Pennsylvania Threatened!

The Potomac being very low, about Friday last, the Rebels crossed, near Point of Rocks, at three points. Our forces were scattered along to guard, and made a stout fight, but were too few to stop them. The Rebel force was estimated from 10,000 to over 100,000—nothing sure. They broke telegraph lines, took all the material for food they could, and clothing and shoes especially, of which they stood in greatest need. They paid for some in U.S. money which they had taken from the bodies of our wounded and killed; paid some in their depreciated currency, but took all they wanted, destroying bridges, railways, &c.

The main army held Frederick, and yesterday their advance occupied Hagerstown. They boast, and threaten to take Chambersburg, Gettysburg, York, Harrisburg, and so on east to Philadelphia—also, to sweep down upon Baltimore and Washington.

They are ragged, hungry, desperate, but hopeful.

Some think plunder, and provisions for winter, is their great aim.

Gen. Wool and others are at Harrisburg, preparing to defend our rich but exposed border. Arms and ammunition were sent up from Washington, yesterday.

Of course, our immense forces are not idle, around Washington. Banks is there in command, while M Clellan, Burnside, and other Union Generals, are pushing up the Potomac, to cut off the retreat and communications of Lee and Jackson. Heaven give our leaders wisdom and decision!

GENERAL ORDER—No. 26

Head Quarters, Pennsylvania Militia,
Harrisburg, Sept. 11, 1862.

By authority of the President of the United States, fifty thousand of the freemen of Pennsylvania are hereby called for immediate service to repel the now imminent danger from invasion by the enemies of the country.

Officers in command of company organizations, as authorized by General Order, No. 35, dated Sept. 10th, will at once report, by telegraph, the place of their headquarters, so that orders may be issued from these headquarters for transportation to Harrisburg for such companies as may be ordered to move.

Further calls will be made for additional forces as the exigencies of the service may require. The formation of Companies under the General Order of September 10, should continue to be made as rapidly as possible until all the able-bodied loyal men of Pennsylvania are enrolled and ready for service.

By order of A. G. CURTIN,
Governor and Commander-in-Chief.
A. L. RUSSEL, Adutant General Penn'a.

☞ Capt. M C. Tate was among those in a hospital, last week.....The following named volunteers from New Berlin, or vicinity, were wounded while in the late battles near Bull Run: Jacob Zechman, mortally; Geo. F. Guier, side; Lewis Seebold, breast.....Major Wm. May, of the 19th Indiana Regiment, (formerly of Bannersville, Snyder Co., Pa.,) was wounded near Manassas Junction, lay on the field nearly eight days without any proper food, his wounds were never dressed, and he has died.....Capt. Hassenplug has recovered so as to leave the Hospital, and arrived at Lewisburg yesterday.

FROM CALIFORNIA.—The amendments to the Constitution were adopted by a large majority.

Col. Conner's regiment of California Volunteers have advanced to Diamond Springs, 250 miles east of Carson Valley.

The list of men subject to military duty in San Francisco is complete. It contains 27,800 names.

The election returns, incomplete, show forty-seven Union members of the Assembly elected, and four Union Democrats. Every Democrat Senator is defeated.

Six Douglas and four Breckinridge Democrats hold over, constituting the sole opposition element in the Senate, which has thirty-nine members.

W. F. GRASSLER'S PATENT SELF-COUPLER.

Mr. Grassler, of Lewisburg, last week received letters patent for an invention by which cars can be united and separated while standing upon the platform, above—thus doing away the danger and trouble of operating from below. It seems simple, easy, and effective, and looks as if it might save much labor, risk and life. He is proceeding to get it into actual use, extensively.

☞ War meeting, to-night, Uniontown.

☞ The Conferees of the Opponents of the Administration, adjourned from Sunbury to Milton, and finally persuaded Rev. Mr. Reiminsnyder to throw up his chance for Congress to "Gen." Wm. H Miller, the Clerk of the Supreme Court for the Middle District, Harrisburg. He is a respectable, smooth-tongued lawyer—son of Jesse Miller, the political contractor—is wealthy—and will push hard for the office. As to his "Generalship," it was not gained on the tented field, but in the "piping times of peace,"—and he will be supported by the Patriot & Union, Selinsgrove Times, and all those in this district who people generally distrust as unwise if not doubtful friends of our Government in its life-struggle with Rebellion. A candidate is to be judged by the general political hue of those who put him forward. When this rose-water General resigns his Clerkship for his chance in Congress, we will let you know it.

