinz and Mrs. Jonathan Umholtz, of Philadelphia, visited in town several days.—Miss Harriet Weaver left for Philadelphia, where she will spend the winter.—Mrs. M. S. Daniel has returned from an extended visit to Philadelphia and Norristown.—Clayton Deibler is employed at Norristown.—Miss Jennie Weiser, of Millersburg, spent Sunday in town.—The Literary Society meeting held by the High School on Saturday evening was a success and another of similar character will be held in the near future.—Miss Annie Runk is spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Meuch, at Ephrata.—Mrs. Ralph Saussaman, of Williamstown, and Mrs. John Fisher, of Elizabethville, spent some time with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Walters.

Blain.—Mr. and Mrs. James L. Stum and daughter, Evelyn, of Harrisburg, visited Mrs. Stum's mother, Mrs. Mary E. Henry.—Mrs. Elizabeth Henry is home from a visit to her son, the Rev. Luther E. Henry, at Penbrook.—Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Moose, of Bixler, a son, on Tuesday.—Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Shumaker and family, of Harrisburg, visited Mr. Shumaker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shumaker.—George E. Boyer, of Duncannon, candidate for Associate Judge, was in town on Tuesday.—Newton Gutshall, of Pittsburgh, visited the family of B. B. Wentz.

Tower City.—Joseph Kehler and family, of Shamokin, spent Sunday with his son, Joseph Kehler, here.—Mrs. Harry Houtz is attending the K. L. C. E. and Sabbath School Federation convention at Shamokin.—Mrs. Jonathan Umholtz and daughter, who spent several days here, have returned to Philadelphia.—The Schuylkill County Teachers' Institute is being held at Pottsville this week.—Presiding Elder W. T. Heil preached in the United Evangelical Church on Wednesday evening.—Mrs. Harry Henry is visiting her brother, Roy Coble, near Allentown.

Students Entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Krause

Manchester, Pa., Oct. 20.—Sixteen students of the Manchester High school walked to Saginaw on Tuesday where they spent the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Krause. The party was composed of the following girls and boys: Misses Mary Arnold, Mabel Knaub, Mary Miller, Edna Miller, Carrie Miller, Amy Holler, Lea Hover, Edyth Dietz, Anna Kauffman, Almena Reachard, Rebecca Gladfelter, Marjory Strevick, Edythe Kline, Florence Prowell, Virgie Cassel and Roy Jacobs, Millard Everhart, Lawrence Dietz, Lloyd Melhorn, and Assistant Principal Rager Shear.—Mrs. John Metzgar, of Hanover, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Hartman.—Mrs. Charles Wanner, of York, was entertained at the home of her brother, R. J. Beck.—Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Jacobs spent Sunday at York at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Serff.—The Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Garnes, of Mechanicsburg, are spending the week at the home of Eli Grass. The Rev. Mr. Garnes will attend the Evangelical Lutheran synod of West Pennsylvania at St. Matthew's Church, York.—The Rev. Ellis Bayne, pastor of United Evangelical Church, is spending the week at Baltimore, visiting relatives.—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lightner and Mrs. Edward Toomes, of York, and Allen Snydman of Allentown, were entertained on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Grass.—Mrs. Milton Small is confined to her home, nursing a badly bruised hand and arm, sustained in a fall downstairs several days ago.

