TWO CASES THOUGHT TO BE CONSUMPTION CURED.

Dr. Fenner's Blood and Liver Remedy and Nerve Tonic is decidedly the best remedy for Chronic Coughs. In recent colds and coughs his Improved Cough Honey readily cures. But in coughs and lung and throat diseases of long standing, the system must be cleansed and regulated and impressed with the healing influence of the Blood Remedy. It places the system in a healing condition. Then the Improved Cough Honey, used with it, readily causes long standing coughs to yield. The following illustrates its success in severe couhgs. Woodland, Cal., June 19, 1873.

Dr. M. M. Fenner, Fredonia, N. Y .- Dear Sir-Please send me2 doz. bottles Blood and Liver Remedy and Nerve Tonic I have cured two cases that were called consumption of an aggravated type here, with it. I use your Improved Cough Honey with it in these cures.

P. CRANDALL. From Major J. W. McNutt, late of 14th Pennsylvania Cavalry. McNutt House, New Bethlehem, Pa July 12 '75 Dr. M. M. Fenner, Fredonia, N. Y .- Dear Sir-In March last my son Elwood had terrible cough, resulting from measles, procured two bettles of your Improved Cough Honey, which produced a complete and permanent cure. I have recommended it to others, and know its action and success are always certain. I consider it the bes cough remedy now known. No one who has over tried it would be without it when needed or fail to recommend it to his friends. It is pleasant to take. Children do not object to Yours truly, J. W. M'NUTT,