John J. Patterson, the nominee of the friends of the Administration, was not our first choice, but we submit to the method of selection as we should have asked his friends to do had they been unsuccessful. For two years a member of the Assembly from this district, he proved an able and attentive member, and his vote, according to his pledge, against the Tonnage Tax Repeal, was highly appreciated. He was the first Member of the Legislature to give up his seat and respond to the 3 months' call, and afterwards served on the staff of the late lamented Gen. Wm. H Keim, with whom he was in action under fire. Always right in his political opinions—obliging, and industrious—we hope he may be successful, and prove a faithful exponent of the will of this district in its first choice under the new Apportionment. He has strong personal opponents as well as friends in both parties; yet we hope not a man of the F. W. Hughes stripe will be chosen to represent our State in the next Congress.

"One People—one Destiny."

Every step of the exulting foe nearer the free soil of Pennsylvania, should make her people more and more united in defence of the best Government the world ever saw. Our fathers struggled seven years for the rights we enjoy. However we may differ as to Men or Means, we can not, we do not disagree as to the great fact that our form of government is easy but powerful. The desperate horde now threatening to ravage our State, is very probably the last that can be raised—defeat it, and the last hope of rebellion is broken. The moments are precious.

HUNTERS WANTED!—Men, young or old, who boast of their skill in winging birds, popping off squirrels, or shooting the harmless deer—men who are accustomed to living without shelter in the woods—these are the men needed to meet and thwart the enemy on our Southern border. One such man is worth several raw recruits, for the latter require time and practice to make them useful, while marksmen are wanted now.

☞ The Perry Freeman says the 150th P.V. comprises four companies from Philadelphia, 4 from Crawford, 1 from M'Kean and 1 from Union. Officers—
Colonel—Laughorn Wister, a Captain of Bucktails in action before Richmond.
Lieut. Col—..... Heidecoper, Meadville.
Major—Thomas Chamberlin, Lewisburg.
They were to leave to-day, but probably will be retained for State defence.

☞ If any of the United States are vitally bound up in the UNION, it is California. What would she be without the bond of alliance with the East? Yet her Senator, Latham, was suspected of being unsound on the Union question, by opposing some of the measures, deemed necessary to put down Rebellion, and he is ousted! They MEAN "Union," when they SAY "Union," in California.

The German Reformed Messenger has a long and able article on the evils of Politics—particularly as to the intemperance, laziness, and bad habits induced, and the too common fact, that when some men get an office, they are not content to make what they can from it honestly, and return to their former calling, but are afterwards worthless for any other purpose except to work and hunt for some other office.

☞ The two 300,000 calls, require 827 men from Union county, and the Special Call for Old Regiments we see estimated at 169 more—996 in all. As 806 were reported, there remain 190—say 200—to make up by enlistments this week, or drafts next. This is about 1 to 15 of the population. The Call for 50,000 men should yield 3 Companies from Union county.

☞ Father Fries' Sermon, (delivered to the Soldiers at Mifflinburg, Sept. 10, 1812, just half a century ago,) is good and to the point for our day. Any one wishing to read it, can have it by sending 10 cents to C. E. Haas, Mifflinburg.

☞ Messrs. Hunters, Uniontown, will Auction off their Merchandize, the last of next week.

☞ Sept Court, Lewisburg, commences Monday next.

What might have Been!

A few votes would have kept Slavery out of Missouri, and held the Slave Power in check!

A few votes would have elected Clay, and blocked the Texas game, which Benton declared was a Disunion scheme!

Had Scott been elected instead of Pierce, the Kansas war—which was our present war on a small scale—would not have been commenced by the Repeal of the Missouri Compromise!

A few votes would have kept Buchanan, Breckinridge, Floyd, Thompson, Cobb, and a thousand perjured traitors, in army and navy, from using the U. S. power to put down U. S. authority!

Ballots would have done what balls and bayonets must now do—preserved Liberty, and cemented the Union!

Ah! voting is a power, a talent, whose misuse may bring evil long afterward!

