Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 13, 1860.

ADVERTISE!—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics Public Officers in City and Country, Publishers—all who wish to buy or sell—could do well to employ the columns of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing a large proportion of active, solvent producers, consumers and dealers, as any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

CLUBS.—Those who have made up Clubs for the STAR & CHRONICLE, may add to them, at $1 each, until the close of February Court—no longer. After that, all subscriptions are $1.50, except in clubs of $10 at a time with the pay.

To C. E. Dock.—We never heard of P. H. Brubaker, to whom you paid. Persons sending for our paper, had better get the Post Master (if they know him to be honest,) to enclose and send as their money or stamps. We can not send papers. West, on promises—We have too much already invested in that quarter.

☞ The Tribune Almanac for 1860, is, as usual, almost a necessity for every politician and well-informed man. Single, 15 cts; $1 per dozen; $7 per hundred. Send to H. Greeley & Co., New York.

CLEVER.—The same day that Russel Errett (senior editor of the Pittsburg Gazette—the oldest paper west of the Alleghenies) was chosen Clerk of the Penn'a. Senate, he was also elected Controler of the city of Pittsburg by the people.

☞ Our Legislature have done one very fair and sensible thing: they have rewarded and honored the Editorial fraternity by electing Editors for Chief Clerks, in each House; E. Cowan, for Transcriber, in Senate; and I. Gutelius, for Postmaster, in the House.

☞ G. Yancer M'Laughlin, of Lewisburg, has received the appointment of Freight Agent on the Northern Central Railroad, between Marysville and Baltimore.....Josiah Candor, of Chillisquaque, has been promoted to a Conductorship on the Accommodation Train between Williamsport and Lock Haven.

Pennsylvania Almanac for 1860, has in addition to the usual matters, Lists of the Post Masters and Post Offices in the State, County Officers, times of Courts, Masonic Lodges, Rates of Postage, History of the State, its Officers, I. O. of O. F. Lodges, List and Length of Railroads in Pa., and a variety of other useful and entertaining matter. For sale at the Lewisburg P.O.

☞ About 9 o'clock on the morning of the 29th ult., the upper portion of the house of Benjamin Shall, of New Berlin (Court Cryer,) was badly injured by fire, which was suppressed by the timely aid of the neighbors. Some of the personal property was also injured by being heedlessly thrown out or roughly handled.

☞ Thanks to I. M. DeMott, delivering agent, for several Nos. of Schroeder's "Life and Times of Washington." This is a beautiful and valuable work, printed on large type, and each No. illustrated with a fine steel engraving. Published at 25 cts. a No., by Johnson, Fry & Co., 27 Beekman street N. Y.

☞ It is a sad time among Iron men. On our first page will be seen a list of closed iron works. In the Centre county papers, we see the sale of 16 tracts of Dr. Wm. Underwood, an iron-master; and wherever there are works of that kind the Sheriff has employment. To day, we regret to add to the long list the Forest Iron Works in Union county, now under the hammer.

☞ We see that Eld. A. L. Post, of Montrose, who pronounced a high eulogy on John Brown, is put forth to the public as a Republican. He calls himself an Abolitionist, and in the very outset of his discourse declared that he alone, and no party, was responsible for his sentiments. This statement, the Democratic editor of Montrose suppressed, with the design, doubtless, of imposing a misapprehension (to say the least) upon the people. They all go in for free speech and free printing, up in Susquehanna, and Republicans disseminate John Brownism and Dred Scottism just as much as they choose, letting everybody vote as they please—as they will, anyhow.

☞ ADDENDA.—It seems proper to state that the long story on our last page is paid for at so much a line, yet we give more reading matter than any of our neighboring journals. (Those City papers will take advantage of the large editions of substantial Interior Journals, to work themselves into circulation!)—But it is rather hard to leave that handsome, gallant, young Capt. Lester perched on that rock in a dismal cave with the dark water up to his under lip, and swarms of filthy rats hanging to him like icicles, (ugh!)—too outrageously bad to allow him to smother in such an original pickle until the Lahora can supply its half million (more or less) of patrons. We therefore—out of pure compassion for Lester—take the liberty of "guessing" at

WOLFGANG—concluded.

