Poetical Superscription.

Post Master—Sir: This letter take,
And bear it to my wife:
I left her for sweet Freedom's sake—
For her I pledged my life.
Her given name is LUCY ANN,
Her husband's name is LOWE—
The self-same chap, good Uncle Sam!
Is fighting for you now.
In Almond, Allegheny Co.,
New York, abides my dear;
So hand you this from said P. O.,
And bring an answer here.

THE COPPERHEAD LOVE OF "FREE SPEECH."—Copperheads are singularly inconsistent. They loudly clamor for "Free Speech," and yet have been its most violent opposers, and still bitterly oppose it when that speech is not in their favor. As an illustration: At the demonstration held in New York to denounce the arrest of Vallandigham, and assert the right of free speech, an old gentleman was introduced to the platform, who said:

"Fellow Democrats. I am not John Brown—I am not Horace Greely—I am not Wendell Phillips—I am no Bennett of the Herald—I am not Abraham Lincoln—I am a Democrat—a life long Democrat. I never voted for any but a Democrat. Abraham Lincoln did not commence this war [Hisses and applause.] South Carolina commenced this war, by attacking Fort Sumpter." ["Put him down."] Amid great confusion, the old man raised his voice and continued, "I am here, to-night, through an invitation of posters all over the city, as a friend of free speech." ["Put him down!" and in a rough manner the old man was dragged from the rostrum.]

That's the kind of "free speech" the Copperheads favor—at a meeting called, as they say, to protect "free speech." Such scoundrels must think that the people are a set of idiots, and can not see through such glaring inconsistencies.

FEARFUL RECORD.—An army officer writes from Louisiana to the Boston Transcript that the camps of the Black regiment in Banks' army are models of neatness and order, and that but one man in the whole command has been punished for misconduct. Never were men seen to fight with more dauntless courage and devotion than these raw recruits. He adds:

"Every man presenting himself to be recruited strips to the skin, to be surveyed by the Surgeon. We do not accept one half that offer. On Tuesday, out of 82 only 33 were accepted. I have directed my Surgeons to keep accurate lists of the causes of rejection. They report to me that not one in fifteen is free from marks of severe lashing. More than one half are rejected because of disability arising from lashing with whips and the biting of dogs on their calves and thighs. It is frightful. Hundreds of them have welts on their back as large as one of your largest fingers. I intend to have these memoranda collected and published, with certificates of Surgeons."

Some Difference.—The correspondents of the N. Y. Tribune captured by the Rebels, are held in captivity in the Libby prisons. Vallandigham is feasted, toasted, petted, smuggled out into English ships, and all to aid in dividing the North so as to prolong the War! The South know who are their friends to let loose, and who are their enemies to keep fast. They rightly claim and recognize Val. as an efficient ally: he advised, at Newark, N. J., the "invasion of the North," and, following his counsels, eight or ten thousand men were slain, and twice that number wounded, at Gettysburg.

Capt. Patrick O'Murphy, 115th Pennsylvania, has been dismissed for drunkenness. Hospital Steward Chas. N. Snyder, U. S. A., has also been dismissed for drunkenness. Col. William Northedge, 57th N. Y. V., has been dismissed the service for attempting to excite mutiny. The Government want to do no injustice, but they weed out bad men as fast as they safely can.

A correspondent in Leavenworth says that the 1st Kansas Colored Regiment "is the best disciplined and most perfectly drilled regiment in the Union service." They were drilling for nine months before the Government would receive them as soldiers. The writer proposes, after the war, a standing army of 100,000 colored soldiers.

A dispatch from Hagerstown says that "the rear guard of Lee's army left Martinsburg at 2 o'clock on Saturday morning, a few cavalrymen picketing the other side of the Potomac. Our whole force is across the river. The Potomac is falling rapidly. Gen. Lee is retreating his main force by Strasburg and Stanton, not by Culpepper."

The Catholic Bishop of Iowa, on Sunday week, in a sermon at Dubuque, pointedly denounced the Golden Circle or Copperhead secret organization. He would give those members of the church who had joined the organization, two weeks to leave it, and then, if they still continued in it, they might consider themselves excommunicated.

Gen. Burnside's order denouncing traitors to be shot, and removing rebel sympathizers beyond the rebel lines, has produced a magical change in his department. Men who formerly sported rebel emblems, have quietly removed them, and this government is more respectfully spoken of than before in the barrooms.

They are offering rewards for the recent rioters in New York, recovering property stolen, and holding inquests on the dead. The leading merchants are liberal to the sufferers, and the first lawyers aid colored people in securing their rights. And the draft is to be completed forthwith.

Both the sons of the Hon. Edward Everett—one of whom has just graduated at Cambridge, England—have been drafted in Boston. Both have made up their minds to serve in person, instead of procuring a substitute or paying the $300.

THE DAY SCHOOL BELL.

A New Singing Book for day schools, called the Day School Bell, is now ready. It contains about 200 choice Songs, Rounds, Catches, Duetts, Trios, Quartetts, and Choruses, many of them written expressly for this work, besides 32 pages of the Elements of Music. The Elements are so easy and progressive, that ordinary teachers will find themselves entirely successful in instructing even young scholars to sing correctly and scientifically, while the tunes and words combine such a variety of lively, attractive and soul-stirring music and sentiments, that no trouble will be experienced in inducing all beginners to go on with zeal in acquiring skill in one of the most health giving, beauty improving, happiness-yielding and order-producing exercises of school life. In complicity of its elements, in variety and adaptation of music, and in excellence and number of its songs, original, selected and adapted, it claims by much to excel all competitors. It will be found to be the best ever issued for Seminaries, Academies and Public Schools. A few sample pages of the Elements, Tunes, and Songs are given in a circular; send and get one. It is compiled by HORACE WATERS, author of "Sabbath School Bells," Nos. 1 and 2, which have had the enormous sale of 200,000 copies. Prices—paper cover, 20 cents, $15 per 100; bound, 50 cents, $22 per 100; cloth bound, embossed, gilt, 40 cents, $30 per 100. 25 copies furnished at the 100 price. Mailed free at the retail price
