LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[FROM OUR EVENING EDITION.]

THE INVASION OF MARYLAND.

RECONNOISSANCE NEAR WILLIAMSPORT.

Retreat of the Rebels Across the Potomac.

LEE AND JACKSON MOVING TOWARD MARTINSBURG.

Capture of Rebel Spies.

&c., &c., &c.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 13.—Yesterday, a reconnoissance to the vicinity of North Mountain, about seven miles north of Williamsport, encountered the rebel pickets. We killed two and captured thirteen.

It was discovered that Lee and Jackson had crossed the river near Williamsport, and was moving towards Martinsburgh. Longstreet, it was thought, would cross further up the river.

We have positive information that the railroad and telegraphic communication has been cut off between Harper's Ferry and Cumberland.

The police made an important capture last night, at the house of Dr. L. T. Williamson, seven miles from the city, on the Hookstown road. Having received information that some rebel officers from the invading army were being feted there, the police proceeded thither and surrounded the house, and while those within were having a jolly good time, bagged the whole party, as follows: Harry Gilmer, Captain Co. F, Stewart's cavalry; Grafton D. Cantiris, Lieutenant of same company, disguised in citizen's dress.

They also seized their entertainer, Dr. Williamson; and the following gentlemen friends: J. P. Hayward, J. H. Buchanan, Alex. Carey and Martin McGraw. The whole party were brought to the city and are now in close custody. The police were armed with rifles and prepared for every emergency.

The following booty was also found on the premises: two splendid horses, sword, gun, two revolvers; a large knife, powder flask, some shoes, boots, flannels, sheets, etc., etc., intended for the rebels.

These rebel officers belong to this city. It is thought they will, as they justly should, meet the fate of spies.

LATER.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 13.—As far as is known here, there is no truth whatever in the statement from Baltimore, that the rebels have retreated across the Potomac. It is not believed in official circles. Send on your troops.

BATTLE AT HARPER'S FERRY.

OUR FORCES ATTACKED.

The Enemy Repulsed with great Slaughter.

FREDERICK OCCUPIED BY OUR TROOPS.

&c., &c., &c.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 12.—A gentleman who left Frederick yesterday afternoon says that on Wednesday afternoon heavy firing was heard in the direction of Harper's Ferry, and yesterday morning the secessionists appeared to be very much troubled about the news from that quarter, which was to the effect that Gen. Loring had crossed the Potomac at Williamsport, and marched down to Harper's Ferry, where he attempted to form his line of battle with a view to attack Gen. Miles' forces. Miles opened his masked batteries upon the rebels, and they were repulsed with great slaughter. It is also reported that we took many prisoners.

Before our informant left, Frederick had been nearly evacuated. The rebels commenced moving off on Tuesday night about 30,000 men, portions of whom went round it. They moved, says our informant, in retreating order, with the trains in advance. He has no doubt whatever that our forces occupied Frederick to-day. He thinks the rebels are not bound for Pennsylvania, but have been driven to enter Maryland to get supplies. He confirms all previous accounts of the utter wretched destitution of the rebel hordes.

RETREAT OF THE REBELS IN CONFUSION.

Pursuit by our Forces.

&c., &c., &c.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 13.—The rebel army has fallen back beyond Florence. Some stragglers who were taken by our scouts say they had twenty thousand men, others say only ten thousand advanced this side of Florence under Gen. Heath.

The prisoners say the retreat was made because they heard of Buell's presence in Kentucky and hadn't heard from Bragg.

Our scouts, late last night, report the enemy retreating in confusion.

Loss of Life and Great Destruction of Property by Heavy Rains.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12.—Great destruction of property was caused by the heavy rains today. A large portion of the 21st, 17th and 16th wards were overflowed, damaging property to the amount, it is estimated, of a million dollars. Five persons were drowned. Frankford was also partially overflowed.

The Draft Began in Connecticut.

The draft in Connecticut, which was postponed from the third to the sixth instant, is now in progress in that State. It began on Wednesday in many of the towns. Other towns made up their quotas. In consequence of misunderstandings and objections to the character of the enrollment, there were disorderly proceedings in some places.