When Lester had been in this unique and thrilling dilemna about an hour, and the young rats were making their nests in the hair of his whiskers and upon his caput, he was slightly astonished by a blast of wind which instantly froze the water into a solid cake of ice. It was becoming rather cool to him, when all at once Carrie bounded, singing, towards him, on skates, accompanied by her venerable paternal ancestor, both in a good state of preservation. After a day's siege, they drove away most of the rats by reading from the Daily Globe the reports of the Disunion-Helper-Book speeches of the Fire-eaters in Congress; but some old silver-grey National chaps stuck out so long that Carrie and her Pa had to threaten to give them all of Wise's speeches, letters and messages in addition, when they all begged off, and promised to vote for Sherman. The warmth of the Captain's love soon thawed him out of his watery grave. The trio then hastened to the mouth of the Cave—despatched Wolfgang & Co. with a single bottle of Schneidamm's Strichnine Schnapps—and then set sail for New York, where they are now honorably engaged in the Gift Book and Jewelry business.

Gov. Packer sent in over a dozen vetoes, of private bills mostly, and was sustained in all.

His Annual Message we distributed in an Extra, last week, to all we supposed did not already have it.

Formation of committees, and the usual preliminary arrangements, have been accomplished recently, but there seems no important business before our Legislature, and the sooner they go through the necessary appropriations, the better for them and for the State.

In the arrangement of the Senate Committees, Col. Gregg is appointed on the Committee of Finance, on Railroads, on Militia, and on Retrenchment. Mr. Keller is on Canals, on Roads and Bridges, and on Comparing Bills.

In the House, Mr. Hayes is on Banks, and Vice and Immorality. Mr. Wagenseller, on Ways and Means, and on Judiciary. Mr. Ball, on Banks, and Library. Mr. Achenbach, on Claims, and City Passenger Railroads. Mr. Crane, on Ways Means, and Railroads.

There is a vigorous effort by Mr. Moore, of Philad., to obtain the nomination for State Treasurer. Caucus, Friday Evening; election, Monday next.

Mr. Achenbach read in place a bill to incorporate the Legansville Water Company.

Mr. Hayes, an act relative to vacating certain streets and alleys in Churchville, (opposite Lewisburg) in Northumberland county.

The seats of Messrs. Donelly and Duffield, Democrats from Philadelphia, are contested.

The Commissioners of Snyder county made the following appointments: Clerk—John S. Hackenburg. Attorney—Samuel Allemon, Esq. Mercantile Appraiser—Henry Smith, of Adamsburg.

The contractor for building Gas Works at Sunbury failed to "come to time," and the enterprise for the present has been delayed.

The receipts of the M. E. Fair in Milton were $500 clear of expenses.

A child of Oscar Hartzrift, from M'Ewensville, a few months old, died in its mother's arms, while returning home from Church in Milton borough on Sunday morning week. The child appeared healthy and no cause can be assigned for its sudden death.

Peter Smith, residing in the Lower part of Milton, while in the act of preparing for a hunt, accidentally discharged his gun, and shot off a part of one of his ears.

On Wednesday morning of this week, the Duncannon Nail Works, in Perry Co., Pa., were burned down, but the Rolling Mill, Railroad Bridge, &c., were saved. Owned by Fisher, Morgan & Co., and insured for $25,000 in Philad. By this great loss, 300 workmen are thrown out of employment, but the Company will rebuild as soon as possible.

The Steam Flour Mill, in Sunbury, sold at Sheriff's sale, was purchased by Wm. I. Greenough, for $3,110.

The Lutheran Follmer Church, in Turbut township, will be dedicated on Sunday, the 22d inst. Several eminent clergymen will be in attendance.

Andrew Tarr, a colored man, died recently near Paxinos, in Shamokin township, at the advanced age of 110 years. If his age is correctly stated, he was unquestionably the oldest man in Northumberland county.

Bishop Neumann, of the Catholic church fell dead on a street in Philad., 6th inst., of a heart disease.