NEW PASTOR AT MIFFLINTOWN

The Rev. J. C. McConnell Installed at Presbyterian Church With Ceremony

SHOWER FOR NEW BRIDE

Mrs. James T. Sterrett Gives Miscellaneous Shower in Honor of Mrs. Buck

Mifflintown, Pa., Oct. 20.—Services were held in the Presbyterian Church when the Rev. J. C. McConnell was installed as pastor. The Rev. Mr. Lilly, of the Evangelical Church at Mifflin, made the prayer. The Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Huntingdon, gave the charge to the pastor, and the Rev. Wesley M. Hyde, of Academia, the charge to the congregation. A reception was tendered to the pastor and his wife on Thursday evening in the dining room of the church under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society.—Mrs. James T. Sterrett entertained on Thursday with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. W. H. Buck, a recent bride. Those present were: Mrs. Joseph Niemond, Mrs. Isabbelle Beuhn, Mrs. B. F. Long, Mrs. Raymond Patterson, Mrs. J. C. McConnell, Mrs. Elmer Schott, Mrs. Albert Hackenberger, Jr., Mrs. W. W. Staylor, Mrs. Clair Kerchner, Mrs. John Graybill, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. James T. Sterrett, Mrs. W. H. Buck, Misses Florence Vincent, Rhoda Mayer, Mary Weiser, Ruth Weiser, Jane Banks, Helen Sieber, Grace Sieber, Margaretta Irwin, Gladys McCauley, Olivia North, Elizabeth Schweyer and Janetta Kreider, of this place, and Mrs. Harry Sieber, of Lewistown.—Mrs. Mary Beaver, widow of Ex-Governor James A. Beaver, of Bellefonte, spent several days as the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Wilson Lloyd.—Miss Ridge Patton, of Lewistown, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wilburforce Schweyer.—Mrs. J. Frank Patterson spent Sunday in Thompsontown, the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Tennis. — Miss Alice Grubb spent several days at Lewistown.—Stewart Martz, of Altoona, spent Monday the guest of his uncle, Thomas R. McClellan, and family.—Miss Bennett Junkin, of Belleville, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Martha Junkin.—Mrs. Ezra C. Doty is visiting her sister, Mrs. Brady Robison, at Oil City.—Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kiser and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bashore spent Sunday with Clarence Kiser at Camp Meade, Md.—Mrs. F. M. M. Pennell is on a ten days' visit to Baltimore. She will also visit her son, Edred, who is at Camp Meade, Md.—Mrs. John Criswell spent Tuesday with her grandmother at Mexico.

Opening Number of Civic Club Course at Newville

Newville, Pa., Oct. 20.—The opening number of the Civic Club High School Lyceum Course will be given in the High School auditorium on Friday evening, November 2, by the Warwick Male Quartet.—On Wednesday the annual ingathering of the Needle Work Guild will be held in the lecture room of St. Paul's Lutheran Church. At 1.30 p. m. the business meeting for members will be held and the public meeting and display of garments at 2.45, the latter meeting to be addressed by Edwin D. Sollenberger, of Philadelphia.—The Lord's Supper will be observed at Zion Lutheran Church tomorrow morning at 10.45.—Miss Carrie Fishburn, of Lock Haven, was a recent guest of Mrs. W. D. Eckles.—Mrs. G. K. Andrews, of New York City, is visiting her sister, Miss M. Lou McCune.—The Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Rasmussen and the Rev. Dan Ketterman attended the Lutheran Synod at York.—Miss Lucy Hays has returned home from the Harrisburg Hospital, having undergone an operation.—Mrs. E. M. Davidson and daughter, Sara, of New Cumberland, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Dunfee.—Miss Retta Lyons, of New Orleans, is the guest of Mrs. Catharine Graham.—Miss Jane Ahl, of New York City, visited her mother, Mrs. Mary Ahl, for several days.—Miss Edna Martin, night operator at the Bell exchange, spent a week at Augusta, Ga., at which place two brothers are encamped.—Frank Hartzell and James Sharp Hursh, students at Mercersburg Academy, spent Sunday with their mothers, Mrs. Mazie Hartzell and Mrs. Kate Hursh.—The Rev. F. W. Parson attended the Maryland Eldership this week. He and his family will move to his new charge in Maryland the latter part of next week.—Mrs. Kate Henry, Fairfield street, sustained a severe stroke of paralysis on Saturday evening.—Dr. E. C. Neely was a Harrisburg visitor Thursday.