In Fairfield a company of soldiers was sent with ball-cartridges to repress disorder; but the drunken men who had made the trouble dispersed on hearing of the approach of the armed force. They had proposed to prevent the draft, in which two of them, it may be added, were afterwards chosen. In New-town the selectmen, who were to make the draft, were prevented by a mob.

Notice of the fact was sent to the United States Marshal at New Haven, who ordered a postponement, and will be prepared to enforce order. In Hartford the draft was made on Wednesday and yesterday. The families of some of the largest property owners of the town are represented among the drafted men. It is said that some persons upon whom the lot has fallen refuse to come up on the day appointed for the rendezvous, and that Governor Buckingham has ordered out one of the militia corps of the town, and will enforce the attendance of the drafted men. There is little apprehension that any general resistance will be made.

In Middletown, where the draft was made on Wednesday, the sum of $1,000 was offered for a substitute and not taken. Among the drafted men was a selectman. He therefore assisted in drafting himself. In Middletown, Milford, Cheshire, Hamden, Bethany, Clinton, North Haven and elsewhere, drafts were completed. Many wealthy citizens were among those who drew "prizes." None of the respectable citizens of the State of Connecticut have been concerned in any objectionable proceeding.—N. Y. Evening Post.

The Invasion of Maryland.

The Baltimore American of Friday afternoon, says:

LATEST FROM THE ARMY.

A gentleman from Ellicott's Mills informs us that a messenger from the vicinity of New Market arrived there during the night, announcing that at six o'clock last evening Gen. Burnside advanced on New Market, and drove the enemy's pickets before him, captured twelve of the force in the town, and took possession. New Market is on the Baltimore turnpike, about eight miles this side of Frederick.

We had an interview this morning with a messenger from Gen. Burnside's corps d'armee, who left Lisbon, on the Baltimore and Frederick turnpike, at six o'clock last evening. Gen. Burnside occupied at that time the Frederick turnpike from Cooksville to Ridgeville with his infantry, and had sent a strong cavalry force, with artillery, forward to New Market. Just as the messenger left the report reached headquarters that the enemy had been driven out of New Market, and some prisoners captured.

The army was in excellent condition, and was moving forward with enthusiasm to meet the enemy.

COMMERCIAL RECORD.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

[Reported specially for the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SATURDAY, Sept. 13.—The general market remains quiet and rather inactive, with no particular change to notice in any of the leading articles. The transactions, generally, continue to be of a local character while in quotations there has been no material change.

LONDON CORN MARKET, August 29.—Wheat, English—Supply of new wheat meets with a slow sale at Monday's prices. Foreign held for late rates. Floating cargoes have not been much dealt in during the week. Flour 6d decline on the week; barrels have a free sale. Indian Corn rather weaker. Barley—Grinding qualities have free sales at late rates. Rye unchanged in value. Peas and beans in fair demand at late prices. Oats—Good Corn brought Monday's quotations.

LIVERPOOL CORN MARKET, August 29.—Under the influence of continued fine weather and large arrivals of foreign grain, the grain trade at the provincial markets this week has ruled dull, and the value of wheat, new as well as old, has generally declined; the average reduction being from 1 to 2 per quarter. A very limited business has been transacted here, wheat and flour being each obtainable on easier terms. The Gazette returns of wheat for the week ending 23d inst., are the smallest of the season amounting only to 42,620 quarters. We have again to report good imports of wheat and flour, with only a small supply of Indian Corn. The exports are to a fair extent.

In other produce no change to advise, while demand has very much diminished for all classes of domestic produce. Sales upon the wharf has not been easily made, and much of the goods delivered by sailing vessels not received in good order. Most of the shipments by steamer Columbia were kept private. Exchanges—Northern arbitrary—no business doing; London 19¾ on 16¾c premium not active; Paris 1 to 1⅛c do. Mexican Dollars—Sales 7¼ to 7¾c premium. Money plenty; interest moderate. Peace on your side would improve our condition.
