Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAR. 29, 1861.

ADVERTISE!—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics and Public Officers in City and Country, Publishers—all who wish to buy or sell—would do well to employ the columns of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing a large proportion of active, solvent producers, consumers and dealers, as any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

The PRINCIPAL and PUPILS of the LEWISBURG ACADEMY will give a Public Reception, at Independent Hall, on FRIDAY EVENING, March 29. Exercises to commence at 7 o'cl'k.

The public are respectfully invited to attend.

P S. The services of the Sheriff have been secured to maintain order at the door.

Removed, Removing, or to Remove.

As far as we have gathered, the various changes of business places in Lewisburg on or about the first of April are as follows:

A. M. Lawshe takes his Boot and Shoe establishment into the rooms formerly of J. H. & J. F. Beale.

The Beales, Tailors, remove into Thos. Reber's block, where Ginter's Warehouse was.

L. B. Christ, J. P., removes his office into Reber's block up stairs.

Dr. T. A. H. Thornton takes the office late of L. B. Christ for his Medical office.

Jesse Foltz removes his stock of Clothing, &c., into Dunkle's Store, Brown's block.

J. M. C. Rauch, Esq., of Mifflinburg, takes the room late of M'Mahon, for a Law office.

H. L. M'Mahon removes his Trimming Store into Rodenbaugh's building, corner 4th and Market Sts.

D. Ginter & Son remove their Furniture and Chair Ware-room into Frick's house, corner 3d and Market Sts.

James Scott removes his Shoe, Boot and Trunk shop into his new building, next Baker & Wolfe's Drug Store.

O. P. Shively takes his Saddle and Harness shop into the second storey of same building.

J. L. Hawn transfers his Tailor and Furnishing Store across the street, under the Teegraph and Chronicle offices. (Guinos, he—well, Griggs he retires to rural life in Lewisville.)

The Dimes Saving Institution has the rooms on Market street vacated by J. L. Hawn.

D. D. Guldin has taken the Buffalo House—Mr. Brewer remaining with him, and

L. Cromly takes the house on Upper Market St., lately kept by Guldin.

A. R. Zimmerman occupies the room (late Scott's) with his Gentlemen's Fitting Emporium.

The Star & Chronicle continues at the Old Stand—center of Market Square, focus of intelligence, right side of the street, the business establishments clustering around the chickens under the wing of the protecting mother—the best paper in three counties, (so folks seem to think by the way they patronize it)—and only $1.50 per year in advance, $3 for 4 copies, or $10 for 10!

☞ The exercises of the various University Departments, this week, were well attended and appreciated as usual. The Seniors of the Academic Department were aided by choice songs and music from an amateur choir, and pronounced Orations as follows:

Rising Men—Harrison Garner, Philadelphia.
Inspiration of Heroism—J. Washington Irving, Chester.
Self Impulse—William James, Lewisburg.
Social Independence—E. Everett Jones, Philadelphia.
Power of Character—Wm. C. Kennedy, Lewisburg.
Integration—D. Bennett Patterson, Port Jervis, N. Y.
Sophistication—W. W. Schaffle, Lewisburg.
Big Yourself—S. Maffet Scholes, Sabbath Rest.
Business Dressing Men—J. V. Stratton, Philadelphia.

The Junior Collegiate Class, Tuesday evening, spoke as follows:

The Real Hero—Thomas R. Orwig, New Berlin.
Human Responsibility—H. Maleom Baldrige, Hollidaysb'g.
Sign—Frederick Shelhin, Pottsville.
Rights of Free-men—A. Greg Tucker, Lewisburg.
The Influence of National Example—Wm. H. Beck, Lewisburg.
Character the Result of the Individual's Own Effort—William H. Leonard, Montgomery Sq.
"The World's Great Laugh"—Jacob G. Walker, Falls of Schuylkill.
The Simplicity of Greatness—Wm. H. Jones, Milestown.
Unspoken Discourses—A. Judson Rowland, Lawrenceville.
"The Irreposible Conflict"—David M. Nesbit, Chillisquaque.
The Poet's Love—A Poem—D Bright Miller, Lewisburg.
The Worth Indestructiveness to Science—Henry Gray, West Philadelphia.

