FOR THE STAR & CHRONICLE.

RETRIBUTION.

As I gaze through my orient window to-day
At the gloomy old mansion just over the way,
My feelings quite sombre, resembling the air,
Are painting before me the shade of despair.

The shadow of death on the pale horse of Treason,
Thy spirit, McCLELLAN! in strife in good season,
Were passing before me with visages fierce,
While host follow host with their fronts grim and herce!

The clashing of arms and the battle's confusion,
Were swiftly impelling the tyrant's delusion,
While Liberty's light, o'er their battlements flashing,
Revealed their proud fortresses crumbling and crashing.

As wild as the storm rose the shout at their falling,
But lo! on the ruins a spirit low spalling!
The spectre of Famine, grim War's desolation,
The gorgon of Horror, the worm of Damnation!

A moment McCLELLAN beheld it and wondered,
Then 'round it his cannon load volled and thundered,
Then, hark! from the midst of this rattling and roar—
We heard the last mission for mercy implorling.

The smoke of the battle rolled off in its glory,
And 'circling the mountain tops rendered them hoary:
From the fiend that was perched on the cloud, Heaven save us!
The foe of his country—the ghost of Jeff Davis!

Lewisburg, Aug. 12, 1861. HARRISON.

The official correspondence respecting the burning of the Norfolk ship-houses, and sinking the fleet there, has just been published. It appears that to Commodore McCauley's cowardice or treachery, the country is indebted for that terrible loss—for the greatest of calamities that have befallen the country, since the commencement of the war, being the abandonment of the cannon at Norfolk Navy Yard Yet Commodore McCauley has never suffered the slightest punishment.

The Captain who did his duty in the midst of the rout of Bull Run, for whose name you enquire, was Joseph Hawley, Captain of Rifle Company A, 1st Connecticut Regiment, and formerly Editor of The Hartford Press. This worthy journalist soldier, who was never seen about the Washington hotels, camped with his company, and, when one was sick, took his gun and mounted guard.

THE DIFFERENCE.—When Gen. Garnett was killed by our troops in Western Virginia, his body was taken care of, embalmed and sent home to his friends; but when Col. Cameron was killed by the Rebels, the men sent after his body were imprisoned. "Cast not your pearls before swine," &c.

M'Clellan was selected by Jeff. Davis himself, who was the Secretary of War, to go to the Crimea to observe the great battles. It will be a little curious if the knowledge which he there gained should be the means of overthrowing the man who put him in position to receive the instruction.

By an Ordinance of Rebel Virginia, the property of Gen. Scott in that State is to be confiscated to the Traitor's Treasury—but, before they "realize" from it, Scott may "make good his title" by the sword.

The Rhode Island Regiment suffered the most severely in the fight—they lost sixty-six killed.

AMBROSE'S Coal Oil No Chimney Hand Lamp. The following are some of its advantages:

1st. Dispense with the chimney, which is expensive and cumbersome.

2d. The light is at once accessible for lighting and kindling purposes.

3d. Burns less oil than the chimney lamp.

4th. Burns the different grades and qualities of coal and carbon oils, from a density of 38 and upward.

5th. Can be carried around with about the same facility as a candle.

6th. Length of time in burning improves the quality of the flame. The lamp may be turned a side without extinguishing and will not smoke.

The lamp can be lighted by any lamp, so that persons desiring lamps need only examine the burners.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of oxygen and carbon by combustion in hydrogen, sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions, indicate its necessity in almost every instance of disease.

Immunities in all maladies in which it has been tried it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Infidity, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Enlargements, Bile Abscess, Menstruation, Fever, Chills and, Liver Complaint, Chronic Rheumatism, Inflammation, Inflammation of the Kidneys on the Back, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just recovered from protracted trial in a distant land. Scores very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation is more immediately beneficial, for, unlike the old sedatives, it is vigor-only tonic, without being exciting and overbearing; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably efficacious and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dysentery, innumerable as its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most inveterate cases, including the attendant costiveness.

In unabated Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, exhausted, emaciated, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and exhausted bowels, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In conclusion, Dr. Mott's Chalybeate Pills medicated Iron has had for more than the last third of the ninteenth century, the sanction of Medical Authorities, without any of their well known limitations.

The attention of invalids can not be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly adapting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Female complaints it will be found invariably to act precisely as a tonic and aperient restorative, and its precedence in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of both renown and revenue.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

The above is a portrait of David M'Creary, of Naples Twp, who, on the 21st day of August, 1858, made affidavit before Justice Corley that he was treated for the cure of Cancer by three physicians of Bedford county, and by Dr. Newton of the Eclectic College, Cincinnati, for a period of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which his lip, nose, and a portion of his left cheek were entirely eaten away! He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and (although sadly disfigured) there is no question but this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable case may be seen in a Circular to be had of any of the Agents.

We also refer to a case of Nancy Blackburn, of Elderton, Armstrong Co., Pa., cured of a scrofula sore being unable to get out of bed for three years.

To the case of a lady in Anderville, Clearfield Co., who was also afflicted with scrofula in its worst form.

To the case of George Meisel, residing in Carrolltown, Cambria Co., Pa., who was so badly afflicted with Cancer that it cut his entire nose off, and his case was worse, if possible, than M'Creary's.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cured by the use of the "Blood Searcher"—may also be found in a Circular to be had of any of the Agents.

COMMENDATIONS.

From Hon. LEWIS D. CAMPBELL, M. C., Ohio.

