THURSDAY, MARCH 22, 1877

Elizabeth N. J., March 18.-Catharine Neu, aged eighty-three committed suicide this morning by throwing herself head first into a cistern. No cause for her suicide is known.

It is now suspected that the fireat Karns City was the work of incendiaries who first murdered Mr. Brown, one of the guests of the hotel and then set fire to the building to conceal the mileage each way and a registry law,

New York, March 16 .- John McKeon, counsel for Peter B. Sweeney, said this evening he had not seen him. Rumors are current that negotiations are in progress to compromise all the ring suits and it is believed that Tweed will before many days walk out of Ludlow Street Jail a free man.

There is said to be about $1,000,000 now lying in the vaults of the Chester County bank, and about $750,000 in the First National bank. At no time since the organization of either of these monied institutions have the deposits been so heavy. It bespeaks a very comfortable first of April to those who require financial assistance.

Stanley Matthews was elected United States senator by the legislature of Ohio Tuesday. He received twenty votes in the senate, the thirteen democratic senators voting blank, and sixty-four votes in the house against six for Gather and one for Hurd, thirty-four democrats casting blank votes.

The Bank of Lansingburgh, N. Y., has suspended on account of the depre. ciation of the assets. A. D. Powers was appointed receiver on Saturday last. The liabilities of the bank are $875,000, and the nominal assets $1,150,-000. The suspension is though to have been caused by speculation in New Jersey Central and other railroad B'ocks.

Washington, March 19 .- In the case of Mary E. Oliver against ex-Senator Simon Cameron, action for breach of promise, in which $50,000 damages are claimed, the defendant has filed his plea as follows: "And now comes the defendant, and for pleato the declaration filed against him in the above entitled cause says that he never promised as alleged."

Cincinnati, March 19 .- A shocking affair occurred in the outskirts of this city this afternoon. The little sixyear-old daughter of Daniel Boote, living on Walnut Hill, was feeding a monstrous English bull-dog, as she was often in the habit of doing, when the vicious animal attacked her and began literally to tear her to pieces. The screams of her mother brought the neighbors to the spot, but the beast could not be torn from his prey till a bullet had been sent through his head. The wounded brute then sprang at the officer who shot him and nearly threw him to the ground; he also bit Mrs. Boote severely during the struggle. The child was alive when rescued, but she is so mangled and torn that her recovery is impossible. The dog seems to have been intent upon devouring her alive.

Omaha, Neb., March 16-The Missouri river is just now full of floating ice, the result of the recent cold snap and an immense ice-gorge has formed in the Big Bend, in a northeasterly direction from the smelting works causing the stream to rise at that point and overflow the bottom on the Iowa side for over a quarter of a mile. Opposite the smelting works the water pours down over the Iowa bank into the main channel forming a series of falls from four to six feet high and over two hundred in number. At one place the southern point the fall is from forty to fifty feet wide and about six feet high This cut-off is what has been expected for several years and it was thought when it did occur it would form a now channel where this body of watea is now rushing over the bottom. It may be that the gorge will a permanent cut and thus allow the water its old course.

John D. Lee to be Shot on Friday.

Salt, Lake, March 21.-The friends John D. Lee, who is condemned to be shot on Friday next, have sent numerous petitions signed by prominent Mormons and Gentiles asking for commutation of sentence, or pardon, to Governor Emory, but the evidence of guilt being so clear, and the offense so heinous, the Governor has te-day, in answer to telegrams from the United States marshal at Beaver, inquiring if he had anything further to communicate relative to Lee, to Lee, replied "nothing whatever." This indicates that Lee's doom is sealed.

The Starving Poor of Scranton. Scranton, March 16 .- The committee appointed at the mass meeting of the unemployed mechanics and laborers for the purpose of obtaining relief for the starving poor waited on the mayor yesterday to ask his co-operaion. The mayor pledged himself to use his best efforts in their behalf, and assured them that assistance would be granted without delay. A meeting of business man will be held this evening to form relief committees and take such other action as may be necessary to give imediate assistance to the suffering poor. The chairman of the workingmen's meeting says the men were growing impatient, and that nothing but prompt relief would retain them from riot and plunder. Even now it is a difficult matter to pacify the most desperarte of their number who have been driven almost to madness by the wails of their wives and children crying for bread.

Ex-President Grant has been sued for $190,000 damages by a lunatic whom he caused to be imprisoned.

John Scott, of Rockdale, took his last smoke yesterday. He set fire to his tobacco, his bed and his clothing and gently smoked himself to death.

New Haven, March 21 .- John W. Barnes, an employee of E. Malley, absconded this afternoon with $1,200 cash, and checks to amount to several thousand dollars intrusted to him to deposit. He is supposed to have gone to New York.

Governor Hubbard, of Connecticut, has vetoed a bill giving members of the Legislature twenty-five cents on the ground that the requirement that an elector shall be made an elector anew when he removes to another town is an unconstitutional interference with the franchise.
