Falls From Truck Which Passes Over His Stomach

Run over when he attempted to "hop" on a heavy automobile truck of the Atlantic Refining Company this morning, Frank Valle, shoemaker, of Lemoyne, was injured so badly that he was brought to the Harrisburg Hospital, where he is reported to be in a serious condition.

The accident occurred when Valle's hand slipped after he had leaped onto the truck and fell beneath it. The right rear wheel of the truck passed over his stomach. He was severely injured internally.

ASK LICENSE FEE REFUND

Counsel for James and Eugene Barbush, two Middletown hotel proprietors, to-day applied to County Treasurer Mark Mumma for the refund of liquor licenses fees allowed by the court under a recent act which permits the return of money during the period that the holder of a license could not sell intoxicants because of a government order. About ten liquor dealers in Middletown applied for the refund and were allowed it after the court heard the cases. Mr. Mumma said that he would collect from the State and the borough the amounts which had been paid but should be returned to the license holders, after which he would make the refund.

STATE ALUMNI AT HERSHEY TODAY

Graduates Make Merry at Annual Reunion; Many Good Talks

The Penn State College outing got away to a flying start at Hershey this morning at 11 o'clock when the first bunch of ex-collegians from this city hit the park. Immediately a baseball game was in progress and from then on the stunts followed each other in such rapid succession that even "Doc" Miller, who was in charge of them, had difficulty in keeping up.

After lunch there was a big program when all the alumni, students, and their friends gathered in the big open-air pavilion and listened to speeches by old State men and other prominent speakers. Dr. J. George Becht, of the State Department of Education, Dr. H. Walton Mitchell, president of the board of trustees of the college, Dr. G. C. Pond, acting president of the college, Ray H. Smith, former alumni secretary, E. N. Sullivan, alumni secretary, and J. T. Harris, president of the local alumni branch, were a few of the speakers who entertained the crowd for awhile this afternoon.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in water sports, more baseball and dancing. The "co-eds" of the college were very much in evidence in the water and on the dance floor and even some of the old-timers were seen to be very interested at both pool and pavilion. Of course, they had to be serious and dignified, but not a few wished that they might act young and foolish and not be censured for it.

Nothing was scheduled for the evening but many signified their intention of staying at Hershey for some more food and dancing. The picnic was undoubtedly a great success and will probably be the forerunner of an annual affair.

Claim 70,000 Men at Stockyards Out

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Aug. 9. — Between 60,000 and 70,000 men will be out on strike at the Union Stockyards by to-night, should the union leaders' statement that the walkout started yesterday would continue prove correct. The strike started over a demand of the men that the guards placed about the plants be withdrawn. The white men said they had no objection to working with negroes if they were union men, but objected to working with nonunion men and particularly under guard.

Policemen and deputy sheriffs were placed in the yards on Thursday when several thousand negroes, out while the race riots were at their height, returned to work. Soldiers on guard outside the yards were withdrawn yesterday.

Labor leaders claimed that 3,600 employes of the stockyards have already quit work but the packing house representatives say that less than half that number are on strike.

Two Aviators Hurt When They Make Forced Landing Near Marsh Run Depot

Making a forced landing on unknown ground, two aviators of the All American Path Finding Unit crashed near the Marsh Run Quartermaster Depot yesterday afternoon. Lieutenant R. F. Pearson, pilot and Lieutenant George H. Wise, observer, were in the crash and suffered injuries.

Both men were taken to the Harrisburg Hospital where their wounds were dressed. They expect to receive another plane from Hezelhurst Field, which was the starting point and continue on their cross-country flight with the rest of the squadron.

The trip is being made in the interests of recruiting the air service.

Captain Wilson put a guard about the wrecked plane last night and work was begun this morning on salvaging it. The other planes are expected to arrive shortly.

N. Y. PLAYHOUSES REMAIN CLOSED; WILL SUE ACTORS

Producing Managers Say They Have Violated Their Contracts

By Associated Press.

New York, Aug. 9.—Only four of the thirteen New York theaters which closed after the strike called by the Actors' Equity Association went into effect were able to open their doors last night. In these cases numerous substitutions in the cast were noted. The strikers also claimed that "crippled" performances were being given at the Winter Garden and New Amsterdam Theater.

Theaters which remained closed were the Astor, Broadway, Gaiety, Knickerbocker, Lyric, Playhouse, Princess, Republic and Shubert.

Decision to fight the strike and to bring suit against the association and actors alleged to have broken their contracts was reached at a meeting of the Producing Managers' Protective Association late yesterday.

In announcing that Bainbridge Colby, counsel for the managers, had been instructed to bring suit, the producers declared that "in almost every instance where an actor refused to play, the engagement had been made with him under the actor's equity contract signed by him and the manager prior to the time that the present difficulties arose."

20,000 Shopmen Are Back at Work in Response to Wilson's Demands

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Aug. 9. — While improvement in the strike of Federated Railroad shopmen was indicated to-day by reports from Central West points, others showed that at some divisional points the men were disinclined to heed the advice of President Wilson and their grand lodge officers to return to work pending a wage settlement. The reports from Middle West points said that upward of 20,000 shopmen had gone back in response to the warning of the President that their wage grievances would not be adjusted until they returned to work, supplemented by the urging of the grand lodge officials.

From East, South, Southwest and far West came reports that the men had decided not to return to work until their wage demands were met. Advices from Atlanta, Ga., were that the executive committee of the affiliated craftsmen had adopted resolutions not to resume operations until their wages had been adjusted. Denver, Colo., reported a similar attitude on the part of more than 3,500 men in the railroad shops there, and Little Rock, Ark., messages stated that 1,800 workmen at that point had decided not to go back to their jobs until they were assured of more pay. Indianapolis shopmen also were holding back, while in the East many shopmen in the vicinity of Boston decided to remain out.

At Kansas City, 4,000 of the craftsmen were reported at work, while similar action was taken by 10,000 others at Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Limited embargoes on freight were continued on nearly all roads, but the most pronounced freight regulations incidental to the strike were on the New England lines.
