HOPE TO ARREST BOMBER IN PLOT

telligence officers said it was discovered that he had moved three times in one month, because his neighbors in Gary professed to be scandalized at the number of strange men, each carrying a suit case, seen entering Ivanoff's place. Some neighbors complained that they were sure he was a bootlegger. Ivanoff finally moved to Miller, a Gary suburb. There a secret service man took a house from whence he might observe the Ivanoff domicile. This Federal agent intelligence department men announced today, disappeared about two weeks ago. The causes of his disappearance and what became of him are unknown to them, his brother officials said. They are conducting a widespread search for him.

Made Bombs

During the time that Ivanoff was under observation, the Intelligence man said, it was discovered that he was a manufacturer of bombs. Among these bombs, teh officers said, were 36 which became known throughout the country as the Gimbel bombs, because they were sent in wrappings purporting to come from Gimbel Brothers' Store in New York. These wrappings, officials said, were faked, and Gimbel Brothers had no connection, other than the forged use of their name, with the handling of the infernal machines. The Gary officials said they had discovered that these 36 bombs were carried to New York from Gary in suit cases.

Expert Electricians

Ivanoff, the alleged bomb maker, they said was an expert electrician, employed in a large mill near Gary. There they claimed he started his bombs, taking them home to the finishing work. His plans, the officers asserted, included finally the destruction of the factory where he worked.

The cache of the dynamite and its amount was not made public to-day, but an official who described it said that he presumed there was enough to "blow about all northern Indiana off the map."

Two letters threatening the life of Mayor W. F. Hodges, of Gary, were seized by military authorities. One of these disclosed a plot to blow up his residence.

Captain W. S. Greenough of the Indiana State Guards, said that he si searching East Chicago for Reds alleged to be intimate with the Gary suspects.

The inflammatory circulars found here, it was announced, had been devised in Gary, the copy sent to Indianapolis for printing, the circulars sent to Chicago and then to Gary for distribution.
