FRIDAY MORNING MAY 2

LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[FROM OUR EVENING EDITION.]

Important from New Mexico--The Rebels Retreating from the Territory--Indian Depredations, etc.

ST. LOUIS, May 1.—Mr. Mitchell, a merchant of New Mexico, arrived in this city yesterday. He confirms the abandonment of Santa Fe by the rebels, who were retreating as fast as they could from the territory. They are destitute of all their munitions and provisions, and there is no hope of their being supplied from any quarter.

At Santa Fe the rebels levied heavily on the merchants, in some cases taking as high as fifteen thousand dollars' worth of goods, paying with Confederate scrip.

It is believed that Gen. Canby would now follow the rebels and drive them out of the territory. No doubt exists of the ability of the Federal troops to keep out the invaders; but an accession of two or three regiments of troops will be necessary to keep the Apaches and Navajoes in subjection. They have been committing depredations for months past, stealing horses, mules and everything that comes in their way.

The report of the formation of a territorial government under rebel authority is without foundation. All the territorial officers had returned to Santa Fe and resumed the performance of their duties.

Chief Justice Benedict is on his way to the States. There is no United States Judge now in the territory.

The Tax on Feathers, Iron and Cotton Towels.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The French war steamer Gassendi, left here this morning.

Certain New York importers having claimed the entry of Gairich feathers at the rate of 10 per cent., the Secretary of the Treasury, on appeal has directed that they must pay 30 per cent., stating that the term employed in the act of August last, of feathers, is a general one, unaccompanied by any qualification as to variety or condition.

He has also decided that octagonal iron having been made to assume a form different from any one of those specified in the law, is subject to a duty of $20 per ton.

Also, that cotton towels, although the proportion of color in the whole fabric is small, yet, which are introduced for the purpose of making the article more beautiful, and thereby enhancing its value, must pay a duty of 10 per centum additional to the 7½ cents per square yard provided by law.

The Case of Col. Jennison--Gens. Sturgis and Denver to be Removed.

ST. LOUIS, May 1.—Col. Jennison received a letter yesterday from a Senator in Washington city which stated in emphatic terms that an order relieving Generals Sturgis and Denver from their commands in Kansas, had been forwarded from the War Department. Col. Jennison was yesterday relieved of his personal parole, and is now only obliged to report by letter. Under this liberty he expects to leave to-day for Washington.

From Old Point.

BALTIMORE, May 1.—The letter received from Old Point contains nothing except the new arrangement of harbor-masters, by which all merchant vessels are required to report on arrival to the Captain of the port, and are not allowed to leave without permission, or at all after dark or before daylight. Not a word in reference to anything else.

PITTSBURGH, THURSDAY, May 1, 1862.

[NOTE.—The quotations given in the following Review, it must be understood, are the wholesale prices, except where otherwise noticed, and that in all cases in the filling of small orders to the city and country trade, an advance of three to five ⅌ cent. will be charged over these quotations.]

APPLES—The supply of Apples is exhausted, with the exception of a few lots of inferior quality, which sell at from $2 to $3.50 per bbl.

ASHES—We note a sale of 6 cks Potash at 5¾c. Pearls quiet at 6@6¼c. No change in Soda Ash.

A Judge Sharpless, you will remember, was among the prisoners captured at Island No. 10, a few days since. The "Judge" is an old steamboat clerk, well known in Cincinnati and Pittsburgh, and to-day has an interesting family residing in Newport.