My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the (Newell) Picture is more like than any thing they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presents so true to nature, all the features and expressions of countenance as this.

From Hon. E. JOY MORRIS, late Minister to Italy.

The exquisite finish, beauty and softness of your portraits, combined with their durability of color and faithfulness as likenesses, can not fail to commend them to the attention and patronage of all who appreciate true art.

From Col. JAMES PAGE.

Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a miniature in Oil Colors, under the impression it would be cheap and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but its artistic finish in all respects, and recommend him to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art. 8m6 JAMES PAGE.

GEO. HASHTON, No. 302 Market St., Phila.
Sole Agent for Philadelphia.

[Read the following from the N. Y. Courier.]

Mr. Wolfe, of No. 302 Market St., Philadelphia, is one of the oldest and most reliable importers of Wines and Liquors in the country. We are happy to inform our readers that there is one place in our city where the purest, wholesome, and genuine article can be had, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will be a pleasant duty whenever we visit the City of Brotherly Love to call on Mr. Wolfe, who is at 302 Market St., and Nos. 11, 13 and 15 Beaver St., and 11, 13 and 15 Novemedi St. The stock of Schnappsen kept ready for shipment could not have been less than seventy-five Barrels, some Hogsheads—Vintages of 1836 to 1846; and those cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in Hibernia itself. He had also three large cellars filled with Brandy, Wines, &c., in vaults, in Front Street, Rhine Hey, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe showed us a hogshead of year-old rum, sold to Philadelphia, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use, should send their order direct to Mr. Wolfe, until nearly Apothecary in the land make up their minds to shield the community against their deceptive, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. For his name and such a merchant should be sustained against the crowd of thousands of impostors in the United States, who sell nothing but adulterated, poisonous stuff to kill the health and happiness.

Central Foundry, Lewisburg, Pa.

THE Buckeye Reaper & Mower was introduced in 1857, and so perfectly was it adapted to the work designed that at the Greatest Practical Field Trial ever held in this country, in July of the same year, at Syracuse, it triumphantly carried off the Grand Gold Medal and Diploma!

At the Indiana State Trial, held at Laporte, in 1858, nearly as many machines were represented and as thoroughly tested as at Syracuse, and the Buckeye was again the Victor!

And so also at nearly all the field trials and exhibitions in 1858, '59 and '60, when it was a competitor. At a number of exhibitions it received the First Premium as a Mower, First Premium as a Reaper and First Premium as a Combined Machine. These numerous awards prove conclusively the correctness of the decision at Syracuse.

The combined opposition of the manufacturers of Mowing and Reaping Machines and their clients to crush and to bring into disrepute the Buckeye, only served to prove its SUPERIORITY; and the fears they entertained of its final success and triumph were evidences of the real worth and merit of the machine.

The Machine has now passed through four harvests, and during the last three over Nine Thousand have been built and sold—and the former may judge of its reputation by the numerous awards made by committees both at field trials and at State and County Exhibitions, as well as from the numerous demands, which the manufacturers have never yet been able to supply.

ANCIENT JERUSALEM.

A LARGE AND BEAUTIFUL GEOMETRICAL PICTURE OF

Jerusalem and the Sacred Places

SHOWING THE HOLY CITY,
AS THEY ACTUALLY IN ANCIENT TIMES.

The above work is recommended to the favorable notice of clergymen, and those having charge of Sunday-schools, Bible-classes, and public institutions.

It is about nine feet long and six feet wide, colored and varnished, and mounted on canvas with rollers.

It has been constructed from the most authentic and reliable sources, and will be found an invaluable aid to those engaged in lecturing on the Holy Land, or in imparting instruction to school classes on the subject to which it refers.

It aims to give an exact idea of the city as it appeared in ancient times. It is taken as a "bird's eye" or "elevated" view, the beholder being in an elevation placed at a considerable elevation, so as to take a comprehensive view of the city and its environs at the time of Christ.

The View is accompanied with an Outline Key, in which the different localities are numbered, and a lecture, the Manual, containing all the information necessary to enable one to use the view to advantage in teaching or lecturing.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL TIMES.

This is a Weekly Religious Paper, published at the very low price of One Dollar a year.

It is designed for Parents, Teachers, and all who are engaged or interested in the religious training of the young. It is also an excellent Family Paper.

A portion of the Sunday-school Times is occupied with Narratives and Other Reading particularly interesting to young persons. To these will be added in the future, what will be found to their choice, information specially prepared for the young, and such as they can read to their mothers. For the same reason, a number of little stories, and the other columns generally, will be greatly benefited by the perusal of this paper.

The Sunday-School Times also every week a report of the Sabbath-school lessons, for each Sunday, which are so interesting and valuable.

It also contains a report of current religious intelligence, the Sunday-School Times mentions all the most recent Sunday-school news. It reports all the important Conventions of Sunday-school teachers. It discusses the questions which most interest and perplex teachers and parents, respecting the authorized Sabbath-school books for the young; the means to gather the attention and the affections of children, and especially of securing their conversion and bringing them to Christ. The subject of Mission Schools for China, and of Sunday-school missionary work for the interior, is thoroughly canvassed. Indeed, there is hardly a topic of practical importance in any whose interest is in the subject of Sabbath-school instruction, which does not here find a place, and receive from such a paper, a fair and candid discussion.

The conductors of this paper endeavor to remember that the great end of all Christian effort is to bring souls to Christ. They aim, accordingly, to put before every reader of the paper something which shall have for its aim and object the conversion of souls.
