Wheeler Arrested and Placed in Jail After New Trial Appeal Is Denied

Philadelphia, Dec. 30.—Arrested by members of District Attorney Rotan's detective force as he consulted with his lawyer yesterday afternoon, Samuel F. Wheeler, the convicted embezzler, who has been a fugitive from justice since December 24, was given a short shift to jail after an ineffectual effort was made to obtain a new trial for him before Judge Martin.

Two hours after his apprehension Wheeler was on his way to Moyamensing prison, where he is held without bail to await the decision of Judge Martin on an appeal for a rule to show cause why the Commonwealth should not grant a rehearing of the testimony on which he was convicted.

Dr. Hannan to Speak on New Year's Eve

The Stevens Memorial Bible Conference addressed by Dr. F. Watson Hannan, is attracting large crowds. Last night he spoke on "Revelation." To-night he is scheduled to talk on "Inspiration." Two interesting gatherings will be held New Year's eve and night. Wednesday evening at 7.45 o'clock, Dr. Hannan is to speak on "Biblical Doctrine of God," and Thursday night, at 7.45 o'clock he will speak on "The Problem of Sin." The following ministers of the city will participate in the conference during the week: J. H. Mortimer, R. M. Klepfer, William Moses, Edwin A. Pyles, H. R. Bender, S. S. Swallow, Robert Bagnell, Morris E. Swartz.

Dr. Osler, Noted Surgeon, Is Dead

Oxford, England, Dec. 30.—Sir William Osler, noted physician, who has been ill for several weeks, died here last evening.

Nearly fifteen years have elapsed since the newspapers of this country were flooded with reports and comments on an address made by Dr. William Osler in his farewell address as professor of medicine at Johns Hopkins University.

It was on Washington's birthday, 1905, that the distinguished man of science who was then well advanced in his fifty-sixth year, told a great audience at the anniversary exercises of the institution he was about to leave, "that nothing of importance in the world is accomplished by a man more than forty years old."

Y. M. C. A. Gets Program Ready For Open House on New Year's Day

Final arrangements were made for the New Year's day celebration at the Y. M. C. A., Second and Locust streets, when the social committee of the "Y" met at luncheon to-day.

John F. O'Neil, chairman of the committee, announced the program, and submitted it for the approval of his committee. Ross Swope, chairman of the decoration committee, was given a vote of thanks for his work in decorating Fahnestock Hall, where the various programs will be put on.

In the afternoon the poor children of the city will be entertained at a vaudeville performance starting in Fahnestock Hall at 2.30 sharp. Some of the best acts in the State have been secured for this program. Each child in addition will receive some chocolate to keep him quiet during the performance.

The evening celebration is to include a reception to the members and guests of the Y. M. C. A. and a program by the several acts which have been secured, co-operating with gymnasium classes. The recently formed Spanish class will give a skit under the direction of the Spanish teacher, Professor W. D. Meikel.

Whitaker and Diehl Are Awarded Big Contract

Whitaker & Diehl, of Harrisburg, who, for some years, have been building more bridges than any other company in the State, have been awarded the contract for erecting the new Bingham street bridge in Reading. The cost will be $699,860.

The successful bidders will start work in the near future. They have just finished several big jobs for the State and are ready to ship their equipment to Reading without delay. According to their contract they agree to build the bridge within 400 working days. Whitaker & Diehl constructed the Poplar Neck, Monocacy and Leesport bridges and a number of smaller structures throughout the county.

Union Services of Four City Churches

The union watch night service of St. John's Reformed, St. Matthew's Lutheran, Camp Curtin Memorial Methodist and the Maclay Street Church of God will be held to-morrow evening at St. John's Reformed Church. The services will start at 10.30 o'clock and will continue until the new year is ushered in. Ministers of the four churches will talk. An interesting program in which members of the churches will take part has been arranged.