Major Schwartz, the Congressman from Berks county, is very ill, but would attend in the House and vote for Speaker until his friends kept him away by force.

J. S. and J. J. Brisbin, announce themselves as Editors and Proprietors of the Centre Democrat, Bellefonte, at the commencement of its 26th year. Col. Brown remains an Associate Editor.

Evan M. Blanchard is admitted to the practice of the law in Centre county.

The Grand Jury, this week, recommended the sale of the State House and other County Buildings, with a view of erecting a larger and more convenient Court House. Northumberland is now one of the wealthiest and most important counties in the State. Yet the court room, the past week, packed as it was by persons in a standing position, more resembled a country bar room at a militia training, than a temple of justice.—Sunbury American (last week.)

The carpenter shop of P. C. Campbell, the dwelling of John Troxel, and a stable belonging to a Mr. Hagerman, were consumed by fire, in Milton, on Friday week.

W. D. Covell, one of the Conductors on the Catawissa Railroad, had one of his legs broken, near the ankle, on the 2d inst., by an accidental fall.

The citizens of Bloomsburg, through Mr. J. K. Girton, presented Rev. D. J. Waller with a purse of three hundred and fifty dollars, as "a New Year's gift," in consideration of his late loss by fire.

E. B. Parker, an able, reputable and genial editor, retires from the editorial chair of the Jersey Shore Republican.—And Thomas Jones joins his brother John in the Volette establishment.

The Commissioners of Northumberland county have re-appointed George Martin, Clerk; R. H. Awl, Physician; Charles Pleasants, Attorney; William Savidge, Mercantile Appraiser.

☞ At a Special Meeting of Charity Lodge No. 141, called together for the purpose of taking action upon the death of GEORGE ANDREWS—John B. Linn, S. G. Bennett and Charles F. Hess were appointed to draft resolutions, who reported the following:

Whereas, Brother George Andrews, a highly respected member of this Lodge, has been suddenly removed from us by the hand of death: therefore,

Resolved, that by this mournful event we have suffered the loss of one whose numerous acts of kindness and whose unostentatious support of the principles of Free-Masonry during the few years allotted him upon earth have given him a lasting claim upon our esteem.

Resolved, that we tender his afflicted family thus suddenly bereaved, our heart-felt sympathy, with the assurance that the memory of him who is now removed will ever be to us the memory of a true brother and friend.

Resolved, that our symbols of Masonry within the Lodge be draped in mourning for the space of thirty days, and as many as conveniently can attend his funeral to take place from his late residence in Lewisburg on Thursday morning next.

Resolved, that a copy of these proceedings be furnished the widow of our deceased brother by the Secretary of the Lodge. Respectfully submitted.

(Signed) JNO B. LINN, S. G. BENNETT, C. F. HESS.

Attest: J. B. M'LATCHEY, Sec.

THRO' PERSEVERANCE AND LABOR WE THRIVE.

I HAVE now opened at my Tannery, (formerly H. W. Fries') in Lewisburg, a Boot and Shoe Manufactory, and most respectfully solicit the patronage of the community, hoping by a strict attention to business to merit a share of the trade. I am determined to sell, for Cash the best Article for the least Money, both for style and durability, as the material is of my own Tanning, except the Morocco, Kid and French, of which I have procured the best in market. My own Tanning, and stock worked in my shop, insured and warranted as recommended.

LADIES and others who may desire it will be waited on for measures at their residences or at my dwelling, near the shop, by Mr. Fisher, my foreman.

No Eastern work kept for sale, but I can compete with Eastern work in prices, and furnish a better article. In fact, I am determined to sell lower than any competitor. My object is to dispose of my Hides at cash prices and Manufacturing added.

Those who try me will find this no humbug, but greatly to the interest of those who wish to get the value of their money.

I do not deem it important to quote prices, as sizes and stock differ materially.

FARMERS having hides to dispose of, may find it an advantage to bring them to the Yard, as an allowance will be made to them on hides.

The Highest Price for Hides, in Cash or Boots and Shoes.

Leather for sale at all times, on accommodating terms and at low prices.