The Essays of the Female Seminary were also numerous and interesting. We have not a copy of the Programme, or we would insert the titles and names.

☞ On the first page of to-day's paper will be found an interesting sketch of the extensive outlay in small fruits of a single operator near Pittsburg. In our advertising columns are statements of the prices at which various kinds are offered. We cheerfully add our testimony, after dealing with Mr. Knox last year, that his plants are very neatly and securely packed, and of several hundreds procured of him we know not that any failed of taking a good root when properly put into suitable soil in due season.

☞ We have been asked by several to urge the new Council to appoint a Police Officer for the Borough, to keep the corners and sidewalks cleared of loungers at evenings, and to correct any tendency to riotous conduct on the streets. Such an officer has heretofore been very useful.

☞ The Commissioners have put up permanent stairs at the gable, street end of the Court House—wide, low, and every way easy of ascent and descent. This is very convenient, and finishes the necessary outworks to the Court House.

An Act relative to hucksters and peddlers in Union and Northumberland counties, passed the Legislature. Will some of our masters, (who are our "servants" before election) let the people know what the act is?

☞ The snow storm of last week extended to Charleston, S. C., where they had not seen so much snow in sixty years. The poor shivering soldiers thought "there is a North." There were snow-banks of six or eight feet raised in New York State.

☞ Dr. Hollester gave a Lecture on Palestine to a good house in the Christian Chapel, Wednesday evening last.

☞ Don't forget to set out Shade and Fruit Trees.

☞ Messrs. SALT & MEAR, No's 156 and 158, North Market St., Philadelphia, (Manufacturers of Yellow and Rockingham Ware and importers and dealers in White Iron Stone, Glass and Queensware,) show their enterprise by advertising in our columns. We therefore respectfully suggest to our merchant readers and patrons to remember those who show a desire for their custom, by inviting an examination of their wares through the columns of the paper which represents your town and county. Give them a call when you visit the City, and judge for yourselves.

CAUTION!—A "horse feller," styling himself "Professor Sheldon," last week had a responsible citizen of Lewisburg engage him some printing at our office. He came, "performed," and we understand was liberal in the way of "ret gut," but—forgot to pay the printer. Perhaps, as a copier from Centre county, for malpractice on a horse, came to town, and he left about midnight, he did remembered us! At any rate, we advise all Printers to make "horsejockeys" and other illiterate "Professors" pay or give good security before doing work for them.

☞ Hiles C. Pardoe, of Lewisburg, (in the Theological Department of the University) has received an appointment for the Bloomingdale (near Berwick) circuit of the East Baltimore M E Conference.

☞ A. B. Finney, M. D., has located at the Buffaloe X Roads. A fine country, certainly—and we hope may find they have a good Physician.

☞ Particular attention is affectionately invited to the Ordinance for Markets, republished in to-day's paper. It is intended (we are told) to enforce the legal regulation designed for the public good.

☞ There were 16 bids for rebuilding the County Bridge in Buffaloe township—the lowest, being $975, by Joseph Musser, to whom the contract was accordingly given.

☞ A meeting was called yesterday, on a few hours' notice, to meet in Independent Hall, at evening, to agitate the question of Postmaster for our borough.

☞ The Court is (Thursday noon) engaged upon the second cause of the week, and can try but one or two more. A full report next week.

☞ The first Thunder Storm of the season, was Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning of this week.

☞ We see it stated that the Canals of this State are to be opened on Monday next, 1st inst.

☞ A Donation Visit will be paid to Rev. R.A Fink, Wednesday afternoon and evening, April 3d. A general invitation is extended to all who may desire to participate.