—"Prevention is better than Cure," is the philosophy of the issue. Pennsylvanians, accustomed to arms, can now be of most use in saving our State. Delays are dangerous.

Two more Companies!

Capt Forrest in the North Ward, and Capt. Shorkley in the South Ward, Lewisburg, have been drilling Companies this week, which are now awaiting orders to go to Harrisburg. They comprise our best men of every calling in life. Any in the country wishing to join them can do so.

☞ Half a century ago, the enemy, having captured and burned Washington, threatening Baltimore, and Philadelphia, the Pennsylvanians were called upon to repel the invaders. Some who read these lines, were drafted—marched as far as Marcus Hook—never saw the foe—but did their duty, all returned safely, and never regretted their venture.

☞ By invitation, Maj. Charles H. Shriner, last week spoke at York, Pa., much to the satisfaction of the people. More than one old Democrat joined heartily in the applause following his comparisons of the Hughes and Breckinridge faction to that of the Blue Lights of the last war and those who were not Whigs in the Revolution.

☞ Messrs. Isaac and Griggs Marsh have procured a patent for a new, simple and useful improvement in roofing tile. Isaac Marsh, of Milton, is the inventor.

☞ P. Pontius Irwin takes charge of the Mifflinburg Academy, Wm. H. Roshong having been invited to an Institution at Grand Rapids, Michigan.

☞ Already, a family has reach Lewisburg, from Greencastle, on the State line—not desiring to run the risk of Rebel rule.

☞ Sunday School Celebration at the Dreisbach Church, Saturday, Sept. 13th.

☞ Capt. James Hayes is still receiving Cavalry recruits.

MIFFLINBURG, Sept 6, 1862.

Messrs. Worden & Cornelius—As it has been reported to me that some men in your town have endeavored to misrepresent me in regard to the part I took to heal the rupture that existed in Capt. Crotzer's Company, I enclose you a statement, made by a majority of the dissatisfied portion, which, if published in your paper, might rectify the error into which many may have been led.

Yours truly, J. W. SANDS.

CAMP SIMMONS, Sept. 4, 1862.

Whereas, an invidious report has been circulated in the county of Union, calculated to injure the character of J. W. SANDS—be it known to all whom it may concern, that we the undersigned feel ourselves aggrieved and had determined to separate from the Company we went with, before we knew that Mr. Sands intended to visit our camp, but after his arrival there we with one accord desired him to take command of the Company we were determined to form. He like a true soldier said that he was willing to lead us on, and would do so with pleasure, but, under the circumstances, could not do it, as it would be doing Captains Crotzer and Merrill injustice—it would leave them with only parts of Companies—and urged us to return and dwell together like brethren, be united against the enemies of our free institutions, and not fight among ourselves, as we would very soon have enough fighting to do in Rebeldom—and it is mainly thro' his influence and exertions that we were induced to re-unite with the original company. We make this brief statement in justice to Mr. Sands, and trust that all reasonable men will not fail to appreciate the good services he has rendered the entire Company, for had it not been for him we should have been separated to this day. (signed)

J M Chambers, J H Harter, Wm Stitzer, S P Snyder, Albert Foster, S G Gutelius, Wm Hurch, James A Lucas, Jos B Roehl, Sam'l P Rohle, Hiram Smith, B Heffmaster, Wm B Miller, John May, John Diehl, Henry A Fies, Jacob D Frutzman, Geo Murray, Jacob Fillman, Adam Diehl, Wm Eberhart, C E Mader, Henry Wittenmeyer, Jacob Boyer, Samuel F Hassenplug, Nathan Pick, George W Weiser, Isaac Eisenhower, Henry Deal, S E Foust, Fisher Gutelius, J M Chambers, H M Kieffer, James Cummings, (a German signature, not translated,) Abram Kuhn, John Stanert, Abm Lynn, John S Bird, C H Gutelius, H W Lashells, M Breyman, Joseph S Gutelius, Isaac Zellers, Wm Stahl.

CAPT. ROUSH'S COMPANY.—John Stevers, of Selinsgrove, was killed in one of the recent engagements. He leaves a wife and one child. Robert Calvert was wounded in the knee. Six others, of Company B, 6th Reserves, were wounded, but we have not ascertained their names. The flag of this company was pierced by ten of the enemy's balls.
