BE A WOMAN.

Oh! I've heard a gentle mother,
As the twilight hours began,
Pleading with a son, on duty,
Urging him to be a MAN.
But now her blue-eyed daughter,
Though with love's words quite as ready,
Points she out the other duty,
"Sister, my dear, to be a LADY."

What's a lady? Is it something
Made of hoops, and balls, and silks,
Lounging in the parlor,
Like the fancy rugs and chairs?
Is it one that scorns to novels
Every feeling that is human?
Is this to be a LADY,
"Tis not this to be a WOMAN.

Mother! then, unto your daughter
Speak of something higher far
Than to be mere fashion's study—
"Woman" as the brightest star.
True, in your strong affection,
Urge your son to be a true man,
Urge your daughter no less strongly
To rise up and be a woman.

Yes a woman—lofty model
Of that! Old and perfect beauty
Where the mind, and heart, and body,
Blended to work out life's great duty.
Is a woman—sought is higher
On the golden roll of fame?
On the catalogue of virtue
There's no brighter, higher name.

Be a woman—on to duty,
Raise the world from all that's low.
Live high in the social heaven
Woman's fair and radiant brow!
Lend the influence to reach it—
That shall raise our nature human;
Be not fashion's jointed lady,
But a brave, true, whole-souled woman.

PARE.—Since some of our pro-slavery Democratic contemporaries seem disposed to try to make capital out of the subject of amalgamation, we suggest the following syllogistic statement of the whole matter to their consideration:

Most of the mulattoes come from the South; but there are no Republicans at the South; ergo, mulattoes are not the fruits of Republicanism.

The statement might be varied in form, thus:

Most of the mulattoes come from the South; but the whites of the South are "National Democrats;" ergo, mulattoes are the fruits of "National Democracy."

It is now about noon by the clock of the year '59—a little past, perhaps—and all the doubtful shadows of the morning are rolled up, and the grumblers are rolled up with them, we hope. "Dull weather for corn," said a country friend a few days ago, when he ventured to pronounce it a fine time for taking in wheat. "Dull weather for corn," and so he balanced the books, and went on, looking as if every body were dead and he the chief mourner. We are sorry these earthly summers do not suit him. Won't he just please to make a private summer for his own use, and be sure to keep it on his own side of the line fence, lest he be sued for trespass? We wouldn't take any home-made weather of his as a gift.—Central Press.

At an auction sale of the personal property of a Mr. Oaks, recently deceased in Dauphin county, a few days ago, a bag of flax seed was offered for sale. One of the bidders put his hand into the bag to examine the seed, and hauled out a purse, which was found to contain gold and silver coin. The bag was then thoroughly overhauled, and over one thousand dollars in gold and silver coin were found therein. The treasure was then retained by the executors.

Mr. WEBSTER wrote, after continued provocation, to the editor of a newspaper, which referred to his private affairs, and especially to his not paying his debts. He said substantially: "It is true that I have not always paid my debts punctually, and that I owe money. One cause of this is, that I have not pressed those who owe me for payment. As an instance of this, I enclose your father's note, made to me thirty years ago, for money lent him to educate his boys."

The Evening Post tells a story of an upstate Yankee, in Arkansas, whose wife, a few weeks after marriage, became the mother of a quadroon. The husband went at once to a lawyer for counsel. "It is a plain case," said the attorney; "we will make out the papers at once, and obtain you a divorce." "That isn't what I am after," said the Yankee; "I want to know who is to own the nigger."

The prospectus is issued of a newspaper to be published in Shamokin under the title of the Shamokin Register, the first number of which will be issued about the 1st of September. B. K. John is to be the publisher, and Samuel John, editor. Mr. John is becoming ambitious, as he desires to increase the dignity he already enjoys, as Cashier of a Bank, by elevating himself to the higher position of editor of a newspaper. His connection with the Bank is a very fortunate circumstance in his contemplated enterprise.

The Phila. Evening Bulletin, one of our best exchanges, gives the cold shoulder to ballooning and aerial voyages in general, as impracticable and not calculated to benefit mankind. The Bulletin, however, furnishes some 5 or 6 columns a week on chess playing. Wonder whether our city cotemporary considers chess of so great a benefit to mankind as to require so much attention being paid to it? Ballooning leads to gassing, and chess playing to stupidity.

The Taunton Gazette, speaking of the ballot box stuffing and election frauds for which fifty of its fellow Democrats in Kansas were recently indicted, says: "The crime committed by our Kansas friends, was, we believe, polling an unexpectedly large vote at Leavenworth." New name, that.

The weak and ignorant are apt to mistake their superstitious fears for moral impressions. And some people—said Rev. Sidney Smith—are apt to think themselves pious when they are only bilious.

They had a lively game of ball at Ashtabula, on the Fourth, and the venerable Joshua R. Giddings made the highest score, never missing the ball when it came near him.

PHILAD., April 12, 1858.

MESSRS. EVANS & WATSON—Gentlemen: Had it not for the highest satisfaction it affords to give you that strength to the very positive qualities of two of the Salamander Safes which we purchased of you some few months since, we saved a large portion of our property, and all our books, papers, &c., exposed to the conflagration in hundred Flour, on the night of the 11th instant.

When we turned that these Safes were locked in the north story of the building we occupied, and that they fell subsequently into a hole of burning ruins, where the most concentrated of heat could be from plate to plate, we can not but regard the preservation of their valuable contents as most convincing proof of the great security afforded by your Safes.

We shall take much pleasure in recommending them to men of business on every occasion offered.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Jamaica Sarsaparilla, compounded with other substances of said another alterative power so as to afford a valuable remedy for the diseases for which it is recommended to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from humorous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to the large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been recently experienced in many of the worst cases to be found of the following character:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, TETTER, TRUNCHES, BLOTCHES, BOILS, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, BLOTCHES, SPOTS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLAINS, SORES AND ULCERS, ERYSIPELAS, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, AND SCALDING OF THE SKIN, ERUPTIONS CAUSED BY MERCURY, [illegible] MERCURIAL DISEASES, DISEASES OF THE BONES, JOINTS, LIVER, KIDNEYS, AND BLADDER, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT, JAUNDICE, LOSS OF APPETITE, LOW SPIRITS, GENERAL DEBILITY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR POWER, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK AND LIMBS, GOUT, GRAVEL, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, FEMALE COMPLAINTS, LEUCORRHŒA OR WHITES, IRREGULARITY, SUPPRESSION, OR ABSENCE FROM PRIVATE CAUSES, AND ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM A VITIATED OR IMPOVERISHED STATE OF THE BLOOD, OR FROM IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Dyspepsia, gone the public have been misled by the [illegible] pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly slighted, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been
