A Vigorous War.

This is the universal desire of the American people—the great cry uprising from all hearts. The Baltimore American gives vent to this intense sentiment in the following words:

"And now, with this complication of its hands, it is to be hoped that the Government will make good use of the breathing time afforded it to work out some good results. Sustained by the people at large as no Government has ever been here since we were a nation; bearing with unparalleled patience and seemingly endless delays to which earnest hopes have been subjected, the nation cannot but look for something decisive now; cannot but hope for the consummation of those movements which are to end—it is hoped—in restoring the integrity of the Union. Placed upon the rack of suspense for so long a period, tormented with foreign complications growing out of domestic treason, if the confidence of the people is to be preserved for a much longer period some decisive results must be speedily reached, unless a tacit confession is to be made that those to whose hands our destinies are consigned are unequal to their task. The long agony the nation has endured cannot be much longer protracted; its confidence must not be abused. To fairly vindicate our position abroad we must be successful in maintaining our power at home; and it is idle, in the present state of the world, to make cool diplomacy do, in all respects, the work of armies and navies; it is folly to suppose that mere talk will answer when all are disposed to appeal to the dernier resort."

River News.

THE RIVER AND WEATHER—ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES—BOATS LEAVING TO-DAY, ETC., ETC.—The river continues to recede slowly at this point, with but three feet eight inches reported on Glass House Ripple. The weather yesterday was cloudy, blustery and cold, with a light snow falling at times. The river is still entirely clear of ice, but should the present weather continue any length of time, navigation will soon be suspended. There was but comparatively little business transacted at the wharf, the offerings of freight for below being rather limited. The receipts, however, were very large. The arrivals during the past two days were the Mariner, Kunna, and Lavina Logan from Cincinnati, Denmark and Commercial from Louisville, Dacotah from St. Louis. We quote at $2,50 to $3, as to quality. The Science for Gallipolis and Minerva from Wheeling, were the departures for below. The Economy from Cincinnati, and Undine from Gallipolis, were due last night. The latter had returns, as usual, to-morrow at 4 p. m. Capt. Stoops, of the Jacob Poe, informs us that he will be compelled to lay up for a few days in order to make some repairs. The Poe is an excellent boat, and Capt. S. is universally acknowledged to be one of the most affable commanders on the Western waters. As will be seen by card, the neat little steamer COTTAGE, Capt. J. G. Saint, is announced to run regularly between Pittsburgh and Lucesco, on the Allegheny river. She will leave here daily at 4 p. m., and Lucesco at 7 a. m.

FOR ST. LOUIS—The Arago, Capt. Thos. H. Golding, will positively leave for St. Louis this morning. Mr. John Lamont is the clerk. The Commercial will be the next on the list, leaving on Saturday.

FOR CINCINNATI AND LOUISVILLE—The Linden, Capt. Hartman, and Economy, Capt. Shunk, are both announced to leave as above on Saturday.