Man Eighty Years Old Works at Hardware Plant

Mount Joy, Pa., Oct. 20.—Lewis Koch was tendered a handkerchief birthday surprise on Sunday in honor of his eightieth anniversary. Mr. Koch is hale and hearty and works every day at the New Standard Hardware Works, where he is employed as a foreman.—Jay Klugh enlisted in the Navy on Monday and Samuel Keller re-enlisted. They left on Tuesday for Norfolk, Virginia.—Seward Ricker has gone to Elmira, N. Y., where he is working for a Government plant that employs 4,000 men and several hundred girls.—W. D. Chandler and Elmer W. Garber attended the druggists' convention at Lancaster.—J. R. Missemer on Sunday attended Rally Day services at the historic old Paxtang Presbyterian Church—Thomas J. Brown, Jr., left on Sunday for Boston, Mass., to become a textile inspector for the United States Government.—A cablegram from Lieutenant Joseph Breneman announces his safe arrival in France.—Herman Cunningham, who has been in the employ of the Rolman Manufacturing Company the past eleven years, tendered his resignation to become a chauffeur at the Masonic Home at Elizabethtown.—Dr. A. F. Snyder received a letter from his brother-in-law, John Bowman, now a member of the Aviation Corps, that he is en route to Canada by railroad and from their will sail for England.—Daniel Derr and the Rev. George A. Kercher have returned from their trip to Hagerstown.—The Crusaders Men's Organized Adult Bible class of the United Brethren Sunday school held their annual banquet on Thursday evening.—J. R. Missemer and son, Edgar, returned on Tuesday from a five days' trip to Harrisburg and Paxtang, where they visited the families of B. F. Missemer and Harry C. Knouse.

Jolly Party on Birthday of Little Elizabeth Malehorn

Mount Wolf, Pa., Oct. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Malehorn entertained a party of little folks at their home on Tuesday evening in honor of the third birthday anniversary of their daughter, Elizabeth. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and other diversions. At 10.30 o'clock a luncheon was served. The guests were: Blanche Shearer, Lottie Shearer, Ada Sipe, Margaret Baney, Elmire Aughenbaugh, Esther Trout, Sarah Baney, Ruth Livingston, Florence Smith, Almena Kaub, the latter from Saginaw; Margaret Melhorn, Gladys Knaub, Gladys Stough, Anna Landes, Susie Kunkle, Margie Dietz, Florence Dietz, Anna Brenner, Mabel Good, Carrie Frantz, Phyllis Bahn, James Fitzkee, Harry Hoffman, Jacob Fitzkee, Earl Hoffman, Samuel Baney, Stewart Holler, Harry Watemeyer, Harry Shearer, Howard Smith, Henry Williams, John McClure, Walter Sipe, Kenneth Melhorn, Mrs. John Melhorn, Mrs. Samuel Flury, Mrs. Oscar Knaub, Mrs. Walter Sipe, Mrs. John Sweitzer, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Malhorn, daughter, Elizabeth, and son, Charles; Misses Arlena and Daisy Brown, the latter two from Manchester.—Ervin Ricker and brother, Elliot Ricker, have returned home from a motorcycle trip to Washington and Camp Meade, Md.—Mrs. George Fitzkee is ill at her home.—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Brenneman at their home near here.—There will be no change in pastors at the Mount Wolf United Brethren Church here, as the Rev. Harry W. Zuse has been returned to the congregation by the Central Pennsylvania conference in annual session at Waynesboro last week. This will be the Rev. Mr. Zuse's fifth year in his present pastorate. George Wolf, who was the lay delegate from the local congregation has returned home. The Rev. Mr. Zuse went from Waynesboro to Myersdale, Md., where he has a fruit farm before returning home. He will serve his congregation to-morrow, as usual.—Flittings have been plentiful within the past several days during which time several families moved to York, while others who have lived there returned to Mount Wolf again. Frank C. Fisher and William Munmert, both moved to York within the past two days. Mr. Fisher sold his property in Second street to Charles Brenner before leaving. He received $1,450 for the place. Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Stonebreaker, who moved to York several weeks ago have returned to Mount Wolf. Daniel Klinedinst moved here from Saginaw during the week.—Henry Kohr, of Johnson City, Tenn., who was visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Kohr, has returned to Johnson