AGENTS WANTED to sell the Erie Sewing Machine. We will give a commission or pay wages at from $25 to $50 per month, and expenses paid. The Erie is a new machine and very simple in its construction. A Diploma was awarded our Machine by the Industrial Association of Artisans and Mechanics, held at Chambersburg, Pa., at its Exhibition in 1860, over the Grover & Baker and the Boudoir Machines. It is equal to any machine in use—and the price but Fifteen Dollars. Address R. JAMES, General Agent E. S. M. Co., MILAN, Ohio 6m883

A FEW TRUTHS FOR SICK PEOPLE—It is a fact, self-evident, wherever tried that Dr. O. Parres, BROWN'S ACACIA BALSAM possesses more merit than any remedy heretofore known, in curing all cases of Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Coughs, Colds, and general Debility. It is deservedly popular and people put faith in it, as indeed they should, when the opportunity is afforded all to make trial of its virtues. The peculiar properties of the ACACIA BALSAM are varied and astonishing. It has a peculiar action of its own. It does not purge and weaken; it does not sicken and disgust; it does not operate as a violent emetic; nor yet enfeeble the patient with profuse perspiration. Quite the contrary! It is pleasant and palatable. It soothes and gently stimulates. It gives vigor and strength to every weakened part. It imparts, to be brief, an electric influence to the system, already assimilated to its nature, and by this means vivifies, not only the lungs, but the nerves, the heart, the brain, the stomach, and the liver. It supplies those diseases with that vital force—that is necessary to throw off diseases, and the patient, with delight, soon find himself growing strong, hearty, ruddy and thoroughly well.

Dr. O. Parres Brown's ACACIA BALSAM price $2 per large bottle may be obtained of J. BAKER & CO. Lewisburg, Sole Agent, who has also a number of specimen bottles, price 25 cents, that all may have the opportunity of trial.

TO DYSPEPTICS.

All who suffer the tortures which this disease inflicts in one form or another of its many phases, can be permanently and speedily cured by using

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

The "Weekly Novelette" of Sept. 18, says:

Dyspepsia is one of the prevailing diseases of our country. This is owing both to climate and the almost universal habit of eating our meals too rapidly to admit of proper digestion. But in spite of these adverse circumstances, this disease, even when it has become chronic, disappears rapidly by the use of the oxygenated bitters, which have been found to prove an infallible remedy.

The following letter is from a well known Clergyman who had suffered excruciatingly for a long time, and who had tried all known remedies and methods of cure without finding relief until the Oxygenated Bitters were called into requisition:

CLINTON, Oneida Co., N. Y., Sept. 16, 1859.

Gentlemen: Having used several bottles of your celebrated Oxygenated Bitters for that terrible disease, Dyspepsia, I give you a brief statement of the salutary effects of the medicine. About four years since I found that this fell disease had thoroughly taken hold of me, and fastened its fangs upon the coats of my stomach, tormenting me by day and by night. For a long time previously, I was unaware of the nature of the disease which afflicted me, and the opinions of the physicians left me as much in the dark as ever. After months of intense physical and mental suffering, and trying various remedies, putting myself under water cure treatment, and visiting the South, without receiving any benefit, I commenced, by recommendation of Dr. C. Burrows, of this town, taking the Oxygenated Bitters, and soon found that the intruder was being driven from my system. I now feel like a new man, and, unless from imprudence, I suffer but little from that terrible disease which preyed so long upon me and which robbed me of eighty pounds of flesh. I now weigh one hundred and ninety three pounds, and call myself pretty well, and cheerfully recommend a trial of this remedy to all who are afflicted with any form of Dyspepsia. To my clerical brethren, in particular, I honestly recommend the Oxygenated Bitters as the remedy of all remedies.

Yours, truly, HENRY BOYNTON,
Minister of the Gospel.

COMMENDATIONS.

From Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, M. C., Ohio.

My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the Newell picture is more like them than any thing they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presented so true to nature, all the features and expressions of countenance as this.

From Hon. F. Jay Moore, late Minister to Italy.

The exquisite finish, beauty and softness of your portraits, combined with their durability of color and faithfulness as likenesses, can not fail to commend them to the attention and patronage of all who appreciate true art.

From Col. James Page.

Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a miniature in Oil colors, under his own process discovered by him, and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but its artistic finish in all respects, and recommend him to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art. 473m6 JAMES PAGE.