Odd Fellows Hold Rousing Meeting

H. Dorsey Echeson, deputy grandmaster of the State of Maryland, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, speaking last night before the Past Grands' Association of Dauphin County in the hall of Fountain Lodge No. 1120, said that Americanism as taught by the Odd Fellows must be the paramount purpose of the organization

Dillsburg Residents Object to Water Rate

Complaint against the proposed increase in rates of the Dillsburg Water Company were entered before the Public Service Commission today by R. S. Clark, John E. Cook, A. H. Basom, Dr. J. H. Graff and Peter Sidle, all residents of Dillsburg.

The complainants allege that the new schedule would bring an increase of from 16 2-3 per cent. to 150 per cent. in the rates now charged as flat rates to domestic consumers and that the metered rates are increased in some instances to 200 per cent.

Chairman W. D. B. Ainey, of the Public Service Commission, sat today to hear the testimony in the case of the Lancaster, Oxford and Southern railroad, which was ordered to resume operation of its line by the Commission and whose only locomotive was condemned by the Federal authorities. The railroad is anxious to go out of business and to sell its property. Arrangements were made for an immediate inspection of the engine so that it can be run until the Commission formally sanctions abandonment of the railroad.

Complaints were filed by Waynesburg and East Waynesburg against the Waynesburg Water Company, and by Leechburg against the Kittaning Telephone Company schedule.

Steps were taken to-day at the State Department of Health to carry into effect the orders for all persons handling preparations containing alcohol to file declarations that they do not contain wood alcohol. These must be filed by January 8.

James K. DeLany, of the State Department, broke a leg at his home near Marsh Run. The fracture is between the knee and ankle.

Kreisler Receives Big Ovation in Washington

Very recently Fritz Kreisler appeared in the National Capitol as soloist with the New York Symphony Orchestra. The occasion was one of the most brilliant events of the musical season in Washington, D. C. The patronesses for this concert were of Washington's most exclusive set, including Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the President, and the wives of all the cabinet officers.

The concert was considered one of the most artistic triumphs of both orchestra and soloist.

It is interesting to note the opinion of a musical critic whom we know and one whose word is accepted over the entire musical world, for John C. Freund, editor of Musical America, otherwise known as "Mephisto" says of Fritz Kreisler.

"What is the charm of Kreisler? who may be said indeed, to stand absolutely in a class by himself.

"Some would tell you it is his wonderful power as a musician. Others, his extraordinary dexterity with the bow. Others will tell you that it is the exquisite taste and musicanly feeling which he exhibits when he plays.

"For my part, I think one of the great reasons for his tremendous and well-deserved popularity is that he never, under any circumstances, whatever, forces his instrument for the sake of some effect. He keeps it absolutely within its ligitimate scope, with the result that he develops a tone of surpassing beauty, and of almost uncanny musical sweetness and quality. How many players are there of whom this can be said? That they never force their instrument, whether it be a violin, a piano, a 'cello or even the human voice, for the sake of making a momentary effect upon "the groundlings." Indeed, but few.

"That to me is one of Kreisler's greatest charms—that he does not attempt to produce a 'cello tone from the violin, just as some singers force the voice so as to produce an astonishing volume of tone, which presently results in their inability to sing a piano passage, or even mezza voice."

"Kreisler to me, is more than a superb and unparalleled violinist. He is a standard for this generation as to the positively enthralling music which can be produced by a man wholly sincere, disdaining all tricks—so common with many violinists —who gives you the compositions of the masters with all his soul."

MOTHER AND TWO GIRLS KILLED AT R. R. CROSSING

Pottstown, Pa., Dec. 30.—Haste cost the lives of three people last evening when Mrs. John Letchower, aged 35, and her two daughters, Helen, aged 4, and Mary, aged 5, were hurled to death by an express on the Pennsylvania Railroad grade crossing at Keim street. The three were killed instantly.

The fatality occurred before the eyes of the crossing watchman, who saw the futile rush of the mother and children to cross ahead of the express. The train was stopped and the bodies removed to the local station.
