School Board Officers Meet With Committee on Americanization

The Americanization committee of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce met to-day at noon in the Harrisburg Club, in a conference with J. H. Bickley, supervisor of special activities of the Harrisburg school district, and R. Ross Seaman, chairman of the Americanization committee of the Dauphin county committee of national defense and committee of public safety.

The conference was for the purpose of extending the Americanization plan, and discussing the activities in that direction. Evening school classes and other elements of the program were discussed with a view to extending the work.

Robert H. Irons, president of the Central Iron and Steel Company; R. V. Larkin, assistant superintendent of the Harrisburg Pipe and Pipe Bending Company, and John Grey, of the Lalance-Grosjean Company, compose the Chamber of Commerce committee. Mr. Irons is chairman.

Elizabethville Has Youngest in Red Cross

Elizabethville, Pa., Dec. 23.—Elizabethville, which is responding well to the Red Cross Christmas membership campaign, according to the announcement of Chairman James E. Lentz to-day, has two of the youngest members in the county—Joseph L. Culp, two weeks old, and Helen Marie Romberger, one week.

Lieutenant Edwin Zeigler, just returned from Camp Wadsworth, stepped into the headquarters Saturday and bought seven memberships, six of which he intends to give to friends as Christmas presents, saying that every soldier believes the Red Cross should have the support of everybody in the country. The drive here has netted 430 members and is going along well.
